TEACHER DEVELOPMENT

Strategy 1: Classroom Management – Collaboration

In this unit, we're going to focus on collaboration – that is, helping students work together and feel comfortable with classmates. By encouraging collaboration, teachers can create positive learning environments for students. This is just as important for students who only attend part-time, or for a few weeks, as it is for students attending longer, full-time courses. Learning names is an important first step – both for teachers and for classmates. Creating synergy, or providing activities which show students how they can achieve more by working together, is another thing teachers can do right from the beginning of a course.

Learning names (Activity 1): Ss mingle and learn each other's names. Try this after Start Speaking.

Creating synergy (Activity 2): Ss work together to recreate a simple text. Try this in lesson 1.3.

To find out more, read pages 76–87 from Classroom Management Techniques by Jim Scrivener. Please go to www.cambridge.org/evolve to download these pages.

INTRODUCE THE THEME OF THE UNIT

- Write Where are you from? and I'm from [your country]. on the board. Model the question and answer.
- Crush up a piece of paper to use as a ball, gently throw the paper to a S, and ask: Where are you from? Elicit: *I'm from*_____.
- Have the S toss the ball back to you and repeat your question. Repeat. Have Ss pass the ball of paper between each other, asking and answering.

UNIT OBJECTIVES

Read the unit objectives aloud. Tell Ss to listen and read along. Explain any new vocabulary Ss may not understand.

START SPEAKING

OPTIONAL ACTIVITY Ss watch the video to find out where Josue is from.

REAL STUDENT

Hello, my name is Josue Lozano. I am from Tegucigalpa in Honduras.

ACTIVITY 1

Learning Names

Teachers can create good rapport between students by ensuring they know each other's names. This helps them ask each other for help with tasks, refer to others during feedback, and interact more naturally.

- Ss complete the START SPEAKING task.
- Ask Ss to call out their names, one by one. Write them on the board.
- Draw a 3x3 grid on the board. Ask Ss to copy it.

- Ss choose nine names from the board and write one name in each square. The teacher does the same with the grid on the board.
- Demonstrate the next stage with two students.
 - T Hello. I'm (your name).
 - S I'm Simone.
 - T Nice to meet you. (T crosses out "Simone" from grid.)
 - T Hi. I'm (your name).
 - S Hi. I'm Roberto.
 - T Nice to meet you.
- Ss move around the classroom, using model dialogue, trying to find people on their grid.

I'M BRAZILIAN. AND YOU?

- Introduce the task Display a map of the world from the internet or write a list of countries on the board.
- Point to different countries and ask Ss to identify them in English. Ask: What's this country? What is the capital city?
- Say or write on the board true and false sentences, e.g., The capital city of Brazil is São Paulo. Quito is the capital city of Ecuador.

New York City is the capital city of the United States.

Use countries from the chart in the lesson. Ask Ss if the sentences are true or false, and to correct the false statements.

VOCABULARY SUPPORT Remind Ss that countries are nouns and nationalities are adjectives. Help Ss understand what nouns and adjectives are.

1 VOCABULARY: Countries and nationalities

- A (1) 1.03 Before Ss fill in the chart, remind them of the map you displayed to start the lesson.
 - Ss complete the chart individually as best they can.
 - When Ss have finished, play the audio and ask them to check their chart.
 - Play the audio while Ss read and pause after each line. Ss repeat. Listen for any pronunciation errors.

Answers

1 Brazilian 2 Colombia 3 Mexico 4 Russian

VOCABULARY SUPPORT Make it clear to Ss that / am is the same as I'm. The form with the apostrophe is the contracted, or shortened, form.

Iam = I'm

you are = you're

Using the contracted form makes the language less formal and is common in spoken English.

EXTRA ACTIVITY

Give Ss up to ten nationalities to learn for the next class. In the next session, dictate the ten nationalities for Ss to spell on pieces of paper with their books closed. Ask Ss to exchange papers and correct their partner's work before you elicit answers and write them on the board.

say where you're from

LESSON OBJECTIVE

- B Direct Ss to page 141 to complete the vocabulary exercises. Teacher tips for vocabulary exercises are on page T-141.
- C PAIR WORK Review If possible, put Ss in different pairs to give them a chance to listen to different people talk. Circulate and monitor.

2 LANGUAGE IN CONTEXT

A Ask Ss to do this individually and then share with a partner. Elicit answers. Then ask Ss to read again aloud in pairs with each S taking a role.

Answers

Gabi: São Paulo Max: Moscow Karina: Medellín Max is a teacher. Antonio: Mexico City

Ø EXTRA ACTIVITY

Ask Ss to choose a capital city and a country from the chart in exercise 1, then ask them to stand up and walk around the classroom. They should ask: Where are you from? and respond: I'm from [a country]. using the city and country they have chosen. They should talk with as many members of the class as possible. Monitor and correct pronunciation.

