

Index

---

- accounting and accountability systems, 2, 4, 38–39, 64–65
- Ackerman, Susan E., 50
- Advice on Encouraging and Regulating Religious Sector's Participation in Philanthropic and Charitable Activities, 36
- Allahyari, Rebecca Anne, 89
- alms-giving, 59
- alternative forms of goodness and addressing life's problems, 194–96
and community ritual, 181–88
and cultural heritage, 188–91
focus group on, 178–79
and religious differences, 191–94
and religious engagement, 179–80 and standard forms of charity, 196–97
- American Buddhism, 108
- American Methodist Episcopal Mission, 31
- Ami people, 103
- Amity Foundation founding and mission of, 36 funding for nursing home, 161
and globalization of religious philanthropy, 105
and limitations of innovation, 174
and political merit-making, 61
and promotion of universal love, 120
and volunteerism, 115, 206
- ancestral halls, 41
- animal-releasing parks, 67
- Anji Fang, 23
- anthropology of the good, 5
- Anti-Japanese war (1937-1945), 34
- antipolitics, 7
- anti-revolutionary societies and sects, 34
- anti-superstition campaigns, 33, 39, 51–52
- Asia-Pacific Heritage Conservation Awards, 118, 190
- Assmann, Jan, 189
- Association for Relations Across the Taiwan Strait (ARATS), 55
- “association for the benefit of the neighborhood,” 138
- Atia, Mona, 208–10
- authoritarianism effect on social engagement, 203
and political merit-making, 57, 70, 84–85
and the public good, 45
and state failure hypothesis, 58
- bao* (response, reciprocity), 93
- Beautiful Gate career center, 80, 111
- Beifang Jinde, 156n. 8
- Beigang, 191
- Beijing Marathon, 156
- Beijing Treaty, 31
- Benedict XVI, 91
- benevolent halls and societies and background of Chinese religions, 21
and changes in religious engagement, 21 and colonial history of Malacca, 21
and cultural heritage of goodness, 100
eradication under GMD, 39
and evolution of welfare in China, 24–25, 30
and goodness concept, 5
impact of colonial history in Malacca, 51
during Mao era, 35
provision of social services, 26 religious elements, 34 repression of, 33
women's participation, 27
- Berger, Peter, 114
- Bian, Yanjie, 132
- Biographies of Eminent Monks*, 96
- Bixia Yuanjun, 27
- Black Dragon King temple, 135
- Board of Rites, 183
- bodhisattva personhood, 16, 96, 113, 117, 154, 193, 199, 205
- Book of Changes*, 93–94
- Book of Rites*, 22
- boundaries and borders, 182–84

224 Index

- Bourdieu, Pierre, 128, 131
- British colonialism and “divide-and-rule” pluralist policy, 75
in Malaysia, 4, 46–47
and political merit-making, 84
and scope of study, 15n. 20
- British Strait Settlements, 46
- Brokaw, Cynthia Joanne, 93, 99
- Buddha Light Mountain, 52, 107
- Buddha Sakyamuni, 195
- Buddhist Association of China, 37, 62, 161, 186n. 12
- Buddhist Association of Jiansu Province, 62
- Buddhist Association of Suzhou Municipality, 62
- Buddhist Compassion Relief Tzu Chi Foundation. See Tzu Chi Foundation
- Buddhist Lodge, 49
- Buddhists/Buddhism. See also Tzu Chi Foundation and animal-releasing practices, 3, 24, 177–78 and benevolent halls, 5 and the Bodhisattva ideal, 16
Buddhist old age homes, 69
Buddhist study groups, 117, 171
and changing conceptions of goodness, 176
and civic selving, 123
and community ritual, 184
and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113
and cultural boundaries, 187
and cultural heritage of goodness, 91, 94–97
and definitions of religion, 6, 16
and disabled care, 23
and evolution of welfare in China, 23, 30
and focus group on forms of goodness, 178, 178n. 1
and Foster’s “limited good,” 199 and founding of Tzu Chi Foundation, 17
and goodness concept, 4
growth of, 16
and healing, 195
impact of economic reforms, 52
and industrialized philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
and internetwork connections, 160–61
and limitations of innovation, 173–74
and the Malaysian Sedition Act, 77
during Mao era, 34
and political merit-making, 57, 61, 65, 67
and promotion of engaged religion, 211
and scope of study, 16
and social capital cultivation, 137 and social services in Taiwan, 3
and syncretism of redemptive societies, 30
and Tzu Chi innovations, 169–72
- bumiputeras*, 46, 75
- Bureau of Tourism, 119
- Burgess, John Stewart, 32
- burial services, 3, 25, 48, 79, 101, 184–85
- business groups, 42
- Cammett, Melani, 85
- Cao, Nanlai, 174
- capitalism, 87
- caritas*, 91, 95, 204–05
- Catholics/Catholicism and the Chinese revolution, 34
and community ritual, 181, 184–85
and convergence in religious philanthropy, 86
and cultural heritage of goodness, 91
and dormant social networks, 155
and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102–03, 105, 107–08, 110
and goodness in Chinese societies, 200
history in China, 16
and the Malaysian Sedition Act, 77
during Mao era, 34
and orphanages, 5, 103, 200
and political development of Malaysia, 47
and political merit-making, 78, 83
and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 49
and scope of study, 16
and volunteerism, 117–18
- CCP (Chinese Communist Party) and anti-superstition campaigns, 33, 39, 51–52
- Central Committee Office for Taiwan Affairs, 55 and Christian-based model of “religion,” 34 and politics of redemptive societies, 30 promotion of harmonious society, 120n. 89 and regulation of redemptive societies, 29
and volunteerism, 114
and the YMCA, 32
- Changhua County, 73
- Chan meditation, 108, 193
- charisma-based social ties, 162–67
and catalyzing dormant social ties, 153
and convergence in religious philanthropy, 89
and dormant social networks, 156
and effects of innovation, 152
and the gift economy, 132
and globalization of religious philanthropy, 107
and innovating gender roles, 151, 175

