

Index

- adaptation, 32, 163, 225, See also pragmatism, calculated
- agriculture. See also collectivization; decollectivization
- New Agrarian Order, 118–130, 135
- northwest Russia lack of, 11
- poor conditions, 89
- production quotas during occupation, 115–118, 126–129, 167
- yields, 89, 115–118, 126–129
- Aleksandr Nevskii (1938 film), 49
- Aleksii, Metropolitan of Leningrad, 153
- Alfeyev, 37
- Andreeva, Anna, 31
- Androkhovo, 64
- Anisimov, Oleg, 83, 144, 152, 166, 180, 203
- antipartisan forces, 171, 173–177, 224
- antisemitism, 83–84, 150–152, See also Holocaust; Jews
- Antonova, Nina, 49, 125
- Army Group North, Wehrmacht (Heeresgruppe Nord). See also specific units
- administrative structure, 11
- civilian casualties, 191–192, 198
- number of POWs in, 90
- response to famine, 98
- atrocities
- partisan response to Soviet, 214
- partisan terrorism, 185–190
- Red Army, 213
- Russian antipartisan units, 173–175
- atrocities, German. See also Holocaust
- counterinsurgency campaign, 190–194
- dismissed as propaganda, 50–51, 61–62, 87
- during invasion, 55–58
- during occupation, 39, 59, 86–87, 127, 131
- during retreat, 210
- executions of subversive officials, 169
- mass murders, 59–74, 221
- seen as side effect of war, 87
- Backe, Herbert, 99
- Bauer, Raymond A., 33
- Belarus, 83, 226
- Belebelka district, 187
- Benigsen, Georgii, 146, 156
- Bessonov, Nikolai, 70
- black market, 108–111, 224
- Bolshevik revolution, 2, 111–112, See also Stalinism
- Bolsheviks. See also partisan insurgency; Red Army; Soviets; Stalinism
- appeal of, 35
- attacks on religion, 25–26, 30, 137
- disloyalty among, 180, 214
- Germans seen as end to, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 52, 115–118, 177–179, 202–203, 224
- Bolshie Grivy, 55
- Borisova, Nadezhda, 125
- Borshchovo, 42, 79, 104, 107
- brothels, 101–102
- Bychkovo, 174
- byvshie liudi, 177
- cannibalism, 92
- Chashcha, 128
- chastushki, 24
- Cherniakovich, 73
- children
- baptisms, 150, 153, 156
- Jews, 80
- massacres, 64, 69, 186, 189, 192
- orphanages, 80, 143
- response to clergy, 158–159
- schools, 142–143
- starvation, 92–93, 99
- Chudovo, 75
- Chudskoe ozero* (Lake Peipus), 9, 67, 127
- cities. See urban areas
- civilian deaths. See also atrocities; Holocaust
- bombings, 42
- children, 64, 69, 186, 189, 192

- clergy. See also Russian Orthodox Church
 calculated pragmatism, 224
 charity efforts, 143–145
 cooperation with Germans, 146–148, 160
 dekulakization, 25, 141
 makeup of, 141
 popular reception of, 154–156
 praise of Germans, 224
 salaries, 142
 silence on Holocaust, 150–152
 youth response to, 158–159
 clothing shortages, 29, 76, 134
 collaboration clergy and church laypeople, 149
   identification of Jews, 84
   implications of term, 162
 collectivization. See also dekulakization
   consequences of, 37
   cultural destruction, 25–26
   decollectivization, 48–49, 113–136
   during occupation, 118–130
   grievances against, 33–34
   hope in Germans for end to, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 115–118, 177, 202–203, 223–224
   kolkhoz conditions, 23–25
   poor agricultural conditions, 89
   reestablishment after occupation, 216–217, 219, 227
   resistance to, 18–20, 24, 31–32
   as serfdom, 21
   spontaneous decollectivization during invasion, 48–49
 Communists. See Bolsheviks, See Soviets concentration camps, 64, 78
 conscription, 42, 184

 decollectivization. See also collectivization difficulty working land due to forced labor requirements, 130–135
   German response to, 114
   New Agrarian Order, 118–130, 135
   popular attitudes toward, 115–118, 223
   spontaneous, 48–49, 113–114
 Dedovichi district, 187–188
 dehumanization, 62
 dekulakization
   of clergy, 25, 141
   consequences of, 21–23, 37, 135
   postoccupation local governance, 165–166
   resistance to, 31–32
   support for Germans, 177
 Demiansk, 9, 75, 208
 deportation. See also dekulakization
   during German retreat, 210
   to Germany for forced labor, 113, 130–131, 224

