Index

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Page Range</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>15–17</td>
<td>acidosis</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>acromegaly</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>264, 265</td>
<td>adjustable flange tracheostomy tubes</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>306–310</td>
<td>adverse events causes of human factors related</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>309, 310–314</td>
<td>human factor role in avoiding</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>331</td>
<td>aerosol generating procedures (AGPs)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19</td>
<td>age, airway reflex sensitivity</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>118, 119, 120</td>
<td>AirQ blocker, 104–105</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>337</td>
<td>airway adjuncts. See also airway exchange catheters; bougies; stylets</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>301</td>
<td>airway management training, 301 anatomical predictors of difficulty, 38, 39</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>148–149</td>
<td>awake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>284</td>
<td>bleeding airway</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>39, 41</td>
<td>contextual issues</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>50, 51</td>
<td>conventional strategies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>251–253</td>
<td>critically ill patient</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Index

anaemic hypoxia, 9, 10
anaesthesia, 87. See also general anaesthesia; local anaesthesia coronavirus disease (COVID-19), 325–328, 329
dental surgery, 214–215
hypnotics with, 87–88
for laryngeal surgery, 226 maxillofacial surgery, 217–219 mortality attributable to, 22 opioids with, 20, 87–88
pre-hospital, 275
reversal of, 87
anaesthesia airway complications. See epidemiology of airway management complications anaesthesia claims, 29, 30 anaesthetic agents, laryngeal reflexes and, 19–21 anaesthetic circuits, decontamination of, 318–319
anatomy, 1, 8
bronchial tree, 5–6
cervical spine, 6–7
difficult airway predictors, 38, 39 difficult direct laryngoscopy (DL), 123, 125 epiglottis, 4–5
glottis, 4–5
mouth opening and gape, 1, 2 nose and nasal cavities, 2–3, 4 oral cavity and oropharynx, 1–2, 3
paediatric airway, 192
subglottic airway, 5, 6 temporomandibular joint, 1, 2 tracea, 5–6
ultrasound-visible, 63
angioneurotic oedema, 1 ankylosing spondylitis, airway assessment, 53 anaoixia, membrane potential effects, 15–17 anterior column, 123, 125
anti-sialogogues, 84, 149
apnoea, 9
airway management planning to avoid, 44
paediatric, 202
pre-oxygenation and, 72–73
rate of arterial desaturation, 11–13 apnoic oxygenation, 75–77 apnoic reflex, 17
Arndt Endobronchial Blocker, 243 artrial desaturation, apnoea, 11–13 arytenoid, dislocation and subluxation, 34 aspiration, 31, 91
airway device selection to avoid, 92
airway management planning to avoid, 44
airway management planning to critically ill patient, 253 extubation and post-operative care, 96, 178 high-risk cases, 93–94, 95 lower-risk cases, 95 obese patient risk, 208–209
pre-hospital, 276
preoperative assessment, 92, 93 preoperative plans to avoid, 92–93 respiratory sequelae of, 91–92 RSI, 92–94, 95
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 25, 92, 107, 110, 119
tracheal intubation, 25, 91–92
treatment, 95
ultrasound assessment of risk, 69, 70–71 atelectasis, resorption, 75 atlantoaxial subluxation, 52–53 atlas, 6–7
Australian Anaesthesia Incident Monitoring Study (AIMS), 91–92, 96 awake extubation, 180, 181, 182 awake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 148
airway evaluation, 148–149 airway management strategy, 148–149 anaesthetic monitoring, 150 explanation and consent, 149
maxillofacial trauma, 220
oxygenation, 150
premedication, 149
sedation, 150
topical anaesthesia of upper airway, 150 awake tracheal intubation, 80
aspiration, 92
bleeding airway, 286
consent for, 80 decision making for, 80
extubation, 86
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB)-guided, 82, 86 laryngoscopy for, 82
obese patient, 210–211
oxygenation technique, 82–83, 84 performance of, 85–86
with predicted difficult airway, 41–42, 43 preparation and set-up for, 81–82 sedation for, 85
topicalisation and nerve blockade for, 38–55 video laryngoscope-guided, 82, 85–86, 157 axis, 6–7
backwards, upward, rightward pressure (BURP), 126 bag-mask ventilation, during cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 278–279 bag-valve-mask ventilation (BVM), 174 airway management training, 301
pre-hospital airway management, 273
Barcroft’s classification of hypoxia, 9, 10
Baska mask, 104–105
Beckwith–Wiedemann syndrome, 50 bedside interactive airway examination, 53–55 benzocaine, 21
benzodiazepines, 20
Berman airway, 143–144, 146 bimixillary osteotomy, 216, 217 bleeding ear, nose and throat (ENT) surgery, 241 with laryngectomy stoma, 269
maxillofacial surgery, 219–220
maxillofacial trauma, 220–221
reduction of bleeding in, 282
bleeding airway, 282
airway evaluation, 284
awake approach, 286
caveats, 289
compression from around airway, 288 cricothyroid membrane identification, 284 cricothyroidotomy or tracheostomy, 285, 286–287
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 285–286 etiology and problems of, 282 fluid/blood resuscitation and correction of coagulopathy, 283 from gastrointestinal tract, 288
haemoptysis, 288
initial management, 282
larynx, 287
oxygenation, 283
post-operative management, 289 profuse, 287–288
rapid sequence induction (RSI), 284–285
retrograde intubation, 285, 287–288 steps for airway management, 283–284
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 285, 286
topicalisation and sedation, 286 from tracheostomy, 287
in unconscious patient, 288–289 blood resuscitation, bleeding airway, 283 body mass index (BMI), 206. See also obesity cricoid force and, 92–93, 95 critically ill patient with high, 253–254 epidemiology of airway management complications with, 24, 30 hypoxia risk and, 78
PDT contraindication with high, 261 as predictor of difficult airway management, 39 Bonfils rigid optical scope, 158, 159 bougies, 130
airway complications, 32–33
airway trauma, 134–135
confirmation of tracheal placement, 134
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 124, 126–127, 130–135
during emergency front of neck airway (eFONA), 136
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201
optimal use tips, 131
single-use or reusable, 131–134
for supraglottic airway device (SGA), 135–136
videolaryngoscopy (VL), 135, 157
Bronmely, Elaine, 29
bronchial blocker (BB), 243, 244 advantages and disadvantages, 243, 246–247 complications, 247–248
difficult cases, 247, 248
bronchial tree, anatomy, 5–6 bronchoscopy, foreign body removal, 204–205
paediatric airway, 201
Bullard laryngoscope, 153
calling for help, 312
cannot intubate, cannot oxygenate (CICO), 25
airway management training, 303
critically ill patient, 256–258 front of neck airway (FONA) for, 47–48, 171
obese patient, 211–212
obstetric airway management, 188–190, 189 cannot intubate, cannot ventilate (CICV), 171 cannulae, emergency transtracheal, 172–173 capnography during cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 279, 280 endobronchial intubation detection, 129 face mask ventilation, 98–99, 100–101 oesophageal intubation detection, 30–31, 127
pre-hospital, 275
capsaicin, 17
carbon monoxide poisoning, 9 cardiac arrest. See also cardiopulmonary resuscitation Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 329
pre-hospital advanced airway management (PHAAM) in, 273–275 randomised clinical trials of airway management during, 280–281 stepwise approach to airway management during, 278, 279 cardiopulmonary bypass, bleeding airway, 285
cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 278, 281 tag-mask ventilation during, 278–279 classic laryngeal mask airway (cLMA) use in, 110
Coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 329
objectives of airway management during, 278 randomised clinical trials of airway management during, 280–281
stepwise approach to airway management during, 278, 279 supraglottic airway device (SGA) during, 280 tracheal intubation during, 279, 280 videolaryngoscopy (VL) during, 280 Carina, 5–6
cartilage, ultrasound appearance, 63 cell death, hypoxia, 15–17 cellular hypoxia. See hypoxia cellular respiration, 9 cervical spine

