

CONTENTS

Preface	page xvii
Acknowledgements	xix
Table of cases	xx
Table of statutes	lxxix

Chapter 1 Introduction	1
I Why have a book on remedies?	2
II What is a remedy?	3
A Monism and dualism	5
B Sources of remedies in Australia	6
C The unjust enrichment school of thought	7
III The common law and equity divide in Australia	9
A Fusion fallacy	10
B Unjust enrichment scholars breaking down the common law and equitable divide	11
C Australian reception of unjust enrichment scholarship	12
D The position of the authors	13
IV A functional approach to remedies	14
A Parts 1 and 2: Compensation	16
B Part 3: Remedies compelling performance and related remedies	18
C Part 4: Remedies as vindication	19
D Part 5: Account of profits and other gain-based relief for wrongs	20
E Part 6: Restitution and giving back	21
F Part 7: Proprietary remedies	22
G Part 8: Enforcement of remedies	22
H Conclusion	22
PART 1 GENERAL PRINCIPLES OF COMPENSATION	23
Chapter 2 Assessment of compensation	25
I Introduction	26
II The compensatory principle and the identification of the wrong	26

III	Losses and benefits	28
	A Non-pecuniary loss	28
	B Cost of repair and diminution in value	28
	C Betterment discount	30
	D Benefits flowing from mitigating actions of the plaintiff	33
	E Other benefits arising from the wrong	36
	F The impact of tax law	37
IV	Certainty of loss and recovery for the loss of a chance	41
	A Overview of the current law	42
	B Consequential loss	44
	C Personal injury as initial harm	45
	D Pure economic loss as initial harm	49
	E Hypothetical conduct of the defendant	54
V	Temporal considerations	57
	A The lump sum rule and the 'once and for all' rule	57
	B Date of assessment	60
	C Relevance of inflation	66
	D Determining the present equivalent of future pecuniary loss	66
	E Interest on compensation awards and compensation for the loss of the use of money	68
Chapter 3 Attribution of responsibility		73
I	Introduction	74
II	The legal concept of causation	74
III	Factual causation	78
	A Overview	78
	B The 'but for' test and its application	79
	C Causal overdetermination (multiple sufficient causes)	81
	1 Duplicative causation	82
	2 Pre-emptive causation	84
	D Evidential uncertainty	85
	1 Inference of factual causation	86
	2 Material contribution to the harm	86
	3 Material increase in risk	88
IV	Scope of liability	91
	A Subsequent event	91
	1 Distinction between basic loss and additional loss	91
	2 Additional loss: intervening event	92
	3 Basic loss: causally independent subsequent event	100
	4 Basic loss: causally dependent subsequent event	103
	B Remoteness of damage	105
	C The purpose of the duty breached	105

D	The plaintiff's contribution to the loss	106
1	Overview of the three relevant doctrines	106
2	Contributory negligence	108
3	Mitigation	109
Chapter 4	Multiple wrongdoers	112
I	Introduction	113
II	Common law rules	114
III	Contribution statutes	117
IV	Proportionate liability statutes	121
V	Interplay of the three regimes	128
PART 2	COMPENSATION IN SPECIFIC CONTEXTS	131
Chapter 5	Compensation for breach of contract	133
I	Introduction	134
II	Assessment of compensation	134
A	Protection of the plaintiff's expectation interest	134
B	Measure of expectation loss in particular contexts	136
1	Failure to deliver goods as promised	137
2	Failure to convey land as promised	141
3	Failure to build, maintain or repair property as promised	142
4	Failure to provide other services as promised	149
C	The impact of Clark v Macourt	150
D	Compensation of reliance loss	152
E	Non-pecuniary loss	156
1	Restrictions at common law	156
2	Restrictions under statute	159
III	Attribution of responsibility	161
A	Remoteness of damage	161
1	The Hadley v Baxendale test	161
2	The significance of the defendant's knowledge of the plaintiff's circumstances	163
3	Assumption of responsibility as overriding criterion?	164
B	Contributory negligence	167
Chapter 6	Compensation in tort	171
I	Introduction	172
II	Assessment of compensation	172
A	General principle	172
B	Specific contexts	172
1	Damage to reputation: defamation	173