 Great Terror, 30–31
   of POWs, 75
   resistance to, 31–32
   of Roma by Germans, 66
 Didenko, Valentina, 50
 disabled people, 16, 59–60, 70–74, 81, 223
 district (raion or uezd) governance, 163
 Dmitriev, Nikolai, 25, 79
 Dno, 51, 105, 108, 121, 126
 double consciousness, 18, 37
 Dulag 140, 76
 Durbrovka, 65

 Eastern Wall, 209
 economic conditions. See also collectivization;
   decollectivization; starvation
   agricultural yields, 89, 115–118, 126–129
   close to front lines, 89–98, 132, 223
   German food policy, 16, 90–95, 99
   improvements during German occupation, 110, 113–115
   labor shortages, 100, 124
   limits of German control, 224
   material motivations for cooperation with Germans, 16, 176–177, 198
   New Agrarian Order, 118–130, 135, 223 occupation market conditions, 108–111
   postwar, 216–218
   prewar, 28, 37–38
 education, 142–143, 203
 Efimov, Sergii, 144
Eigensinn, 163, 166
 18th Army (German), 72, 85, 91, 97–98
 elites effect of collectivization on, 21, 26
   evacuation of, 46
   Soviet, 180
   Stalinist, 28, 35
 Ermolov, Igor, 178
 Esfir, Aleksandra, 42
 Estonians, in northwest Russia, 96–97, 170–171
 ethnic discrimination. See also Holocaust; Jews; Roma
   antisemitism, 83–84, 150–152
   famine relief efforts, 88, 95–97
   policies of annihilation, 221
   POW releases, 82
   security force recruiting, 169–171
   targeting of Roma, 69–70
   “Euthanasia” program, 70–74
 evacuations
   due to famine, 96–98
   during invasion, 46–47, 222
   of elites, 44–46, 61, 89
   executions disguised as, 71, 77

- evacuations (cont.)
   from partisan zones, 188
   German retreat, 209–210, 225
   of Jews, 61–62
 evasionism, 194, 199, 225–226
Everyday Stalinism (Fitzpatrick), 226
- famine. See starvation
 farms. See agriculture; collectivization
 Fedorov, Aleksei, 23, 44, 125, 165, 179, 216
 Fedorov, Viktor, 47
 Feldkommandanturen, 11
 Feldman, Mark, 79
 Filipovshchina, 66, 68–69
 Finns, 96
 Fitzpatrick, Sheila, 34, 226
 five-year plans, 18, 29
- Galiaeva, Regina, 79–80
 Gatchina, 80, 204
 Gdov, 75, 81, 127, 153, 210
 Gdov district, 20, 52
 General Plan East, 95
 genocide. See disabled people; Holocaust; Jews;
   Roma
 Genrikh, Iakov, 81
 Germanova, Mariia, 52, 211
 Germans. See also atrocities, German; invasion, German; occupation, German deportation of Russians for forced labor, 113, 130–131, 224
   economic view of northwest Russia, 11, 16
   food policy, 16, 90–95, 99
   helping of Jews, 80–81
   impact of atrocities on Russian attitudes, 86–87, 127, 131
   loss of support from Russians, 17
   mass murders committed by, 59–74, 221
   policies of annihilation, 2, 11, 60, 68, 74, 88, 95, 99, 111, 221
   propaganda caricatures of, 49–50, 61
   religious revival facilitated by, 16, 157, 160, 224
   seen as liberators, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 51–55, 58, 62, 113, 115–118, 121–124,
     135, 177–179, 202–203, 223–224
   sexual relationships with, 101–102
 Grankovskaia, Roza, 81
 Great Terror, 22, 29–31, 178
 Göring, Hermann, 99
 Gypsies. See Roma
- handicapped people, 223
 Harvard Project on the Soviet Social System, 33 Hellbeck, Jochen, 7
- Hilfswillige* (Hiwis), 82, 100
 Himmler, Heinrich, 68
 Hitler, Adolf
   arming of non-Germans, 169
   counterinsurgency orders, 190–191
   Eastern Wall, 209
   Mein Kampf, 204
   policies of annihilation, 2, 68, 75, 99
   religious propagandists, 139
   wariness of Vlasov, 204, 227
 Holler, Martin, 67
 Holocaust
   Jews treated as partisans, 68
   limited impact on popular mood, 223
   in northwest Russia, 59–65, 221 role of Russian auxiliary police, 172 silence of Orthodox priests, 150–152
   survival efforts, 77–82
 Hosking, Geoffrey, 226
 hunger. See starvation
- Idritsa district, 149, 172–173, 209
 Ilin, Valentina, 168 industrialization, 27–29, 34–37. See also collectivization
 Ingrian Finns, 96
 Inkeles, Alex, 33
 intelligentsia, 35–36
 invasion, German. See also occupation, German evacuations in face of, 44–49, 58
   experiences, 40–42
   hope for liberation from Bolsheviks, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 51–55, 58, 62, 113,
     115–118, 121–124, 135, 177–179,
     202–203, 223–224
   Jewish evacuations in face of, 61–62
   looting during, 55–56
   reactions to, 58
   Russian fears of, 39, 49–51, 55–59
   Soviet dismantling of administration apparatus, 163
   spontaneous decollectivization during, 48–49
 Ionov, Aleksii
   agricultural quotas during occupation, 115
   denial of accusations of collaboration against Pskov Mission, 146
   popular views of religion, 157–159
   relief efforts, 144
   religious education in schools, 142
   Soviet destruction of churches, 141
 Izhorians, 96
- Jagdkommando, 174
 Jews. See also Holocaust
   children, 80

