

Index

- Acemoglu, Daron, 25–26
 Acton (Lord), 15
 adjudicative authority, 141–48
 ALJs, 141–43
 independence of, 141–43
 removal of, 142–43
 under separation of powers, 142
 fact-finding and, 146–47
 adjudicative facts, 146–47
 judgmental facts, 147
 legislative facts, 147
 interpretation of, 143–44
 Auer deference, 144
 Chevron deference, 144
 Skidmore deference, 144 through policymaking, 145–46 by congressional approval, 145–46 cost-benefit standards in, 146 default rules, 146
 limitations of, 145
 restrictions on, 146
 scope of decisions, 145
 adjudicative facts, 135, 146–47 administrative courts. See also appellate administrative courts judicial review of, 147–48 administrative law. See also adjudicative authority; rule-making authority; separation of powers classical liberalism and, 105–6 fact-finding in, 146–47
 adjudicative, 135, 146–47
 in deference, 135–37
 judgmental, 136–37, 147
 legislative, 135–37, 147
 guidance documents, 149–51
 private parties and, penalties against, 151 independent court systems and deferences in, 108–9
 establishment of, 107–8 informal adjudication of, 151–52 judicial review, 150 legislative rules, review of, 108–9 REINS Act proposals, 108 substantial-impact test, 150 administrative law judges (ALJs), 141–43 independence of, 141–43
 removal of, 142–43
 under separation of powers, 142
 Administrative Procedure Act, U.S., 137
 Aesop's Principle, 208
 Affordable Care Act, U.S., 119
 African Americans. See also anti-discrimination laws; mass incarceration; race; racism
 Jim Crow laws against, 49–51
Against Democracy (Brennan), 168 ALJs. See administrative law judges anarcho-capitalism, 256
 Anderson, Terry, 69 anti-discrimination laws freedom of conscience under, 53–54 function and purpose of, 48 against hate speech, 48
 Jim Crow laws and, 49–52
 Civil Rights Act and, 51–52 federal takeover of local governments and, 51
 non-violent protests against, 51 libertarian skepticism of, 47–48, 53 religion under, 53–54 scope of, 48–49
 sexual orientation under, 54 societal effects of, 52

- anti-discrimination laws (cont.)
 - U.S. Supreme Court rulings on, 55
 - under Wagner Act, 49
- anti-humanitarianism, 21–22
- appellate administrative courts, 139–41
- Arendt, Hannah, 159–60
- association. See freedom of association
- Auer* doctrine, 112
 - deference in, 131, 144
- authority. See adjudicative authority; rule-making authority
- background state action, 275
- ballot box voting, 82
 - consent and, 86–89
 - foot voting compared to, 84–89
 - through informed and rational choice, 84–86
 - through meaningful choice, 84–86
 - in theories of political freedom, 86–89, 103
 - negative freedom and, 86–89
 - nondomination and, 86–89
 - positive freedom and, 86–89
- Barlow, John Perry, 245–46
- Barry, Brian, 20–21
- Bartlett, Bruce, 49–50
- Bastiat, Frederic, 15
- Baumol, William, 240
- Beckett, Katherine, 266
- behavioral economists
 - on market failure, 192–93
 - rationality and, 192–93
 - context for, 199–200
 - psychological concepts, 199–200
- beliefs. See superstitious prior beliefs
- Berlin, Isaiah, 31, 159
- Bernard of Clairvaux, 258
- bias
 - in constitutionalism, 172
 - hermeneutics and, 195
 - irrationality and, overoptimism as, 209
 - overoptimism as, 209
 - rationality and, 207–11
 - optimism against procrastination, 208–9
- Bill of Rights, 14
- Bismarck, Otto von, 17
- Blake, Michael, 182
- Bourgeois Argument, for immigration, 186–90
 - conflicts within, 176
 - ethics in, 188–89
 - Great Enrichment and, 186–87
 - national security issues in, 189–90
 - normative principles in, 187
 - open borders argument, 190
- Bourgeois Equality* (McCloskey), 176
- Bourne, Randolph, 16
- Bramwell, Baron, 2, 227
- Brandeis, Louis, 242–44
- Brennan, Jason, 168–69, 184, 189
- Brunnermeier-Parker model, 210–11
- bundle-of-rights metaphor, for property, 217–19
 - criticism of, 220–21
- bureaucratic interests, separation of powers and, 119–20
- The Calculus of Consent*, 168
- California Correctional Peace Officers Association (CCPOA), 265
- capitalism. See also liberal capitalism
 - anarcho-capitalism, 256
- Capitalism and Freedom* (Friedman), 18–19
- Capitalism and the Historians*, 18
- Carens, Joseph, 188
- Castro, Martin, 288
- CCPOA. See California Correctional Peace Officers Association
- Chevron* doctrine, 112
 - deference and, 131–34, 144
- China, 95–96
- Chodorov, Frank, 14, 18
- choice of law clauses, 83
- Civil Rights Act (1964), U.S., 47, 49, 51–52
- classical liberalism, 232–37
 - consequentialist arguments, 23
 - contextual choice, 271–72
 - deontological arguments, 23
 - distribution problems, 276–77, 296–98
 - externalities and, 270–71
 - same sex marriage as, 271
 - fundamental disagreement issues, 275–76, 294–96
 - historical location problems, 277–78, 298–300
 - definitional issues, 298–99
 - substantive issues, 299–300
 - individual autonomy under, 280
 - institutional preferences in, 233
 - just compensation and, 282
 - libertarianism as distinct from, 233, 256–57
 - moral foundations for, 234
 - regulatory intervention and, 235
 - scope of, 22–23
 - technology and, 237–44, 252–56
 - under common law, 243, 255–56
 - distribution of rights and rents, 241
 - institutional environments influenced by, 240–41
 - legal institutions influenced by, 243–44
 - personal privacy and, 241–43