- and innovating goodness, 162–67
- and political development of Malaysia, 50
- and religious differences, 196
- and social networks, 15
- and spread of Protestant churches, 146
- and Tzu Chi, 168, 172–73
- Charitable Supermarket, 63–65, 164
- charity
  - and alternative forms of goodness, 178–79, 196
  - and changing conceptions of goodness, 177
  - and Cheng Hoon Teng temple, 144
  - and Christianity, 193
  - and civic selving, 125
  - connection with religious worship, 7
  - and cultural heritage, 91, 96, 191
  - and focus group on forms of goodness, 178n. 1
  - and image of unlimited goodness, 211
  - and Islam, 95, 194
  - and limitations of innovation, 174–75
  - links to religion, 42
  - and Malaysian moral uplifting associations, 47–51
  - and religious differences, 191–94
  - and social capital cultivation, 136, 146–47
  - and Tsu’s “practical democracy of the nation,” 22
- Charity Center, 65–66
- Chastity Societies for Widows, 24
- Chau, Adam, 135
- Che Chiang Khor Moral Uplifting Association, Malacca, 48
- Cheng Hoon Teng (Guanyin Ting) Temple, 148
  - and cosmopolitanism, 49, 118
  - “facilitator/provider” dynamic, 102
  - and internetwork connections, 159–60
  - and political development of Malaysia, 48, 50
  - and political merit-making, 78–79, 83
  - renovation project, 190
  - services provided by, 47
  - and social capital cultivation, 144–45
  - and volunteerism, 119
- Cheng Yen
  - and convergence in religious philanthropy, 207
  - and dormant social networks, 155
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 105, 107
  - and Ministry of Foreign Affairs event, 1
  - and origin of Tzu Chi, 17, 176
  - and political merit-making, 71
  - and promotion of universal love, 120
  - and Tzu Chi innovations, 168, 172
- Cherishing Writing Societies, 24
- Chew Mei Fun, 81–83, 82n. 35
- Chiang Ching-kuo, 45, 54
- Chiang Kai-shek, 44, 102
- China
  - change in state/religion relationship, 4
  - changes in religious engagement, 21
  - civic selving in, 123–25
  - and community ritual, 182, 184
  - and convergence in religious philanthropy, 86
  - and cultural heritage, 190–91
  - definitions of religion, 16
  - and extent of Tzu Chi Foundation, 17
  - and free-market processes, 10
  - and “Great Love” concept, 199
  - location of research, 18
  - and market reforms, 8
  - and mobility of populations, 9
  - and modernization pressures, 201
  - and national promotion of engaged religion, 211
  - one-child policy, 203
  - and political merit-making, 11, 54, 60–71, 83, 203
  - primary research in, 18n. 25
  - and scope of study, 16
  - and state-centered social services, 8
  - and state failure hypothesis, 58
  - and state outsourcing of social welfare, 53
  - and urbanization, 158
  - and varied forms of religious engagement, 11
  - volunteerism in, 114–15
- Chinese Buddhism, 59, 95, 105
- Chinese Catholic Church, 110, 156–57
- Chinese Christian Council, 161
- Chinese Christian theology, 120
- Chinese Constitution, 181
- Chinese Daoist Association, 175n. 26
- Chinese language, 90, 145, 170, 171n. 24
- Chinese Methodist Church, 111
- Chinese New Year, 43, 50, 80, 137, 143–46
- Chinese Red Cross, 175n. 26
- Chinese Republican Revolution, 22
- Chinese social world (huashe), 145
- Chipman, Elana, 191
- Chongyang Festival, 146
- Christian World Service (CWS), 103–05
- Christians/Christianity. See also Catholics/Catholicism; Protestants/Protestantism and care of widows, 27
  - and changing conceptions of goodness, 176

226 Index

- Christians/Christianity (cont.)
 and charisma-based social ties, 165–67
 and charity concept, 193
 and Chinese popular worship, 16
 and convergence in religious philanthropy, 89, 207–08
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 95, 100
 and definitions of religion, 6
 first Protestant missionaries, 31–33
 and focus group on forms of goodness, 178, 178n. 1
 and Foster’s “limited good,” 199
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 100–05, 107–08, 111
 and goodness concept, 4
 history in China, 16
 impact of economic reforms, 52
 and industrialized philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
 and internetwork connections, 158, 161
 key missionary institutions, 21
 and limitations of innovation, 174
 and the Mao era, 34
 during Mao era, 34
 and political development of Malaysia, 47
 and political merit-making, 67–70, 78, 83
 and promotion of engaged religion, 211
 and prospects for socially engaged Chinese religions, 3
 and scope of study, 16
 and social capital cultivation, 137, 146–48
 and syncretism of redemptive societies, 30 transnational civil society, 51 YMCA and YWCA chapters, 31–32
- Christmas, 146
- Chu, Ruyi-ling, 98–99
- Chua, Josephine, 79
- Cina, Kapitan, 78
- cishan*, 90
- citizenship, 46
- civic betterment, 22
- civic love, 120–21
- civic selving, 10, 12–13, 205–06. See also volunteerism
- Civil Affairs Bureau, 68–69, 140
- Civil Affairs Bureau of Jiangsu Province, 66
- civil society, 11, 51, 88–89
- clan associations, 158
- class boundaries, 148, 200
- Cold War, 9, 104–05
- collective memory, 189, 191
- communications technology, 13
- Communist Party, 62n. 15, 186, 186n. 12
- Communist rule, 136
- Communist Youth League, 66
- community ritual, 181–88
- comparative analysis, 8, 11
- compassion
 and alternative forms of goodness, 178
 and Buddhist values, 24
- Compassionate Good Association, 139
- Concentric Zone of Unified Hearts, 123
- Confucianism
 and background of Chinese religions, 21
 and belief systems of social engagement, 204
 and civic selving, 123
 and cultural boundaries, 186–87
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 91–92, 97–99
 and definitions of religion, 7
 and evolution of welfare in China, 24–25, 30
 and family values, 8 and the Great Leap Forward, 8 and Han Dynasty, 23
 and image of unlimited goodness, 200 and language or moral breakdown, 6
 and political development of Taiwan, 41
 and promotion of engaged religion, 211
 and ritual propriety, 60
 and syncretism of redemptive societies, 30
 and Tongshanhui, 25–26
 and Wenchang, 26
- corruption, 6
- cosmic retribution, 91, 93, 95, 97–99
- cosmopolitanism
 and civic selving, 122, 124–25
 and convergence in religious philanthropy, 89
 and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113–14, 118
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 100
 and dormant social networks, 154
 and modernization pressures, 13
 and nature of goodness, 14
 and new Buddhist groups, 118
 and political development of Malaysia, 50
 and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 49
 and volunteerism, 114, 116–17, 119
- credit unions, 147
- Cua, Josephine, 119
- cultural heritage, 181–91
- cultural memory, 189
- Cultural Revolution, 3, 34, 36n. 68, 40, 62n. 14, 162–63, 190