- dismissal of rumors of murders as propaganda, 50–51, 61–62
 during occupation, 16
 evacuations of, 61–62
 food rations for, 63
 forced labor, 62
 help from non-Jews, 79–81
 Leningrad, 79
 local attacks on, 48
 northwest Russia, 12, 60–61
 POWs, 76, 80
 Pskov, 79
 starvation, 107
 survival efforts of, 77–82
 treatment by Russian non-Jews, 62, 82–84, 166
- Kalinin region, 9, 218
karateli, 175
 Karov, Dmitrii
   anti-Soviet stance of Christians, 178
   brothels, 101
   church as neutral ground, 150
   German occupation, 113
   mass murder of Jews, 83
   partisans, 174
   POWs, 177
   Red Army atrocities, 213
   welcome of Germans, 52
 Kashchenko mental hospital, 71
 Keitel, Wilhelm, 91
 Khordikainen, Iulia, 91
 Khorev, Vladimir, 192–193
 khutora, 21
 Kilian, Jürgen, 192
 Kingisepp, 147, 178, 195
 Kingisepp district, 165
 Kirov, Sergei, 29
 Kisel, 20
 Klein, Rafail, 80
 Kleptsy, 48
 Kofman, Zinaida, 107
 Kokarev, Vladimir, 46–47, 132
 kolkhozes. See also collectivization adaptation to, 32
   conditions on, 23–25, 89
   decollectivization, 48–49, 113–136
   early wartime attitudes, 40
   establishment, 19–21
   evacuation during invasion, 44–49, 58
   governance during occupation, 163–169
   hope in Germans for end to, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 115–118, 177, 202–203, 223–224
   New Agrarian Order, 118–130, 135
   reestablishment after occupation, 216–217, 219, 227
   resistance to, 31–32
 Kolmovo mental hospital, 70
 Kopore, 177
 Kotkin, Stephen, 34–35
   Magnetic Mountain: Stalinism as a Civilization, 7
 Kotly district, 178
 Krasavina, Anna, 101, 197
 Krasnoe Selo, 147
 Krasnogvardeisk, 147
 Krasnogvardeisk district, 71, 121, 165
 Krasnye Gory, 42, 103, 105, 107
 Krasnyi Bor, 55, 97
 Krasukha, 192
 Kudever, 156
 kulaks. See also collectivization clergy, 25, 141
   liquidation of, 21–23, 37, 135
   in postoccupation local governance, 165–166 resistance to deportation, 31–32
   support for Germans, 177
- labor. See also collectivization conditions, 132–133, 136
   as dehumanization tactic, 62
   Hiwis, 82, 100
   prostitution, 101–102
   shortages, 124
 labor camps, 65, 75, 133–135
 labor, forced construction of Eastern Wall, 209
   deportations, 113, 130–131, 224
   impact on agriculture, 130–135
   Jews, 62
   labor camps, 65, 75, 133–135
   lack of resistance to, 135
   local, 113, 131–133
   negative impact on mood, 224
 Lake Ilmen, 40, 67, 93
 Lake Ladoga, 208
 Lake Peipus (Chudskoe ozero), 9, 67, 127
 Lake Samro, 105–106
 Lake Seliger, 9
 land reform, 118–130, 135, 223, See also decollectivization
 Latvians, in northwest Russia, 97, 170
 Lüdtke, Alf, 163
 Leibovich, Vladimir, 80
 Leningrad
   evacuation of, 47
   Great Terror, 30
   Jews in, 79
   siege of, 2, 11, 88, 208
 Leningrad region, 9, 31, 45, 75