- private ordering promotion, 255–56
- skepticism of, 238
- transaction costs and, 236–37
 - in personam* rights and, 236–37
 - in rem* rights and, 236–37
- voluntary transactions in, 280
- welfare economics and, 235–36
- as welfare enhancing, 234
- Clemens, Michael, 34, 184
- climate change
 - pollution problems and, 71–72
 - property rights and, 65
- Clinton, Hillary, 279
- Coase, Ronald H., 56, 59, 69, 237
- Cobden, Richard, 15
- coercion. See government coercion
- cognitive abilities, irrationality and, 206–7
- Cohen, G. A., 29–30
- collective action problem, 294–95
- Collier, Paul, 36
- common law
 - classical liberalism and, 243, 255–56
 - pollution problems under, 69
 - technological changes under, 243, 255–56
- compensatory damages, 216
- Congress, U.S.
 - adjudicative authority of, 145–46
 - rule-making authority of, 121, 123–30
 - anticipation of congressional positions, 130
 - approval of, 122
 - through procedural changes, 124–30
 - resubmission limitations for regulatory changes, 129
 - through single rule determination, 126–28
 - for take it or leave it regulatory proposals, 128–29
- conjunction fallacy, 200–1
- consent, 86–89
- consent theory, libertarianism and, 165
- consequentialist arguments, 23
- consistency criterion, for rationality, 197
- Constant, Benjamin, 15, 153
 - constitutionalism of, 153–54
- Constitution, U.S., 14
 - limited government under, 111
 - separation of powers established by, 111
- constitutional law, 291–93
- constitutionalism, 169–73
 - bias in, 172
 - of Constant, 153–54
 - open access orders and, 170
 - private power and, 170–71
 - wealth and, 171
- public power and, 170–71
 - religion and, 170–71
 - rent-seeking, 170
 - requirements of, 170
- constitutive rules, for rationality, 192
- contextual choice, 271–72
- cooperative federalism, 97
- copyright protections, 223
- cost-benefit standards, in adjudicative authority, 146
- court systems. See administrative courts; independent court systems
- crime rates, mass incarceration influenced by, 263–64
- crony capitalism, 229
- crude governmentalism, 26–28
 - premises of, 26–27
- cryptocurrencies, 249
- crypto-libertarianism, 256
- cultural nativism, 182–84
- cyber-exceptionalist perspective, 246–48
 - harm in, 248
 - intermediaries and, 248
 - permissionless innovation, 247–48, 253
 - property rights and, 252
- cyberspace. See cyber-utopianism
- cyber-utopianism, 245–46
- decentralization of power, in Europe, 10–13
 - by Dutch, 11
 - in England, 11–12
 - from royal absolutism, 11
- Declaration of Independence, 13–14
- Declaration of the Independence of Cyberspace* (Barlow), 245–46
- defamation, 285–86
- default rules, 146
- deference, 130–39
 - Auer*, 131, 144
 - Chevron*, 131–34
 - in independent court systems, 108–9
 - interpretive, 131–35
 - legal realism and, 133
 - nondelegation doctrine and, 137–39
 - policy discretion as influence on, 132
 - policymaking and, 137–39
 - Skidmore*, 134–35, 144
- delegation of authority. See adjudicative authority; rule-making authority
- deliberative democracy, 86
- Delong, Brad, 24
- democracy
 - deliberative, 86
 - political realism and, 164

