

Index

- Achaean Republic (ancient Greece), 290, 340
- Address of the Annapolis Convention, September 14, 1786*, 261–3
- American colonies
 - challenging British authority over (December 15, 1774), 8–31
 - The Farmer Refuted* disallowing British Parliament authority over, 36–50, 63–73, 88–91
 - the Farmer’s position on British Parliament authority over, 15–47
 - feudal system principle of English tenure dispensing lands in, 50–4
 - granting liberty as best solution to British-colonies dispute, 91–2
 - immense trade between Britain and the, 14–15
 - June 30, 1780 letter on folly and passiveness of population of the, 129
 - Parliament’s act declaring binding authority over, 73
 - probability of securing freedom by the, 86–8
 - reasons that Britain would not engage in a war with, 14–18, 85–6
 - trade between Great Britain and, 8, 14–19, 61–9, 75–85
 - See also* American settlements; British–colonies dispute; states; United States
- American Revolutionary War
 - The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781* suppositions on Dutch role in, 164–5
 - The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781* on expanding taxation to pay for, 166–9
 - December 22, 1777 letter on abhorrent behaviors of soldiers, 111
 - Hamilton’s speculations on why Britain will never engage in the, 14–17, 85–6
 - June 7, 1782 letter on murder of Capt Huddy by British forces, 175–6
 - June 28, 1777 letter on army and political state of the, 109–10
 - March 12, 1778 letter to importance of having honest leadership during, 115–17
 - May 1777 letter to Catharine Livingston on her antipathy to, 108
 - September 3, 1780 letter on revealing the need for a loan to continue, 137–8
 - September 13, 1780 letter on urgent need for assistance from France, 144–5
 - See also* British–colonies dispute; Treaty of Paris (1783); United States; war
- American settlements
 - Carolina patent (1663), 58–9
 - Charter of Massachusetts replaced by new one by William and Mary, 59–60
 - Connecticut and New Haven petition to become one colony, 57
 - Connecticut and Rhode Island, 57–8
 - Council at Plymouth patent for Massachusetts, 56
 - how claim to liberty is supported by history of, 51–60
 - Maryland Charter, 56–7
 - New England, 54–6
 - New York, 60
 - Philadelphia Charter, 59
 - Virginia Charter (1606), 51–2
 - Virginia Charter (1609), 52–3
 - Virginia Charter (1612), 53–4
 - See also* American colonies

- ancient Greece
 Amphycyonic confederacy of, 339, 340
 Amphycyonic Council of, 306 authority to transact common interests in city-states of, 160–1 dissimilarity between American trade circumstances and city-states of, 179
 Spartan Ephori magistrates as check upon the senate, 346
 subversion of the Achaean Republic by Rome, 290, 340
- Annapolis Convention Address
 (September 14, 1786), 261–3
- Antifederal party (Letter to James Madison, June 8, 1788), 334–5
- army. See Continental Army; militia
- Articles of Confederation
The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781
 on expanding taxation powers of, 166–9
 February 14, 1783 letter to George Clinton on funding debts through 8th, 189
 February 24, 1783 letter on George
 Clinton on executing the 8th, 190–4
 Hamilton on efforts to erect new government to replace, 3
 Hamilton's Continentalist series criticizing the, 2, 156–81
 Hamilton's writings on need to reform
 the, 2–3
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on 13th article, 230–1
 July 1783 unsubmitted resolution to amend the, 214–18
 June 1, 1783 letter on state compliance with peace treaty and the 5th, 207–10
See also law and government; United States; US federal government
- Assembly. See New York Assembly;
 US Assembly
- authority
 April 1784 Phocion letter on constitution delegating legislative, 254–5 of Continental Congress (1784) to make treaties with foreign nations, 234
The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781
 on sovereignty and, 159–61
The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781 on dangers to federal government's, 162–5
 December 15, 1774 letter challenging
 British, 8–31
The Farmer Refuted disallowing British Parliament, 36–50, 63–73, 88–91 of German Diet and Helvetic League, 161
 of Greek city-states to transact common interests, 160–1 of His Holiness the Pope, 50
 New York Assembly act (1691) establishing supreme legislative power and, 89–91
 Parliament's act declaring their binding authority over America, 73
*Speech to the New York Assembly,
 February 15, 1787* on government financial, 275–90
See also power; sovereignty
- Bacon, Colonel, 60
- Baltimore, Lord, 56
- banks
 Bank of England, 139
 origins of modern banking principle in Venice, 139
 September 3, 1780 letter on advantages of an American, 139–41
See also currency system; finances;
 public credit/loans
- Barbé-Marbois, Marquis de
 February 7, 1781 letter to, 147
 September 13, 1780 letter to, 144–5
- Blackstone, Sir William, 49
- Bland, Col., 202
- Boston Tea Party (1773)
 British punishment for destruction of, 24–5
 destroying private, not public property, 24
- British Parliament
 Boston Tea Party (1773) punishment enacted by, 24–5
 Congressional Congress (1774) challenging authority of the, 8–31
 Continental Congress (1774) partial repeal of the Revenue Acts of, 10
 Continental Congress (1774) repeal of Stamp Act of, 10
 disregard of justice by the, 11, 50

- The Farmer Refuted* disclaiming authority of King and, 36–50, 63–73, 88–91
 the Farmer's efforts to establish authority over America by, 35–47
Magna Charta on no taxation without consent of, 60, 231 passing act declaring binding authority over America, 73
Remarks on the Quebec Act, Part One/Part Two of the, 2, 25, 93–100
See also Great Britain
- British–colonies dispute
 defense of Continental Congress (1774) actions related to the, 8–31 permitting America's liberty as best solution to the, 91–2 refuting the Farmer's view of the, 32–92
See also American colonies; American Revolutionary War
- British–colonies trade advantages for Ireland and West Indies, 16
 Congress (1774) non-consumption agreement and, 27–9
The Farmer Refuted observations on the, 61–9, 75–85 immense amount of the, 14–18
 as inequitable to American colonies, 62–3
 The Netherlands as rivals to, 19
 3 pence per pound duty on East India tea, 8
See also American colonies; Great Britain; trade/commerce policies
- Burlemaqui, Jean Jacques, 35
- Canada
 Catholic religion established there prior to surrender of, 97 commerce of Nova Scotia colony, 210
 English laws superseded by French laws in the Quebec Bill, 25, 93–5 events (1781) leading to free intercourse between Vermont and, 296–7 limited commerce (1774) of, 19, 20
 Quebec Act considered in relation to religion, 96–100
 Quebec Act impact on future emigrations to, 100
Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part One, June 15, 1775, 2, 93–5
Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part Two, June 22, 1775, 2, 96–100
 Carleton, Sir Guy, 176, 208
 Carolina erected into a principality (1663), 58 government and courts established in, 58–9 history of settlement supporting claim to liberty, 58–9
See also North Carolina; South Carolina
 Carthaginian tyranny (Sardinia Island), 67–8
 Catholic Church established there by the laws of France prior to surrender of Canada, 97 impact on future emigrations to Canada by Quebec Act advantages for, 100
 Quebec Act considered in relation to advantages provided to, 96–8, 99–100
See also His Holiness the Pope
 Charales XII (King of Sweden), 87
 Charlemagne and German Confederacy, 307
 Charles II (King of England), 57–60, 61, 297
 Charles I (King of England), 56
 Chase, Samuel, 2, 183n21
 Chipman, Nathaniel, 381–2
 civil rights
 April 1784 letter from Phocion on protection of, 240–59
 birthright of Englishmen to participate in laws governing their, 39–40, 49
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on due process of Tories, 230–1 martial law suspension of Habeas Corpus, 40
 Quebec Act on Canadian law governing property and, 93–4
Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787 on strength of society to protect, 291–301
See also freedom; liberty

