

Contents

Biographical Sketches of Contributors	page xi
Acknowledgments	xvii
Introduction: The Nature of Appearance Bias and Its Relevance to Crime Bonnie Berry	I
PART I UNATTRACTIVENESS, CRIMINALITY, AND VICTIMIZATION
1 Appearance and Delinquency Robert Agnew	37
2 “Ugly” Criminals and “Ugly” Victims: A Quantitative Analysis of Add Health Data Brent Teasdale and Bonnie Berry	51
PART II RACE, ETHNICITY, AND NATIONALITY AS TARGETED IDENTITIES
3 Racial Profiling and Reconciliation: The Quest for Indigenous Justice in Canada Terry Wotherspoon and John Hansen	75
4 Black Lives Matter: The Watchdog for the Criminal Justice System Lorenzo M. Boyd and Kimberly Conway Dumpson	94

- 5 An Absence of Appearance Identifiers: The Misguided Moral Crusades in Anti-Human Trafficking 107
Billy James Ulibarri
- PART III THE PROCESS OF SOCIAL CONTROL AS
 INFLUENCED BY APPEARANCE: FROM MUGSHOTS
 TO THE DEATH PENALTY
- 6 Becoming and Being a Woman Prisoner: Does Appearance Matter? 134
Brenda Chaney
- 7 The Impact of Victim Attractiveness on Victim Blameworthiness and Defendant Guilt Determination in Cases of Domestic and Sexual Assault 142
Jennifer Wareham, Bonnie Berry, Brenda Sims Blackwell, and Denise Paquette Boots
- 8 Do Attractive Women “Get Away” with Traffic Violations? An Observational Study of Police Responses to Traffic Stops 154
Brent Teasdale, Taylor Gann, and Dean Dabney
- 9 The Police “Presence”: Public Service versus Intimidation 166
Stephen A. Bishopp
- PART IV IDENTIFYING TERRORISTS, MISTAKENLY
 OR NOT, BY APPEARANCE
- 10 Dressed to Kill: Jihadi Appearance and Its Significance in Austria and Beyond 193
Daniela Pisoiu
- 11 Charisma, Prisoner Radicalization, and Terrorism: The Role of Appearance 208
Mark S. Hamm
- PART V VERY VISIBLE DIFFERENCES:
 ORIENTATION, DISABILITY, FREAKS, AND
 CLOWNS AND THEIR RELATIONSHIP TO CRIME
 AND VICTIMIZATION
- 12 Queer Looking: Appearance and LGBTQ Citizens’ Victimization and Interactions with the Criminal Justice System 235
Elicka Peterson Sparks and Ian Skinner
- 13 Visible Disabilities and Risk of Interpersonal Victimization 243
Heidi L. Scherer and Bradford W. Reynolds

	Contents	ix
14	Remarkably Unique Human Appearance: Scary Clowns and Freaks Bonnie Berry	256
	CONCLUSION
15	Appearance Criminology: A New Approach toward Equitable Treatment Bonnie Berry	271
	Index	291