- Demographic Argument, for immigration, 176–77, 185–86
 in U.S., 185
 welfare benefits in, 186
- Demsetz, Harold, 60
- deontological arguments, 23
- difference principle, 178–79
- Director, Aaron, 3, 18
- discrimination. See also anti-discrimination laws; racism
 defined, 49
- The Disintegration of Property* (Grey), 213–14
- distribution problems, 276–77, 296–98
- distributive justice
 egalitarian, 35
 as social justice, 32
- domestic law, immigration in, 177–78
 restrictions on, 177–78
- Due Process Clause, 3
- duty to rescue and assist, 293
- Dworkin, Ronald, 187
- economic growth, property rights and, 40
- economic markets behavioral economists and, 192–93
 failure of, 192–93
 in France, 12
 mass incarceration as correlate of, 262–63 neoclassical economists and, 192–93
 political realism and, 163
- economic rivalry, 43
- Edge, Rosalie, 64
- egalitarian liberalism, 22
- egalitarian redistribution, 35
- eminent domain, 63
- England
 decentralization of power in, 11–12
 Levellers in, 11–12
- English Corn Laws, 15
- Environmental Kuznets Curve, 62
- environmental protection
 climate change
 pollution problems and, 71–72
 property rights and, 65 historical context for, 56–57 under limited government, 56 pollution problems and, 68–72
 climate change factors, 71–72 under common law principles, 69
 property rights and, 69–71
 property rights and, 60–68
 climate change and, 65
 eminent domain and, 63
 Environmental Kuznets Curve and, 62
 of forests, 61
 management approach to, 62
 pollution problems and, 69–71
 scope of, 63–64
 “Tragedy of the Commons” influenced by, 59–60, 63
 wealth effects and, 62
 “Tragedy of the Commons” and, 57–60
 conceptual origins of, 58–59
 prescriptive government regulation and, 59–60
 private property and, 59–60, 63
 variants of, 59
 water rights and, 66–68
 water rights and, 65–68
 ITQ and, 67–68
 management approaches to, 66
 for marine fisheries, 66–68
 “Tragedy of the Commons,” 66–68
 transferability of, 64–65
- Epstein, Richard, 227, 234, 254, 257, 259
- ethics, in Bourgeois Argument, 188–89
- ethnicity, foot voting and, 90–92
- Europe
 decentralization of power in, 10–13
 Dutch and, 11
 in England, 11–12
 royal absolutism and, shift from, 11 natural law doctrine in, 11
- executive orders, on immigration, 189
- executive power judicial power in combination with, 112 legislative power in combination of, 113
- exit voting, 82
- externalities, political, 282–86 classic liberalism and, 270–71
 same sex marriage as, 271
- foot voting and, 93–95
- extreme ideologies, separation of powers and, 116–18 by government employees, 117–19
 by judges, 118–19
 by Presidents, 118
- facts, in administrative law, 146–47
 adjudicative, 135, 146–47
 in deference, 135–37
 judgmental, 136–37, 147
 legislative, 135–37, 147
- Fagan, Jeffrey, 266
- Faith Spotted Eagle, 1
- fascism, 16–17
- The Fatal Conceit* (Hayek), 173
- fear, liberalism of, 158
- feasance problems, 273–75

- Federal Tort Claims Act, U.S., 293
 federalism. See cooperative federalism first-user appropriation, property rights and, 37–39, 44–45 Flynn, John T., 18 folk psychology, 194–95
 foot voting, 82
 ballot box voting compared to, 84–89
 through informed and rational choice, 84–86
 through meaningful choice, 84–86
 in theories of political freedom, 86–89, 103
 in China, 95–96 choice of law clauses and, 83
 consent and, 86–89
 cooperative federalism and, 97 deliberative democracy and, 86 expansion of, 95–103
 in domestic contexts, 95–99 through global governance, implications of, 101–3 through international law, implications of, 101–3 through international migration expansion, 99–101 in private sector, 98–99
 individualism in, 84
 modes of, 82–84
 through international migration, 82–83 through jurisdictional choice, 82
 in private sector, 83
 negative freedom and, 86–89
 nondomination and, 86–89
 positive freedom and, 86–89
 refugee status and, 101–2 self-determination objections to, 90–95 by ethnicity and race, 90–92
 free migration and, 93–95 group rights claims, 90–92 individual rights claims, 92–93 by national origin, 91 political externalities and, 93–95
 in U.S., 95–96
 forests, property rights for, 61 formal rights, 24
 France, free market in, economists' support for, 12 freedom. See negative freedom; political freedom; positive freedom freedom of association, 181–82 freedom of conscience, 53–54 freedom of contract, 233, 243
 Freeman, Samuel, 169
 Friedman, Milton, 18–19, 23, 79–80 fundamental disagreement problems, 275–76, 294–96
 Galston, William, 156
 Geist, Valerius, 64
 Glennon, Robert, 64 global governance, foot voting influenced by, 101–3 Godkin, R. L., 14 goods
 defined, 40–42
 property rights for, 40–44 want satisfaction and, 41 Gorsuch, Neil, 3 government coercion, 272–73
 governmentalism. See crude governmentalism Great Enrichment, 186–87
 Great Society, 46
 Grey, Thomas, 213–14. See also property; property rights guidance documents, 149–51
 private parties and, penalties against, 151
 Hale, Robert, 272, 290–91. See also private power Hardin, Garrett, 57–58 harm principle, 2, 283 in cyber-exceptionalist perspective, 248 hate speech, 1 anti-discrimination laws against, 48
 libertarianism and, 48
 Hayek, F. A., 17–18, 42, 74, 173 on social justice, 33
 Hazlitt, Henry, 18
 Hemel, Daniel, 287 hermeneutics, in rationality bias, 195
 folk psychology and, 194–95
 neuroeconomics and, 195
 Herzen, Alexander, 167
 Hirschman, Albert, 82
 historical location problems, 277–78, 298–300
 definitional issues, 298–99
 substantive issues, 299–300
 Hobbes, Thomas, 87
 holism, 165–66
 Holland, decentralization of power in, 11
 Huemer, Michael, 35, 168–69
 hukou system, in China, 95–96
 Hume, David, 12, 23, 42, 155
 I, Pencil (Read), 75–79 ideal theory, of justice, 28–31 moral hazards and, 30 in social institutions, 30 socialism compared to, 29 ideological beliefs. See extreme ideologies