- Dalin Hospital, 119
 Dammaratana, K. Sri, 81
dāna, 96
 Daoism
   and changing conceptions of goodness, 176
   and cultural boundaries, 187
   and cultural heritage of goodness, 91, 94–95, 97–98
   and definitions of religion, 6, 16
   and focus group on forms of goodness, 178, 178n. 1
   and the gift economy, 129
   and goodness concept, 4
   and healing, 195
   and internetwork connections, 160
   and the Lin Family Village, 163
   during Mao era, 34
   and religious differences, 193
   and scope of study, 16
   and social capital cultivation, 137
   and syncretism of redemptive societies, 30
 Daoist Association, 186n. 12
 Daoyuan, 28
 Datuk Gan, 144
 DeBernardi, Jean, 50 defensive political merit-making, 70–71, 85, 149, 203
 definitions of religion, 6–7, 16–17
 deity-based benevolent halls, 48 Dejiao Hui (Moral Uplifting Association), 48 democracy and democratization complex effects of, 11
   and cultural heritage, 190
   and evolution of welfare in China, 24
   and political merit-making, 57, 72, 74, 84–85
   and Tsu's "practical democracy of the nation," 22 and Tzu Chi land acquisitions, 55
 "de-sacralized goodness," 178
 deterritorialization, 88
Deus Caritas Est (God is Love), 91
 Dharma Drum Mountain (Fagu Shan), 52, 107
 dialect groups, 158
Diamond Sutra, 95, 192 diaspora populations, 88, 106
 Ding, Zhenxiang, 141 diplomacy, 62, 183 Disabilities Foundation, 60 disabled persons, 23 disaster relief
   and Christian missionaries, 31
   and civic selving, 126
   and evolution of welfare in China, 23
   and globalization of religious philanthropy, 105 government disaster relief bureaus, 32
   in Han Dynasty, 22–23
   and interfering state hypothesis, 58
   and political merit-making, 66
   and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
   and social capital cultivation, 143
   southeast China flood of 1991, 37
   and volunteerism, 119
   and the World Red Swastika Society, 28
   and YMCA chapters, 32
 "divide-and-rule" pluralist policy, 47, 75 divination, 143
 Dizang temple, 75
 Doctors Without Borders, 7, 196
 Document 19, 35
 "doing good," 2, 18, 116, 178, 211
 Dongwu University, 31 dormant social networks, 153–57 dragon dancers, 183, 187–88, 187f. 7.1
 drug rehabilitation, 28–30, 101
 Duara, Prasenjit, 27 Dutch colonialism, 4, 47, 75 earth god temple, 74 economic growth, 8, 18, 207–08 economic migration, 106 economic reforms, 35 economic stagnation, 138, 141 ecumenical universalism, 100 education. See also scholarships
   and globalization of religious philanthropy, 101, 104, 106
   legacy of Christian missionaries, 32 and the Malacca Sultanate, 46
   and political merit-making, 78
   and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 49
   and Tzu Chi innovations, 171
   and the World Red Swastika Society, 28
   and the Xiyuan Temple, 173
 Egypt, 208–10
 Eight Infernal Generals, 183 elderly care, 25. See also old age homes embodiment of religious principles, 120, 122 emergency relief, 21, 143. See also disaster relief
 Emperor of Heaven, 42
 enclaved political merit-making, 75–76, 83, 85, 203
 engaged religion, 17, 21, 179–80, 201–04, 211
 Enlightenment, 92

228 Index

- environmental activism, 110, 153–54. See also recycling
- ethnicity
 and community ritual, 184
 and political merit-making, 12
 religious identity as component of, 50
 and social capital cultivation, 148
 and sub-ethnic identity, 51 and Tzu Chi outreach programs, 169, 172
- etiquette, 183, 185
- “facilitator/provider” dynamic, 101–03
- Fagu Shan, 107–08, 110
- failed state hypothesis, 10
- faith-based organizations, 13, 89, 180
- Fan Lineage Charity, 23
- Fan Zhongyan, 23
- Fassin, Didier, 7
- Fengjing Township, 26
- Fengtian Gong, 73, 143
- festivals, 139–40, 163, 182, 184, 189–90
- filial piety, 24
- Five Sages, 26
- focus groups, 178–79
- Foguan Shan
 and cosmopolitanism, 118
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 107–09, 112
- Formosa Sugar, 58
- Foster, George, 198–200, 205
- Four Great Managers, 145
- free-market ideology, 7, 10
- fulibu* (welfare department), 82
- Fuma, Susumu, 23, 58
- funeral services, 48, 184–85
- Fung, Heidi, 124
- Futian Yuan, 23
- Fuzhi Buddhist Foundation, 116
- Gan, Boon Leong, 79
- Gan, Tin Lok, 80
- gastrodiae rhizome, 157
- Ge, Hong, 98
- gender issues, 30–31, 45, 148, 175–76. See also women
- general welfare associations, 48
- gentry, 66, 79–80, 82
- Giddens, Anthony, 88
- gift economy, 14, 127–31, 202
- globalization
 and civic selving, 12–14, 122–24
 and community ritual, 181
 and convergence in religious philanthropy, 88, 206–07, 210–11 elements of, 9
 and industrialized philanthropy, 12, 50
 of religious philanthropy, 100–12 god-worshiping societies, 41–44, 138–39, 142.
See also temple-based religion
- GONGOs (government-organized non-governmental organizations), 60, 66
- goodness
 and background of Chinese religions, 21 changing conceptions of, 15, 176–77 and complex effects of democratization, 11 cultural heritage of, 90–100
 and effects of globalization, 10
 and industrialized philanthropy, 2–3 and language of industrialized philanthropy, 4–7 natural image of, 18
- Goossaert, Vincent, 31
- Gospel Hall, 67–70
- Granovetter, Mark, 132–33, 155
- Great Leap Forward, 8, 162
- Great Love, 199
- Great North China Famine, 31
- guanxi (social connections), 129. See also social capital
- Guanyin, 27, 38n. 70, 119
- Guanyin Hotline, 173
- Guanyin Ting, 47–48
- Guidelines on Government Purchase of Services from Social Organizations, 37
- Guo, Xianrong, 72
- Guomindang (GMD)
 anti-superstition campaigns, 33, 51–52
 and Christian-based model of “religion,” 34
 and civic selving, 124
 and community rituals, 188 eradication of benevolent and redemptive societies, 39
 and evolution of welfare in China, 30
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102
 and innovation of goodness, 153
 and modernization pressures, 201
 and political merit-making, 84
 and the Quanzhou Association, 138
 and registration of NGOs, 44
 and regulation of redemptive societies, 28–29
 and secularization, 6, 42
- Guyi village, 184
- “half-well,” 136
- Han Dynasty, 22
- Handan (Hebei) region, 18, 18n. 25, 162, 165–66, 184, 189
- Hankow, 24