lethal injections, 71, 73
 letter writing, 53–54
 Liady district, 66, 165
 Lithuanians, in northwest Russia, 170
 Liuban, 55, 72, 133, 147
 local government, 163–169, 198
 Lohse, Hinrich, 68
 Lomagin, Nikita, 176
 looting, 48–49, 55–56, 111
 Lovat River, 9
 loyalties
   fragility, 180, 201–202, 219, 226–227
   limited pro-German, 1
   Russian patriotism, 15
 Luftwaffe, 132
 Luga
   anti-German mood, 204
   antipartisan units, 174
   bombing of, 42
   famine in, 105, 107
   forced labor by Jews, 62
   partisan sympathies, 195
   relief efforts, 143
 Luga district, 104, 216
 Luga region, 23, 31, 42, 44

Magnetic Mountain: Stalinism as a Civilization
   (Kotkin), 7
 Makarevo, 72
 Malaia Vishera, 217
 Malaia Vyra, 76
 Malashenek, Zinaida, 64
 Masarskii, Leonid, 62
Mein Kampf (Hitler), 204 mentally disabled people, 59–60, 70–74, 81,
   See also disabled people
 Merevo, 23, 132, 165
 Merridale, Catherine, 5
 Mezchnik, 53
 Miasnoi Bor, 93
 Milodezh, 31
 Mironov, Boris, 125
 missionaries. See Pskov Orthodox Mission mobilization, 39–44, 124, 222
 Moglino, 64
 Moglino concentration camp, 78
 Mogutovo, 70
 Molchanov, Vasilii, 133, 160

Narodnyi komisariat vnutrennikh del (NKVD/People's Commissariat of Internal Affairs), 22, 29–31
 Nazis. See Germans
 Nevdachina, Nadezhda, 30
 Nevel, 63, 214

Nevel district, 75
 New Agrarian Order, 118–130, 135, 223,
   See also decollectivization
 New Economic Policy, 19
 Nikiforov, Mikhail, 1
 Nikolaeva, Tamara, 79
 Nikolskoe, 71
 Nikulkino, 23
 Nivki, 192
 NKVD (People's Commissariat of Internal Affairs/Narodnyi komisariat vnutrennikh del), 22, 29–31
 northwest Russia
   attacks on religion, 25–26
   demographics, 96
   early wartime attitudes, 40–42, 58
   evacuation during invasion, 44–49, 58
   famine in, 88–112
   geography and demographics, 9–12, 21
   Holocaust in, 59–65, 221
   Jewish population of, 60–61, 82
   Jews in, 48
   local governance during occupation, 163–169, 176–177, 224
   occupation administration, 11–12
   popular political attitudes, 89, 111–112, 221–227
   prewar grain procurement crises, 19–20
   prewar Stalinism in, 15
 Novgorod
   bombing of, 42
   evacuation of, 47
   Kolmovo mental hospital, 70
   occupation of, 101
   partisans near, 189
   postwar popular mood, 218
 Novgorod district, 20, 41, 48
 Novorzhev, 69, 77, 125, 174, 197
 Novosele district, 19, 25, 189
 nursing homes, 73

 Obedkov, Aleksandr, 25 occupation, German. See also invasion, German aftermath, 211–219
   common narrative, 221 communal farms during, 118–130
   end of, 201–202, 208–211, 219, 227 enforcement of agricultural quotas during occupation, 115–118, 126–129, 167
   historical sources, 12–15
   impact of atrocities on popular attitudes, 86–87, 127, 131
   initial response to, 15
   limits of German control, 128–129, 166–169, 224