- immigration
 - Bourgeois Argument for, 186–90
 - conflicts within, 176
 - ethics in, 188–89
 - Great Enrichment and, 186–87
 - national security issues in, 189–90
 - normative principles in, 187
 - open borders argument, 190
 - Demographic Argument for, 176–77, 185–86
 - in U.S., 185
 - welfare benefits in, 186
 - difference principle, 178–79
 - under domestic law, 177–78
 - restrictions on, 177–78
 - economic pro-immigration arguments, 184–90
 - executive orders on, 189
 - freedom of association and, 181–82
 - under international law, 177–78
 - restrictions on, 178
 - restrictive policies on
 - cultural nativist arguments, 182–84
 - under domestic law, 177–78
 - under international law, 178
 - justifications for, 178–84
 - protection of domestic poor arguments for, 178–80
 - self-determination arguments for, 180–82
- immigration rights, social justice and, 33–36
- in personam* rights
 - classical liberalism and, 244
 - transaction costs and, 236–37
- in rem* rights
 - classical liberalism and, 244
 - transaction costs and, 236–37
- independent court systems
 - deferences in, 108–9
 - establishment of, 107–8
- individual autonomy, 280
- individual transfer quota (ITQ), 67–68
- individualism, in foot voting, 84
- industrialization, liberalism influenced by, 14
- informal adjudication, 151–52
- intellectual property (IP)
 - academic analysis of, 221–23
 - copyright protection of, 223, 226
 - growth of, in modern law, 213
 - labor as, 228
 - language of, 221
 - libertarianism and, 251–52
 - moral rights protection for, 225
 - patent protection for, 225
 - preference-satisfaction and, 227–28
 - as regulation, 226–27
 - right to, 221
 - justification of, 222
 - limitations of, 223
 - transaction costs for, 224–27
 - technology as, 251–52
 - as theory, 222–23
- interest group pluralism, 219
- international law
 - foot voting influenced by, 101–3
 - immigration in, 177–78
 - restrictions on, 178
- international migration
 - foot voting and
 - expansion of, 99–101
 - free migration and, 93–95
 - modes of, 82–83
 - positive freedom and, 88
- interpretive deference, 131–35
- IP. See intellectual property
- irrationality, 204–11
 - bias and, overoptimism as, 209
 - costs of, 205
 - dichotomy between rationality and, 195–97
 - limited cognitive abilities and, 206–7
 - overoptimism
 - as bias, 209
 - as utility-enhancing, 210–11
 - social consequence of, 205
 - superstitious prior beliefs, 205
- ITQ. See individual transfer quota
- Jefferson, Thomas, 13–14
- Jim Crow laws, 49–52
 - Civil Rights Act and, 51–52
 - federal takeover of local governments and, 51
 - non-violent protests against, 51
- Johnson, Gary, 1, 52
- Johnson, Lyndon, 279
- judges
 - ALJs, 141–43
 - independence of, 141–43
 - removal of, 142–43
 - under separation of powers, 142
 - extreme ideologies of, 118–19
 - on separation of powers, 114–15, 142
- judgmental facts, 136–37, 147
- judicial power
 - executive power in combination with, 112
 - legislative power in combination with, 113
- judicial review
 - by administrative courts, 147–48
 - of administrative law, 150
 - rule-making authority through, 123
 - under REINS Act, 126
- just compensation, 282
- justice. See ideal theory; social justice