anatomy, 6–7
rheumatoid arthritis, 52–53

cervical spine protection, 276–277 children. See paediatric airway chin lift grip, 99
China, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) in, 321–322 cigarette smoking, airway reflex sensitivity, 19 cis-atracurium, 88
classic laryngeal mask airway (cLMA), 102, 103–106 in cardiopulmonary resuscitation and neonatal resuscitation, 110 in difficult airway management, 110 paediatric airway management, 196–197 practicalities and routine use, 106–110 cleaning, 316
clinical environment, 314
clinician positioning for awake tracheal intubation, 81–82
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 142–143
for implementation of planned airway management, 44 closed systems, laryngeal surgery, 228, 229
C-MAC, 200
C-MAC Video Stylet, 158, 159
coagulopathy correction, bleeding
airway, 283
CobraPLA, 104–105
cocaine, 84
cognitive aids, 313–314
Cohn FlexiTip Endobronchial Blocker, 243 combination techniques, 166, 170 development and advantages, 166 direct laryngoscopy (DL) and flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201 combined technique, ultrasound combination techniques, 166
COVID-19, 329
management (PHAAM) in, 168, 167, 170
skill acquisition, 166–167
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 168 videolaryngoscopy (VL) and flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 47, 166, 167, 168–170 videolaryngoscopy (VL) limitations, 168 virtual reality training, 167 combined technique, ultrasound localisation of cricothyroid membrane, 67 Combitube, 104–105
communication, 312–313
compotence, 314
composite airway failure, 23 computed tomography (CT), airway assessment, 51, 52, 56 computer-assisted airway analysis, 55 d conduit, videolaryngoscopes with, 156–157 cone-beam computed tomography (CBCT), 56 Confidential Enquiries into Maternal Deaths (CEMD), 91–92 congenital conditions, difficult airway management with, 50 conscious sedation, for awake tracheal intubation, 85
Index

consent
for awake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 149
for awake tracheal intubation, 80 contact transmission, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 322–324 continuous positive airway pressure (CPAP)
extubation, 198
pre-oxygenation, 75
controlled ventilation, classic laryngeal mask airway (CLMA) for, 109 coordination, 311, 312 co-phenylcaine, 84
airway management during cardiac arrest, 329
anaesthesia, 325–328, 329
epidemiology, 321, 322
extubation after, 328
intubation for critical care, 324–328
novel techniques, 329–329
viral transmission, infection control and personal protective equipment, 322–324 craniofacial surgery, 216–217, 218, 219 cricothyroidotomy, 172, 173
identification for needle cricothyroidotomy, 172, 173
identification for scalp-boogie technique, 175 identification in bleeding airway, 284 identification in obese, 176, 211–212 lidocaine injection through, 85, 90, 150 ultrasound localisation of, 55, 63, 64–67, 68 cricothyroid puncture, anatomy, 5, 6 cricothyroidotomy, 172. See also needle cricothyroidotomy
bleeding airway, 285, 286–287
large-bore cannula, 172, 175 scalp-boogie technique, 175–176 critical care, intubation for, 324–328 critical illness, 250, 258. See also coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19) airway assessment, 251–253
aspiration risk, 253
drug choice, 254
failed intubation, 256
human factors, 250–251, 252 intubation bundle approach, 250 intubation confirmation, 255
laryngoscopy, 254–255
obesity with, 253–254
Plan A, 253
Plan B/C, 256
Plan D, 256–258
post-intubation management, 255, 256, 328
pre-oxygenation, 253
cross-contamination prevention, 318–319 Crouzon syndrome, 216–217, 218, 219 cruciform ligament, 7 uffed tracheostomy tubes, 263, 264 databases, airway, 26, 27–28 decannulation, tracheostomy, 266 decommissioning of airway equipment, 316
-cleaning, 316
coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 328–328
-cross-contamination prevention, 318–319
definition, 316
disinfection, 316, 317
healthcare-associated infection (HAI), 316
-methods, 316–317
-problems and solutions, 318–318, 319
-single-use versus reusable equipment, 317
-sterilisation, 317
-tracking of, 319
deep breathing technique, pre-oxygenation, 73 debreathing technique, 198 deferral of airway management, 43 delayed sequence intubation (DSI), as pre-oxygenation alternative, 75 deliberate practice, 300 dentition, 72–73
dental surgery, 214, 221–222
anaesthesia, 214–215
emergency, 215–216
nasal intubation, 215
patient population, 214
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 214–215 throat packs, 215 departmental organisation. See organisation, departmental and hospital desaturation
-apnoea, 11–13
-pre-oxygenation and, 72–73
-after suxamethonium, 14–15 desflurane, 19
dexmedetomidine, 85
diazepam, 20–21
difficult airway airway pathology associated with, 51
-anatomical predictors, 38, 39
-anatomically versus physiologically difficult, 271 awake tracheal intubation for, 80
bleeding airway, 285–286
classic laryngeal mask airway (CLMA) use with, 110 congenital conditions associated with, 50
coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 328
critically ill patient, 250 decision making for anticipated, 39–44 drugs for anticipated, 89–90
epidemiology, 22–23, 24
extubation, 48, 179, 181–183, 202
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 147–150 information reporting, 296–298 medical conditions associated with, 52–53, 54 multimodal management, 166, 170
obese patient, 206–207, 210
obstetric, 185, 186, 188–189, 189
paediatric, 193, 198, 199
re-establishment of spontaneous ventilation with, 89
-safe implementation of planned approach, 44
-structured approach to unanticipated, 44–48
-supraglottic airway device (SGA) use with, 117–119, 120
-video laryngoscopy (VL), 46, 158 difficult airway algorithm, 14 Difficult Airway Society (DAS) airway alert form, 183–184
-case database, 298
cricoid force guidelines, 94
extubation algorithms, 179, 180, 181, 182
-flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation with supraglottic airway device (SGA) recommendations, 168
ICU Intubation Checklist, 313–314
-obstetric difficult airway guidelines, 185, 186, 187–188, 189 difficult direct laryngoscopy (DL) airway adjuncts to resolve, 124 alternative laryngoscope blades to resolve, 123–124
-anatomical causes of, 123, 125
Index