- Hanshan Temple, 62–67, 83, 112, 164–65
hao, 90
haoren, 90
haoshi, 90 harmony, 186
 healing, 146, 162–63, 195–96
 Heaven's intent, 93
 Hehe Cultural Foundation, 66–67, 83, 112, 164, 165f. 6.1
 hidden virtue, 93, 95 hierarchical relationships, 129, 131, 148 Hinduism, 50, 77 historic restorations, 141
 hometown associations, 47
 Hong Kong, 15n. 20, 39
 Hope Schools, 66 hospital construction, 31–32, 45, 54
 Hsing Yun, 107
 Hu, Jintao, 63
huay kuan, 78
 Huixin, 27
 Humanistic Buddhism, 51, 107, 112–13 humanistic universalism, 154, 176–77
- immigration, 46
 indirect rule, 4, 51 individual personhood, 98–100, 199 industrialized philanthropy and alternative forms of goodness, 179–80
   and civic selving, 122
   convergence toward, 5, 87–88, 204 and “doing good” in Chinese society, 2–3 and financial accountability, 39
   as focus of study, 7
   and forms of goodness, 197
   and globalization of religious philanthropy, 100, 105, 107, 109
   and goodness concept, 4
   and image of unlimited goodness, 202
   key elements of, 12
   and mobilization of resources, 14
   in other contexts, 208–09
   and political development of Malaysia, 50
   recent trends, 8
   and religious differences, 193–94
   and scope of study, 2
   and temple-based religion, 44 inherited burden, 94–95 innovation
   and charisma-based social ties, 162–67
   and dormant social networks, 153–57 dynamics of, 150–53
   and gender issues, 175–76
   and goodness in Chinese societies, 201
   and internetwork connections, 157–62
   and leadership roles of women, 201 limitations of, 172–75
   and social capital cultivation, 133, 149
   and Tzu Chi in Malacca, 168–72 “Intangible Cultural Heritage of Humanity” designation, 190 interfering state hypothesis, 58, 84 internal migration, 9
 International Monetary Fund (IMF), 12 international population flows, 9 Islam and Muslims
   and the Chinese revolution, 34
   and civic selving, 125
   and colonial legacy in Malaysia, 4
   and cultural heritage of goodness, 95
   and definitions of religion, 6
   and focus group on forms of goodness, 178, 178n. 1
   and goodness concept, 4
   and industrialized philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
   during Mao era, 34
   and scope of study, 16
   as state religion in Malaysia, 76
   and syncretism of redemptive societies, 30 and zakat, 95, 194
 Issar, Sukriti, 85
 Italy, 208–10
- Jade Buddha Temple, 36
 Japanese colonialism
   and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102 impact on religious engagement in Taiwan, 52 impact on Taiwan, 40 and Lukang religious organizations, 42 in Lukang township, 138
   and political development of Malaysia, 48
   and political merit-making, 84
 Jesuits, 100
jian'ai, 91–93
 Jiangnan region, 25–26
 Jiangsu, 37, 137, 158
jiaohua organizations, 29
 Jinde Charities, 156–57, 176
 Jing, Jun, 154
 Jingkong, Master [Chin Kong], 135–36, 161
 Juequn Ci'ai Gongdehui, 36
 Junior Chamber of Commerce, 72, 75, 142
 Jushilin, 110
 Juyang Yuan, 23

230 Index

- Kaile Church, 146
- karma
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 94–95, 97–99
 and the gift economy, 129
 and healing, 195
 and nature of goodness, 13
 and social capital cultivation, 134
- “King’s Chinese,” 104, 111
- kinship associations, 42, 142, 155, 158–59
- Kipnis, Andrew B., 131
- Kiwanis Clubs, 141
- Klang Valley, 50
- Knobloch, John, 92
- kominka*, 44
- kongsi*, 78
- Korean War, 103
- Laidlaw, James, 5
- laity
 Chinese lay Buddhism, 59
 and creation of new religious subjectivities, 114
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 96
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 108–09, 112
 and volunteerism, 135
- Ledger of Merit and Demerit of the Taiwei Immortal*, 98
- Lee, Raymond L. M., 50
- Legalism, 99
- Lei, Feng, 115
- leshan haoshi*, 90
- Leung, Angela, 23–24, 26–27
- Li, Meishu, 134
- Li Yi, 175n. 26
- Li, Yih-yuan, 47
- Lian, Chan, 188
- Liang Dynasty, 23
- libraries, 116, 144, 160
- life problems, 194–96
- Life Releasing Societies, 24
- Lin Family Village, 162–64, 176
- Lin Xiangru, 189–90
- lineage groups, 20, 27, 41, 201
- Lingbao Daoism, 97
- Lingshan Cishan Foundation, 110, 123
- Lingyan Shan Temple, 39, 192
- Lion’s Club, 72, 142
- Little Rome, 102
- Liu, Mr. And Mrs., 169–71
- localization, 102
- Long March (1934–36), 34
- Longshan temple, 74, 79
- Lotus Sutra*, 95
- love in religious expression, 120–21, 199, 199n. 6
- Lü, Kun, 23
- Lukang Presbyterian Church, 147
- Lukang Township and collaborative programs, 72 and environmental activism, 153
 and internetwork connections, 158
 and local state programs, 71
 as location of research, 18
 mayor, 143n. 19
 and political history of Taiwan, 40–44
 and political merit-making, 71–75
 and social capital cultivation, 137
- Luo, Xiaoxia, 166–67, 176
- Luther, Martin, 181
- Mackay, George, 204
- Mackay Hospital, 86
- Mahayana Buddhism, 95
- Malacca. See also Malaysia and Chinese imperial history, 21
 Chinese language education, 170, 171n. 24
 and convergence in religious philanthropy, 86
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 110–11
 and internetwork connections, 158, 160
 legacy of early missionaries, 32
 as location of research, 18
 Malacca Sultanate, 46
 multiethnic culture, 46–51
 and political merit-making, 56–57, 84
 and social capital cultivation, 137
 and state outsourcing of social welfare, 51–53
 and Tzu Chi innovations, 168–72
- Malacca Buddhist Association, 48
- Malaysia. See also Malacca
 civic selving in, 123–25
 and colonial legacies, 4 colonial legacy on religious institutions, 4
 and community ritual, 182
 “de-sacralized goodness,” 178
 and economic growth, 9 encouragement of social organizations, 8
 and extent of Tzu Chi Foundation, 17
 and “Great Love” concept, 199
 and inter-ethnic outreach, 169
 and internetwork connections, 160
 location of research, 18
 and mobility of populations, 9
 and modernization pressures, 201