- overview, 2–4
- power structure, 16, 163–164
- Soviet power in, 162
- support based in material needs, 16, 176–177, 198
- support for, 5
- territory under, 9–11
- trade during, 109–111
- troops to civilians ratio, 91
- Old Believers, 178
- old people, 73
- Operation Barbarossa, 90, 190
- Opochka
  - dekulakization, 32
  - Jews in, 62–63, 65, 82
  - POWs from, 85
- Opochka district, 1, 19, 142
- Oredezh, 46
- Oredezh district, 54
- Organisation Todt, 132
- Orthodox Church. See Russian Orthodox Church
- Orthodox Mission in the Liberated Regions of Russia. See Pskov Orthodox Mission
- Ortskommandanturen, 11
- Osarbeiter, 130–131
- Osmino district, 106, 165
- Ostarbeiter, 130–131
- Ostrov, 144, 174
- Ostrov district, 20, 65, 189
- Overy, Richard, 4
- Pale of Settlement, 60, 82
- Palkino district, 19, 31, 45
- partisan insurgency
  - antipartisan forces, 171, 173–177, 224
  - auxiliary police and, 173
  - calculated pragmatism towards, 194–198
  - conscription, 184
  - emergence of, 16, 181–182
  - expansion of, 182–183, 225
  - German counterinsurgency campaign, 190–194
  - Jews treated as, 68
  - looting by, 106, 128, 183
  - partisan zones, 186–188
  - POW stories, 85
  - propaganda, 227
  - relationship with clergy, 148–150
  - reputed association of Roma with, 67–69
  - response to Soviet atrocities, 214
  - successes, 208–209
  - sympathizers, 149, 180, 192–194, 225
  - targets of, 176
  - terrorism, 185–190, 198
- patriotism, Russian
  - anti-German, 4–5, 16, 206
  - anti-Soviet, 15–16, 177–179
  - calculated pragmatism, 6
  - church, 224
  - at end of occupation, 211–213
  - evaluation of, 226–227
  - German exploitation of, 202–204
  - impact of POW stories, 85–87
  - letter writing, 53–54
  - mobilization and, 39–42
  - response to occupation, 15
  - role of religion, 16, 152–153, 157, 160, 224
  - Soviet identity and, 227
- Pavlovsk (Slutsk), 65, 91, 93, 157
- Pavlovsk (Slutsk) district, 165
- peasantry. See also collectivization; popular mood; pragmatism, calculated
  - anti-Soviet attitudes, 7–9, 17–26, 31–34, 37–38, 41–42
  - burden of forced labor, 130–135
  - decollectivization, 48–49, 113–136
  - demographics, 21
  - evacuation during invasion, 44–49, 58
  - fears of Stalinism, 201–202, 219
  - Germans seen as liberators by, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 51–55, 58, 62, 113, 115–118, 121–124, 135, 177–179, 202–203, 223–224
  - gulf between partisans and, 187–188
  - labor shortages, 124
  - loss of faith in German liberation, 202–206
  - of northwest Russia, 9–11
  - passive resistance, 127–129
  - Red Army, 40–42
  - resistance to collectivization, 18–20, 24, 31–32
  - Russian Orthodox Church, 136
  - spontaneous decollectivization, 49
  - in unoccupied Russia, 215, 217–219
  - urban migration, 26, 35
  - village governance, 163–169
  - wartime experiences, 2
- Pechory, 57, 62–63
- Pelgora, 25
- Petrova, Aleksandra, 132
- Petrova, Anna, 42, 47, 79
- Pirozhkova, Vera
  - anti-Soviet attitude, 35–36
  - decollectivization, 114, 121
  - Germans as liberators, 33
  - on Red Army, 44, 48
  - treatment of POWs, 86
  - welcome of Germans, 54–55
- Pliussa district, 20, 45
- Poddore district, 174, 192

