

Index

- A Journey to Lhasa and Central Tibet*
 (Das), 312
- A Tibetan-English Dictionary, with Sanskrit Synonyms* (Das), 312
- Abdul (draughtsman and assistant to the Schlagintweits), 185–87, 315
- Afghanistan, 64
- Africa
 myth of the Dark Continent, 118–19
- age of empires
 Schlagintweit brothers' careers in different empires, 7–8
- age of enlightenment, 118
- age of exploration cultural imperialism, 118
- agency, 4, 56, 162, 206, 346
- Agricultural Institute in Allahabad, 76
- Agricultural Society of Bavaria, 281
- Albert, Joseph, 319
- Albert, Prince, 50
- Algeria, 79
- Allen's Indian Mail*, 230
- Alpinism, 35
- Alps
 excursions of the Schlagintweit brothers, 32–41 plaster mountain reliefs created by the Schlagintweits, 37–40
- American Baptist Mission, 76
- American opus (Humboldt), 68
- American Presbyterian Mission, 76
- Amin, Mohammad (caravan trader and guide to the Schlagintweits), 176–79, 181, 191–99, 213, 288–90
- Andrade, António de, 64
- Anthropological Society, 314
- anthropology, 17, 24, 102, 121, 141–48, 191, 207, 238, 243, 272, 276, 286, 288, 289, 352, 353, 355
- anthropometric measurements, 146–47
- artefacts collected. See collections
- Aryanism, 207n181
- Asie Centrale* (Humboldt), 42, 43
- Assam
 British conquest, 63
 rubber plantations, 83–84
- Athenaeum, The*, 20 criticism of the appointment of Brandis in Burma, 85–88 criticism of the first volume of Results, 313–16 criticisms of the Schlagintweit mission, 88–89, 226–29 leaked petition from the Schlagintweits for further patronage, 236–51
- Athenaeum Club
 Schlagintweits' invitation to, 295
- Atlas of Panoramas and Views* (Schlagintweit), 214–16 collaborative production of views, 317–20
- Auckland, Lord, 70
- authority
 associated with the large Schlagintweit collections, 352–53 international authority of German science, 350–51 power asymmetries exploited by the Schlagintweits, 355 privileged mobility of the Schlagintweits in India, 355 scientific authority and the role of indigenous assistants, 351–52 volatile nature in transnational science, 348–49
- Bamberger, Fritz, 319
- Banks, Joseph, 18, 68, 75, 260
- Bara Mani (Indian merchant, helper of the Schlagintweits), 173
- Barter, Charles, 83

402 Index

- Barth, Heinrich, 40, 80, 102, 107–8, 222, 327–28, 333
 Basel mission, 76
 Bastian, Adolf, 276
 Bengal, 62
 Berghaus, Heinrich, 41, 44, 218
 Berlin hub of Indian and central Asian geography, 41–52
 scientific societies, 37–41
 Berlin Academy, 52
 Berlin Geographical Society, 3, 40, 102, 104, 194
 Bernstorff, Albrecht Graf von, 220, 249, 275
 Bertillon, Alphonse, 80 biogeography, 207 distribution of plants, 38, 69, 71 plant acclimatisation, 72
 Bismarck, Otto von, 269
 Blanc, Eduard, 342
 Blanford, Henry Francis, 310
 Bombay (Mumbai), 57, 58, 84, 91, 103, 110, 112, 113, 117, 130, 143, 144, 180, 187, 226, 229, 318
 Bonaparte, Napoleon, 8 territorial ambitions for south Asia, 62
Bonplandia, 326
 Botanical Survey of India, 81 botany professionalism of, 68–69
 Brandis, Dietrich, 80, 81, 248, 356 criticism of his appointment in Burma, 85–88
 Brandt, Max von, 341–42
 Braun, Alexander, 272 Britain patriotism and xenophobia in response to the Indian Rebellion (1857), 225–26
 British Association for the Advancement of Science, 50, 51, 226
 British geographers and naturalists concerns over the Schlagintweits' capabilities, 95–99
 British Guiana, 74
 British imperial expansion controversy over dependence on external expertise and manpower, 347 history of exploration beyond the north Indian frontier, 66 recruitment of non-British expertise, 74–85
 spread of territorial and administrative control in India, 66 typology of transnational recruitment, 74–85
 British imperial power indigenous rulers and, 150–54
 British Museum, London, 279
 British patrons allegations of Schlagintweit treachery regarding Russia, 111–12 suspicion of the Schlagintweits' loyalties, 99–108
 British rule in India legitimacy questioned after the Indian Rebellion (1857), 225–26
 British scientific establishment connections made by the Schlagintweit brothers, 49–52
 Brown, Ford Madox, 68
 Buch, Leopold von, 232
Buddhism in Tibet (E. Schlagintweit), 283 Buddhist scholarship use of the collections by Emil Schlagintweit, 282–83
 Buist, George, 143–44
 Buitenzorg laboratories, 82
 Bunsen, Christian Karl von, 15, 44, 54, 55, 91, 102, 108, 114, 220, 223–24, 261
 Burckhardt, Johann Ludwig, 333 businessmen, 77
 Calcutta (Kolkata), 13, 20, 63, 77, 82, 102, 110, 111, 112, 113, 114, 123, 130, 133, 135, 137, 141, 145, 151, 154, 183, 186, 187, 194, 231, 286, 318, 354, 355
 Calcutta Botanic Garden, 51, 63, 69, 70
 Campbell, Archibald, 129, 150–51, 186, 202
 Cancrin, Georg, 42
 Canton (Guangzhou), 65
 caravan traders
 source of route information, 140 cartographers expectations of data from the Schlagintweits, 92–93
 cartography, 12, 15, 34, 41, 44, 104, 107, 135, 165, 180, 196, 214, 216, 218, 243, 349 Castle Jägersburg, Bavaria, 277, 278, 281, 289, 292, 296 centres of calculation, 350n9
 channelled mobility, 18
 Cheji (assistant to the Schlagintweits), 315 Chibu Lama ('political agent and representative' of the raja of Sikkim, 202–4
 China
 misinformation about the route to Peking, 204–5
 suspicion of the Schlagintweits, 153–54