difficult face mask ventilation (FMV), 46 management, 100–101
prediction, 99–100
diffusion, oxygen, 10–11 direct flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 122, 129
airway adjuncts, 124
airway complications, 32
alternative laryngoscope blades, 123–124 anatomical causes of difficult, 123, 125 anatomical predictors of difficulty, 38, 39
bleeding airway, 285–286 cervical spine anatomy, 7 difficult or failed, 46 flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation combination with, 166, 170 function of standard Macintosh blade, 122 indications, 124–125
key elements, 122, 123
obese patient, 209, 210
patient positioning, 122, 124, 125
performance, 126–127
pre-hospital, 275
preparation, 125
technique, 124–127
technique when using standard Macintosh blade, 123 tracheal tube introducer aid to, 124, 126–127, 130–135 tracheal tube misplacement, 127–129
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 291
disinfection, 316, 317 dislocation, arytenoid, 34 diving response, 17
DOPES mnemonic, 196
double cannula tracheostomy tubes, 263, 264 double tracheal sign, 67–69, 127 double-lumen tube (DLT) advantages and disadvantages, 243, 246–247 airway complications, 33 complications, 247–248
difficult cases, 247, 248
lung separation, 243–246
Down syndrome, 1, 50
droplet transmission, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 322–324 drugs for airway management, 87. See also specific drugs anticipated difficult airway, 89–90
critically ill patient, 254
at extubation, 180–181
hypnotics, 87–88, 275
neuromuscular blocking drugs (NMHDs), 87–89, 177–178, 254, 275 opioids, 20, 87–88, 107, 180–181, 275
paediatric, 193
pre-hospital, 275
reversal of, 87, 88, 177–178 unanticipated airway difficulty, 89
laryngectomy stoma, 269 ear, nose and throat (ENT) surgery, 223. See also head and neck surgery; laryngectomy airway safety and maintenance, 223 face mask ventilation (FMV), 223–224 flexible laryngeal mask airway (FLMA), 224–225, 226
haemorrhage, 241
return of, 240–241
tracheal intubation, 224
Easytube, 104–105
E-C grip, 97, 98, 99
Eclipse, 104–105
education. See airway management training elderly, airway reflex sensitivity, 19 emergency dental surgery, 215–216 emergency department (ED) airway management complications in, 22, 26 videoaryngoscopy (VI) in, 157–158 emergency front of neck airway (eFONA), 33, 171, 176 bedside assessment for, 55 bougie use during, 136
coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 328
critically ill patient, 256–258
incidence, 171
indications and contraindications for, 171 large-bore cannula cricothyroidotomy, 172, 175
management, 172
maxillofacial trauma, 220
needle cricothyroidotomy, 172–174, 175
obese patient, 176, 211–212
paediatric airway, 175–176, 202–204
predictors, 171
pre-emergency front of neck airway (eFONA) management, 171–172
pre-hospital, 276
scalpel-bougie technique, 175–176 surgical tracheotomy technique, 176 techniques, 172
endobronchial intubation
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 128–129 ultrasound confirmation, 67–69, 128, 129
dentistry endoscopy, 58
middle column, 58, 59
nasendoscopy, 58–60
nasopharynx, 143, 145
upper airway, 143
virtual, 36, 60–62
enlurane, 17
Enk Oxygen Flow Modulator, 174 epidemic infection, 321–322 epidemiology of airway management complications, 22, 36 by anatomical location, 33–34
aspiration, 91–93
avoidance, 35–36
database and registry lessons, 26, 27–28 departmental level mini-NAP4 lessons, 29–30, 31 device-related, 32–33 difficulty and failure, 22–23, 24
extubation problems, 177
fatality and sentinel case lessons, 26–29 4th National Audit Project (NAP4) lessons, 23–26 high-risk patient groups, 32 late complications of intubation, 34–35 litigation lessons, 29, 30 eosophageal intubation, 25, 30–31 pulmonary aspiration of gastric contents, 31 role of timing in, 30 epiglottis, anatomy, 4–5 epistaxis, 282
equipment. See also decontamination of airway equipment airway management planning, 44
for awake tracheal intubation, 82, 83
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 141–142
4th National Audit Project (NAP4) recommendations, 293, 294, 296 needle cricothyroidotomy, 172–174
paediatric, 193
single-use versus reusable, 317 standardisation of, 295–296
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 290–291
ergonomics, 300
error triggers, 306–307 Eschmann reusable bougie, 131–135 ether, 19
Index