- Poddube, 217
 Podgoshchi, 147
 Poliakova, Olimpiada collaboration of former Communists, 180–181
   famine, 91–92, 104
   forced labor deportations, 131
   initial lack of concern of Jews, 51, 61
   loss of faith in German liberation, 203
   murders of elderly, 73
 police, auxiliary, 169–177, 214, 224
politsai, 175
 Pomerane, 97
 popular mood. See also loyalties; patriotism, Russian
   aftermath of occupation, 214–219, 221
   ambiguity, 58
   anti-Soviet, 35–36, 221–227
   collectivization, 40
   decollectivization, 115–118
   difficulty of resistance, 222 fear of partisans, 185–190
   fear of Soviet return, 201–202, 219 impact of German propaganda, 215, 217–219
   partisan sympathies, 149, 192–194, 225
   party reports, 41
   patriotism, 16
   Pskov Orthodox Mission, 153–160
   Red Army, 211–213
   return of Bolshevism, 211–213
   toward local governance, 176–177 toward local police services, 175 popular mood, toward Germans agricultural quotas, 115–118
   agricultural quotas during occupation, 115–118, 126–129, 167
   ambiguity, 58
   calculated pragmatism, 6, 37, 194–198
   during invasion, 40–42, 51–55
   forced labor mobilization, 135 impact of atrocities, 86–87, 127, 131, 223
   limited impact of starvation on, 89, 111–112 limits to, 1
   local governance, 163–169
   loss of faith in liberation, 202–206
   positive views of, 8, 33–34, 51–55, 62, 113, 121–124, 177–179
   reaction to impending German retreat, 209–210, 219, 224
   religious revival, 157, 160, 224
   resentment, 224
   Russian national identity, 16
   starvation seen as result of war, 16, 223
   treatment of POWs, 84–86
   turning point, 201, 219
 Porkhov, 65, 103, 126
 Porkhov district, 192
 postrevisionism, 7
 postwar years, 215–219
 power, relating to. See also pragmatism, calculated
   calculated pragmatism, 6, 16, 37, 194–199
   ideological motivations, 177–181, 198–199
   local officials, 163–169, 198
   material motivations, 16, 176–177, 198
   overview, 162–163, 224–225
   partisan movement, 181–194, 198–199
   police services, 169–175, 198
 POWs (prisoners of war). See prisoners of war
   (POWs)
 pragmatism, calculated
   of clergy, 224
   navigation of power structure, 16, 37, 194–199, 225–226
   performative Stalinism, 8
   religious displays as, 159
   response to collectivization, 16, 33–34
   support of German occupation, 6, 37
   turning point, 219
 Pravoslavnyi Khristianin (publication), 152 priests. See clergy prisoners of war (POWs)
   anti-Sovietism, 177–178
   charity efforts, 144
   conditions of camps, 57, 75–77, 85, 223
   during occupation, 16
   Jewish, 76, 80
   Nazi mass murder of, 60, 74–77
   Nazi policies of annihilation, 2 numbers, 89
   popular views of treatment of, 84–86
   releases, 82
   survival efforts of, 81–82
 propaganda
   agitprop, 41
   anti-German, 49–50, 61, 85, 217–218
   antisemitic, 83
   atrocities dismissed as, 50–51, 61–62, 87
   clergy as German, 146–148
   impact of German on anti-Soviet attitudes, 202–203, 215, 217–219
   partisan, 227
   portrayal of partisans, 181
   POWs used as anti-German, 85
   situation at front, 208
   Soviet at end of occupation, 212
 prostitution, 101–102
 “Protocols of the Elders of Zion,” 83, 151
 Pskov
   antipartisan terrorism, 174
   community politics, 168

- evacuation of, 47–48
 fall of, 44
 fear of returning Soviets, 213
 German “pacification” operation, 57–58 grievances against collectivization, 33
 Jews in, 62, 64, 78–79
 mental hospital in, 73
 occupation, 35
 POW camps, 85
 prewar conditions, 28
 retreat from, 48
 Roma in, 80
 trade in, 110
 Pskov Orthodox Mission. See also Russian Orthodox Church
   antisemitism, 150–152
   assistance to POWs, 81 efforts of, 141–145
   famine and, 91
   origins, 137–141
   patriotism of, 16
   political roles, 145–153, 160–161
   popular response, 153–161
 Pskov region, 23, 25, 104
 psychiatric patients, 70–74. See also disabled people Pushkin
   fall of, 44
   famine in, 91–93, 103
   murder of Jews in, 63–64
   nursing home, 73
 Pushkinskie Gory district, 20, 142
 Pustoshka, 176
 Pustoshka district, 209