- Chinese Turkestan, 1, 117, 152, 153, 175, 192, 197, 229, 231, 303 Schlagintweit excursions into, 152–54 cholera pandemics in India, 82 work of Robert Koch, 82 class, 125, 155, 162, 295, 337, 352 coal mining, 133
 collaborative nature of the Schlagintweit expedition, 129–30 collections, 278–80, 353–54 commercial exploitation of, 283–86 contributions to science and scholarship, 352–53 dispersal of the artefacts, 277–80, 292–93 ethnographic, 243
 ethnographic heads, 286–90
 Humboldt's advice on artefact collection, 259–60
 India museum (Berlin), 292–93 indigenous paper samples, 280–81 influence of the India Museum in London, 259–60
 mineralogical collection, 352
 oriental scholarship of Emil Schlagintweit, 282–83 privatisation by the Schlagintweits, 277–80 question of ownership, 113–14 question of scientific authority, 352 relocation of, 292–93 skulls and skeletons procured by the Schlagintweits, 148 textiles, 265–67, 280–81
 colonial context
 power asymmetries, 17
 Schlagintweits' utilisation of imperial power, 148–54
 Schlagintweits' use of privileged status, 142–48 colonial fairs, 8, 138, 239, 354 colonial fantasies, 10n40, 336n156 colonial infrastructure, 27, 119, 154, 187, 189, 241 utilization by the Schlagintweits, 148–54 colonial interests in the Schlagintweit mission, 355–57 colonial motivation of exploration, 206 colonial settlement, 249
 colonial sociability, 157–58
 Colville, James William, 150
 Colvin, John Russell, 189 communication strategies of the Schlagintweit brothers, 99–108, 219–24, 357–58 comparative ethnography, 24, 207, 353
 Cook, James, 8
Cosmos (Humboldt), 32, 52 cotton, 69, 138, 238, 259, 265 counter-espionage, 153
 Court of Directors, 12, 15, 20, 49, 54, 55, 56, 71, 72, 84, 99, 102, 103, 113, 115, 117, 133, 135, 224, 236, 237, 245, 249, 260, 261, 270, 309, 348, 352
 Crimean War (1853–6), 89, 347
 criminal tribes, 76–77 Crown
 transfer of authority over India to, 81, 347 cultural encounters, 23, 118, 161–79, 201, 206, 211, 212, 358
 power asymmetries, 17
 Cunningham, Alexander, 324
 D'Orville, Albert, 64
 Dalai Lama (13th), 313
 Dalhousie, Lord, 56, 102
 Daniel, Eleazar (assistant to the Schlagintweits), 187
 Darjeeling, 83
 Darwin, Charles, 35, 67, 69, 97, 98
 Das, Sarat Chandra, 311–12, 313
 Davies, R. H., 197
 Davis, Joseph Barnard, 141, 352
 Decken, Karl Klaus von der, 102
 Desideri, Ippolito, 64
 Deutsche Morgenländische Gesellschaft, 283
 Dhamji ('butler' of H. Schlagintweit), 182
 Dickinson, J. D., 251
Dictionary of Indian Biography, 313
 Dieffenbach, Ernst, 333 disciplinary boundaries, 22–23
 consolidation of, 22 disciplinary specialisation in the nineteenth century, 36 trans-disciplinary approach of Humboldt, 35–38 discriminatory treaties, 9 distribution networks, 357
 Dórje, Dávang, 214
 Dove, Heinrich Wilhelm, 50, 271, 272–74
 Duff, M. E. Grant, 259
 Dutch East Indies, 79
 East India Company, 2, 4, 19, 20, 62, 100, 102–3, 236–51, 253–54
 Company science, 60, 72, 135 consequences of the Indian Rebellion (1857), 219, 224–25