skill acquisition, 166–167
through supraglottic airway device (SGA), 47, 150–151, 166, 168 tracheal tube advancement, 146–147 tracheal tube selection, 145–146, 147
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 291
tube hang-up, 145, 146–147
videolaryngoscopy (VL)
combination with, 47, 166, 167, 168–170 flow-regulated devices, 174 fluid resuscitation, bleeding airway, 283 flumazenil, 20–21
foreign body, paediatric airway, 204–205 4th National Audit Project (NAP4), 23 aspiration epidemiology, 91–93 emergency department (ED) and ICU, 26
extubation problems, 177
human factors, 306
key points, 23–26
mini-, 29–30, 31
organisation and equipment recommendations, 293, 294, 296 fracture, facial, 220–221 Freemantle score, 159 front of neck airway (FONA), 171. See also emergency front of neck airway anatomical predictors of difficulty, 38, 39 bleeding airway in, 288–289 in cannot intubate, cannot oxygenate (CICO), 47–48, 171 for failed tracheal intubation, 47
Frova bougie, 131–135
Fuji Uniblocker, 243
functional residual capacity (FRC), 72–73, 206 gastric acid reducing therapy, 92 gastric content aspiration. See aspiration gastric ultrasound, 69, 70–71 Gastro-LT, 104–105, 114 gastrointestinal tract, bleeding from, 288 general anaesthesia, 87
obese patient, 207–209
obstetric, 186–187, 188, 189
patient awakening from, 47
with predicted difficult airway, 40–41 structured approach to difficult airway after, 44–48 Gliderrite tube, 146, 147
GlideScope, 153–154
GlideScope AVL, 200
glossopharyngeal nerve, 1–2, 3, 17 glossopharyngeal nerve block, 85, 90 Glit
anatomy, 4–5
lesions, 238–239
glycogen storage disease, 1 glycopyrrolate, 84, 149
Goldenhar syndrome, 50
Greenland’s three column model, 58, 59
Guardian CPV, 104–105
haemodynamics, airway management planning for, 44
haemoptysis, 288
haemorrhage. See bleeding halothane, 17, 19
hand hygiene, 318
hang-up, tracheal tube, 145, 146–147 head and neck pathology
airway assessment, 51, 52
management options, 234 head and neck surgery, 232–233
airway complications, 32
with airway compromise, 233–234, 235, 236 for glottic lesions, 238–239 for mid and lower tracheal lesions, 239–240, 241, 242 with no airway compromise, 233 for oral cavity or oropharyngeal lesions, 234, 237 for subglottic and upper tracheal lesions, 239, 240 for tongue base or supraglottic lesions, 235–238 head-elevated laryngoscopy position (HELP), 207–208
healthcare-associated infection (HAI), 316
heat and moisture exchange (HME) filter, 318–318, 319
high flow nasal oxygen (HFNO), 76–77
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation combination with, 166
laryngeal surgery, 232, 233
obese patient, 208
paediatric airway management, 202
high flow oxygen delivery systems, 73–74 high frequency jet ventilation, 230–231 high pressure source ventilation. See jet ventilation history, 50
airway pathology, 51, 52 congenital conditions, 50 medical conditions associated with difficult airway, 52–53, 54 paediatric airway assessment, 192 histotoxic hypoxia, 9, 10 hold-up sign, 134 hospital organisation. See organisation, departmental and hospital human factors, 305, 314
airway management outcome impact of, 306 assessment prior to airway management, 39, 41 avoidance of airway complications, 35, 36
calling for help, 312
clinical environment, 314
cognitive aids, 305, 314
competence and training, 314
coordination, 311, 312
decision making, 311
definition, 305
derror triggers, 306–307 fixation error, 308–310 intubation in intensive care unit (ICU), 250–251, 252 non-technical skills, 311–313
pre-hospital airway management, 271, 272, 274 preparation and planning, 311 resilience, 310
safeguards, 309, 310–314 situation awareness, 311
stress, 308
teamwork and communication, 312–313
threats, 306–307
Hurler syndrome, 50
hyoscine, 149
hyperangulated blade, videolaryngoscopes with, 155–156 hypoxia, pre-oxygenation and and, 13–14
hypnotics, 87–88
hypoxaemic hypoxia, 9, 10–11, 72 hypoxia, 9, 17, 72
anaemic, 9, 10
arterial desaturation in apnoea, 11–13 classification, 9, 10
desaturation following suxamethonium, 14–15 final common pathway, 15–17 histotoxic, 9, 10
hypoxaemic, 9, 10–11, 72
pre-oxygenation and, 13–14, 72–73
risk stratification, 77–78
stagnant, 9, 10
ICU Intubation Checklist, 313–314
gel, 102, 104–105, 113, 168 ILTS-D, 104–105
imaging. See specific modalities incident reporting, 294–295