- and national promotion of engaged religion, 211
- and neoliberal reforms, 13
- political development of, 46–51
- and political liberalization, 9
- and political merit-making, 12, 54, 75–84, 203
- primary research in, 18n, 25
- and scope of study, 16
- and state responsibility for welfare spending, 10–11
- and urbanization, 158
- and varied forms of religious engagement, 11
- Malaysia Buddhist Association, 158, 172
- Malaysia Chinese Association (MCA), 111, 145, 159
- Malaysian Constitution, 75–77
- Malinowski, Bronislaw, 131
- Manchukuo government, 29–30
- Manchukuo Morality Society, 30
- Manikumar, Mr., 81
- Maoist era politics, 71
- Maoshan temples, 160, 193
- market reforms, 8, 10, 87
- martial law, 52
- Master Who Embraces Simplicity, 97
- Master Zhenchan Disabled Children's Welfare Foundation, 36
- Matsu, 191
- Mauss, Marcel, 127, 131
- Mazu cult
  - and community ritual, 186
  - and cosmopolitanism, 119
  - and cultural boundaries, 182–83
  - and cultural heritage, 190–91
  - and Japanese colonialism, 40–41
  - and merchant associations, 42
  - and political merit-making, 73–74
  - and social capital cultivation, 136, 139
  - and the Tianhou temple, 139
  - and volunteerism, 116
- McCarthy, Susan, 156
- medical charities
  - and Malaysian moral uplifting associations, 48
  - and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
  - Tzu Chi free clinics, 168–69
- merchant associations, 41–42, 138, 142
- merit-making. See political merit-making
- Methodists, 47, 102, 111
- Ming Dynasty
  - and benevolent halls and societies, 21, 24, 30
  - and Buddhist temples, 37
  - and Christian missionaries, 16
  - and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113
  - emergence of social organizations, 20
  - and evolution of redemptive societies, 29
  - and evolution of welfare in China, 24–25
  - and Jesuits, 100
  - and state support for Buddhist temples, 23
  - and Tongshanhui, 25–26
- Mingxue, Master, 192
- Ministry of Civil Affairs (PRC), 37n, 69
- Ministry of Culture (Taiwan), 190
- Ministry of Finance (PRC), 37n, 69, 37–38
- Ministry of Foreign Affairs (Taiwan), 1–2, 71
- Ministry of Health (Malaysia), 78
- Ministry of Women, Family and Community Development (KPWKM), 78
- missionaries
  - and care of widows, 27
  - and Chinese popular worship, 16
  - and cultural heritage of goodness, 100
  - first Protestant missionaries, 31–33, 204
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102, 106, 204
  - and industrialized philanthropy, 12
  - key missionary institutions, 21
  - and neoliberal reforms, 13
  - and political development of Malaysia, 47
  - and prospects for socially engaged Chinese religions, 3
  - in Shimenkan, 174
  - and Tzu Chi, 205
- mobility, 9, 13, 18, 201
- modernity and modernization, 50, 88, 155, 198
- Mollier, Christine, 97
- monetary donations, 129–30, 137, 148, 148n, 25
- moral selving, 89
- Moral Uplifting Society, 101, 117, 125
- Morrison, Robert, 31
- mosques, 159
- Mozi, 92–93, 199n, 6
- Muehlebach, Andrea, 208–09
- multiethnic societies, 46–51
- Muslims. See Islam and Muslims
- mutual aid, 22, 137
- mutualist political merit-making, 11, 54, 71–75, 83–85, 203
- Myanmar Muslim Religious School, 168
- Nagata, Judith, 51
- Nanjing Gong temple, 142
- Nanjing Treaty, 31

232 Index

- Nash, June C., 199n. 5
 National Development of Reform Commission, 37n. 69
 National Front, 145
 National Kidney Foundation, 82 natural disasters. See disaster relief neighborhood deities and rituals, 181–82, 187 neighborhood groups, 42 neighborhood temples, 140, 142. See also temple-based religion neoliberalism, 13, 58, 126, 208–11
 New Economic Policy (NEP), 46, 50, 75, 78
 New Era College, 145
 New Life Movement, 124
 New Religion to Save the World, 28
 New Villages, 82, 117
 Nine Emperor Temple, 82
 1929 Regulation on the Supervision of Charitable Organizations, 29
 No. 1 People's Hospital, 31 non-governmental organizations (NGOs). See also specific organization names and alternative forms of goodness, 180, 196–97
 and civic selving, 126
 and community ritual, 182
 and democratization of Taiwan, 45
 and dormant social networks, 156
 and engaged religion, 17
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 112 and god associations, 43 and growth of Tzu Chi, 1
 and image of unlimited goodness, 202, 212
 impact of economic reforms, 52
 and interfering state hypothesis, 58 and modern state politics, 6 non-governmental service sector, 10 political engagement of, 7
 and political merit-making, 57, 71–73, 75, 78, 80, 84–85
 and religious differences, 193
 and social capital cultivation, 142
 and temple-based religion, 44
 and volunteerism, 115–16, 206
 non-profit organizations, 38–39, 65, 72, 107, 119, 202–03. See also non-governmental organizations (NGOs); specific organization names non-state religions, 11 nursing homes, 147, 161–62. See also old age homes nurturance functions, 45, 154, 156 “obliged workers,” 114. See also volunteerism old age homes, 67–70, 135, 140, 175, 203 opportunity education, 124
orang asli (indigenous peoples), 168 organizational networks, 100, 109 organizational transparency, 5 orphans and orphanages, 5, 23, 25, 27–28, 200, 200n. 6 “Oversight of Temple Religions,” 102
 Pacey, Scott Thomas, 113
 Palmer, David A., 31 parades and processions, 139–40, 148, 182–84, 186–88 Pay Fong Secondary School, 171n. 24 peace, 195
Peking, A Social Survey (Burgess and Gamble), 32 Penang Chinese, 50
 Pentecostalism, 167, 194
Peranakan, 48, 145 permit badges, 26 philanthropy, 20, 22, 28, 43, 61, 66, 192, 197. See also industrialized philanthropy pilgrimage sites, 42, 140, 148, 163 political liberalization, 7 political merit-making and Buddhist values, 24
 and civic selving, 125
 and cultural heritage of goodness, 94–100 defensive, 70–71, 85, 149, 203 described, 9, 11–12, 54, 59–60 enclaved, 75–76, 83, 85, 203
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 109
 and image of unlimited goodness, 212
 mutualist, 11, 54, 71–75, 83–85, 203
 and religious differences, 192–94
 and social capital cultivation, 149
 and spiritual merit-making, 74 terminology related to, 90 political variation, 9 popular religion, 20, 44
 Portes, Alejandro, 133
 Portuguese colonialism, 47, 75 possession. See spirit mediums poverty relief, 146
 and dormant social networks, 157
 and education programs, 26
 and the gift economy, 129
 in Han Dynasty, 23
 and limitations of innovation, 174
 and social capital cultivation, 143, 148