- civil society
 - Hobbes on moral obligation derived from, 35
 - Speech to the New York Assembly, January 19, 1787* on powers granted to, 269
- Clinton, George
 - December 22, 1777 letter on abhorrent behaviors by soldiers, 111
 - February 13, 1778 letter urging improved colonial representation, 112–14
 - February 14, 1783 letter on funding US debts through 8th article, 189
 - February 24, 1783 letter on carrying 8th article into execution, 190–4
 - Hamilton's letters (1789) opposing his re-election as governor, 3, 391–412
 - H. G. Letter IV, February 24, 1789* on exploring his fitness to be governor, 391–2
 - H. G. Letter XI, March 7, 1789* on opposition to ratification of Constitution by, 396–7
 - H. G. Letter XII, March 8, 1789* on continued opposition to Constitution by, 398–401
 - H. G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789* on unfriendly attitude toward Congress by, 402–3
 - July 21, 1787 letter on his observations on the Convention, 318–20
 - June 1, 1783 letter on state compliance with 5th article and peace treaty, 207–10
 - March 12, 1778 letter to importance of having honest revolutionary leaders, 115–17
 - May 14, 1783 letter on objections to plan for funding the public debt, 205–6
 - October 12, 1780 letter on his military detachment south, 146
 - To the Electors of the State of New York, April 7, 1789* opposing re-election of, 404–12
- Colbert, Jean-Baptiste, 171
- Colepepper, Lord, 60
- colonies. See American colonies
- commerce. See trade/commerce policies
- Connecticut
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 - history of settlement supporting claim to liberty, 57–8
 - Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788* on representations of, 342
- Constitutional Convention (1787)
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* made during the, 322–31
 - From Alexander Hamilton to The Daily Advertiser, July 21, 1787* reflections on the, 318–20
 - Hamilton's proposals and interventions at the, 3
 - A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787* presented during, 311–12
 - Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 26, 1787*, 313
 - Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 29, 1787*, 314–15
 - Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, September 17, 1787*, 321
 - Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes)*, 305–10
 - Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787*, 311–12
- Continental Army
 - April 8, 1783 letter on Congressional debate over half-pay for, 204
 - April 30, 1781 letter on fear that want of money will disband, 153–5
 - December 22, 1777 letter on abhorrent behaviors of, 111
 - June 30, 1780 letter on actions of the, 129
 - March 14, 1779 letter on forming South Carolina battalions of negroes, 126–7
 - March 25, 1783 letter on keeping army in state of inactivity, 200–1
 - March 25, 1783 letter on public ingratitude to the, 199

- October 12, 1780 letter lacking faith in Congress deliberation of the, 146 recommendation to recruit army for the war and provide supplies, 136–7
 September 3, 1780 letter on influence of states over, 131, 134
 September 12, 1780 letter on Hamilton's despair over the, 143
See also militia
- Continental Army mutineers
 June 19, 1783 letter on detachment to Lancaster by eighty, 212
 September 25–30, 1783 on surrender of the, 222–8
- Continental Congress (1774)
 electing members to repel British invasion of rights, 10
 Hamilton's writings connected to his service in the, 2–3
 partial repeal of the Revenue Acts by the, 10 possible consequences to the Farmer by measures of, 16–30 reason for non-consumption agreement by, 27–30
 Stamp Act repeal by the, 10 vindication of measures against Britain by the, 8–31
- Continental Congress (1778)
Publius Letter I, October 16, 1778 on need for honest men in, 119
Publius Letter III, November 16, 1778 on need for virtuous men in, 123–5
- Continental Congress (1780)
 February 13, 1778 letter urging improved colonial representation to, 112–14
 October 12, 1780 letter on lack of faith in deliberation of the army by, 146 recommendations on fundamental rules for the conduct of, 142 recommended changes to sovereignty of, 135
 September 3, 1780 letter on defects and how to change, 130–42
 September 12, 1780 letter on Hamilton's despair over the, 143
- Continental Congress (1781)
The Continentalist No. I, July 12, 1781 on principles of power and, 156–61
The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781 promoting enlarged powers of, 162–5
 February 7, 1781 letter on territory acquisition and procuring credit by, 147
 February 24, 1783 on Mr. Morris' resolution to resign over inadequate funds, 194 jealousy of power and want of power by the, 156–8
- Continental Congress (1782), 181
- Continental Congress (1783)
 April 8, 1783 letter on debate over army half-pay, 204
 April 8, 1783 letter on debate over funding the public debt in, 202–4
 July 1783 unpublished essay on defense of, 219–21
 July 1783 unsubmitted resolution to amend the Articles of Confederation by, 214–18
 September 25–30, 1783 on response to mutineers by, 222–8 two classes of men in the, 202–3
- Continental Congress (1784), 234
- Continental Congress (1786)
H.G. Letter VIII, March 2, 1789 on Clinton's contemptuous treatment of, 393–5
H.G. Letter XI, March 7, 1789 on Clinton's opposition to ratifying Constitution, 396–7
- Continental Congress (1789)
H.G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789 on Clinton's unfriendly attitude toward, 402–3
H.G. Letter XII, March 8, 1789 on Clinton's continued opposition to, 398–401
- The Continentalist No. I, July 12, 1781*, 156–8
The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781, 159–61
The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781, 162–5
The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781, 166–9
The Continentalist No. V, April 18, 1782, 170–4

