

INDEX

- abraded-edge tools, 218–20
- abrading/abraded stones, other, 224–5
- abrasion, 45–6
 - natural, 46
- Acheulian Industry, 93
- Acheulian Large Flake/Giant Core
 - Technological Complex, 144
- actualistic observations, 26–8
- age-stages, 22, 78
 - Earlier Stone Age, 78–80
 - Iron Age, 85–6
 - Later Stone Age, 81–3
 - Middle Stone Age, 80–1
 - Neolithic Period, 83–5
- Anthropocene, 7
- anvil percussion, 122
- archaeological culture, 22
- archaeological primatology, 28
- archaeological sites/site complexes, 19
- Ardipithecus, 237
- artifact vs. geofact, 50–5
- artifact-type, 20
- artifact-types and industries, 91–108
 - Earlier Stone Age, 91–8
 - Iron Age and historic, 107–8
 - Later Stone Age, 101–4
 - Middle Stone Age, 98–101
 - Neolithic, 104–7
- assemblage, 19
- asymmetrical torus, 222
- Australopithecus, 78
- awls, 202
- Axum, 107

- backed/truncated pieces, 199–202
- basalt, 42
- beads, stone, 222

- beaked core, 144
- behavioral modernity, 157
- biconvex groundstone celts, 218
- bidirectional-opposed-platform core, 146
- biface
 - celt tip-removal flake, 185
 - core-repair flakes, 178
 - overshot flake, 174
 - point tip-removal flake, 185
 - thinning flake, 172
 - tranchet flake, 185
- bifacial edge-retouch flake, 184
- bifacial hierarchical core (BHC), 142–6
 - blades, 175
 - exploitation flakes, 174
 - preferential, 144
 - radial flakes, 175
 - recurrent, 144
 - repair flakes, 178
 - triangular flakes, 175
- bifacially retouched edge burin flakes, 184
- bipolar cores, 138
- bipolar flakes, 172
- blade cores and blades, historical
 - importance, 157
- blade/bladelet/microblade cores, 147
- blades/bladelets/microblades, 176
- borers, 208
- bowl (stone vessel), 224
- Burg-Wartenstein Conference, 1965, 73
- burin flakes, 184
- burins, 204–5

- carinated scraper, 197
- celts, 154
- celts and core-axes, 154–5
- central preferential BHC flakes, 174

Index

285

- ceramics, Iron Age, 107
chaîne opératoire. See operational chain chalcedony, 42
 chamfered piece, 61
 chert, 42
 children, 35–6 chimpanzees, 28 chopper, 140
 chronological outliers, 53–5 circles/ovals (backed/truncated pieces), 201 Clark Modes 1–5, 23
 clast initiation flakes, 170 cleaver, 150 combination tools, 210
 comminution, 35
 comparing stone tool assemblages, 63–4 concavity/convexity removal flakes, other, 182 conchoidal fracture, 15 confirmation bias, 50, 64, 160 constellations (refitting artifacts), 29 contextual observations, 28–32 convergence, 156
 convergent scraper, 196
 convergent single-platform blade core, 146 convergently backed/truncated pieces, 201 convergently retouched pieces/retouched flake points, 202 core-axes, 155
 core-exploitation flakes (EAST Group VI), 172–7 core-initiation flakes (EAST Group V), 169–71 core-repair flakes (EAST Group VII), 177–82 cores, 18
 cores and core tools, 137–57
 cores-on-flakes, 149 core-tool, 18
 cortex, 44
 craft/hobby stoneworkers, 18 crescents (backed/truncated pieces), 199 crested flakes, 171
 curation, 24 cylinders, groundstone, 225
- débitage, 19
 debris, 19
 desert varnish, 44
 Developed Oldowan Industry, 93
 Dibble's Rule, 62 digging stick weights, 130, 220 digging stones, 225 direct procurement, 27
- disc scraper, 197
 discard threshold, 25
 discoid, 140
 distal biface core-repair flake, 178 double-edged groundstone celts, 218
- Eastern Africa, 4 frameworks for prehistory, 77–86 geology and geography, 67–70
 Eastern African Stone Tool (EAST)
 Typology, 129–31
 Eburran Industry, 104
 Eburran Phase 5 Industry, 107
 ecofact, 17 edge damage, 15
 edge-retouch flakes, 182
 Elementitan Industry, 106 elongated core-tools (Group IV), 149–55 embedded procurement, 27
 endscraper, 195
 Ethiopian hideworkers, 107
 ethnoarchaeology, 26
 ethnography, 26
 ethology, 28
 exosomatic symbols, 21 experimental archaeology, 27
- fabricators, 62, 130
 Finished Artifact Fallacy, 33 flake segmentation products, 205–8 flake ventral surface flakes, 177, See Kombewa flake
 flake/flakes, 15, 18, 165–88
 arris, 15
 bulb of percussion, 59
 dorsal cortex coverage, 167 dorsal scar count, 169
 dorsal scar pattern, 169
 dorsal surface, 59 end-struck versus side-struck, 187 erraillure scar, 59 external striking platform angle (EPA), 167 flake scar, 15
 flake scar ridge, 15 fracture initiation point, 59, 165 fracture termination, 167 fragments, 185 internal striking platform angle (IPA), 167 linear fissures (rays and hackles), 59 morphological measurements, 165 proximal/distal, 59