- Practicing Ethnography in a Globalizing World* (Nash), 199n. 5
- Presbyterians, 86, 103, 110, 116, 166–67, 204
- privatization, 3
- processions. See parades and processions
- Project Hope, 66
- proselytizing
- and civic selving, 123
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102, 106
  - and political development of Malaysia, 47
  - and state failure hypothesis, 58
  - and state protection of Malay Muslims, 57, 76–77, 202
  - and Tzu Chi innovations, 170, 172
  - and the YMCA, 32
- Protestant United Church, 67
- Protestants/Protestantism
- and belief systems of social engagement, 204
  - and the Chinese revolution, 34
  - and civic selving, 122
  - and community ritual, 182, 184–85
  - and definitions of religion, 6
  - and dormant social networks, 155, 157
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 102–03
  - history in China, 16
  - impact of economic reforms, 52
  - and the Malaysian Seditious Act, 77
  - during Mao era, 34
  - and missionizing in Asia, 12, 16, 31–33
  - and political merit-making, 61
  - “Protestantized religiosity,” 114–15
  - and religious differences, 196
  - and scope of study, 16
  - and social capital cultivation, 146
- psychological counseling, 173
- public good
- and changing conceptions of goodness, 177
  - and cultural heritage of goodness, 96
  - and volunteerism, 115
- Public Security Bureau, 65
- Puming Pagoda, 62
- Putnam, Robert, 132n. 9
- Qianlong period, 26
- Qianyuan Guan, 160, 193
- Qing Dynasty
- and benevolent halls and societies, 21, 24, 30
  - and community ritual, 181
  - and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113
  - emergence of social organizations, 20
  - and evolution of redemptive societies, 29
  - and evolution of welfare in China, 21, 24
  - and local aid, 148
  - and models of charity, 142
  - and political development of Taiwan, 40
  - and Protestant missionaries, 31
  - and Tongshanhui, 25–26
  - and women’s participation in benevolent halls, 27
- Qingliang Si temple, 206
- Qingshan King’s temple, 80
- Qiu, Ms., 106
- Qiushuang, Master, 62–63, 164
- Quanzhou Association, 42, 138–39
- Quanzhou Merchants Association, 75, 139, 149
- Reagan, Ronald, 10, 12, 45, 211
- real estate values, 139
- reciprocity. See social capital
- recycling, 38, 49–50, 87, 110
- Red Cross, 12, 28, 66, 175n. 26
- Red Guards, 114
- redemptive societies
- and colonial history of Malacca, 21
  - and cultural heritage of goodness, 100
  - eradication under GMD, 39
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 101
  - impact of anti-superstition campaigns, 52
  - impact of colonial history in Malacca, 51
  - and internetwork connections, 158
  - during Mao era, 35
  - origin of term, 27
  - women founders, 176
- Redfield, Peter, 7
- refugee populations, 168
- Registry of Societies, 75, 78
- Regulation Governing Venues for Religious Activities, 36
- Regulations on Religious Affairs, 36
- Regulations on the Accounting System of Non-governmental Non-profit Organizations, 38
- Regulations on the Management of Religious Sites, 64
- “religion” concept, 6–7, 20
- Religious Affairs Bureau (RAB), 39, 60, 66, 68–69, 111, 160, 194
- Religious Affairs Regulation, 64
- Religious Charity Week, 37, 60, 83
- religious differences, 191–94, 207
- religious engagement. See engaged religion
- religious freedom, 35
- religious repression, 3

234 Index

- ren* (benevolence), 91–92
 Republic of China, 186 Republican period (1912–1949), 27–31
 reterritorialization, 88 retribution. See cosmic retribution Richard, Timothy, 31
 Riegel, Jeffrey, 92 righteousness, 24 ritual propriety, 24, 183–84
 Robbins, Joel, 5, 126
 Rotary Club, 72 rotating credit associations, 42
 Rowe, William, 24

sangha, 59, 108
 Sanhsia, Taiwan, 134–35, 181
 Saxer, Martin, 189 scholarships, 4, 43, 63, 106, 143
Scripture of the Field of Blessings and Merit, 96
 Seck Kia Eenh (Sakyamuni Monastery), 48–49, 49f. 2.2, 86, 86n. 1
 Seck Kia Eenh Kindergarten, 86, 87f. 4.1
 Second World War, 181 secret societies, 78 sectarianism, 28
 secularism, 196
     and community ritual, 181–82
     and cultural heritage of goodness, 90, 99–100
     and Foster’s “limited good,” 199
     and industrialized philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
     in Malaysia, 51
     and prospects for socially engaged Chinese religions, 3
     and “religion” concept, 6 Sedition Act, 58, 76–77 self-cultivation, 28, 98, 193 self identity
     and civic selving, 12
     and effects of globalization, 10
     and industrialized philanthropy, 2
     and nature of goodness, 13
     and Protestantism, 12 Seu Teck Sean Tong, 48
 Seven Fields of Blessing, 109
 shamanism, 163
shan, 90
 Shanghai, 18n. 25
 Shanghai Children’s Welfare Association, 36
shanren, 90
shanshi, 90
shantangs. See benevolent halls and societies Shanxi province, 106, 184