- The Continentalist No. VI, July 4, 1782*, 177–81
 Cornwallis, General (British military), 163, 175
Corsica rebellion, 85
 criminal prosecution/punishment
 April 20, 1777 letter on clemency to Tories, 103
 April 21, 1777 letter asking for discrimination in, 104–5
 April 21–27, 1777 letter on different sentences and, 106
 April 29, 1777 letter warning against unmerited, 107
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on due process of Tories, 230–1 on no future property confiscation or, 207–8, 232 Treaty of Paris (1783) on future confiscations and, 132, 258 currency system
 April 30, 1781 letter on error of paper money, 152
 April 30, 1781 letter on fear that want of money will disband army, 153–5
 See also banks
- The Daily Advertiser* letter (July 21, 1787), 318–20
 debts. See public debts
 Declaration of Independence (4th of July, 1776), 241
Defense of Congress, an Unpublished Essay, July 1783, 219–21
 Dehart, Col., 104
 De la Luzerne, Chevalier, 147
 Delaware
 Annapolis Convention Address (September 14, 1786) on commerce policies of, 261
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 29, 1787 on inequality due to size of, 314
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on representations of, 342
 department of finance. See finances
 Dickinson, John, 222–8
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787
 Article I on legislative power of Assembly and Senate, 322
 Article II on Assembly representatives, 322–3
 Article III on Senate members, 323–4
 Article IV on election of the president of the United States, 324–7
 Article V on Supreme Court judges and impeachment procedures, 327–8
 Article VI on trial of US vs. state territorial claims, 328
 Article VII on legislature passage of laws, 328–9
 Article VIII on state governors, 329–30
 Article IX on office eligibility, citizen rights, fugitives, state and federal sovereignty, 330–1
 Article X on procedure for ratifying this Constitution, 331
 Duane, James
 recommending Robert Morris for department of finance to, 136, 148
 September 3, 1780 letter on improving Congress, 130–42
 Due process rights, 230–1
Dunciad satire (Alexander Pope), 32
 Dutch Republics. See United Provinces (The Netherlands)
- East India Company
 attempt to confine lucrative commerce to, 121
 Boston Tea Party (1773) destroying tea belonging to, 24–5 reason for Congress non-consumption agreement on tea of, 27–30
 3 pence per pound duty on tea imports by, 8
 Eddy, John, 104
 election procedures
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives, 322–3

- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members, 323–4
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article IV on presidential, 324–7
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article IX on office eligibility, 330
- Letter to the Supervisors of the City of Albany, February 18, 1789* on governor, 386–90
- Elizabeth (Queen of England), 50
- England
- English Whigs after revolution, 231
 - history of American settlements by, 51–60
 - history of due process in, 231
 - Magna Charta of, 60, 231
 - right of every Englishman to participate in reframing laws of, 39–40
 - See also Great Britain
- Excerpt from a Letter to Catharine Livingston, May 1777*, 108
- Excerpt from a Letter to George Clinton, December 22, 1777*, 111
- Excerpt from a Letter to George Clinton, March 12, 1778*, 115–17
- Excerpt from a Letter to George Washington, August 13, 1788*, 380
- Excerpt from a Letter to George Washington, September 30, 1783*, 229
- Excerpt from a Letter to George Washington, September 1788*, 383–4
- Excerpt from a Letter to John Dickinson, September 25–30, 1783*, 222–8
- Excerpt from a Letter to John Jay, July 25, 1783*, 213
- Excerpt from a Letter to John Jay, March 14, 1779*, 126–7
- Excerpt from a Letter to Lieutenant Colonel John Laurens, September 12, 1780*, 143
- Excerpt from a Letter to Marquis de Barbé-Marbois, September 13, 1780*, 144–5
- Excerpt from a Letter to Nathanael Greene, June 10, 1783*, 211
- Excerpt from a Letter to Robert Livingston, April 25, 1785*, 260
- Excerpt from a Letter to Robert R. Livingston, June 28, 1777*, 109–10
- Excerpt from a Letter to the New York Committee of Correspondence, April 10, 1777*, 103
- Excerpt from a Letter to William Livingston, April 21, 1777*, 104–5
- Excerpt from a Letter to William Livingston, April 29, 1777*, 107
- Excerpts from a Letter to Robert Morris, April 30, 1781*, 148–55
- Farmer, A. W. (Bishop Samuel Seabury)
- addressing Congress measures (1774)
 - impact on New York farmers, 22–30
 - efforts to establish supremacy of British Parliament over America, 35–47
 - on possible consequences of Congress measures (1774), 16–22
 - refuting his view of the British–colonies controversy, 2, 32–92
 - on resemblance between the Dunciad satire dullness and the, 32–3
- The Farmer Refuted* (Hamilton pamphlet, 1775)
- analysis and suggestions for British–American trade, 63–9
 - disclaiming British authority over America, 36–50, 63–73, 88–91
 - disputing that Britons and Americans are the same, 46–7
 - on the Farmer’s efforts to sully Congress members, 34
 - on the Farmer’s enmity of natural rights, 38, 47–50
 - on feudal system principle of English tenure dispensing American lands, 50–4
 - granting America liberty as best solution, 91–2
 - the history of American settlement supporting claim to liberty, 51–61
 - man is proved a horse (Ergo, homo est equus) argument in, 45–6
 - observations on British–colonies trade, 61–9, 75–85
 - on possible response of France and Spain to war, 85–6, 87–8
 - on probability of America securing freedom, 86–8

- The Farmer Refuted* (Hamilton pamphlet, 1775) (cont.)
 refuting Farmer's view of the British-colonies controversy, 32–92 on Stamp Act and the Revenue Acts, 67, 73–5 written in defense of Congress (1774) measures, 2
- Fay and Ira Allen (1781), 296
- Federal Farmer publication, 347
- federal government. See US federal government
- The Federalist*, 2, 335
- finances
 April 8, 1783 letter on Congressional debate over funding the public debt, 202–4
 April 30, 1781 letter on advantages of a national debt, 155
The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781 on taxation to pay for war, 166–9 error of those supporting paper money, 152
 February 7, 1781 letter on territory acquisition enabling credit, 147
 February 13, 1783 letter to George Washington on concerns over, 187–8
 February 14, 1783 letter on using 8th article to pay debts, 189
 February 24, 1783 letter on executing 8th article for, 190–4 how national debt will create necessity for taxation for public funds, 155
 March 17, 1783 letter on state funding of public debts, 195–7
 May 14, 1783 letter on objections to plan for funding the public debt, 205–6
 September 3, 1780 letter on revealing the need for a loan to France, 137–8
 September 3, 1780 letter recommending Morris Robert for department of, 136, 148
Speech to the New York Assembly, February 15, 1787 on state and federal, 275–90
Speech to the New York, Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 supporting state requisitions, 337–40
See also banks; taxation
- France
 April 8, 1783 letter on no hope of securing a loan from, 203
 Colbert's influence on trade policies of, 171 comparing ability for revenue of Great Britain and, 154
The Farmer Refuted on possible war with Britain and response by, 85–6, 87–8
 September 3, 1780 letter on revealing the need for a loan to, 137–8
 September 13, 1780 letter on urgent need for assistance from, 144–5
- Franklin, Benjamin, 396
- Franklin (proposed new state), 342
- freedom
 arguing that Americans are entitled to (December 15, 1774), 8–31
The Farmer Refuted on probability of America securing its, 86–8 learning from Rome as the “nurse of,” 14 property ownership as difference between slavery and, 9
See also civil rights
- Freeman, Joanne B., 1
- From Alexander Hamilton to The Daily Advertiser, July 21, 1787*, 318–20
- Full Vindication of the Measures of the Congress* (Hamilton pamphlet), 2, 8–31
- General Assembly authority (The Farmer Refuted), 89–90
- George III (King of Great Britain), 36–50, 63–73, 88–91
- Georgia
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
- German Confederacy (18th century), 339
- German Confederacy (Charlemagne era), 307
- German Diet, 161
- governors
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VIII on, 329–30