404 Index

- East India Company (cont.)
 continuing support for the Schlagintweits, 115
 control of access to their colonial possessions, 49–50
 decision to employ the Schlagintweits, 53–56
 dissolution of, 1
 end of rule in India, 81 history of the India Museum, 257–59 pursuit of territorial expansion, 11–12 recruitment of foreign experts, 74–85 scientific patronage, 11–12, 70–73, 346 sponsorship of the Schlagintweit
 brothers, 12
 terms agreed for Schlagintweit publications, 249–52
 economic geology, 132–34
 Economic Museum, Bombay, 144
 Ehrenberg, Christian
 Gottfried, 270, 271
 Elizabeth I, Queen of England, 62
 Elliot, Charles M., 54
 Elphinstone, Mountstuart, 91, 149 entrepreneurial aspects of the Schlagintweit expedition, 25, 211,
 256, 284, 336, 339, 354
 Escher, Johannes Konrad, 47
 ethnographic heads production, 145–46 tension between personal and scientific functions, 286–90
 ethnographic studies, 24–25, 141–42, 201, 207–12, 352–53
 facial plaster casting of indigenous people, 142–46
 ethnology, 300, 325, 352
 European empires controversy over dependence on external expertise and manpower, 347
 empires of opportunity for foreign experts, 345–47 history of German scientific travellers, 8–11
 movement of foreign experts within European imperial systems, 345–47
 openness to actors from outside, 345 trans-imperial mobility of scientific expertise, 74–85
 expeditionary science, 3, 12, 19, 66, 89, 97, 121, 122–42, 220, 256, 278, 292, 303, 318, 349, 350
 expert commissions, 272, 276 facial plaster casts, 17, 24–25 indigenous people, 142–46
 Nain Singh, 208
 family crest of the Schlagintweits, 297–300
 Faraday, Michael, 51, 91
 Fashoda Crisis (1898), 326 field reports privileging German journals and newspapers, 101–8
 First Indian War of Independence, 217
 First Opium War (1839–42), 204
Five Weeks in a Balloon (Verne), 340 fly-shuttle loom, 76
 Forbes Watson, John, 239, 259, 265, 280 forestry, 36, 61, 81, 83–84, 85, 279, 346
 Forster, Georg, 8
 Forster, Johann Reinhold, 8
 Fourth Anglo-Mysore War (1798), 257 France interests in the Himalayan region, 66 popularity of the Schlagintweit
 brothers, 340
 self-assumed civilising mission, 3
 Francke, August Hermann, 312
 Franklin, John, 322
 Frederick William IV, King of Prussia, 12, 45, 48–49, 54, 261, 264, 302 presents sent by the Schlagintweits from India, 103
 Schlagintweits' requests for more financial support, 113–14 support for the Schlagintweits'
 expedition, 56–57, 111
 French Egyptian campaign (1798), 8, 252
 French geographers and naturalists high expectations of the Schlagintweit expedition, 94–95
 lack of access to British India, 80 Freyre, Manoel, 64
 frontier, 62–66

Gardeners' Chronicle, The, 246
 Gauß, Carl Friedrich, 126
 gender, 125, 340, 352
 gentlemanly science ideals of, 67–73
Geographical Glossary from the Languages of India and Tibet, Including the Phonetic Transcriptions and Interpretation
 (Schlagintweit brothers), 141
 Geological Survey of India, 133
 geology, 132–34
 German states development of imperial ideology and aspirations, 25–26