2	Damage to land or fixtures	176
3	Other wrongful interference with land	178
4	Damage to goods	179
5	Other wrongful interference with goods	182
6	Defective premises or goods	184
7	Damage to economic interests: reliance on a misrepresentation	187
III	Attribution of responsibility	188
A	Remoteness of damage	189
1	The test of natural and probable consequences	189
2	The test of reasonable foreseeability	190
3	The test of reasonable contemplation	195
4	The 'eggshell skull' rule	197
B	Contributory negligence	199
1	Common law	199
2	Contributory negligence statutes	199
3	Civil liability statutes	200
4	The plaintiff's conduct	201
5	Factual causation and scope of the duty	203
6	Apportionable loss	204
7	Apportionment	204
Chapter 7	Compensation for personal injury and death	208
I	Introduction	209
II	The impact of legislation	209
A	Statutory compensation schemes and ancillary regulation of common law damages	209
B	Civil liability statutes	211
III	Meaning of 'personal injury'	212
IV	Loss suffered by an injured person	214
A	Pecuniary loss resulting from needs created by the injury	215
1	Medical expenses and cost of institutional care	215
2	Domestic services provided to the injured person	215
3	Increased cost of living at home	218
4	Cost of managing a lump sum award	219
B	Pecuniary loss resulting from the impairment of capacities	220
1	Loss of earning capacity	220
2	Loss of employment-related benefits	225
3	Loss of social security benefits	225
4	Loss of capacity to do domestic work	225
C	Non-pecuniary loss	227
1	Pain and suffering	227
2	Loss of amenities	227
3	Loss of expectation of life	228
4	Statutory regulation	229

D	Overlap between different heads of loss	230
V	Benefits arising from an injury	231
VI	Claims based on injury to another person	233
A	Loss of an employee's services	234
B	Loss of consortium	235
VII	Actions on death	237
A	Claim by the estate of the deceased	237
B	Claim by the dependants of the deceased	239
Chapter 8	Compensation under the Australian Consumer Law	247
I	Introduction	248
II	Assessment of compensation	250
A	General principles	250
B	Compensation for misleading or deceptive conduct	251
1	Reliance loss as the general measure of compensation	251
2	Compensation of expectation loss	252
3	Compensation of reliance loss in excess of expectation loss	253
C	Non-pecuniary loss	254
D	Certainty of loss and recovery for the loss of a chance	256
III	Attribution of responsibility	256
A	The common sense test of causation	256
B	Factual causation	257
C	Scope of liability	258
1	Intervening cause	258
2	Foreseeability of the loss	259
3	The purpose of the provision contravened	259
4	The plaintiff's contribution to the loss	260
D	Multiple wrongdoers	262
Chapter 9	Equitable compensation for equitable wrongs	263
I	Introduction	264
II	Assessment of equitable compensation	266
A	Object of equitable compensation	266
B	Recoverability of non-pecuniary loss	267
C	Basic measure of equitable compensation	268
III	Attribution of responsibility	269
A	Breach of trust	270
1	Independent non-wrongful event	270
2	Intervening acts and remoteness of loss	275
B	Breach of fiduciary duty	276
1	Construction of the hypothetical world	276
2	Intervening acts and remoteness of loss	281

3	Contributory negligence	283
4	Mitigation	285
C	Breach of an equitable duty of care	286
1	Scope of liability	286
2	Contributory negligence	287
PART 3	REMEDIES COMPELLING PERFORMANCE AND RELATED REMEDIES	289
Chapter 10	Specific performance	291
I	Introduction	292
II	The nature of specific performance	292
III	The relationship between specific performance and injunctions	294
IV	Inadequacy of damages and subject matter of contract	296
A	Inadequacy of damages	296
B	Subject matter of contract	299
1	Contracts involving land	299
2	Contracts involving goods	301
3	Contracts involving shares and stock	302
4	Contracts to loan money	303
5	Contracts for the benefit of third parties	304
6	Contracts involving intellectual property	305
7	Contracts for services	305
V	Other requirements for specific performance	306
A	Personal remedy	306
B	Binding contract	307
1	Consideration	307
2	Uncertainty	308
3	Illegality	309
4	Impossibility and futility	310
VI	Discretionary factors and bars to relief	312
A	General equitable bars to relief	312
1	Hardship and the public interest	313
2	Lack of clean hands	314
3	Laches: delay with acquiescence and delay with prejudice	315
B	Bars to relief relevant only to specific performance	316
1	Mutuality	317
2	Continuous supervision and personal services	318
3	Readiness and willingness	321
VII	Specific performance under the Australian Consumer Law	321
VIII	Specific restitution or specific delivery of property	322
IX	Debt as a species of specific relief?	324