- flake/flakes (cont.)
 - ripples (undulations), 59
 - striking platform, 59, 165
 - striking platform angles, 167
 - striking platform morphology, 169
 - technological measurements, 165
 - ventral surface, 59
- flaked-stone tools, 18
- flared cleaver, 150
- flared groundstone celts, 218
- Flintknapper's Fantasy, 36
- flintknappers/flintknapping, 14
- foliate points, 152–3
- fracture, 14, 46–9
 - bending, 47
 - Hertzian cone, 47
 - initiation point, 15
 - natural versus stoneworking, 48–9
 - propagation surface, 14
 - shear, 47
 - stacks, 48
 - termination, 16
- Frison Effect, 33
- functional variability, 18

- geofact, 50
- geometric microliths. See backed/truncated pieces
- grinding slabs, 222
- grindstones, 225
- grooming citations, 229
- grooved abrading stones, 220
- grooved groundstone celts, 218
- groundstone artifacts, 18
- groundstone artifacts (Group XI), 218–25
- groundstone celts, 218
- guidebook
 - how organized, 10–11
 - why needed, 8–10

- hafting, 19
- hammerstones, 18, 217
- handaxe, 150
- handstones, 222
- hierarchical cores (EAST Group II), 141–7
- Hit-and-runs, orphans, and mines, 238
- Holocene Epoch, 7
- Homo heidelbergensis, 80
- Homo sapiens*, 78, 80–1

- identifying stone artifacts, 54–62
 - archaeological reality, 62
 - cores and core-tools, 57–8
 - flakes, flake fragments and retouched pieces, 58–62
 - percussors and groundstone artifacts, 56–7
- igneous (volcanic) rocks, 41
- ignimbrite, 42
- index fossils, 71
- industry, named stone tool, 22

- Janus flake, 177
- jasper, 42
- Jelinek's Transparency Principle, 52

- Kafuan Industry, 98
- Kenya Aurignacian Industry, 104
- Kenya Capsian Industry, 104
- Kenya Stillbay Industry, 104
- Kenya Wilton Industry, 104
- Kenyanthropus, 237
- Kikuyu, 107
- knife, 152
- Kombewa core, 149
- Kombewa flake, 177
- Krukowski microburins, 208

- laminarity, 147
- lanceolate, 152
- lateral BHC repair flake, 179
- lateral preferential BHC flakes, 174
- Levallois core/flake, 130, 141
- Levallois cores/flakes. See BHC
- limestone, 42
- lipping, 172
- lithic raw materials, 41–4
 - identifying rock sources, 43
 - use in Eastern Africa, 42
- lithics systematics anarchy
 - origins, consequences, 9–10
- Lomekwian Industry, 93
- long core-tools (LCTs), 149–52
- lugged/bossed groundstone celts, 218
- Lupemban Industry, 101