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
indirect flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201 indirect laryngoscopy, paediatric airway management, 200–201 infants. See paediatric airway infection. See also pandemic infection airway reflex sensitivity, 18–19 dental, 215–216
healthcare-associated, 316 infection control, coronavirus disease
2019 (COVID-19), 322–324
InfraRed Red Intubation System (IRRIS), as guide for flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB), 286 inhalation anaesthetic agents
anticipated difficult airway, 89
laryngeal reflexes and, 19
innominate artery, 34–35 intensive care unit (ICU). See also critical illness airway management complications in, 22, 26
Difficult Airway Society (DAS)
Intubation Checklist, 313–314 intermittent apnoea techniques, laryngeal surgery, 229 internal laryngeal nerve, 5 intraoperative pneumothorax, ultrasound, 69 intravenous anaesthetic agents
anticipated difficult airway, 89
dental surgery, 214–215
laryngeal reflexes and, 20–21
introducers. See tracheal tube introducers intubating LMA (ILMA), 104–105, 106, 118–119
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB)
intubation, 146, 147, 152
intubation. See also specific techniques airway management training, 301–302
avoidance of airway complications, 36
coronavirus disease 2019
(COVID-19), 324–328
for critical care, 324–328 late airway complications, 34–35
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 291
via supraglottic airway device (SGA), 117–119, 120
intubation bundle, 250
Intubation Difficulty Score (IDS), 159, 207
isoflurane, 17, 19
jaw, anatomy, 1, 2
jet ventilation
laryngeal surgery, 229–232
new technology, 232
subglottic, 231, 232
supraglottic, 231–232
transtracheal, 220, 231, 232 ketamine, 75, 87–88, 89, 254, 275, 325–328
King Vision, 200
Klippel–Feil syndrome, 50 laparoscopic surgery, classic laryngeal mask airway (cLMA) for, 110 large-bore cannula cricothyroidotomy, 172, 175
Larson’s manoeuvre, 178 Laryflex, 153–154
laryngeal handshake, 172, 173 laryngeal mask airway (LMA). See also classic laryngeal mask airway cLMA, 104–105, 116, 118–119, 146, 147, 152
laryngeal masks (LMs), 104–105, 116
laryngeal surgery, 226
closed techniques, 228, 229
high flow nasal oxygen (HFNO)
ventilation, 232, 233 ideal anaesthetic for, 226 induction technique, 229 intermittent apnoea techniques, 229 ejet ventilation, 229–232 open techniques, 228, 229–232, 233
preoperative assessment, 226–227, 228 spontaneous ventilation and insufflation techniques, 229, 230 laryngeal tube (L.T), 102, 104–105, 116 critical airway complications, 34
laryngectomy stoma, 268
complications and emergencies with, 269
routine care for, 268–269 laryngoscope, 4, 5
alternative blades, 123–124
for awake tracheal intubation, 82
decontamination of, 318–318, 319
paediatric, 194–195
standard Macintosh blade, 122, 123 laryngoscopy. See also direct
laryngoscopy
airway management training, 301–302
alternative paths of action for predicted difficult, 42–44 awake techniques with predicted difficult, 41–42, 43
critically ill patient, 254–255 general anaesthesia with predicted
difficult, 40–41
laryngeal surgery, 229
paediatric airway, 194–195, 201
structured approach to unanticipated difficult, 44–48 laryngospasm, 18
anaesthetic agents and, 19–21
at extubation, 178
paediatric, 193
larynx
airway complications, 34 airway reflexes, 17–21
anatomy, 4–5
bleeding airway, 287
lateral positioning, paediatric
extubation, 198
Le Fort I osteotomy, 216, 217
Le Fort II or III osteotomy, 216–217, 218 leadership, 311, 312
lidocaine, 19, 21, 107
anticipated difficult airway, 89–90
for awake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 150
for awake tracheal intubation, 83, 84, 85
at extubation, 180–181
paediatric induction with, 200
light-guided intubation, bleeding airway, 285
lignocaine, 21
litigation, airway complications, 29, 30
LMA classic excel, 104–105
LMA Gastro airway, 104–105, 114
LMA Protector, 102, 104
LMA Classic, 102, 104–105, 113–114, 115
LMA Supreme, 102, 104–105, 113–114, 115
LMA Unique (uLMA), 104–105
local anaesthesia, 87
anticipated difficult airway, 89–90
wake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 150
for awake tracheal intubation, 83–85
laryngeal reflexes and, 21
paediatric induction with, 200
with predicted difficult airway, 42–43
low flow oxygen delivery systems, 73–74
Ludwig’s angina, 216
lung pulse, ultrasound appearance, 65, 69
lung separation, 243, 249
bronchial blocker (BB), 243, 244
choice between double-lumen tube
(DLT) and bronchial blocker (BB), 243, 246–247
complications, 247–248
difficult cases, 247, 248
double-lumen tube (DLT), 243–246 lung sliding, ultrasound appearance, 64, 65, 69 lungs bleeding from, 288
gastric contents in, 91–92 obesity effects, 206 oxygen stores, 72–73
Macintosh blade function of, 122
paediatric airway, 194–195
technique when using, 123 video-laryngoscopes with, 155
MACOCHA score, 251–253
Mallampati classification, 54, 55 mandible, 1, 2
mandibular condyle fracture, 221 mandibular protrusion test, 54, 55 Manujet III pressure-regulated jet-ventilator, 173–174 maxilla, 1, 2
maxillary nerve, 17
maxillary osteotomy, 216–217, 218
maxillofacial surgery, 214, 221–222
anaesthesia, 217–219
craniofacial, 216–217, 218, 219
orthognathic, 216, 217 post-operative haemorrhage, 219–220 for trauma, 221
maxillofacial trauma
airway management, 220 definitive surgery, 221
haemorrhage, 220–221
McCoy laryngoscope, 4
McCoy levering laryngoscope blade, 123–124
McGrath MAC, 200
mean airway pressure, pre-oxygenation, 75 membrane potential, hypoxia effects, 15–17 midazolam, 20–21, 89
middle column, 123, 125
Miller straight blade, 123–124, 194–195 mini-4th National Audit Project (NAP4) study, 29–30, 31 mitochondria, cellular respiration, 9 mivacurium, 88
modified Mallampati classification, 54, 55 Morbus Crouzon, 216–217, 218, 219 morphine, 180–181
mortality
airway complications, 22, 26–29
aspiration, 91–92
 coronaviruses disease 2019 (COVID-19), 321–322
obstetric airway management, 185 mouth
airway complications, 33
bedside assessment, 54, 55 opening and gape, 1, 2
oral cavity, 1–2, 3
multidisciplinary team, 293–295, 296 multimodal airway management, 166, 170.
See also combination techniques multimodal bronchoscopy model, 167 myxoedema, 1
nasal cannulae, apnoeic ventilation, 75–76 nasal cavities
airway complications, 33–34
anatomy, 2–3, 4
nasal intubation
bleeding, 285
damage, 2–3, 4
daughter surgery, 215
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201
maxillofacial surgery, 217–218, 219 nasal oxygen, high flow, 76–77 nasal reflexes, 17
nasal surgery, flexible laryngeal mask airway (FLMA), 225
nasendoscopy, 58–60
nasogastric tube (NGT), for high-risk aspiration cases, 93–94 nasopharyngeal airway, 97–98, 100
paediatric airway management, 194, 195
nasopharyngeal endoscopy, 143, 145
nasopharynx
airway reflexes, 17
anatomy, 1–2, 3
nasotracheal intubation, maxillofacial trauma, 221 National Tracheostomy Safety Project (NTSP), algorithm for airway emergency, 266, 267 neck range of motion, 54, 55 needle cricoid thyroidotomy, 172 in children, 175, 202–203 cricothyroid membrane identification, 172, 173
equipment, 172–174
neonatal resuscitation, classic laryngeal mask airway (cLMA) use in, 110 neostigmine, 88
nerve blockade, for awake tracheal intubation, 83–85 neuromuscular blocking drugs (NMBDs), 87–88
critically ill patient, 254
pre-hospital, 275
re-establishment of spontaneous ventilation, 89
reversal of, 88, 177–178
for supraglottic airway device (SGA) insertion, 88–89
for tracheal intubation, 88 use of, 88
neuroendocrine, hypoxia effects, 15–17 nitrous oxide, 32, 107 nose, anatomy, 2–3, 4 OBESE mnemonic, 206–207 obesity, 25, 206, 212–213
airway assessment, 206–207, 210
airway complications, 32
aspiration risk, 208–209
awake tracheal intubation, 210–211
cannot intubate, cannot oxygenate (CICO), 211–212
critically ill patient, 253–254
definition, 206
difficult airway risk assessment, 206–207, 210
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 209, 210 disappearance and post-anaesthesia care, 212
emergency front of neck airway (eFONA), 176, 211–212 face mask ventilation (FMV) difficulty, 206–207 general anaesthesia preparation and induction, 207–209 patient positioning, 207–208
pre-oxygenation, 208
pulmonary pathophysiology, 206
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 209–210
video-laryngoscopy (VL), 209, 210
Obstetric Anaesthetists Association, 212
Cricoid force guidelines, 94
Obstetric Anaesthetists Association (OAA), obstetric airway guidelines, 185, 186–187–188, 189 obstetrics, 185, 190 airway assessment in, 185–186 causes of difficult airway in, 186
general anaesthesia, 186–187, 188, 189 management after failed intubation, 189–190 management of known difficult airway, 190 morbidity and mortality, 185 unexpected difficult and failed intubation, 188–189, 189 obstructive sleep apnoea (OSA), 2
airway assessment, 53, 54
assessment, 206, 207
occipito-atlanto-axial complex, 6–7