- Hamilton's opposition of George Clinton's re-election as, 3, 391–412
Letter to the Supervisors of the City of Albany, February 18, 1789 on election of, 386–90
Speech to the New York Assembly, January 19, 1787 addressing obligations of, 264–70, 271–4
See also state government
- Great Britain
 Bank of England in, 139 challenging their authority over America (December 15, 1774), 8–31 comparing ability for revenue of France and, 154 comparing revenues of United Provinces to, 190
Conjectures About the New Constitution, September 1787 on possible reunion with, 333
 defense of Continental Congress (1774) actions related to the, 8–31
The Farmer Refuted on probability of America securing freedom from, 86–8 feudal system principle of English tenure dispensing American lands, 50–4 permitting America's liberty as best solution to dispute with colonies, 91–2 reasons not to engage in war with colonies, 14–17, 85–6 refuting the Farmer's view of the dispute with, 32–92
 supposition on desire (1787) to cultivate Vermont, 297–8
 3 pence per pound duty on East India tea by, 8
 Treaty of Paris (1783) between United States and, 132, 198, 207–10, 258
See also British Parliament;
 British–colonies trade; England
- Greek city-states. See ancient Greece
- Greene, Nathanael
 June 10, 1783 letter on giving solidity to our national system, 211
 May 16, 1780 letter on Board of Treasury position of, 128
- Grotius, Hugo, 35
- Habeas Corpus*, 40
- Haldimand, General (British military), 296
- Hamilton, Alexander
 his contribution as a political thinker, 1–2
 Publius pseudonym of, 2, 230–9, 240–59 well-known life and founder role of, 1
- Hand, Col., 104
- Helvetic League, 161
- H. G. Letter IV, February 24, 1789*, 391–2
H. G. Letter VIII, March 2, 1789, 393–5
H. G. Letter XI, March 7, 1789, 396–7
H. G. Letter XII, March 8, 1789, 398–401
H. G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789, 402–3
- His Holiness the Pope, 50
See also Catholic Church
- Hobbes, Thomas, 35
- Holt, John, 118
- Hopkins, Peter, 104–5
- Hopkins, Silas, 104
- Huddy, Capt., 175
- impeachment procedures (Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article V), 327–8
- Ireland
 advantages of trade with colonies for, 16
 possible anger over Congress (1774) measures by, 18–19
- Jackson, William, 212
- James, King (King of England)
 first Virginia charter (1606) issued by, 51–2 second Virginia charter (1609) issued by, 52–3 third Virginia charter (1612) issued by, 53–4
- Jay, John
 February 13, 1778 letter on enlisting into Continental government, 114
 July 25, 1783 letter expressing appreciation of, 213
 March 14, 1779 letter on raising battalions of negroes, 126–7
 November 26, 1775 letter on attack on Rivington's press, 101–2

- Johnstone, Governor George, 120–1, 183n2
- judicial authority
 Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787 on organization of, 312
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on 13th article on due process, 230–1
- justice
 American cause favored by natural voice of, 9
 April 1784 Phocion letter on basing the government on, 258–9
 British Parliament’s disregard of, 11, 50 deplorable state of people dependent on another’s, 40
 The Farmer Refuted (Hamilton pamphlet, 1775) argument for liberty and, 32–91
 Full Vindication of the Measures of the Congress (Hamilton pamphlet) on Congress, 2, 8–31 as political salvation of a community, 10 state government role in dispensing, 282, 300, 368, 370–1 as violated when civil liberty is taken away, 47
- Kentucky, 342
- Knox, Major General Henry (Continental Army), 175–6
- Knox, Mrs., 176
- la Fayette, Marquis de, 198
- Laurens, John
 delivering March 14, 1779 letter to John Jay, 126
 June 30, 1780 letter reporting on folly and passiveness of countrymen, 129
 September 12, 1780 letter on despair over Congress and the army, 143
- law and government
 Americans as never empowering British parliament to make, 36–50, 63–73, 88–91
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VIII on state governors and rights over, 329–30
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VII on legislative passage of, 328–9 expectations of martial law in America, 40
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on 13th article on due process, 230–1 number of philosophers on natural rights of man and, 35 right of every Englishman to participate in reframing, 39–40, 49
 See also Articles of Confederation; state government; US federal government
- law of nature, 35–6
- legislature. See US Assembly; US Senate
- A Letter from Phocion to the Considerate Citizens of New York, January 1784*, 230–9
- Letter to Edward Stevens, November 11, 1769*, 7
- Letter to George Clinton, February 13, 1778*, 112–14
- Letter to George Clinton, February 14, 1783*, 189
- Letter to George Clinton, February 24, 1783*, 190–4
- Letter to George Clinton, June 1, 1783*, 207–10
- Letter to George Clinton, May 14, 1783*, 205–6
- Letter to George Washington, April 8, 1783*, 202–4
- Letter to George Washington, February 13, 1783*, 187–8
- Letter to George Washington, July 3, 1787*, 316–17
- Letter to George Washington, March 17, 1783*, 195–7
- Letter to George Washington, March 24, 1783*, 198
- Letter to George Washington, March 25, 1783*, 199, 200–1
- Letter to Isaac Sears, October 12, 1780*, 146
- Letter to James Duane, September 3, 1780*, 130–42
- Letter to James Madison, June 8, 1788*, 334–5
- Letter to John Holt, October 16, 1778*, 118
- Letter to John Jay, November 26, 1775*, 101–2