shanxing, 90
 Shaolin Charity and Welfare Foundation, 36
 Shaolin Monastery, 175n. 26
 Shaolin Temple, 36
 Sheng Yen, 107
shengsheng, 25
 Shi, Lang, 40–41, 139
 Shi, Yongxin, 36, 175n. 26
 Shimenkan, 174
 Shinto, 44, 52, 102
 Shunzhi period, 26
 Singapore, 15n. 20
 Six Perfections, 96
 Smith, Joanna Handlin, 25, 99, 122 social capital alternatives to, 149
     bridging and bonding forms, 132n. 9
     and catalyzing dormant social ties, 153, 155–56
     and charisma-based social ties, 162
     and the Cheng Hoon Teng, 144–45
     and Christianity, 146–47
     and civic selving, 14
     and cultural boundaries, 182
     and effects of innovation, 150–52
     and fostering of community engagement, 148
     and the gift economy, 127–28, 131
     and globalization of religious philanthropy, 105
     and goodness in Chinese societies, 201
     and image of unlimited goodness, 200–02, 212
     and internetnetwork connections, 158–59
     and limitations of innovation, 172–75
     and local temples, 133–37 and Lukang’s temples, 137–44
     and political merit-making, 66, 79, 149
     qualities and limits of, 131–33 and role of women religious philanthropy, 176
     and social networks, 14–15
     and social welfare, 177 sources of, 148
     and trends in religious engagement, 149
     and Tzu Chi innovations, 168–69, 172
 social hierarchies, 129 social networks, 157–62. See also social capital Social Service Department, 161 social services, 3. See also welfare services social welfare Chinese state role in, 22–23 evolution in China, 23 and Hanshan Temple, 63

- during Mao era, 35
- and political merit-making, 60, 83
- and the post-Mao era, 37–38
- and regulation of redemptive societies, 29
- and social capital cultivation, 177
- and state failure, 58
- state outsourcing of, 53
- and state responsibility for welfare spending, 11
- Socialist morality, 124
- Societies Act, 75–76
- Society Department, 71
- sola fide* (by belief alone) doctrine, 181
- Soldier Service Department, 32
- Song Dynasty, 23
- “sons of the soil” (bumiputeras), 46, 75
- southeast China flood of 1991, 37
- speaking in tongues, 166–67, 196
- special interest groups, 147
- spirit mediums, 38n. 70, 139, 153–54, 176, 183, 189, 195–96
- spirit money, 129
- spiritual merit-making, 74
- Sri Lankan Buddhism, 86n. 1
- Sri Sathya Sai Baba Organization, 81
- St. John’s, 146
- St. Theresa Church, 49, 78, 86
- St. Vincent de Paul, 118
- standardization of practices, 107
- State Administration for Religious Affairs (SARA), 36–37, 37n. 69, 55
- State Administration of Taxation, 37n. 69
- state failure hypothesis, 58–59, 84
- state propaganda, 70
- state retrenchment, 10, 85
- state-run relief agencies, 32
- Still Thoughts Abode, 1–2, 56, 111
- Still Thoughts Book Pavilion, 118
- “sub-ethnic” identity, 51
- subsidies, 23, 69
- Sukurato, Komukai, 28
- Sun Dian Ci, 80
- Sun, Yanfei, 109
- Sungai Way Old Age Home, 82, 82n. 35
- surname associations, 41, 43, 47, 80, 117, 145, 158
- surveillance functions, 45
- sutra chanting clubs, 117, 144, 172, 193
- Suzhou, China, 18, 18n. 25, 157
- Suzhou University, 31, 63
- syncretism, 28, 30, 48

- Taiping Jing (The Classic of the Great Peace), 94
- Taipower, 75

- Taiwan
  - and accounting practices of non-profits, 39
  - change in state/religion relationship, 4
  - changes in religious engagement, 21
  - and Chinese imperial history, 20
  - civic selving in, 123–25
  - and community ritual, 182, 184
  - and convergence in religious philanthropy, 86
  - and cultural heritage, 190–91
  - and definitions of religion, 16
  - “de-sacralized goodness,” 178
  - effects of democratization, 44
  - and extent of Tzu Chi, 17
  - and founding of Tzu Chi, 17
  - and “Great Love” concept, 199
  - and growth of Buddhism, 10, 16
  - and innovation of goodness, 153
  - and legacy of colonial rule, 6
  - legacy of early missionaries, 32
  - location of research, 18
  - and market reforms, 8
  - and mobility of populations, 9
  - and modernization pressures, 201
  - and national promotion of engaged religion, 211
  - and neoliberal reforms, 13
  - political development of, 45
  - and political merit-making, 11, 54, 71–75, 83–84, 203
  - primary research in, 18n. 25
  - regulation of redemptive societies, 29
  - religious-based philanthropy, 48
  - and scope of study, 16
  - social capital of temple-based religion, 137–44
  - and state failure hypothesis, 58, 61
  - and state outsourcing of social welfare, 53
  - and state welfare spending, 10
  - and urbanization, 158
  - and varied forms of religious engagement, 11
- Taiwan Buddhism, 100, 107, 113
- Taiwan Christian Service (TCS), 103
- Taiwan Presbyterian Church, 103
- Taixu, 96, 107–08, 108n. 69
- Taman Megah Handicapped and Disabled Children’s Home, 81
- Tambiah, S. J., 59
- Tan, Chee-Beng, 34
- taxation, 95, 130, 203
- technological advance, 9, 18
- temple-based religion. See also Buddhists/ Buddhism; specific temple names
  - and background of Chinese religions, 21

