

Contents

List of Figures	page	vii
List of Tables		x
Foreword		xi
Acknowledgements		xiv
List of Abbreviations		xvii
Introduction		1
Part I Context
1 Indigenous Peoples and Settler Colonialism to 1900		19
2 Indigenous Peoples and Settler Militaries, 1900–1945		40
Part II The War Years, 1939–1945
3 Engagement: Indigenous Voluntary Military Service		61
4 Experiences of Military Life		98
5 Mobilising Indigeneity: Indigenous Knowledge, Language and Culture in the War Effort		133
6 Home Front Experiences		162
7 Contesting Engagement: Conscription and the Limits of Indigenous Collaboration		201
Part III Post-War Reform
8 Homecomings: Transition to Peace, Veterans' Return and Access to Veterans' Benefits		237
9 Rehabilitating Assimilation: Post-War Reconstruction and Indigenous Policy Reform		271

vi	Contents
	Conclusion	301
	Bibliography	309
	Index	336