

Contents

List of Figures	page viii
List of Tables	ix
Acknowledgements	x
List of Abbreviations and Glossary	xiii
Introduction: Writing African Elections	1
1 Towards a Moral Economy of Elections in Africa	30
2 Elections, States and Citizens: A History of the Ballot in Ghana, Kenya and Uganda	57
Part I Promoting Civic Virtue	107
3 National Exercises: Making States and Citizens through the Ballot	109
4 The Eyes of the World Are upon Us: The Aspirations and Limitations of International Election Observation	142
5 Creating Democrats: Civil Society and Voter Education	175
Part II The Moral Economy in Action	209
6 Performing Virtue: Politicians, Leadership and Election Campaigns	211
7 Navigating Multiple Moralities: Popular Expectations and Experiences of the Polls	250
Conclusion: The Electoral Fallacy Revisited	289
Appendix 1: Research Methods	304
Bibliography	308
Index	348
	vii