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
Index

oesophageal detector device, 127 oesophageal intubation, 25, 30–31 during cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 279, 280
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 127–128
ultrasound confirmation, 67–69, 127
esophageal seal, supraglottic airway device (SGA), 103 one-hand face mask ventilation, 99 open systems, laryngeal surgery, 228, 229–232, 233
opioids, 20, 87–88
at extubation, 180–181
pre-hospital, 275
supraglottic airway device (SGA) insertion, 107 optical scopes, 158, 159 optical stylic, 124
oral cavity
anatomy, 1–2, 3
lesions, 234, 237
oral digital intubation, bleeding airway, 285 oral intubation, flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201 organisation, departmental and hospital, 293, 298 airway leads in United Kingdom (UK), 293–295, 296 airway teams in the United States of America (USA), 294–295, 296 dissemination of patient information, 296–298 4th National Audit Project (NAP4) recommendations, 293, 294, 296 role of, 293
standardisation of policies and equipment, 295–296 oropharyngeal airway, 97–98, 100
paediatric airway management, 194
oropharynx
airway complications, 33
anatomy, 1–2, 3
lesions, 234, 237
orotracheal intubation, flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB), 143–144, 146 orthognathic surgery, 216, 217 osteotomy, maxillary, 216–217, 218 out-of-hospital cardiac arrest (OHCA).
See cardiac arrest
out-of-hospital environment, videolaryngoscopy (VL) in, 157–158 oxygen delivery (DO₂), 9, 10 anaemic deficits, 9, 10 differential effects of deficits, 9–10 hypoxaemic deficits, 9, 10–11, 72
pre-oxygenation and, 13–14 reduction in apnoea, 11–13 stagnant deficits, 9, 10 oxygen delivery systems, 73–74 oxygenation, 72. See also pre-oxygenation without airway management, 43–44 apnoeic, 75–76
avoidance of airway complications, 35–36
awake flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 150 during awake tracheal intubation, 82–83, 84
bleeding airway, 283
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 125
failed, 47–48
high flow nasal oxygen (HFNO), 76–77
pre-hospital, 275
risk stratification, 77–78 oxygen–haemoglobin dissociation curve, 72–73 PACE tool, 313
paediatric airway, 192, 205
anaesthesia drugs and equipment, 193 anatomical and physiological differences, 192 assessment, 192–193, 198, 199
DOPES mnemonic, 196
emergency front of neck airway (eFONA), 175–176, 202–204 emergency surgical tracheotomy in, 176
extubation, 198, 202
face mask ventilation (FMV), 193–194
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201 foreign body airway obstruction, 204–205
high flow nasal oxygen (HFNO), 202 incidence of difficult, 193 induction with local anaesthesia, 200 induction with spontaneous ventilation, 199 induction with supraglottic airway (SGA), 199
laryngoscopy, 194–195, 201
laryngospasm, 193
nasopharyngeal airway, 194, 195
needle cricothyroidotomy, 175, 202–203 normal tidal volume ventilation via small lumen tube, 202
novel techniques, 202
oropharyngeal airway, 194
patient positioning, 193, 198
rigid straight laryngoscopy and bronchoscopy, 201
scalpel-bougie technique, 175–176
supraglottic airway devices (SGAs), 117, 196–197 surgical cricothyroidotomy, 202, 203–204
tracheal intubation, 195–196
tracheotomy, 266–268
videolaryngoscopy (VL) and other indirect laryngoscopy, 200–201 palatoglossal and palatopharyngeal arches, 1–2, 3 palatoglossal and palatopharyngeal muscles, 1–2, 3 pandemic infection, 321–322, 330
airway management during cardiac arrest, 329
anaesthesia, 325–328, 329
extubation after, 328
intubation for critical care, 324–328
novel techniques, 329–329
viral transmission, infection control and personal protective equipment, 322–324
Papworth BiVent Tube, 243
Parker-Flex Tip, 146, 147 partial airway obstruction, foreign body, 204 patient assessment, 38. See also airway assessment anatomical predictors of difficulty, 38, 39
aspiration risk, 92, 93
contextual issues, 39, 41
laryngeal surgery, 226–227, 228 physiological issues, 38–39, 40 patient information, dissemination of critical, 296–298 patient physiology, airway management planning to maintain, 44
patient positioning
for awake tracheal intubation, 81–82
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 122, 124, 125
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 143–143
for implementation of planned airway management, 44
obese patient, 207–208
paediatric airway management, 193, 198
pre-hospital airway management, 272
pre-oxygenation, 74–75
patients, high risk, 32 percutaneous dilatational tracheostomy (PDT), 260–261 airway management during, 261–262 care after, 262
flexible bronchoscopy during, 262 indications and contraindications, 261 surgical tracheostomy versus, 262–263 ultrasound prior to, 262
peritonsillar abscess, 216 peroxygenation, pre-hospital, 275 personal protective equipment (PPE), coronavirus disease 19 (COVID-19) control, 322–324 pharyngocutaneous fistula, with laryngectomy stoma, 269
pharynx
airway complications, 33, 34
airway reflexes, 17
anatomy, 1–2, 3
lesions, 234, 237
phenylephrine, 84
Pierre Robin syndrome, 50
pleura, ultrasound appearance, 64, 65, 69 pneumonia, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 321–322 pneumonitis, 91
pneumothorax, ultrasound, 69 policy standardisation, 295–296 positive end-expiratory pressure (PEEP), pre-oxygenation, 75 post-anaesthesia care, obese patient, 212 post-intubation management, critically ill patient, 255, 256, 328 posterior column, 123, 125
post-obstructive pulmonary oedema, 178–179 post-operative care aspiration during, 96
bleeding airway, 289
foreign body removal, 205
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 292 post-operative haemorrhage, maxillofacial surgery, 219–220 pre-anaesthetic airway assessment. See airway assessment pre-anaesthetic airway endoscopy. See endoscopy pregnancy. See obstetrics pre-hospital advanced airway management (PHAAM), 273–275 pre-hospital airway management, 270, 277
advanced, 273–275
anatomically versus physiologically difficult airway, 271 aspiration risk management, 276 basic, 272–273
confirmation of intubation, 275 data collection, 271 drugs selection, 275
failed intubation, 276
human factors, 271, 272, 274
oxygenation, 275
plan for, 271
post-intubation management, 275–276
practicalities, 271–275 tailored care, 270–271
tracheal intubation, 273–276
in trauma patients, 276–277 preoperative assessment. See patient assessment preoperative endoscopic airway examination (PEAE), 58–60 preoperative fasting, 92 preoperative plans, to avoid aspiration, 92–93
pre-oxygenation, 72–73
apnoeic oxygenation, 75–76
'cannot preoxygenate patients', 75
critically ill patient, 253 devices, 73–74
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 125 efficacy and efficiency, 73 exponential wash-in of oxygen, 14
high flow nasal oxygen (HFNO), 76–77
hyperoxia and, 13–14 increased mean airway pressure, 75
methods, 73
obese patient, 208
patient positioning, 74–75
pre-hospital, 275
pressure-regulated device, 173–174 trions, 316, 317
propofol, 20, 87–88, 89
critically ill patient, 254
for laryngospasm, 178, 193
obese patient, 208–209
obstructive RSI, 186–187
paediatric induction with, 199
supraglottic airway device (SGA) insertion, 107 ProSeal LMA (PLMA), 102, 104–105, 106, 110–113, 118 pulmonary aspiration. See aspiration pulmonary oedema, post-obstructive, 178–179 pulmonary pathophysiology, obesity, 206 ramp position, 99
rapid five-step technique, paediatric cricothyroidotomy, 203 Rapid O2 insufflator, 174
rapid sequence induction (RSI)
aspiration, 92–94, 95
bleeding airway, 284–285
maxillofacial trauma, 220
obese patient, 208–209
obstetric, 186–187, 188, 189 recurrent laryngeal nerve, 5, 17–18, 34 reflexes. See airway reflexes regional anaesthetic technique, with predicted difficult airway, 42–43 registries, airway, 26, 27–28 reintubation airway exchange catheter (AEC) for, 183
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 292
remifentanil, 20, 85, 87–88, 89, 180–181
paediatric induction with, 199 repeated attempt failures, 36, 46–47 resilience, human, 310 resorption atelectasis, 75 respiratory pandemic. See pandemic infection resuscitation. See cardiopulmonary resuscitation retrograde flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 152 retrograde intubation
bleeding airway, 285, 287–288
maxillofacial trauma, 220
reusable equipment, 317 rigid optical scopes, 158, 159 rheumatoid arthritis, airway assessment, 52–53 rocuronium, 88, 89
critically ill patient, 254
obese patient, 208–209
obstetric RSI, 186–187
pre-hospital, 275
role allocation, 311, 312 safe apnoea time, 72–73 safeguards, human factors, 309, 310–314 safety briefing, airway management planning, 44 sagittal split osteotomy, 216, 217 SARS-CoV-2. See coronavirus disease 2019 scalpel-bougie technique, 175–176
seashore sign, 64, 65
second generation supraglottic airway device (SGA), 103, 115 Gastro-LT and LMA Gastro airway, 104–105, 114
i-gel, 102, 104–105, 113, 168
Index