- mace heads. See torus/tori
- Magosian Industry, 101
- manuport, 17
- mass, 64
- measurement/measuring
 - cores and core-tools, 137–8
 - flakes/detached pieces, 165–9
 - groundstone artifacts, 215
 - percussors, 215
 - retouched pieces, 194–5

- medial residual cortical flakes, 177
- mega-cores, 147
- metamorphic rocks, 42
- Micoquian handaxe, 98
- microburin truncation technique, 205
- microburins, 205
- micro-cores, 148
- microliths. See backed/truncated pieces
- microwear, 31–2
- Miocene Epoch, 237
- Mode B, bipolar core reduction, 122
- Mode C, nonhierarchical core reduction, 122
- Mode D, flake retouch, 122
- Mode E, elongated non-hierarchical bifacial core reduction, 123
- Mode F, bifacial hierarchical core reduction, 123
- Mode G, unifacial hierarchical core reduction, 124
- Mode H, abraded-edge tool production, 124
- Mode I, groundstone artifact production, 124
- mortars, 222
- Mousterian point, 130
- multiple burin edge flakes, 184
- multiple platform cores, 146–7

- narrow-fronted single-platform core, 146
- non-cortical flakes, 177
- notch, 197
- Nubian core, 144

- observations, uncertain replicability of, 63–4
- obsidian, 42
- Oldowan Industry, 93
- operational chain, 25–6
 - flaking/débitage, 25
 - shaping/façonnage, 26
- orthogonal biface repair flake, 178
- orthogonal opposed-platform core, 147
- orthogonal truncation-related pieces, 205
- other cores (EAST Group III), 147–9
- overdesigned tools, 27
- overshot BHC repair flakes, 180

- Pan-African congresses, 72
- paradigm shift, 192
- parallel single-platform core, 146
- Paranthropus, 78
- pareidolia, 51
- patina/patination, 44

- patterned imposition of non-intrinsic shape, 93
- pecking and grinding, 45
- Pecos Conference, 241
- percussion, 16
 - anvil, 16
 - bipolar, 16
 - hard-hammer, 16
 - indirect, 16
 - soft-hammer, 16
 - throwing, 16
- percussors (Group X), 215–18
 - ad hoc percussors, 217
 - round percussors, 216
 - tabular, 217
- perforated artifacts, 221–2
- perforated disc/plate, 222
- perforated tube, 222
- pestle-rubber, 223
- pestles, 222
- petrified wood, 42
- pick, 152
- pigment stones, 224
- platform scraper, 195
- platter (stone vessel), 224
- Pleistocene Epoch, 7
- Pliocene Epoch, 7
- Plio-Pleistocene, 7
- pluvial, 71
- polish, 45
- polished axes. See groundstone celts
- polyhedron, 141
- pottery-abrading stones, 224
- prehistoric research, history of, 70–7
 - Culture-Historical Period, 72–3
 - Exploratory Period, 70–2
 - implications for research today, 76
 - Processualizing Period, 73–6
- prehistory, 4–8
- Pre-Oldowan Industry, 93
- pressure flaking, 16
- primate archaeology, 28
- prismatic blades, 175
- Processual archaeology, 73
- protobiface, 140
- proximal biface core-repair flake, 178
- proximal-lateral BHC repair flake, 178
- pulverizing tools, 222–4
- pyramidal/cone-shaped convergent single-platform core, 146

- quartz, 41, 49
- quartzite, 42

- quem, 223 questions about cores and core-tools, 155–7
 flakes, 187–8
 percussors and groundstone artifacts, 225–8
 retouched pieces, 211
 stone tools (big questions), 232–6 rectangles (backed/truncated pieces), 201 refitting artifacts, 29–31 regional archaeological synthesis, 77 resharpening, scraper variation and, 197 residues, 32

 retouch, 15, 17, 60–2 backing/truncation retouch, 60 bifacial retouch, 60
 burin à face plan, 61
 burin, “normal”, 61
 chanfrein, 61 edge angle, 195
 orthogonal retouch, 60
 quadrifacial retouch, 61
 scraper retouch, 60 single- versus multiple-burin, 61 thinning retouch, 60
 tranchet flake, 61
 trifacial retouch, 61
 unifacial retouch, 60 ventral or inverse retouch, 61
 retouch flakes (EAST Group VIII), 182–7 retouched flake fragments, 185 retouched flake point, 202
 retouched pieces, 18, 194–211
 rhyolite, 42
 rods/retouched cylinders, 208