- Kirzner, Israel, 18
- labor
- division of
 - mass incarceration and, 268–69
 - property rights and, 45
 - as IP, 228
- labor unions
- CCPOA, 265
 - police, 265
 - prison, 265
 - under Wagner Act, 49
- Landes, William, 219–20
- law. See tort law
- Leal, Donald, 69
- Leeson, Peter, 205
- legal realism, 133
- property and, 214
- Leggett, William, 14
- legislative facts, 135–37, 147
- legislative power
- executive power in combination with, 113
 - judicial power in combination with, 113
- legislative rules, 108–9
- Levellers, 11–12
- liability, 293
- liberal capitalism, 164
- liberalism. See also classical liberalism
- as anti-humanitarian, 21–22
 - egalitarian, 22
 - of fear, 158. See also political realism
 - intellectual roots of, 21–22
 - in 19th century, 13–16
 - industrialization as influence on, 14
 - rejection of, 15–16
 - religion and, 15
 - socialists' response to, 15
 - in U.S., 13–14
 - of Rawls, 154–55
 - in 20th century, 16–19, 22–23
 - criticisms of, 22
 - rebirth of, 17–19
 - in Russia, 16
 - welfare state and, development of, 17
 - World War I as influence on, 16–17
 - “Liberalism of Fear” (Shklar), 157–58
- Libertarian Party, 1
- libertarianism. See also constitutionalism; political realism
- anarcho-capitalism and, 256
 - anti-discrimination laws and, skepticism of, 47–48, 53
 - as anti-humanitarian, 21–22
 - classical liberalism as distinct from, 233, 256–57
 - consent theory and, 165
 - consequentialist arguments, 23
 - crypto-libertarianism, 256
 - deontological arguments, 23
 - goals of, 81
 - hate speech and, 48
 - holism and, denial of, 165–66
 - intellectual roots of, 21–22
 - Jim Crow laws and, approach to, 51–52
 - non-violent protests against, 51
 - legitimacy of state and, 164–65
 - mass incarceration and, 173–75
 - through over-policing, 174–75
 - political legitimacy and, 175
 - as source of unfreedom, 174
 - through “war on drugs,” 173–74
 - nationalism and, denial of, 165–66
 - organicism and, denial of, 165–66
 - populism and, 166–67
 - denial of, 165–66
 - property rights and, 26
 - racism and, 47
 - scope of, 22–23
 - social justice and, 32–33
 - techno-libertarianism, 256
 - technology and, 244–52
 - cyber-anarchism approach, 249
 - cyber-exceptionalist perspective, 246–48, 252
 - cyber-utopianism perspective, 245–46
 - extreme view of, 245–49
 - IP and, 251–52
 - moderate view of, 250–52
 - thick, 154
 - in 20th century, 22–23
 - in U.S., 2
- liberties. See rights and liberties
- liberty, property as constraint on, 233
- “The Liberty of the Ancients Compared With That of the Moderns” (Constant), 153
- limited government
- environmental protection under, 56
 - separation of powers and, 111
 - under U.S. Constitution, 111
- Locke, John, 11, 23, 87
- on property rights, 37
 - first-user appropriation, 37–39, 44–45
- Lomasky, Loren, 183
- Macauley, Thomas, 15
- Maddison, Angus, 24–25
- Marx, Karl, 16
- on formal rights and liberties, 24
- mass incarceration, 173–75
- as correlate of free market, 262–63
 - crime rates as influence on, 263–64
 - defined, 261

- mass incarceration (cont.)
 in deregulatory agenda, 269 division of labor argument for, 268–69 intergenerational dynamics of, 267–68 misconceptions about, 261 through over-policing, 174–75 political economy of, 264–67 through police and prison unions, 265–66 political legitimacy and, 175 racial disparities in, 260–61 social welfare provisions and, 263
 as source of unfreedom, 174
 as tool of social control, 260
 through “war on drugs,” 173–74, 266–67
- McCloskey, Dierdre, 176, 186
- Mencken, H. L., 14, 18
- Menger, Carl, 15
- mercantilism, 172–73
 critique on, 33
- microfoundationalism, 162, 168
- militarism, 172–73
- Mill, John Stuart, 2, 283
- Mises, Ludwig von, 17
- misfeasance problems, 291–93
- modern states legitimacy of, 164–65 as locus of violent power, 166 political realism in, 163 development of economic markets, 163 emergence of, 163
- Mont Pelerin Society, 18
- moral rights, protection of, 225
- morality in classical liberalism, 234 microfoundations for, 162, 168
 political realism and, 162–63
- Morley, Felix, 18
- Morriss, Andrew, 62
- Nagel, Thomas, 179
- National Audubon Society, 63
- national security, immigration and, 189–90
- National Socialism, 16–17
- nationalism, 165–66, 172–73
- natural law doctrine, in Europe, 11
- Nazism, 16–17
- negative conceptions of liberty, 31
- negative freedom, 86–89
- neoclassical economists
 on market failure, 192–93
 rationality and, 192–93, 212
- neuroeconomics, 195
- Nock, Albert Jay, 14, 18
- nondelegation doctrine, 137–39
- nondomination, 86–89
- nonfeasance problems, 273–75, 291–93
- non-ideal theory, of social institutions, 29
- North, Douglas, 32
- Nowrasteh, Alex, 180
- Nozick, Robert, 20–21, 23, 29, 272
- nuisance, 285
- Obama, Barack, 260, 279–80
- object of choice, rationality and, 198
- Olson, Mancur, 294
- On Liberty* (Mill), 2
- open borders argument, 190
- open-access orders, 164, 170
- optimism against procrastination, 208–9. See also overoptimism
- organicism, 165–66
- overoptimism
 as bias, 209
 Brunnermeier-Parker model, 210–11
 as utility-enhancing, 210–11
- over-policing, 174–75
- ownership, property and, 214–15, 217
 criticism of, 220–21
- Page, Joshua, 265
- Paine, Tom, 13
- patent protection, for IP, 225
- Paul, Rand, 47
- permissionless innovation, 247–48, 253
- personal meaning, 202
- personal privacy, technology and, 241–43
- Pevnick, Ryan, 182
- Pfaff, John, 263–64
- pluralism. See interest group pluralism
- Pogge, Thomas, 33–34
- political correctness, 1
- political externalities. See externalities
- political freedom, theories of, 103 consent in, 86–89
 negative freedom, 86–89
 nondomination, 86–89
 positive freedom, 86–89
- political libertarianism. See libertarianism
- political party interests, separation of powers and, 119
- political political theory (concept), 155–56
- Political Political Theory* (Waldron), 160
- political realism Arendt on, 159–60 democracy and, 164 liberal capitalism and, 164 modern state and, 163 economic markets in, development of, 163 emergence of, 163