- Letter to Major General Henry Knox, June 7, 1782*, 175–6
- Letter to Major General Nathanael Greene, May 16, 1780*, 128
- Letter to Major William Jackson, June 19, 1783*, 212
- Letter to Nathaniel Chipman, September–December 1788*, 381–2
- Letter to the New York Committee of Correspondence, April 21–27, 1777*, 106
- Letter to the Supervisors of the City of Albany, February 18, 1789*, 386–90
- liberty
- April 1784 letter from Phocion on protection of civil rights and, 240–59
 - birthright of Englishmen to participate in laws governing their, 39–40, 49
 - due process as fundamental principle of, 231
 - The Farmer Refuted* pamphlet on not letting deceitful men take your property and, 22, 25, 31, 36, 41, 42
 - Hamilton on infinite value of, 13, 91
 - history of American settlement supporting claim to, 51–61
 - Phocion on contested meaning of the work, 232–3
 - as reprobating anything arbitrary in taxation, 180
 - solution to British–colonies dispute is granting America, 91–2
 - Speech to the New York Assembly, February 15, 1787* on wars as danger to, 290
 - world attention on noble struggle of America for, 259
 - See also* civil rights
- Library of America collection (Freeman), 1–2
- Livingston, Catharine, 108
- Livingston, Robert R.
- April 25, 1785 letter on concerns for security of property, 260
 - February 13, 1778 letter on enlisting into Continental government, 114
 - June 28, 1777 letter on army and political state of the war, 109–10
- Livingston, William
- April 21, 1777 letter on types of judicial punishments, 104–5
 - April 29, 1777 letter warning on unmerited prosecutions, 107
- loans. See public credit/loans
- Locke, John, 35
- Madison, James
- June 8, 1788 letter on favorable outcome of elections, 334–5
 - Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 26, 1787* on Hamilton concurring with, 313
 - Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes)*, 305–10
 - Magna Charta* (England), 60, 231
 - man is proved a horse (Ergo, homo est equus) argument, 45–6
- martial law
- The Farmer Refuted* on expectations of eventual, 40
 - rights abolished under, 40
- Maryland
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 - February 7, 1781 letter on accession to confederacy by, 147
 - history of settlement supporting claim of liberty, 56–7
 - Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788* on representations of, 342
- Massachusetts
- Council at Plymouth patent, 56
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 - history of settlement supporting claim of liberty, 59–60
 - petition (1774) sent to his Majesty by the Massachusetts Bay Assembly of, 11

- Massachusetts (cont.)
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on representations in, 342
 McDougall, General, 202
 Mentor (Second Letter from Phocion, April 1784), 240–59 militia
 Constitutional Convention, a Plan of Government, June 18, 1787 on federal control of, 312
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VIII on governor appointments to, 330 election of Roman Emperors made by the Roman Empire, 310
 See also Continental Army
 Miller, Francis, 104
 Montesquieu, 35
 moral obligation
 April 1784 Phocion letter on social compact, 254
 Hobbes on civil society as source of, 35
 Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787 on social compact, 291–2
 Morris, Robert
 April 8, 1783 letter on disappointment in conduct of, 203–4
 April 30, 1781 letter on department of finance recommendations, 148–55
 February 18, 1789 letter to Albany Supervisors on proposing him as governor, 389, 390
 February 24, 1783 on his resolution to resign from Congress, 194
 September 3, 1780 letter recommending him for department of finance, 136, 148
 mutineers. See Continental Army mutineers national debt. See public debts natural rights of mankind

 the Farmer's enmity and false reasoning on, 35, 47–50
 Hamilton's commitment to civil liberty and, 91

 recommendations on several authors writing on, 35
 Neckar, Mr., 308 negroes
 March 14, 1779 letter on forming South Carolina battalions of, 126–7 prejudice and unwillingness to part with them as property, 126–7
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on three fifths representations of, 341
 The Netherlands. See United Provinces (The Netherlands)
 New England
 Hamilton on prejudices between New York and, 101–2
 history of settlement supporting claim of liberty, 54–6
 New Hampshire
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 June 8, 1788 letter on probable ratification of Constitution by, 334
 June 20, 1788 ratifying speech on requisition delinquency by, 337
 New Jersey
 Annapolis Convention Address (September 14, 1786) on commerce policies of, 261
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes) on, 307–8
 New York
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4

- February 7, 1781 letter on intended cession of territory by, 147
- Hamilton on prejudices between New England and, 101–2
- Hamilton's opposition to Clinton's re-election as governor of, 3
- January 1784 letter from Phocion to the citizens of, 230–9
- June 20, 1788 ratifying speech on compliance with requisitions by, 337, 338
- Letter to the Supervisors of the City of Albany, February 18, 1789* on election of governor, 386–90
- March 28, 1787 speech addressing controversy between Vermont and, 291–301
- settlement and claim to liberty by, 60
- speeches to New York Assembly (1787) on relationship between US and, 264–90
- Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788* on representations in, 342
- New York Assembly
- establishing supreme legislative power and authority (1691), 89–90
 - explanation of the 1691 act in 1771, 90–1
 - Hamilton's writings connected to his service in the, 2, 3
 - Speech to the New York Assembly, February 15, 1787*, 275–90
 - Speech to the New York Assembly, January 19, 1787*, 264–70, 271–4
 - Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787*, 291–301
 - To the Electors of the State of New York, April 7, 1789* opposing re-election of Clinton, 404–12
 - See also* US assembly
- New York Committee of Correspondence
- April 20, 1777 letter asking for clemency to Tories, 103
 - April 21–27, 1777 letter on different forms of punishment, 106
- New York Journal* printer, 119
- New York Ratifying Convention
- Hamilton's speeches in defense of the Constitution at the, 3
 - June 20, 1788 speech supporting ratification, 336–43
 - June 21, 1788 speech on possible sources of corruption, 350–4
 - June 21, 1788 speech on representation proportion, 344–9
 - June 24, 1788 speech addressing objections to ratification, 355–60
 - June 25, 1788 speech on public welfare and checks on senate members, 361–4
 - June 27, 1788 speech on free representation, mutual checks, and supreme laws, 365–71
 - June 28, 1788 speech on taxation issue, 372–9
- Non-consumption agreement (Constitutional Congress, 1774), 27–30
- North Carolina
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 - June 20, 1788 ratifying speech on requisition delinquency by, 337
 - Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes)* on, 307
 - See also* Carolina
- Nova Scotia colony (Canada), 210
- The Papers of Alexander Hamilton* (Syrett), 1, 2
- Pennsylvania
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 - Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 - June 20, 1788 ratifying speech on compliance with requisitions by, 337
 - Philadelphia Charter of, 59
 - Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 29, 1787* on inequality due to size of, 314