(SGA) (cont.)
laryngeal tube suction Mark II /
LTS-D, 104–105, 114
LMA Supreme and LMA Protector, 102, 104–105, 113–114, 115
ProSeal LMA, 102, 104–105, 106, 110–113, 118
SLIPA, 104–105, 114–115
sedation, 87
anticipated difficult airway, 89
awake flexible optical bronchoscopy
(FOB) intubation, 150
for awake tracheal intubation, 85
bleeding airway, 286
dental surgery, 214–215
Seldinger technique, 172, 175 selective lung collapse. See lung separation SensaScope, 158, 159
sensitivity, airway reflexes, 18–19 sentinel cases, airway complications, 26–29
sevoﬂurane, 19, 89
paediatric induction with, 199
simulation, ﬂexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) skill acquisition, 167
single-use bougies, 131–134 single-use equipment, 317
situation awareness, 311
skull base fracture, 221 sleep-disordered breathing, a assessment, 206, 207 SLIPA (streamlined liner of the pharyngeal airway), 104–105, 114–115
smoking, airway reﬂex sensitivity, 19 sneeze reﬂex, 17
sniffing position, 99, 122, 123 soft palate, 1–2, 3 sphenopalatine ganglion block, 84 spontaneous ventilation anticipated difﬁcult airway, 89 general anaesthesia with ablation of, 41 general anaesthesia with maintenance of, 41
paediatric induction with, 199
re-establishment of, 89 spontaneous ventilation and insufﬂation techniques, laryngeal surgery, 229, 230
spray as you go (SAYGO) technique, for awake ﬂexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 150 stagnant hypoxia, 9, 10 standardisation, policies and
equipment, 295–296
steam sterilisation, 317
sterilisation, 317
sternomental distance (SMD), 54, 55 stomach contents, ultrasound, 69, 70–71
STOP-Bang questionnaire, 53, 54, 206, 207
stress, 308
stress management, 303–304 string of pearls technique, ultrasound localisation of cricothyroid membrane, 66, 67
styles, 130, 131, 136
airway complications, 32–33
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 124, 126–127
 ﬂexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB)
intubation, 201
video, 158, 159
videolaryngoscopy (VL), 135, 136, 155–156, 157
subglottic airway, anatomy, 5, 6 subglottic jet ventilation, 231, 232 subglottic lesions, 239, 240 subglottic suction, tracheostomy tubes with, 264, 265
subluxation
arytenoid, 34
atlantoaxial, 52–53
jaw, 1, 2
submental intubation, 219 sugammadex, 88, 89, 186–187, 208–209, 254
superior laryngeal nerve, 17–18 superior laryngeal nerve block, 85, 90
supraglottic airway device (SGA), 25, 102. See also classic laryngeal mask airway (cLMA); second generation supraglottic airway device (SGA)
airway complications, 32
airway rescue with, 117 anatomical predictors of difﬁculty, 38, 39
aspiration with, 25, 92, 107, 109, 110
bleeding airway, 285, 286
bougies for, 135–136
during cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 280
classiﬁcation, 103, 104–105 clinical choice of, 117 combination techniques, 168
contraindications, 102
coronavirus disease 2019
(COVID-19), 328, 329
critically ill patient, 256
decontamination of, 318–318, 319
dental surgery, 214–215
difficult airway management and,
117–119, 120
difficult or failed placement, 46 efﬁcacy and safety, 102–103
at extubation, 181
ﬁrst generation, 103, 104–105, 115–117
 ﬂexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB)
intubation combination with, 47, 150–151, 166, 168
intubation via, 117–119, 120 neuromuscular blocking drugs (NMBDs) for insertion of, 88–89 new, 102–103
obese patient, 209–210
obstetric airway management, 188–189
options after placement of, 47 paediatric airway management, 117, 196–197
paediatric induction with, 199
with predicted difﬁcult airway, 43 removal, 151
supraglottic jet ventilation, 231–232 supraglottic lesions, 235–238
surgical cricothyroidotomy, 172
paediatric airway, 202, 203–204
scalpel-bougie technique, 175–176 surgical tracheostomy, 260 airway management for, 260 percutaneous dilatational tracheostomy (PDT) versus, 262–263
ultrasound prior to, 262 surgical tracheostomy technique, 176 suxamethonium, 88, 89
critically ill patient, 254
desaturation following, 14–15
for laryngospasm, 178, 193
obese patient, 208–209
obstetric RSI, 186–187
TACA (Thyroid cartilage, Airline, Cricoid cartilage, Airline)
technique, 66–67, 68
tailored care, pre-hospital airway management, 270–271
T-bag, 108
teamwork, 312–313
tectorial membrane, 7 teeth, 1–2, 3
temporomandibular joint (TMJ)
anatomy, 1, 2
bedside assessment, 54, 55
rheumatoid arthritis, 52–53
thiopental, 186–187
critically ill patient, 254
obese patient, 208–209
thiopentone, 20
threats, 306–307
column model, 58, 59, 122
anterior column, 123, 125
middle column, 123, 125
Index