 rationing, 27, 91, 99, 111. See also starvation Red Army. See also prisoners of war (POWs) lack of confidence in, 43–44
   peasant attitudes toward, 40–42
   people’s fear of, 227
   poor state of, 47–48
   popular reception after occupation, 211–213
   reclamation of occupied territory, 211–219
   retreat from German invasion, 44–49, 58
   scorched earth policy, 57, 89, 111
 Red Cross, 143
 refugees, famine, 103–108
 Reichskommissariaten, 11
 relief efforts, 88, 95–97, 106–108, 143–145
 religion. See also Pskov Orthodox Mission;
   Russian Orthodox Church
   attacks on, 25–26, 30
   revival, 16, 140–141, 152–153, 157, 160, 224
 resistance. See also partisan insurgency acceptance of forced labor, 135 to agricultural quotas, 127, 167
   anti-Soviet, 7–9, 17, 31–32, 41–42
   to collectivization, 18–20, 24, 31–32
   implications of term, 162
   of intelligentsia to Soviets, 35–36
   lack of anti-German, 223 lack of anti-Soviet, 40, 222–223
   passive, 127–129
   state suppression of, 222–223
 revisionism, 6
 Roma
   during occupation, 16
   Nazi mass murder of, 59–60, 64, 66–70, 77, 152, 221, 223
   survival efforts of, 79
   treatment by Russians, 84
 Rosenberg, Alfred, 95, 119
 Russian Liberation Army (ROA/Russkaia Osvoboditelnaia Armia), 204–206
 Russian national identity. See patriotism, Russian Russian Orthodox Church. See also Pskov Orthodox Mission anti-Soviet stance, 137, 152–153, 160, 178, 215
   anti-Stalinism, 136
   grassroots revival, 140–141
   patriotism of, 16, 224, 227
   political ambivalence of, 224
   popular support, 224
   Soviet attacks on, 25–26, 30, 137
   support for New Agrarian Order, 123, 147

 Savelev, Vasilii, 55, 86, 103, 105–106, 111–112, 194
 Savina, Aleksandra, 23, 216
 schools, 142–143, 203
Schutzstaffel (SS), 12, 57, 63, 65, 70, 73, 84, 95
 scopolamine, 71
 scorched earth, 45, 57, 89, 111, 209–210
 SD (Sicherheitsdienst/Security Service), 144, 147, 149, 174
 Sebez, 9, 62, 64, 105
 Sebez district, 149, 209
 2nd Leningrad Partisan Brigade, 187
 2nd Shock Army (Soviet), 93
 self-government, 163–169, 198
 Serebkino district, 25
 seredniaki, 21
 Shims district, 218
 Shoah Foundation, University of Southern California, 79
 Shostakovich, Dmitrii, 157
Sicherheitsdienst (SD/Security Service), 144, 147, 149, 174
 Siverskaia, 147

- Siverskaia district, 178
 667th Eastern Battalion (anti-partisan unit), 174
 16th Army (German), 76, 88, 91, 99
 Slantsy district, 51, 195
 Sluditsy, 54
 Slutsk (Pavlovsk), 91, 93, 157
 Slutsk (Pavlovsk) district, 165
 Smirnova, Evgeniia, 103
 Sologubovka, 132
 Soltsy, 108
 sources, for this book, 12–15
The Soviet Citizen (Inkeles and Bauer), 33
 Soviet Extraordinary Commission investigations, 67, 93
 Soviets. See also Bolsheviks; Red Army
   anti-Soviet attitudes, 35–36
   anti-Soviet patriotism, 16, 177–179
   evacuations, 89, 163, 222
   identity, 4–5, 227
   partisan insurgency, 214
   popular fears of, 201–202, 213, 219
   power during occupation, 162
   POWs, 177–178
   propaganda, 212, 215, 217–219
   Russian Orthodox Church and, 25–26, 30, 137, 141, 152–153, 160, 178, 215
   sovietization of Ukraine, 166
   state violence, 178
 SS (Schutzstaffel), 12, 57, 63, 65, 70, 73, 84, 95
 Stakhanov, Andrei, 29
 Stakhanovitism, 29
 Stalinism. See also Bolsheviks; Soviets fears of peasants, 201–202, 222–223
   Germans seen as end to, 8, 16, 33–34, 37–38, 52, 115–118, 177–179, 202–203, 224
   historiography, 6–7 impact of pre-war, 15
   intelligentsia resistance to, 35–36
   lack of collective resistance to, 40, 222–223
   liberalization of religious policy, 150
   in local government, 164, 179
   Orthodox Church denunciation of, 137, 152–153, 160, 178, 215, 224
   peasant resistance to, 7–9, 41–42
   performative, 8
   popular mood on return of, 211–213
   Russian Orthodox Church denunciations of, 136, 152–153, 160
   trade in, 108, 110
   wartime, 2
 Stalinism, prewar. See also Bolsheviks; Soviets
   appeal of, 35
   attacks on religion, 25–26, 137
   Great Terror, 29–31, 34
   impact on peasantry, 18–26, 32–34, 37–38
   impact on urban life, 27–29, 34–37
   peasant resistance to, 17, 31–32
   peasant urbanization, 35 societal double consciousness, 37
 Staraia Russia, 64, 76, 84, 102, 133
starosty (village elders), 163–169
starshiny (district elders), 163–164
 starvation. See also prisoners of war (POWs)
   agricultural quotas during occupation, 115–118
   agricultural quotas under occupation, 126–129, 167
   children, 92–93, 99
   close to front lines, 89–98, 132, 223
   of disabled patients, 70–71, 73
   during invasion, 42
   extent in northwest Russia, 88–89
   food rations for Jews, 63
   German food policy, 16, 90–95, 99
   German response to, 88, 95–99, 107–108
   illegal trade, 108–111
   internment camps, 57
   on kolkhoz, 23–25
   labor camps, 134
   labor shortages, 124, 130–135
   Leningrad siege, 2, 11
   policies of annihilation, 2, 11, 75, 88, 95, 99, 111
   post-occupation period, 216–218
   POWs, 74–77, 85, 223
   preconditions, 37, 89–90
   prewar, 19–20, 27–28
   refugees, 103–108
   relief efforts, 88, 95–97, 106–108, 143–145
   scorched earth policy, 45
   seen as result of war, 16, 223
   survival efforts, 100–102
 state violence. See also atrocities anti-Soviet support for Germans, 178
   deportation, 21–23, 30–32
   effects of, 34, 37
   Great Terror, 22, 29–31, 178
   suppression of resistance, 222–223 against suspected collaborators, 213–215
   troikas, 187
   use of informant networks, 32
 Stragorodskii, Sergii, 138
 subdistrict (volost) governance, 163
 T4 program, 70–74
 Tailov, Georgii, 159
 Taitsy, 139, 157
 Tetiaeva, Tamara, 172–173
 Tikhvin, 9, 178
 Tosno district, 25, 40, 165
 town governance, 163