- Pennsylvania (cont.)
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on representations of, 342
- Peter the Great (Russia), 87
- Phocian War (355–346 BC), 306–7
- Phocion (Alexander Hamilton pseudonym)
 April 1784 letter responding to Mentor on Tories, 240–59
 Hamilton's writings under the name of, 2
 January 1784 letter to citizens of New York on treatment of Tories, 230–9 on who are real British subjects and are not British subjects, 243–4
- Pitt, Mr., 68
- The Political Writings of Alexander Hamilton*, 2–3
- politics
 April 1784 Phocion letter on bigotry in religion and, 256–7 increased spirit of toleration in, 257
- power
The Continentalist No. I, July 12, 1781 on Congress' jealousy of, 156–8
The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781 on sovereignty, authority, and, 159–61
H.G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789 on Clinton's support of state over federal, 402–3
Speech to the New York Assembly, January 19, 1787 on civil society, 269
See also authority
- president of the United States
Conjectures About the New Constitution, September 1787 on probability of Washington as, 333
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IV on election of, 324–7
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article V on impeachment of the, 327–8
 Hamilton's writings to persuade George Washington to serve as, 3, 333, 380, 383–4
 May 5, 1789 letter on suggested presidential etiquette to be followed by, 413–15
- printer to New York Journal letter (October 16, 1778), 119
- profiteering by Samuel Chase, 2, 183n1
- property
 April 25, 1785 letter on concerns for security of, 260
 April 30, 1781 letter on having stable bank system to restore security of, 153, 154
 April 1784 letter from Phocion on law of inheritance, 257
 Articles of Confederation July 1783 amendment on governance of, 217 birthright of Englishmen to participate in framing laws governing, 39–40, 49
 Boston Tea Party as destroying private, not public, 24
Continentalist No. VI on taxation and assessment of, 180
 December 15, 1774 pamphlet on not resigning freedom for life and, 23
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VI on US vs. state territorial claims over, 328
The Farmer Refuted pamphlet on not letting deceitful men take your liberty and, 22, 25, 31, 36, 41, 42 history of settlement of the American colonies, 51–60
 January 1784 letter on aliens not permitted to hold property, 233
 June 1, 1783 on Congress to recommend restoration to loyal citizens, 209
 March 14, 1779 on prejudice and unwillingness to part with blacks as, 126–7 ownership as the difference between freedom and slavery, 9
 Quebec Act on Canadian law governing civil rights and, 93–4
 Quebec Act on tithes in Canada being Romish Church, 96–7 recommendation that precious metals should be federal government, 181
 September 3, 1780 letter recommending that Congress vest unoccupied lands, 135
- property confiscation
 April 21–22, 1777 letter to New York Committee on, 106

- April 1784 letter from Phocion on, 242, 244–5, 258
- Articles of Confederation July 1783 amendment on restoration of, 232
- December 22, 1777 on army soldiers engaging in, 111
- January 1784 letter from Phocion on, 233
- on no future prosecution of Tories or, 207–8, 232
- as not cognizable by martial law, 40
- Treaty of Paris (1783) on no future, 132, 258
- prosecution. See criminal prosecution/punishment
- Protestant churches, 98–9
- public credit/loans
- April 8, 1783 letter on inability to secure from another country, 203
- April 30, 1781 letter on advantages of a national debt, 155
- April 30, 1781 letter on error of paper money and, 152
- April 30, 1781 letter on fear that want of money will disband army, 153–5
- comparing ability of France and Great Britain’s ability for revenue and, 154
- February 7, 1781 letter on territory acquisition enabling Congress to procure, 147
- September 3, 1780 letter on revealing to France the need for, 137–8
- Speech to the New York Assembly, February 15, 1787* on federal and state, 275–90
- See also* banks
- public debts
- April 8, 1783 letter on Congressional debate over how to fund, 202–4
- April 30, 1781 letter on advantages of a national, 155
- February 14, 1783 letter to George Clinton on using 8th article to fund federal, 189
- February 24, 1783 letter on George Clinton on executing 8th article to pay, 190–4
- how a national debt will create a necessity for taxation, 155
- March 17, 1783 letter to George Washington on state funding of, 195–7
- May 14, 1783 letter on objections to plan for funding the, 205–6
- Publius
- Hamilton’s pseudonym, 2
- Publius Letter I, October 16, 1778*, 119
- Publius Letter II, October 26, 1778*, 120–2
- Publius Letter III, November 16, 1778*, 123–5
- Puffendorf, Samuel von, 35
- punishment. See criminal prosecution/punishment
- Quebec Act
- considered in relation to religion in Canada, 96–100
- impact on future emigrations to Canada by the, 100
- Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part One, June 15, 1775*, 2, 93–5
- Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part Two, June 22, 1775*, 2, 96–100
- seeming provision for support and maintenance of Protestant churches in, 98–9
- as violating the French laws and customs in Canada, 25, 93–5
- Randolph, Governor, 335
- ratifying Constitution. See US Constitution ratification
- religion
- April 1784 Phocion letter on bigotry in politics and, 256–7
- Catholic religion established in Canada prior to surrender, 97
- Quebec Act considered in relation to, 96–100
- Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part One, June 15, 1775*, 2, 93–5
- Remarks on the Quebec Bill: Part Two, June 22, 1775*, 2, 96–100
- Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 26, 1787*, 313
- Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 29, 1787*, 314–15

- Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, September 17, 1787*, 321
- representatives
 caution to be aware of your, 31
 December 1774 pamphlet on Americans as not able to choose their own, 23
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly, 322–3
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate, 323–4
 The Farmer Refuted argument for Americans' right to their own, 34, 39, 41, 45, 48–9, 71, 89–91
 February 15, 1787 speech on constitutional power confirmed on, 276–7, 279–80, 290 freedom as being the state in man is governed by himself or his, 9, 39, 49 right to be taxed only by his own, 30
 September 25–30, 1783 letter on obligation to support all, 225–7
 Spartan Ephori magistrates as check upon the senate, 246
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 21, 1788 on proportion of, 344–9
 Speech to the New York Ratifying convention, June 27, 1788 on having safe, 366–7
- Revenue Acts
 Continental Congress (1774) partial repeal of the, 10
 The Farmer Refuted observations on, 67, 73–5
- Revolutionary War. See American Revolutionary War
- Rhode Island
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 history of settlement supporting claim to liberty, 57–8
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on representations of, 342
- Rivington, Mr.
 Capt. Sears' leadership of men taking away types of, 101
 Hamilton on poor character of, 101
 Letter to John Jay, November 26, 1775 regarding, 101–2
- Roman Empire
 comments (1787) advising against US emulation of, 300–1 election of Emperors made by the army, 310
 subversion of the Achaean Republic by, 290, 340
- Sardinia Island (Carthaginian tyranny), 67–8
- Schuyler, General, 114, 136
- Seabury, Bishop Samuel. See Farmer, A. W. (Bishop Samuel Seabury)
- Sears, Capt. Isaac, 101, 146
- Second Letter from Phocion, April 1784*, 240–59
- Senate. See US Senate
- Shelburne, Lord, 195
- slavery
 Hamilton on British tyranny that brings, 13–14 property ownership as difference between freedom and, 9
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on issue of, 341
- Smith, William, 7
- social compact
 April 1784 Phocion letter on individual and society, 254
 Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787 on the, 291–2
- society
 April 1784 Phocion letter on compact between the individual and, 254 authority of Greek city-states to transact interests of, 160–1
 The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781 on impatience of constraint by, 160
 Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787 on protecting individual rights through social compact of, 291–301

- soldiers. See Continental Army
- South Carolina
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3 history of settlement of, 58–9
 March 14, 1779 letter on forming battalions of negroes for, 126–7
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on representations in, 342
See also Carolina
- sovereignty
The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781 on power of, 159–61
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IX on state and federal, 330–1 of each member of a federal government, 159–60
 September 3, 1780 letter on changes to Congress, 135
See also authority; state government; US federal government
- Spain
The Farmer Refuted on possible war with Britain and response by, 85–6, 87–8 territories ceded following peace with The Netherlands, 294–5
 Treaty of Munster (1738) bringing peace between United Provinces and, 235
Speeches to the New York Assembly
 February 15, 1787 addressing confusion on manner of voting on clauses of bill, 275–90
 January 19, 1787 addressing obligations of state governors, 264–70, 271–4
 March 28, 1787 on strength of society to protect citizen rights, 291–301
Speeches to the New York Ratifying Convention
 June 20, 1788 supporting ratification, 336–43
 June 21, 1788 on possible sources of corruption, 350–4
 June 21, 1788 on representation proportion, 344–9
 June 24, 1788 addressing objections to ratification, 355–60
 June 25, 1788 on public welfare and checks on senate members, 361–4
 June 27, 1788 on free representation, mutual checks, and supreme laws, 365–71
 June 28, 1788 on taxation issue, 372–9
Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes), 305–10
- Spinoza, Baruch, 45
- Stamp Act
 Continental Congress (1774) repeal of the, 10
 Parliament's binding authority act following Congress repeal of the, 73
- state government
 February 14, 1783 letter on funding US debts through 8th article by, 189
 February 24, 1783 letter on executing 8th article by, 190–4 four speeches to New York Assembly (1787) on federal and, 264–301
H.G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789 on Clinton's wish for powerful system of, 402–3
 June 1, 1783 letter on compliance with 5th article and peace treaty by, 207–10 justice dispensed by, 282, 300, 368, 370–1
 September 3, 1780 letter on influence over army by, 131, 134
 September 3, 1780 letter on recommended changes for, 131–3, 134
 September 13, 1780 letter on differences between southern and northern, 144–5
See also governors; law and government; sovereignty
- states
Continentialist No. III comparing the United Provinces to the US, 162
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787, Article VI on trial of territorial claims of, 328

- states (cont.)
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article VIII on governors of, 329–30
 Remarks to the Constitutional Convention, June 29, 1787 on inequality due to size of, 314–15
 Speeches to the New York Assembly, January 19/February 15, 1787 on relationship between US and, 264–90
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on creation of new, 342
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on issues pertinent to, 336–43
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 21, 1788 on diversity of interests among, 353–4
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention June 28, 1788 on taxation and, 372–9
 See also American colonies
Stevens, Edward (letter, November 11, 1769), 7
Supreme Court judges
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IV on presidential election role of, 324–7
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article V on presidential impeachment role of, 327–8
 Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article V on the authority of, 327–8
Swiss Cantons revenues, 190
Syrett, Harold C., 1, 2

taxation
 April 30, 1781 letter on national debt creating necessity for, 155
 Continental Congress (1774) partial repeal of the Revenue Acts, 10
 Continental Congress (1774) repeal of the Stamp Act, 10, 73
 The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781 on expanding powers of, 166–9
 The Continentalist No. VI, July 4, 1782 on need for, 177–81
 The Farmer Refuted observations on the Revenue Acts, 67, 73–5
 Letter to George Clinton, February 14, 1783 on 8th article to pay debts, 189
 Letter to George Clinton, February 24, 1783 on executing 8th article for, 189 liberty as reprobating anything arbitrary in, 180
 September 3, 1780 letter comments on proposed, 138–9
 Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 28, 1788 on issue of, 372–9
 See also finances
The Hague, 146
Tories
 April 20, 1777 letter arguing for clemency to, 103
 April 21, 1777 letter on discrimination in punishing, 104–5
 April 21–27, 1777 on sentencing punishments for, 106
 April 29, 1777 letter warning against unmerited persecution of, 107
 April 1784 letter from Phocion on treatment of, 230–9
 January 1784 letter from Phocion responding to Mentor on the, 240–59
 January 1784 letter to citizens from Phocion to New York citizens on treatment of, 230–9
 June 1, 1783 letter on no future property confiscation or prosecution of, 207–8
 November 26, 1775 letter to John Jay on Rivington and the, 102
 See also Whigs
 To the Electors of the State of New York, April 7, 1789, 404–12
trade/commerce policies
 Annapolis Convention Address (September 14, 1786) on importance of, 261–2
 The Continentalist No. V, April 18, 1782 suggestions on, 170–4
 The Continentalist No. VI, July 4, 1782 on consequences on not enacting, 177–81 dissimilarity between circumstances of American and Greek city-states, 179