Chapter 11	Injunctions	326
I	Introduction	327
II	The rights protected by injunctions and inadequacy of damages	329
A	Inadequacy of damages	330
B	The rights protected by injunctions	331
1	Injury to property rights in land	331
2	Injury to property rights in goods and funds of money	332
3	Injury to intellectual property	333
4	Injury to economic rights	333
5	Injury to bodily integrity	335
6	Injury to reputation	336
7	Injury to privacy	336
8	Injunctions restraining breaches of negative covenant in a contract	337
9	Contracts for services	338
III	Quia timet injunctions	340
IV	Discretionary factors and bars to relief	341
A	General equitable bars to relief	341
1	Hardship and the public interest	342
2	Lack of clean hands	343
3	Laches: delay with acquiescence and delay with prejudice	343
B	Bars to injunctions that are equivalent to those in specific performance	343
V	Injunctions under statutes	344
A	Intellectual property	344
B	The Australian Consumer Law	344
C	The Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)	346
D	Other statutory injunctions	346
Chapter 12	'Equitable damages' or Lord Cairns' Act damages	347
I	Introduction	348
II	History	348
III	Advantages of Lord Cairns' Act damages for a plaintiff	349
IV	Jurisdiction to award Lord Cairns' Act damages	350
V	The need for a 'wrongful act' in some Australian jurisdictions	352
A	Australian legislation which mentions 'wrongful act'	352
B	Australian legislation which does not mention 'wrongful act'	353
C	Lord Cairns' Act damages for statutory wrongdoing	354
VI	Factors influencing the exercise of the jurisdiction	354

A	General principles	354
1	Where specific relief is no longer available or in addition to specific relief	354
2	To provide a 'middle ground' solution between no relief and specific relief	355
3	To provide relief for future losses	358
4	To provide novel forms of relief	358
B	The Shelfer criteria	359
VII	The basis of assessment	360
A	Timing	360
B	Gain-based relief – 'reasonable fee' awards	362
C	Loss-based relief – compensatory awards of various kinds	362
1	Where specific relief was impossible, or in addition to specific relief	362
2	Future wrongdoing	363
3	To provide novel forms of relief	363
VIII	Discretionary bars to relief	364
IX	Part 9.5 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth)	365
X	The future of Lord Cairns' Act damages	365
PART 4	REMEDIES AS VINDICATION	367
Chapter 13	Self-help remedies	369
I	Introduction	370
II	Tort and self-help	371
A	Eviction of trespassers and protection of land and goods from trespass	371
B	Self-defence of property	373
C	Self-defence of the person	374
D	Recaption, replevin and specific restitution	375
E	Abatement of nuisance	377
III	Contract and self-help	379
A	Rescission	379
B	Liquidated damages and penalties	380
1	Is this a clause to which the penalties doctrine applies?	381
2	On the facts, is this clause a penalty?	383
3	Should we have a law against penalties at all?	384
C	Debt	385
D	Other stipulated contractual remedies	386
Chapter 14	Exemplary damages and aggravated damages	388
I	Introduction	389
II	Exemplary damages	389

A	The nature and history of exemplary damages in Australia	389
1	Need to make out the 'host' cause of action	392
2	Unavailable if criminal punishment already imposed	393
3	Calculation of exemplary damages	394
B	The causes of action for which exemplary damages can be awarded in Australia	395
1	Exemplary damages available for tort	396
2	Exemplary damages available for breach of some statutes	398
3	Exemplary damages not available for breach of contract	399
4	Exemplary damages not available for equitable wrongdoing	402
5	Exemplary damages not available for breaches of Australian Consumer Law	404
C	Normative objections to exemplary damages generally	405
D	Conclusion on exemplary damages	406
III	Aggravated damages	407
A	The distinction between exemplary damages and aggravated damages	407
B	Availability of aggravated damages in Australian law	409
1	Aggravated damages available for tort	409
2	Aggravated damages available for some statutory causes of action	411
3	Aggravated damages not available for contract	411
4	Aggravated damages not available for equitable wrongdoing	411
5	Aggravated damages available for breaches of the Australian Consumer Law	412
IV	'Vindictory damages'	413
Chapter 15	Apologies and declaratory relief	415
I	Introduction	416
II	Apologies, declarations and nominal damages	416
A	Apologies	416
B	Declarations, nominal damages and contemptuous damages	420
1	Declarations	420
2	Nominal damages	425
3	Contemptuous damages	426
III	Other vindictory remedies under the Australian Consumer Law	427
PART 5	ACCOUNT OF PROFITS AND OTHER GAIN-BASED RELIEF FOR WRONGS	429
Chapter 16	Disgorgement of gains and 'reasonable fee' damages	431
I	Introduction	432