- morality and, 162–63
- open-access orders and, 164
- Shklar on, 157–59
- Waldron on, 155–56, 160–61
- Williams on, 155–56, 159, 161–63
- pollution problems, 68–72
 - climate change factors, 71–72
 - under common law principles, 69
 - property rights and, 69–71
- populism, 165–67
- positive conceptions of liberty, 31
- positive freedom, 86–89
 - international migration and, 88
- Posner, Richard, 219–20
- poverty, social justice and, 34–35
- power. See executive power; judicial power; legislative power
- preference theory, 197
- preferences, 286–89
 - formation of, 286–89
 - imperfect obligations, 287
 - private, 288–89
 - public, 288–89
 - for rectification of past social injustices, 289
 - same-sex rights and, 288
- preference-satisfaction, IP and, 227–28
- prescriptive government regulation, 59–60
- prescriptive rules, for rationality, 192, 212
- Presidents, U.S., extreme ideologies of, 118
- privacy. See personal privacy
- private law, 291–93
- private ordering, 235
- private parties, guidance documents and, 151
- private power, 272–73, 290–91
- private preferences, 288–89
- private property, 37–40
 - as form of regulation, 228–29
 - institutional standing of, 213
 - labor as, 228
 - “Tragedy of the Commons” and, 59–60, 63
 - transferability of, 64
- private sector, foot voting in
 - modes of, 83
 - in private sector, 98–99
- property. See also intellectual property; private property
 - bundle-of-rights metaphor, 217–19
 - criticism of, 220–21
 - as constraint on liberty, 233
 - defined, 38
 - exchange and, 43
 - as form of regulation, 219–20
 - interest group pluralism and, 219
 - legal realism and, 214
 - ownership element of, 214–15, 217
 - criticism of, 220–21
 - things as element of, 214, 220
- property rights, 24. See also private property
 - classical liberalism and, 26, 280
 - centrality of rights, 231
- cyber-exceptionalist perspective and, 252
- decentralization of, 233–34
- definition of, 233
- division of labor and, 45
- economic growth and, 40
- in economic history, 38
- environmental protection and, 60–68
 - climate change and, 65
 - eminent domain and, 63
 - Environmental Kuznets Curve and, 62
 - of forests, 61
 - management approach to, 62
 - pollution problems and, 69–71
 - scope of, 63–64
 - “Tragedy of the Commons” influenced by, 59–60, 63
 - wealth effects and, 62
- fall of Soviet Union and, 214–15
- as form of regulation, 228–29
- for goods, 40–44
- Locke on, 37
- Takings Clause, 215
- water, 65–68
 - ITQ and, 67–68
 - management approaches to, 66
 - for marine fisheries, 66–68
 - “Tragedy of the Commons,” 66–68
 - transferability of, 64–65
- protection of domestic poor, 178–80
- Proudhon, Pierre-Joseph, 233
- public preferences, 288–89
- race. See also mass incarceration
 - criminality as connected with, 258–59
 - foot voting and, 90–92
- racism. See also mass incarceration
 - criminality and, 258–59
 - libertarianism and, 47
- Rand, Ayn, 20–21
- rationality, 194–204. See also irrationality
 - Aesop’s Principle, 208
 - ballot box voting and, 84–86
 - behavioral economists and, 192–93
 - context for, 199–200
 - psychological concepts, 199–200
 - bias and, 207–11
 - optimism against procrastination, 208–9
 - overoptimism as, 208–9