3 GRAMMAR: I am, you are

- A Present the grammar Before Ss circle the answers, explain that they can refer to the examples in the grammar box.
 - Use concept questions to check that Ss understand. Ask: Are you from Bogotá? to elicit Yes, I am / No, I'm not.
 - To practice negatives, tell Ss you will give them a positive sentence and they must make it negative. Say: I'm from Madrid to elicit I'm not from Madrid. Repeat with other questions.
 - Answer any questions Ss may have about the grammar.

Answers

1 Are you ...? 2 Yes, I am. 3 No, I'm not.

GRAMMAR SUPPORT It can be impolite to answer a question with simply Yes or No. Remind Ss that they should use short answers: Yes, I am. or No, I'm not. to avoid sounding rude.

B Ss complete the sentences individually before sharing their answers with their partner.

Answers

1 I 2 You 3 Are 4 am

🖉 EXTRA ACTIVITY

Ask Ss questions individually. Ask Are you from Quito? and Ss respond Yes, I am or No, I'm not. Ask other questions: Are you in room 3A? / Are you Mexican? / Are you a teacher?

- C Direct Ss to page 129 to complete the grammar exercise. Teacher's tips for grammar exercises are on page T-129.
 - Remind Ss that in English we need pronouns to accompany verbs, in either long or short forms.
 - Am Spanish should be I am Spanish or I'm Spanish as in the sentences in the Accuracy check. Is English should be He is English or He's English.
 - Write the following sentences on the board and ask Ss to write the correct versions before they check with a partner.
 - 1 Am from Honduras.
 - 2 Yes, am Peruvian.
 - 3 No, am not American.

Answers

- 1 I am / I'm from Honduras.
- 2 Yes, I am / I'm Peruvian.
- 3 No, I am / I'm not American.

D After Ss have written their sentences, they share them with their partner. Elicit answers from confident speakers in the class. If you have a small class, mark Ss' sentences individually.

Answers

- 1 I'm Alex.
- 2 I'm from Orlando.
- 3 l'm American.
- 4 I'm from the United States.
- E PAIR WORK Do the task Model a sample dialogue with a volunteer. As Ss do the role play, circulate to listen for errors and good use of language.

4 SPEAKING

- A GROUP WORK Ask Ss to imagine a new identity. Completing this task will help Ss in the next section. If Ss can't think of a place, they can use a town and city from the list on page 2 to help them.
 - OPTIONAL ACTIVITY Before you play the video, make sure Ss know that they should listen for Anderson's city, nationality, and country. Ask Ss to watch the video then share their answers with a partner. Play multiple times if necessary.

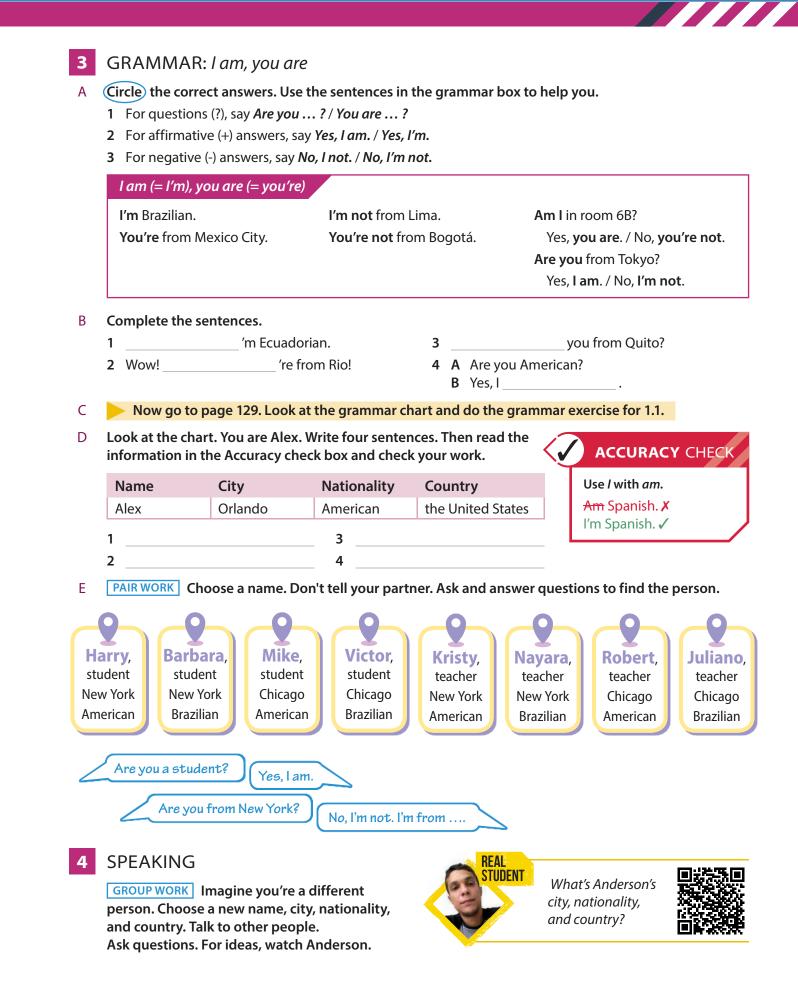

REAL STUDENT

VOCABULARY SUPPORT Don't worry about repeating audio or reading text again. Repetition is a good way for Ss to learn.