Index

255

- travel restrictions, 104–105
 Trebekha, 180
 troikas, 187
 Troitsyna, Tamara, 46, 50, 167
 Tsarist Russia, 82
 Turetskii-Vladimirov, Mikhail, 62, 78
 28th Army Corps (German), 72, 108
 285th Security Division (German), 191
 281st Security Division (German)
   counterinsurgency campaign, 191
   losses, 208–209
   murders of Roma, 68
   response to famine, 99, 105
   starvation of POWs, 85
- Ukraine
   evasionism, 226
   Jews in, 84
   murders of Roma, 70
   religion in, 140, 143
   sovietization of, 166
- urban areas
   hunger in, 89, 108–111
   intelligentsia, 35–36
   looting during invasion, 48
   market conditions, 108–111
   peasant migration to, 26, 35
   Stalinism and, 27–29, 34–35, 37
   trade in, 108–111
- US Holocaust Memorial Museum, 74
- Vasilkovichi, 66, 79
 Vaulinye Gory, 64
 Velikanova, Olga, 41
 Velikie Luki, 9, 62, 208
 village governance, 163–169, 176–177
 “village idiots,” 164
 Vinkourova, Vera, 128
 violence. See atrocities
 Vlasov, Andrei, 204–206
 Vlasov movement, 179, 227
- Volkhov, 106
 Volkhov River, 9
 Volksdeutsche, 96
 Voloshovo district, 106
 Volosovo district, 118, 125, 128, 147, 165
 Volot district, 180, 195
 von Kuchler, Georg, 96–97
 von Roques, Franz, 139–140, 191
 Voskresenskii, Metropolitan Sergii, 138–140
 Votes, 96
 Vyritsa, 63, 80
 Vyskidno, 43
- wages, 23, 27
 Wagner, Eduard, 75
 Weber, Josefine, 78
 Wehrmacht. See also specific units
   Army Group North, 11, 90, 98, 191–192, 198
   calculated pragmatism toward, 195–197, 219
   counterinsurgency campaign, 190–194
   food supplies, 90–91, 111
   helping of Jews, 80
   murder of disabled people, 70
   POW recruitment, 82
   response to famine, 88, 97–99, 107–108
   tolerance of Russian Orthodox Church, 139
   use of Russian labor, 100–101, 131–133
- Weiner, Amir, 227
 Wetzell, Erhard, 95
 Winter War, 29, 44
 women, 101–102
 World War I, 62
- youth, 211, See also children
- Zagromote, 79
 Zaitsevo, 165, 179
 Zaphishene, 167
 Zherebud, 197, 216
 Zverinskaia, Mariia, 23