Contents

List of Figures and Tables  \hspace{1cm} \textit{page} viii
Preface and Acknowledgements  \hspace{1cm} \textit{ix}
List of Abbreviations  \hspace{1cm} \textit{xi}
Table of Cases  \hspace{1cm} \textit{xiii}
Table of Legislation, Official Papers and Policy Documents  \hspace{1cm} \textit{xxv}

1 \hspace{0.5cm} \textbf{Introduction}
1.1 Competition Law and Corporate Governance: Two Distinct Orders  \hspace{1cm} 1
1.2 State of Play of the Interaction of Competition Law and Corporate Governance  \hspace{1cm} 5
1.3 The Significance of Opening the ‘Black Box’  \hspace{1cm} 10
1.4 Scope and Methodology  \hspace{1cm} 12
1.5 Originality  \hspace{1cm} 14
1.6 Outline  \hspace{1cm} 15

2 \hspace{0.5cm} \textbf{Theoretical Foundations}
2.1 Introduction  \hspace{1cm} 18
2.2 Why Does Organisation Matter?  \hspace{1cm} 18
2.3 The Nature and the Boundaries of the Firm  \hspace{1cm} 21
2.4 The Agency Theory  \hspace{1cm} 27

\textbf{PART I} \hspace{0.5cm} THE CONCEPTION OF THE FIRM: MOVING BOUNDARIES  \hspace{1cm} 31

3 \hspace{0.5cm} \textbf{The Firm in Competition Law}
3.1 Introduction  \hspace{1cm} 33
3.2 The Meaning of ‘Undertaking’ in Competition Law  \hspace{1cm} 34
3.3 The Single Entity Doctrine  \hspace{1cm} 41
3.4 Conclusion  \hspace{1cm} 46

\textit{v}
Contents

Part I: The Interaction Between Competition Law and Corporate Governance

4 The Single Entity Doctrine in Vertical Relationships
4.1 Introduction
4.2 Parent–Subsidiary Relationships
4.3 Commercial Agency Agreements
4.4 The Single Entity Doctrine and Private Enforcement
4.5 Conclusion

5 The Single Entity Doctrine in Horizontal Relationships
5.1 Introduction
5.2 Joint Ventures Among Competitors
5.3 Structural Links Between Competitors
5.4 Conclusion
Conclusion of Part I

Part II: Opening the ‘Black Box’: The Case of Cartels

6 Corporate Governance Insights into Cartels
6.1 Introduction
6.2 Collusive Behaviour as a Type of Agency Problem
6.3 Corporate Governance and Collusion
6.4 Conclusion

7 Cartel Enforcement: Sanctions and Leniency
7.1 Introduction
7.2 Agency Relationships in the Context of Forming and Sustaining a Cartel
7.3 Enforcement Instruments That Aim to Deter Cartels
7.4 Enforcement Instruments That Aim to Detect Cartels
7.5 Ex Post: the Reaction of Shareholders
7.6 Conclusion

8 Cartel Enforcement: Corporate Compliance Programmes
8.1 Introduction
8.2 Overview of Regulatory Approaches to Compliance
8.3 Opening the ‘Black Box’ of Compliance for Greater Effectiveness of Enforcement
Contents

8.4 For a Pragmatic and Incentive-Based Approach to Corporate Compliance 220
8.5 Conclusion 237

Conclusion of Part II 238

9 Conclusion 240
  9.1 Introduction 240
  9.2 The Firm as a ‘Black Box’ to Competition Law 240
  9.3 The Competition Law Conception of the Firm 241
  9.4 Main Policy Implications 244
  9.5 Epilogue 250

Bibliography 251

Index 272