 Sangoan Industry, 101
 Savanna Pastoral Neolithic, 107 scaled pieces, 209
 scientific conferences, 240–2 scraper, 195
 scraper tip-removal flake, 185
 scrapers, notches, and denticulates (SNDs), 195–9
 sedimentary rocks, 42 settlement magnets, 34 shale, 42
 short bifacial cores, 140
 Short nonhierarchical cores (Group I), 138–41
 sidescraper, 195
 sinew frayers, 130

 single-platform cores, 146
 spheroids, 217, 225 split clasts, 169
 split platform cores, 146
 Standard African Site Enumeration System
 (SASES), 19
 Still Bay point, 130 stone tools, 8
 illustrating/illustration, 21
 misinterpreting, 32–8 and problematic excavations, 238–9 “reading”, 41–62
 searching for oldest, 236–8 sources of information about, 26–32 teaching and training about, 240 working with older collections, 239–40 stone vessels, 224 stoneworking archaeological hypotheses based on ethnography, 27
 decline of, 234–6 early evolution of hominin, 232–3 ethnographic, 26–7 language evolution and variability of, 233–4
 mechanics and techniques, 14–17 methods, 121
 techniques, 121
 vs. flintknapping, 14
 Stoneworking Modes A–I, 119–25
 Stoneworking Survey, Eastern African Prehistoric, 108–29
 stratigraphic associations, 29 striations, 45 style, 20
 Submode D1, orthogonal retouch, 122
 Submode D2, macrolithic backing/
 truncation, 122
 Submode D3, microlithic backing/
 truncation, 122
 Submode D4, burination, 122
 Submode D5, convergent retouch, 122
 Submode D6, concave proximal retouch, 123
 Submode D7, flake-core reduction, 123
 Submode E1, long core-tool (LCT) production, 123
 Submode E2, thinned biface production, 123
 Submode E3, tanged biface production, 123
 Submode E4, celt production, 123
 Submode F1, preferential BHC reduction, 123

- Submode F2, recurrent laminar BHC reduction, 123
- Submode F3, recurrent radial-centripetal BHC reduction, 123
- Submode G1, platform core reduction, 124
- Submode G2, blade core reduction, 124
- Submode G3, microblade core reduction, 124
- subspheroids, 217
- symmetrical torus, 220
- tabular initiation flakes, 171
- tanged pieces, 208
- technological complex, 22
- technological indexes, 63
- technological organization, 24–6
- teleoliths, 35
- thermal alteration, 49–50
- thinned pieces, 203–4
- thumbnail scraper, 197
- time, 6
 - cultural periods, 6–7
 - geological epochs, 7
- time-averaging, 85
- tip-removal flakes, 185
- tool-marks, 31
- tortoise core, 130, 141
- torus/tori, 220–2
- transverse scraper, 195
- trapezoids (backed/truncated pieces), 201
- triangles (backed/truncated pieces), 200
- Tshitolian Industry, 101
- type-sites, 33
- typological (morphological) indexes, 63
- typology, 20
- unifacial choppers, 146
- unifacial edge-retouch flake, 184
- unifacial hierarchical core (UHC), 145–7
 - distal concavity removal flake, 181
 - exploitation flakes, 175
 - orthogonal concavity removal flake, 182
 - platform flake, 180
 - plunging flake, 180
 - repair flakes, 180
 - tablet flake, 180
- unifacially retouched edge burin flakes, 184
- unipolar cores, 138
- unretouched burin edge flakes, 184
- unretouched edge-retouch flake, 183
- unretouched flake fragments, 185
- utilized pieces, 62
- Victoria West core, 144
- worked edge, 57