Contents

Preface
page xi

Acknowledgements
xiii

Chronology of Borges’ Life and Works xvi

List of Abbreviations
xxii

1. Borges’ Classical Revisions
   A Rumour of Homer
   Pierre Menard’s Odyssey and Aeneid
   Zeno after Kafka
   Classical Memory and Forgetfulness
   Classical Absences and Desires
   Classics at the Crossroads: Towards a Global Vision
   Key Terms and Concepts
   Aims and Scope of the Book

2. The Flow of Heraclitus
   Borgesian Time and the Classics
   Heraclitean Receptions
   Receptions of the Unfinished Text
   Borges and the Disclosure of Antiquity

3. The Idea of Homer
   Homer in Borges’ Postclassical Landscapes
   Homeric Identities and Identifications
   Odyssean Voyages into the Post-Historical Self Borges’ Homer in the Twentieth Century

4. Virgil’s Touch
   The Cultural Geography of Borges’ Virgil
   The Slow Hand and the ‘Tears of Things’
   Borges’ Virgil in Cultural History and Aesthetics

5. Antiquity in the Poetic Cosmos
   Classical Fragments in Borges’ Poetic Silvae

ix
Contents

Myth, Poetry and the Möbius Effect of Literature 107
Heraclitus between Chaos and Universal History 118

6. Interlude: Borges and Global Classics 120
   Global Classics and the Centreless Perspective 120
   Antiquity as a Fragment 122
   Borges’ Global Classicism and ‘World’ Literature 124
   Global Classics vs World Studies 125

7. Successors of Borges’ Classicism 127
   Italo Calvino 130
   Umberto Eco 139
   Derek Walcott 147

Bibliography 159
Index 171