- influence of Colbert on French, 171
- Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788* on, 340–1
- of the United Provinces (The Netherlands), 171
- See also* British–colonies trade treaties
- Continental Congress’ sole power to make with foreign nations, 234
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article IX on US power to establish, 331
- Treaty of Munster (1738), 235
- Treaty of Paris (1783), 132, 198, 207–10, 258
- Treaty of Munster (1738), 235
- Treaty of Paris (1783)
- June 1, 1783 letter on favorable articles of the, 208–10
- June 1, 1783 letter on state compliance with 5th article and proposed, 207–10
- March 24, 1783 letter to George Washington on preliminaries of, 198
- on no future confiscations, prosecutions, and restoration of confiscated property, 132, 258
- See also* American Revolutionary War
- tyranny
- of Carthaginians over Sardinia Island, 67–8
- Hamilton on the slavery of British, 13–14
- state sovereignty insufficient to counteract first indications of, 159
- United Provinces (The Netherlands)
- April 8, 1783 letter on no hope of securing a loan from, 203
- as commerce rivals to the English, 19
- commercial regulations of trade by the, 171
- comparing revenues of Great Britain and, 190
- comparing the American states to the, 162
- The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781* suppositions on, 164–5
- high rank among commercial nations held by, 174
- June 20, 1788 ratifying speech on standing army policy of, 339
- Spanish territories ceded following peace with, 294–5
- Treaty of Munster (1738) bringing peace between Spain and, 235
- United States
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article VI on territorial claims of, 328
- H.G. Letter XIII, March 9, 1789* on Clinton’s wish for state power instead of, 402–3
- recommendations on trade policies of the, 170–4, 177–81, 261–2
- speeches to New York Assembly (1787) on relationship between states and, 264–90
- Treaty of Paris (1783) between Great Britain and, 132, 198, 207–10, 258
- world attention on noble struggle for liberty by the, 259
- See also* American colonies; American Revolutionary War; Articles of Confederation
- An Unsubmitted Resolution, Prepared for the Continental Congress, Calling for a Convention to Amend the Articles of Confederation, July 1783*, 214–18
- US Assembly
- Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787* on organization of, 311–12
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article II on representatives of the, 322–3
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article I on legislative power of, 322
- Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787* Article IX on oath to support Constitution by, 331
- May 5, 1789 letter on suggested presidential access by, 414
- See also* New York Assembly
- US Constitution
- Article X on procedure for ratifying the, 331
- Conjectures About the New Constitution, September 1787* on dissent to, 332–3

- US Constitution (cont.)
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787, 322–31 fear of consequences of the non-adoption of, 334
H. G. Letter XII, March 8, 1789 on Clinton's opposition to, 398–401 three-fifths representation of negroes in the, 341
To the Electors of the State of New York, April 7, 1789 on Clinton's opposition to, 404–12
- US Constitution ratification
H. G. Letter XI, March 7, 1789 on Clinton's opposition to the, 396–7
Letter to James Madison, June 8, 1788, 334–5
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788, 336–43
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 21, 1788, 344–9, 350–4
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 24, 1788, 355–60
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 25, 1788, 361–4
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 27, 1788, 365–71
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 28, 1788, 372–9
- US federal government
 April 30, 1781 letter on department of finance and national debt, 148–55 caution about it being too weak at first, 158 comparing ancient republics with the, 157–8
Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787 on legislative power of, 311–12
The Continentalist No. I, July 12, 1781 on expanding powers of, 156–8
The Continentalist No. II, July 19, 1781 on sovereignty of, 159–61
The Continentalist No. III, August 9, 1781 on expanding powers of, 162–5
The Continentalist No. IV, August 30, 1781 on expanding taxation to fund, 166–9
The Continentalist No. V, April 18, 1782 suggestions on trade policies, 170–4
The Continentalist No. VI, July 4, 1782 on need for taxation and trade policies, 177–81 distinct sovereignty of each member of, 159–60 four speeches to New York Assembly (1787) on relationship between state and, 264–301 jealousy of power defect of the, 156, 158
 September 3, 1780 letter recommending Morris Robert for finance, 136, 148
Speech to the Constitutional Convention, June 18, 1787 (From James Madison's Notes) on future of, 305–10
See also Articles of Confederation; law and government; sovereignty; specific Continental Congress
- US Senate
Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787 on organization of, 311–12
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article I on legislative power of, 322–3
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on members of, 323–4
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IV on vice president position of the president of, 327
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IX on oath to support Constitution by, 331
 May 5, 1789 letter on suggested presidential access by, 414 sole power of declaring war by, 311
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 24, 1788 on checks on members of the, 362–4
- Vermont
 events (1781) leading to free intercourse between Canada and, 296–7
 September–December 1788 letter to Nathaniel Chipman on accession of, 381–2

- Speech to the New York Assembly, March 28, 1787* on controversy between New York and, 291–301
Speech to the New York Ratifying Convention, June 20, 1788 on inclusion as new state, 342 supposition on British government (1787) desire to cultivate, 297–8 vice president of the United States
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article IV on election of, 326–7
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article V on impeachment of the, 327–8
 Virginia
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article II on Assembly representatives of, 322–3
Draft of a Constitution, September 17, 1787 Article III on Senate members from, 323–4
 February 7, 1781 letter on cession of territory by, 147 history of settlement supporting claim of liberty by, 51–4
 June 8, 1788 letter on probable ratification of Constitution by, 334
 Virginia Charter (1606), 51–2
 Virginia Charter (1609), 52–3
 Virginia Charter (1612), 53–4
 war caused by Roman strategy of sowing dissensions among Greek city-states, 290 Constitutional Convention, A Plan of Government, June 18, 1787 on Senate power of declaring, 311 reasons that Britain would not engage with American colonies in a, 14–18, 85–6 Speech to the New York Assembly, February 15, 1787 on danger to liberties by, 290
See also American Revolutionary War
 Washington, George
 April 8, 1783 letter on Congressional debate over funding public debt, 202–4
 August 13, 1788 letter on sending Publius papers to library of, 380
Conjectures About the New Constitution, September 1787 on probability of presidency of, 333
 December 22, 1777 letter on plans to inform him of abhorrent behaviors of soldiers, 111
 February 13, 1783 letter on concerns over American finances, 187–8
 Hamilton's writings to persuade him to serve as president, 3, 333, 380, 383–4
 July 3, 1787 letter reflecting on the Convention, 316–17
 March 7, 1789 on his support of the Constitution, 396
 March 17, 1783 letter on state funding of public debts, 195–7
 March 24, 1783 letter on preliminaries of peace, 198
 March 25, 1783 letter on keeping army in state of inactivity, 200–1
 March 25, 1783 letter on public ingratitude to the army, 199
 May 5, 1789 letter on suggestions for presidential etiquette to, 413–15
 September 30, 1783 letter requesting him to use his influence, 229
 West Indies
 advantages of trade with colonies for, 16 possible anger over Congress (1774) measures by, 18–20
 Whigs
 April 1784 letter from Phocion on distinguishing pretended from genuine, 250
 January 1784 letter from Phocion on spirit of Whiggism, 230
 November 26, 1775 letter to John Jay on Rivington and position of the, 102
See also Tories
 Whigs (English), 231
 William and Mary (monarchs of England), 59–60, 89, 151
 Yates, Judge, 389, 390, 406