- temple-based religion (cont.)
 and changing conceptions of goodness, 176
 and colonial legacies, 4
 and community identity, 188–90
 and community ritual, 181
 and definitions of religion, 7
 and goodness concept, 4
 growth of, 16
 impact of anti-superstition campaigns, 52
 and political development of Malaysia, 47
 and scope of study, 16
 and social capital cultivation, 133–44, 149 temple committees, 43, 119, 139–43 and variety of NGOs, 43
 Thai Buddhism, 59, 86n. 1
 Thatcher, Margaret, 12, 45, 211
 Theravada Buddhism, 86n. 1 thin social ties, 158–59
 “three-no” policy, 56
 Three-Self Patriotic Movement, 68, 161, 194
 Tianfei Gong, 186
 Tianhou temple and community building, 42–43
 and community ritual, 182–84
 and cosmopolitanism, 119
 and internetwork connections, 159–60
 and the Mazu cult, 40
 and political merit-making, 72–74
 political power of, 139
 and registration of NGOs, 44
 and social capital cultivation, 140, 143
 and tourism, 138
 Tianjin Treaty, 31
 Tibetan Buddhism, 189
 Ting, K.H. (Ding Guanxun), 36, 120
 Tocqueville, Alexis de, 11
 Tongshanhui (“Society for Sharing Goodness”), 25–29, 101 total community construction, 116 tourism, 138–40, 186, 192–93
Tract of Taishang on Action and Response, 98 transferable merit, 97
 transnationalism, 30, 51, 88, 104, 106. See also globalization transparency, 5, 38–39
 Tri-Ratana Welfare Society, 81
 True Jesus Church, 165–67, 194, 196 trust. See social capital Tsu, Yu-Yue, 22, 24
 Tun Sir Tan Cheng Lock, 79
 Tzu Chi Foundation and charisma-based social ties, 167
 and civic selving, 123–24
 and community ritual, 185
 and convergence in religious philanthropy, 86, 89, 207–08
 and cosmopolitanism, 118, 121
 and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113–14, 116–19
 and democratization in Taiwan, 44–45
 and dormant social networks, 154–56
 and embodiment of religious principles, 120 and end of martial law in Taiwan, 52
 as focus of study, 17
 and globalization of religious philanthropy, 100, 102, 105–12
 headquarters, 56f. 3.1
 and image of unlimited goodness, 200–01
 impact of economic reforms, 52
 influence of, 205–06 and innovation in Malacca, 168–72
 and interfering state hypothesis, 58
 and land acquisition strategies, 55–56, 202
 and limitations of innovation, 174
 and the Malaysian Sedition Act, 77
 and Ministry of Foreign Affairs event, 1
 and nurturance functions, 45
 and political merit-making, 54–57, 60, 71–72
 and relief work, 37
 and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 50
 and religious differences, 193
 and scope of study, 2
 and state provision of social goods, 10 and state/religious relationship in Taiwan, 3–4 Tzu Chi International Medical Association (TIMA), 168–69
 Tzu Chi Teachers’ Club, 171
 and volunteerism, 205–06
 U.S. Constitution, 13
 UN Refugee Agency (UNHCR), 168
 UNESCO, 188, 190
 United Christian Nethersole Foundation, 68, 161
 United Front, 34, 56, 68–69
 United Front Work Department, 37n. 69, 62n. 15, 186, 200
 United Nations, 116, 191
 United States, 10–13 universal goodness, 2, 11–12, 15, 54, 194.
See also unlimited goodness universal love, 120–21, 199n. 6 unlimited goodness
 and alternative forms of goodness, 179–80, 212
 in Chinese context, 200–08

- and convergence in religious philanthropy, 212
- and cultural boundaries, 186 described, 19
- and globalization of religious philanthropy, 109
- origin of concept, 198–200
- urbanization, 18, 23, 79, 158, 201

- village deities and rituals, 181–82, 184–85. See also temple-based religion
- Virtuous Girls' Schools, 30
- volunteerism
  - and civic selving, 121–22, 124–26, 205–06
  - and convergence in religious philanthropy, 87–89
  - and creation of new religious subjectivities, 113–20
  - and dormant social networks, 155
  - and goodness concept, 5
  - and location of research, 18
  - and mobilization of resources, 14
  - and social capital cultivation, 135, 148
  - and Tzu Chi, 172, 205–06

- Wakeman, Fredric, Jr., 24
- Wang, Huimei, 73
- Wang, Mr., 67–68
- Wang, Ms., 161
- Warring States period, 189
- Way of the Celestial Master, 97
- Weber, Max, 70, 147
- weishan*, 90
- Welch, Holmes, 105
- welfare services
  - and background of Chinese religions, 21
  - and civic selving, 125
  - impact of economic reforms, 52
  - and political merit-making, 72, 78
  - and religious-based philanthropy in Malaysia, 49
  - and state retrenchment, 10
  - “welfare society” designation, 34
- Wenchang, 26
- widows and widowers, 24–25, 27
- Wielander, Gerda, 120, 120n. 89
- “willed workers,” 114
- women
  - changing roles in charity work, 128, 143, 150–51, 154, 156–57, 175–76
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 105
  - participation in benevolent halls, 27
  - participation in redemptive societies, 30–31
  - and social capital cultivation, 135
  - and social networks, 14–15
  - in Tzu Chi, 45
- World Red Swastika Society, 28, 31
- World War II, 134
- Wu, Yaozong, 32
- Wuling Temple, 135–36

- Xi, Jinping, 164
- Xiangkong, Master, 164
- Xingkong, Master, 63f. 3.2, 62–64, 164–65, 166f. 6.2
- xingshan*, 90
- Xingtian Gong, 116
- Xinzu Gong temple, 142
- Xiyuan Temple, 173–74
- Xuanhua (Hsuan Hua), 108
- Xuanmiao Guan, 27
- Xuanzang, 118

- yamen*, 26
- Yan, Mayfair, 132
- Yan, Yunxiang, 128, 131–32
- Yang, Dongming, 25
- Yang, Liensheng, 93
- Yang, Ms., 106
- Yang, Xinhua, 131
- Yangji Yuan, 23
- yayasan*, 79
- Yenching University, 32
- Yiguandao, 29, 34, 52, 110
- yiju*, 90
- Yin, Xinhui, 160, 176, 193
- Yinshun, 107, 108n. 69
- Yongning Temple, 135–36
- Young Buddhists Association, Malaysia (YBAM)
  - and civic selving, 125
  - and cosmopolitanism, 118
  - and creation of new religious subjectivities, 117
  - and globalization of religious philanthropy, 112
  - and internetwork connections, 158
  - and political merit-making, 77
  - and Tzu Chi innovations, 172
- Young Men's Christian Association (YMCA), 12, 21, 31–32, 102, 115–16, 206
- Young Women's Christian Association (YWCA), 31–32
- Youth Communist League, 116
- Yunnan, 18, 18n. 25, 157, 174, 176, 184

- zakat*, 95, 194
- Zhang, Zai, 200n. 6
- Zhenchan, Master, 36, 36n. 68

238 Index

Zheng, Chenggong (Koxinga), 40

Zheng, He, 186

Zhenkong jiao, 101

Zhicheng Benevolent Association, 72

Zhicheng Charitable Society, 142

Zhongyi Charitable Society, 43, 117, 142

Zhongyi temple, 43

Zhongyong (Doctrine of the Mean), 92

Zhou, Dian'en, 146, 156, 161

Ziji Dian temple, 143

Zijidian Educational Foundation, 44,

72, 117

zuo haoshi, 90*zuo shanshi*, 90