- rationality (cont.)
 consistence criterion, 197 constitutive rules, 192
 defined, 194, 207
 dichotomy between irrationality and, 195–97
 foot voting and, 84–86
 hermeneutics in bias, 195
 folk psychology and, 194–95
 neuroeconomics and, 195 meaning context for, 197–99 conjunction fallacy, 200–1 ecological, 201–3 in experiments, 200–1 personal meanings, 202 temporal monotonicity, 201–2 neoclassical economists and, 192–93, 212 normative criteria for, 191 object of choice, 198
 preference theory, 197 prescriptive rules, 192, 212 purpose and function of, 203–4 role of, 211
 in social contexts, 194
 Rawls, John, 29–31, 169, 275 difference principle, 178–79
 Raz, Joseph, 182
 Read, Leonard, 14, 75–79
 Reagan, Ronald, 279 realism. See legal realism; political realism refugee status, 101–2 regulations. See also prescriptive government regulation under classical liberalism, 235 IP as form of, 226–27 prescriptive government, 59–60 property as form of, 219–20 property rights as form of, 228–29 resubmission limitations for, 129 take it or leave it proposals, 128–29
 Rehavi, Marit, 267
 REINS Act, U.S., 123–24 administrative law and, 108 determination of single rules, 126–28
 judicial review under, 126 rules defined under, 125
 religion under anti-discrimination laws, 53–54 liberalism and, 15
 rent-seeking, 170
 restrictive policies, on immigration cultural nativist arguments, 182–84
 under domestic law, 177–78
 under international law, 178
 justifications for, 178–84
 protection of domestic poor arguments for, 178–80
 self-determination arguments for, 180–82
 review. See judicial review
The Right to Privacy (Warren and Brandeis), 242–44
 rights and liberties, 24–26. See also immigration rights; property rights; water rights formal, 24 ideological battles over, 31–32 negative conceptions of, 31 positive conceptions of, 31 self-mastery and, 31 Road to Serfdom (Hayek), 18
 Robbins, Lionel, 17
 Robespierre, Maximilien, 74
 Robinson, James, 25–26
 Rodrik, Dani, 26
 Roepke, Wilhelm, 17
 Roland, Gérard, 25–26
 Roosevelt, Franklin, 52
 Rosenberg, Nathan, 32
 Rothbard, Murray, 18, 23
 royal absolutism, shift away from, 11 rule of law, separation of powers and, 111–12
 Auer doctrine, 112
 Chevron doctrine, 112
 rule-making authority, 121–41 of appellate administrative courts, 139–41 costs for, determination of, 125–26 deference in, 130–39
 Auer, 131
 Chevron, 131–34
 fact-finding and, 135–37
 interpretive, 131–35
 legal realism and, 133
 nondelegation doctrine and, 137–39
 policy discretion as influence on, 132
 policymaking and, 137–39
 Skidmore, 134–35
 elimination of, 121 through judicial review, 123
 REINS Act, 123–24
 determination of single rules, 126–28
 judicial review under, 126
 rules defined under, 125 statute limitations, 122 by U.S. Congress, 121, 123–30 anticipation of congressional positions, 130 approval by, 122 procedural changes by, 124–30
 resubmission limitations, for regulations, 129

- single rule determination, 126–28
- for take it or leave it regulatory proposals, 128–29
- Russia
 - illiberal views in, 94
 - liberalism in, 16
 - Marxism in, 16
- Sachs, Jeffrey, 20
- same-sex rights, 288
 - to marriage, 271, 286
- Samuelson, Paul, 199
- Schlesinger, Arthur, Jr., 18
- Schmidt, David, 45, 183
- Scotland, spontaneous evolution of social institutions in, 12
- Scott, Anthony, 60
- Seidman, Michael, 282, 298–300
- self-determination arguments, for immigration, 180–82
- self-mastery, 31
- self-ownership, 280
- separation of powers, 106, 109–21
 - ALJs under, 142
 - analysis of
 - modern, 116–21
 - traditional, 111–16
 - bureaucratic interests and, 119–20
 - extreme ideologies and, 116–18
 - by government employees, 117–19
 - by judges, 118–19
 - by Presidents, 118
 - guidance documents, 149
 - incentives for branches of government under, 112–13
 - executive and legislative power, combination of, 113
 - judicial and executive power, combination of, 112
 - judicial and legislative power, combination of, 113
 - limitations on agency powers, 113
 - limited government and, 111
 - objections to, 114–16
 - by judges, 114–15
 - in tricameral lawmaking system, 115–16, 120
 - political party interests and, 119
 - rule of law and, 111–12
 - Auer* doctrine, 112
 - Chevron* doctrine, 112
 - special interests and, 120–21
 - in U.S. Constitution, establishment of, 111
- sexual orientation, under anti-discrimination laws, 54
- Sherman Act, U.S., 255
- Shklar, Judith, 157–59
- Simmons, A. John, 92
- Singer, Peter, 33–34
- Skidmore* deference, 134–35, 144
- Smith, Adam, 12, 21, 23, 25, 33, 42–43, 46, 171
- Smith, R. J., 63
- Smith, Vernon, 38
- social contracts, 287
 - theory of, 173
- social control, through mass incarceration, 260
- social democrats. See socialists
- social institutions
 - ideal theory in, 30
 - non-ideal theory of, 29
 - spontaneous evolution of, 12
- social justice, 32–36
 - distributive justice as, 32
 - egalitarian, 35
 - Hayek on, 33
 - immigration rights and, 33–36
 - libertarianism and, 32–33
 - poverty and, 34–35
- social welfare provisions, mass incarceration and, 263
- Socialism* (von Mises), 17
- socialism, ideal theory compared to, 29
- socialists, liberalism and, rejection of, 15
- Soviet Union, fall of, antipathy to property rights as influence on, 214–15
- special interests, separation of powers and, 120–21
- Spencer, Herbert, 15–16
- Starr, Sonja, 267
- state action doctrine, 274
 - background, 275
- Stern, Marc, 55
- Stigler, George, 18
- Storey, Moorfield, 50
- substantial-impact test, 150
- Sumner, William Graham, 15–16
- superstitious prior beliefs, 205
- Supreme Court, U.S., anti-discrimination law rulings, 55
- take it or leave it regulatory proposals, 128–29
- Takings Clause, 215
- techno-libertarianism, 256
- technology, contemporary
 - benefits of, 239
- classical liberalism and, 237–44, 252–56
 - under common law, 243, 255–56
 - distribution of rights and rents, 241
 - institutional environments influenced by, 240–41