posterior column, 123, 125
three-dimensional airway models, 55.
See also virtual endoscopy three-way taps, 174
thoracic surgery, 215
maxillofacial surgery, 218–219 thyroid gland, 5, 6
thyromental distance (TMD), 54, 55 tidal volume breathing technique, pre-oxygenation, 73 tissue/air border, ultrasound appearance, 63, 64 tongue, 1–2, 3
tongue base lesions, 235–238 tonsillectomy, flexible laryngeal mask airway (FLMA), 225, 226 tonsils, 1–2, 3, 51, 52

oral cavity or oropharyngeal lesions, tongue base or supraglottic lesions,
two curve theory, 122, 123, 124
two-hand face mask ventilation, 100

See also

anterior column, 123, 125
anesthesia with predicted difficult, 40–41
maxillofacial trauma, 220 neuromuscular blocking drugs (NMBDs) for, 88
paediatric airway, 195–196
pre-hospital, 273–276
structured approach to unintubated, 44–48 tube misplacement, 127–129
ultrasound confirmation, 67–69
tracheal stenosis, 34–35 tracheal tube at extubation, 181 for flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 145–146, 147 for flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation through supraglottic airway device (SGA), 151
paediatric, 195–196
for transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 290–291 Tritube, 163–164
videolaryngoscopy (VL), 156, 157
tracheal tube exchange, 136–137, 138 tracheal tube guides. See styles tracheal tube introducers, 130
airway complications, 32–33
airway trauma, 134–135
airway trauma and pitfalls, 134–135 confirmation of placement, 134
direct laryngoscopy (DL), 124, 126–127, 130–135
during emergency front of neck airway (eFONA), 136
flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) intubation, 201
optimal use tips, 131
single-use or reusable, 131–134
for supraglottic airway device (SGA), 135–136
videolaryngoscopy (VL), 135, 157
tracheo-oesophageal fistula, 34–35 tracheomalacia, 34–35
tracheostomy, 259.
See also percutaneous dilatational tracheostomy; surgical tracheostomy
airway complications, 33
anatomy, 5, 6
bleeding airway, 285, 286–287
decannulation, 266
emergency management, 266, 267
history, 259
indications, 259
laryngectomy stoma compared with, 268
maxillofacial trauma, 221
paediatric, 266–268
patient perspective, 265–266 physiological changes for patient with, 263 problems with, 265–266
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 291
types, 259–260
types of tubes for, 263–265 tracheostomy tubes, 263–265 tracheotomy, emergency surgical, 176 training. See airway management training tranexamic acid, 282 transmission, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 322–324 transnasal humidified rapid-insufflation ventilatory exchange (THRIVE), 76, 77
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 290 airway equipment selection, 290–291 intubation technique, 291 post-operative complications and safety, 291–292 post-operative considerations, extubation and reintubation, 292 pre-hospital airway management
Treather Collins syndrome, 50 Trendelenburg tilt, 3 triangle, avoidance of airway complications, 35, 36 triple airway manoeuvre, 97–98, 100 trismus, 21, 1, 50
Tritube tracheal tube, 163–164
TRS (Tumor, Radiation and Surgery) for transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 290

oral cavity or oropharyngeal lesions, tongue base or supraglottic lesions,
two curve theory, 122, 123, 124
two-hand face mask ventilation, 100

oral cavity or oropharyngeal lesions, tongue base or supraglottic lesions, two curve theory, 122, 123, 124
two-hand face mask ventilation, 100 ultrasonography, 63
anatomical structures visible with, 63 clinical applications, 64 cricothyroid membrane localisation, 55, 63, 64–67, 68 endobronchial intubation confirmation, 67–69, 128, 129 intraoperative pneumothorax, 69 intubation of bleeding airway, 285 oesophageal intubation confirmation, 67–69, 127 stomach contents, 69, 70–71 technical aspects, 63–64, 65 trachea localisation, 63, 64–67, 68 tracheal intubation confirmation, 67–69 before tracheostomy, 262 unconscious patient, bleeding airway in, 288–289 un-cuffed tracheostomy tubes, 263, 264 United Kingdom (UK), airway leads in, 293–295, 296 United States of America (USA), airway teams in, 294–295, 296 upper airway bleeding. See bleeding airway upper airway endoscopy, flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB), 143 upper airway reflexes. See airway reflexes upper respiratory tract infections (URTI), airway reflex sensitivity, 18–19 variant Creutzfeldt–Jakob disease (vCJD), 316 vasoconstrictors, for awake tracheal intubation, 84 vecuronium, 88
ventilation. See expiratory ventilation assistance; spontaneous ventilation Ventrain, 161, 164, 174 flow control, 162
mode of mechanism, 161–162
new technology, 232
paediatric airway management, 202
pitfalls and safety measures, 162–163 Tritube tracheal tube, 163–164
VFI program, 167
video styles, 158, 159 video-assisted flexible intubation (VAFI), 157 videolaryngoscopy, 153, 154, 155
airway adjuncts, 157
with conduit, 156–157
decontamination of, 319–319
development, 153–154 with hyperangulated blade, 155–156 with Macintosh-type blade, 155 tight optical scopes, 158, 159
videolaryngoscopy (VL), 153
airway complications, 33
anatomical predictors of difficulty, 38, 39
awake tracheal intubation, 82, 85–86, 157
during cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR), 280
difficult, 46, 158
documentation, 159
in emergency department (ED) and out-of-hospital, 157–158 failed, 46
desurban optical bronchoscopy (FOB) combination with, 47, 166, 167, 168–170 limitations, 168
obese patient, 209, 210
paediatric airway management, 200–201
pre-hospital, 275
routine or universal, 158
styles, 135, 136, 155–156, 157 tracheal tube introducer, 135, 157
transoral robotic surgery (TORS), 291 videoscopes. See flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) viral clearance period, 323–324 viral pneumonia, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 321–322 viral transmission, coronavirus disease 2019 (COVID-19), 322–324
virtual endoscopy (VE), 56, 60–62 virtual reality, flexible optical bronchoscopy (FOB) skill acquisition, 167 VivaSight DL DLT, 245 vocal cords, 5
airway complications, 34
pathology, 226, 227
volatile anaesthetic agents.
See inhalation anaesthetic agents vortex approach, 276, 312 World Health Organization (WHO), 321