II	The distinction between compensation, restitution and disgorgement and the nature of gain-based remedies	433
	A Compensation	433
	B Restitution	433
	C Disgorgement	434
III	Disgorgement	435
	A Equity and the account of profits	435
	B Election	438
	C Intellectual property and the account of profits	438
	D Torts and 'waiver of tort'	441
	E Breach of contract	443
	F The Australian Consumer Law	447
IV	'Reasonable fee' damages	448
	A Introduction and history	448
	B Academic and judicial accounts	449
	1 Compensatory analyses	449
	2 Restitutory analyses	451
	3 Restitutory and/or compensatory analyses	451
	4 Vindictory analyses	451
	5 Property or exclusive entitlement analyses	452
	6 Partial disgorgement analyses	452
	7 Conclusion	452
	C General patterns	453
	D Equity	453
	E Intellectual property	454
	F Tort	455
	1 Torts protecting proprietary rights in land	455
	2 Torts protecting proprietary rights in goods	457
	3 Other torts	458
	G Contract	459
V	Allowances, discretionary factors and bars to relief	460
	A Allowances for skill and effort	461
	1 Allowances for skill and effort for breach of fiduciary duty	461
	2 Allowances for skill and effort for intellectual property breaches	463
	3 Allowances for skill and effort and disgorgement in contract	464
	B Discretionary factors and bars to relief	464
	1 Hardship	464
	2 Lack of clean hands	465
	3 Delay and acquiescence	465
VI	The future of gain-based relief in Australia	467

PART 6	RESTITUTION AND GIVING BACK	469
Chapter 17	Personal remedies for unjust enrichment	471
I	Introduction	472
II	The elements of unjust enrichment	475
III	Precise remedies for unjust enrichment	477
A	Money claims	477
B	Services claims	477
C	Goods claims	479
IV	Defences to a claim for restitution	479
V	The relationship between contract and restitution for unjust enrichment	480
Chapter 18	Rescission	485
I	Introduction	486
A	Legal rescission	488
B	Equitable rescission	489
C	Rescission under the Australian Consumer Law	490
II	The requirement of restitutio in integrum	491
III	Election	494
A	How to make an election to rescind	495
B	The consequences of an election to rescind	496
C	The reasons behind the election requirement	499
IV	'Partial' rescission	499
V	Bars to rescission	501
A	Impossibility of complete restoration	502
B	Affirmation	503
C	Delay	503
D	Intervening third party rights	504
E	Executed contracts and innocent misrepresentation	506
PART 7	PROPRIETARY REMEDIES	509
Chapter 19	Proprietary remedies	511
I	Introduction	512
II	Proprietary remedies	513
A	Constructive and resulting trusts	513
B	Proprietary powers	516
C	Equitable liens	517
III	Criteria for award of proprietary remedies	518
A	Proprietary remedies and unconscionability	520

B	Proprietary remedies and perfection	521
C	Proprietary remedies and unjust enrichment	522
D	Proprietary remedies and wrongdoing	527
IV	Discretionary factors and bars to relief	531
V	The need for more defined criteria	531
PART 8	ENFORCEMENT OF REMEDIES	533
Chapter 20	Enforcement of remedies	535
I	Introduction	536
II	Interlocutory injunctions	536
A	Legal, equitable or statutory right	537
B	'Serious question to be tried' (or a 'prima facie case')	538
C	The balance of convenience	540
1	Likelihood of success	540
2	Irreparable injury, hardship and inadequacy of damages to the plaintiff	541
3	Hardship to the defendant and third parties	542
4	Adequacy of undertaking as to damages for the defendant	543
5	Delay on the part of the plaintiff	543
6	Example of the balancing process	543
D	Mandatory interlocutory injunctions	544
E	Quia timet interlocutory injunctions	545
F	Interlocutory injunctions which finally determine the matter	545
G	Undertakings as to damages	546
H	Interim injunctions under statute	546
III	Other pre-judgment remedies	547
A	Arrest of the person	547
B	Freezing orders (Mareva orders)	549
C	Search orders (Anton Piller orders)	551
IV	Post-judgment enforcement	552
A	Enforcement of money remedies	553
1	Historical background	553
2	Current Australian law	553
B	Enforcement of specific remedies	557
1	Enforcement against property	557
2	Coercive enforcement: imprisonment, sequestration and fines	557
	Index	561