- technology, contemporary (cont.)
 legal institutions influenced by, 243–44
 personal privacy and, 241–43
 private ordering promotion, 255–56
 skepticism of, 238
 criticism of, 239–40
 defined, 231
 enforceability of federal law through, 239 freedom of contract and, 233, 243
 libertarianism and, 244–52
 cyber-anarchism approach, 249
 cyber-exceptionalist perspective, 246–48, 252
 cyber-utopianism perspective, 245–46 extreme view, 245–49
 IP and, 251–52
 moderate view, 250–52
 permissionless innovation, 247–48, 253
 temporal monotonicity, 201–2
 Thatcher, Margaret, 279 thick libertarianism, 154
 Thierer, Adam, 247
 Thierry, Augustin, 15 things, as element of property, 214, 220
 Thomas, Robert, 32
 Tiebout, Charles, 97
 Tocqueville, Alexis de, 15 tort law, 280–81
 “Tragedy of the Commons,” 57–60
 conceptual origins of, 58–59
 prescriptive government regulation and, 59–60
 private property and, 59–60, 63
 variants of, 59
 water rights and, 66–68
 transaction costs
 classical liberalism and, 236–37
 in personam rights and, 236–37
 in rem rights and, 236–37
 for IP rights, 224–27 transferable rights, for water markets, 64–65 tricameral lawmaking system, 115–16, 120 deregulation under, obstacles to, 115–16
 Trump, Donald, 279

 unfreedom, through mass incarceration, 174
 United States (U.S.). See also Congress, U.S.; Presidents; separation of powers; Supreme Court
 Administrative Procedure Act, 137
 Affordable Care Act, 119
 Bill of Rights, 14
 Civil Rights Act, 47, 49
 Jim Crow laws under, 51–52 Constitution, 14
 separation of powers established by, 111

 Declaration of Independence in, 13–14
 Demographic Argument in, for immigration, 185 Federal Tort Claims Act, 293 foot voting in, 95–96 Jim Crow laws in, 49–52
 under Civil Rights Act, 51–52
 Civil Rights Act and, 51–52
 federal takeover of local governments and, 51
 non-violent protests against, 51 liberalism and, in nineteenth century, 13–14 libertarian beliefs in, 2 mass incarceration in, 173–75 through over-policing, 174–75
 political legitimacy and, 175
 as source of unfreedom, 174
 through “war on drugs,” 173–74
 REINS Act, 123–24
 determination of single rules, 126–28
 judicial review under, 126
 rules defined under, 125
 Sherman Act, 255
 tricameral lawmaking system in, 115–16, 120 deregulation under, obstacles to, 115–16
 Wagner Act, 49
 U.S. Congress. See Congress, U.S.

 van der Vossen, Bas, 184 voice voting, 82 voluntary transactions, in classical liberalism, 280 voting. See also ballot box voting; exit voting;
 foot voting
 meaningful choice in, 84–86 rationality in, 84–86 voice, 82

 Wagner Act (1935), U.S., 49
 Wakefield, Sarah, 267–68
 Waldron, Jeremy, 160–61
 political political theory concept, 155–56 want satisfaction, goods and, 41 “war on drugs,” 173–74, 266–67
 Warren, Samuel, 242–44 water rights, 65–68
 ITQ and, 67–68
 management approaches to, 66
 for marine fisheries, 66–68
 “Tragedy of the Commons,” 66–68
 transferability of, 64–65
 wealth effects, 62
Wealth of Nations (Smith, A.), 21, 25, 42–43, 171
 Weld, William, 1 welfare economics. See also social welfare provisions
 classical liberalism and, 235–36

welfare state. See also social welfare provisions	Williams, Bernard, 155–56, 159, 161–63
liberalism and, 17	Wilson, Harold, 279 protection of domestic poor argument and, 180	Wilson, Woodrow, 16–17
in 20th century, 17	World War I, liberalism influenced by, 16–17
Wellman, Christopher, 180–81
Why Not Socialism? (Cohen), 29–30	xenophobia, 172–73
Wildeman, Chris, 267–68
Will, George, 52	Yandle, Bruce, 69–70