• Review Encourage Ss to circulate around the classroom, sharing their information with other members of the class. Get involved yourself and interact with the Ss. Monitor for examples of language usage, such as pronunciation and grammar, and provide feedback at the end.

Draw a tic-tac-toe grid with 3x3 squares on the board. Write one word in each square. Put Ss into two teams (X and O). Ask Ss from the X team to choose a square and make a sentence or a question with the word, e.g., His name is Paulo. or What's your name? If the sentence is correct, write X in the square. Repeat with the O team. Ss continue to take turns. The first team which connects three Xs or Os in a row (vertically, horizontally, or diagonally) wins. For full details on how to play tic-tac-toe, see page T-251.

MY PROFILE

Introduce the vocabulary Write the word Jobs on the board. Underneath this, write server. Then, without speaking, act the role of a server, pretending to take an order, carry a tray, put plates in front of Ss, etc. Then point to the board and elicit server. Repeat with several other jobs taught in 1A.

• If appropriate for your class, write on the board What's your job? I'm a teacher. Ask individual Ss the same question.

 - Play the audio, pausing after each word for Ss to repeat as a group.
 - Play the audio again. Pause after each word and ask a volunteer to respond. Check for pronunciation of chef: /ʃef/.

TRA ACTIVITY

Scramble the letters of the names for jobs on page 8 and write them on the board. Give Ss time to unscramble the words before checking with their partner and the rest of the class.

e.g., recateh – teacher

2 READING

- A Review Allow Ss time to read the text individually before you check the answers.
 - Direct Ss to read the two Notice boxes, then ask Ss to read the profiles again. They can ask their partner or check a dictionary to find any other unfamiliar vocabulary.

Answers

- artist, student, teacher

3 WRITING

A Introduce the task Read the instructions aloud with Ss. Allow them time to read the profiles individually. Elicit answers to the questions.

Answers

Juan Carlos Fernandez is from Peru. Katya Ivanova is from Russia. Katya is a student.

B PAIR WORK While Ss discuss, circulate and monitor. If your class is less confident, you may want to do this activity as a whole group.

Suggested answers

The profile of Juan Carlos is a work profile. The profile of Katya is a personal profile.

- Read the rules for using capital letters aloud with Ss.
 Give examples for each one, e.g., for names of people Juan Carlos Fernandez.
 - Encourage Ss to work together to find two additional rules.
 - Read through the Register check as a class. Ss look for examples of Hello, Hi, and Hey in the profiles. Ask: Which profile is informal?

Answers

For I: I am Peruvian, I am from Trujillo, I am a salesperson, I'm Katya Ivanova, I'm Russian, I'm an English student For names of people: Juan Carlos Fernandez, Katya Ivanova For names of places, companies, schools: Trujillo, Lima, Omega Sales, St. Petersburg, Popov College of English

For nationalities and languages: Peruvian, Russian At the beginning of sentences: Hello, My, I, The, Hil, I'm, It's

VOCABULARY SUPPORT A work profile contains job details, work email, and place of work.

A personal profile contains where you come from, your address, and email.

- D Ask Ss to spend a few minutes choosing a profile and thinking of the information they will include in it. This is a good opportunity to recycle some of the questions from earlier in this unit.
 - Ask Ss questions individually: Where are you from? / How old are you? This will give Ss more to write about in the next part of the lesson.
 - Do the task As Ss write, circulate and monitor. Ss can use the profiles in 3A to help them. Look at Ss' work and offer feedback. Assist Ss with spelling by writing challenging words on the board. This will allow all Ss to see the word and use it if they wish. If you can, correct Ss' work as you go. Allow them as much time as they need.

🛠 FAST FINISHERS

Ss can write another work or personal profile based on one of the job pictures in 1A. They can make up information for the profile, including name, email address, and cell number.

- E GROUP WORK Review Ss will review and practice the questions they have learned in this unit.
 - Ss read each other's profiles and decide if they are personal or work profiles.

O EXTRA ACTIVITY

Encourage Ss to use questions from activities 3A and 3B on page 5 to ask a partner about their written profile. Model a few sample questions, e.g., What's your last name? What's your email address? Monitor as Ss discuss, listening for pronunciation and grammar. Praise students for good usage of language when the activity is finished.

TEACHER DEVELOPMENT REFLECTION

Either answer these questions yourself in a reflection journal or discuss them with your peers.

- What strategies have you used for learning 1 students' names?
- 2 In some teaching situations, it may not be appropriate for students to use each other's first names. What is your experience?
- 3 How can you make sure that new students who join an existing class feel comfortable with their classmates?
- 4 Teacher Development Activity 2 is known as a dictogloss. How well did Ss do this activity? Would you use a dictogloss again, and if so, would you do anything differently?
- 5 Jim Scrivener says, "The term synergy refers to the energy and achievement that comes when people combine their abilities and efforts to work together, seemingly achieving more than the sum of what all the individuals could achieve on their own." What kind of activities could you do to create synergy in a class of students with very different levels of ability?