- imperial ambitions linked to German explorers, 342–44
- public lectures of Robert Schlagintweit, 324–25, 337–40
- Schlagintweits portrayed as scientific heroes, 323–44
- German museology, 256
- German newspapers and journals
 - privileged receipt of field reports, 101–8
- German press, 330
 - claims of global achievements of German exploration, 332–34
 - Schlagintweits as scientific heroes, 333–34
- German public
 - interest in trade and settlement opportunities, 333–35
 - permeation of imperial ideology, 335–40
- German science, 10, 273, 330–33, 343, 349–50
 - German press support for the notion, 330–31
 - political dimension, 350–51
- German scientific experts
 - ambiguous perceptions of the Schlagintweit brothers, 45–49
 - detached political stance, 80
 - exploitation of empires of opportunity, 345–47
 - high-status in the mid-nineteenth century, 3
 - history of service in empires of opportunity, 8–11
 - recruitment by European empires, 74–85
 - shift in perceptions of, 78–80
- German universities
 - modernising agendas, 78–80
 - reputation for expertise in laboratory research, 10
- glaciers
 - Schlagintweits' studies and records in the Alps, 37, 96, 139
- global history, 21, 359–60
- globalisation
 - dynamics of inclusion and exclusion, 359–60
- Globus* journal
 - attack on British men of science, 330
- glorification, 159, 236, 326, 333, 343, 350
- Gnari Khorsum (Ngari), 153, 169
- Goedsche, Hermann, 230–31
- Government of India Act of 1858, 252
- Great Exhibition (1851), 259
- Great Game, 1n2
- Great Indian Uprising. See Indian Rebellion (1857)
- Great Trigonometrical Survey of India, 60, 63, 180, 227, 248, 316, 351
- Grueber, Johann, 64
- Halley, Edmond, 126
- Harkishen ('Native Doctor' and travel companion of the Schlagintweits), 189–90, 193
- Harvey, William Henry, 246
- Hay, William, 149, 196, 230
- herbarium, 97, 247, 352
- Herbert, James D., 65
- hero-making
 - mechanisms among European imperial powers, 326
- heroes of science
 - portrayal of the Schlagintweits in the German states, 1, 26, 323–44
 - Schlagintweits portrayed as, 333–34
- Herrnhuter Gemeinde* Moravian religious order
 - missionaries in the western Himalayas, 66
- Herschel, John, 54
- Heuglin, Theodor von, 102
- Heyne, Benjamin, 75
- hierarchies, 13, 88
 - changing between the Schlagintweits and their companions, 119–21
 - multiple hierarchies and power relations in the Schlagintweit expedition, 179–82
 - racial, 85
 - social strata in hill stations, 158
- Higginbottom, Sam, 76
- high-altitude research, 139–40
- High Asia concept, 118, 159–60
- hill stations, 157–58, 160, 184, 238
- Himalayas, 3, 6, 12, 13, 15, 16, 20, 24, 42, 58, 63, 65, 70, 71, 104, 118, 130, 133, 140, 169, 182, 206, 239, 240, 241, 304, 306, 307, 314, 318, 319, 334, 356
 - Schlagintweits' studies and records of glaciers, 139–40
- Hochstetter, Ferdinand von, 333
- Hodgson, Brian Houghton, 43, 44, 65, 149, 207, 233, 324
- Hooker, Joseph, 19–20, 29–30, 35, 44, 55, 107, 186, 202, 221, 233, 280, 324, 330, 348, 352
 - association with Humboldt, 43
 - concerns over the Schlagintweits' mission, 95–99

406 Index

- Hooker, Joseph (cont.)
 criticism of the Schlagintweit enterprise, 72–73, 113, 246–47, 249, 294–95, 301, 314
 diplomatic pressure to allow him access to Sikkim, 150–51
Flora Indica, 71–73, 221, 246
 on timber resources in the Himalayas, 242
 raising the scientific status of philosophical botany, 68–69
 struggle to find sufficient patronage, 67–73
 Hooker, William, 30, 43, 51, 55, 67, 83, 314
 Hügel, Carl von, 66, 76
 humanitarian organisations, 76
 Humboldt, Alexander von, 15, 29–30,
 43–44, 62–68, 69, 101, 102, 126, 218,
 220, 225, 253, 259–60, 269, 272, 277,
 282, 324, 347–48
 American opus, 62–68
 American voyage (1799–1804), 8 association with Joseph Hooker, 43 attempt to promote the Schlagintweits’ reputation, 220–23
Cosmos, 32, 52
 failed attempt to travel to India and High Asia, 14 friendship with Edward Sabine, 52
 influence on the Schlagintweit brothers, 35–38, 40–41
 letters of introduction, 149–50
 magnetic observatories, 53
 mentor of the Schlagintweit brothers, 14–15, 18, 45, 48–49, 50, 54,
 91–92, 325
Personal Narrative, 35 raising expectations for the Schlagintweit expedition, 91–92
 support for the Indian Museum project, 270–71, 276
 treatises on central Asian geography, 41
 work for the Russian Empire, 42
 Humboldtian science, 17, 35–38, 48, 184, 237, 317, 347–48, 349, 356
 Huschke, August Heinrich, 84
 hydrographical studies, 134–35
 hypsometrical data, 130–32
 Ibi Gamin (Kamet), 118, 221 imagined community
 the German states, 329–30
 Imperial Geographical Society of St Petersburg, 2 imperial ideology ambitions of the German states, 342–44 permeation into German society, 335–40
 imperial outsiders, 11, 26, 55, 78, 99, 160, 295, 344, 346
 degrees of marginality, 74–85
 Imperial Russian Geographical Society, 41
 India
 health risks for Europeans, 306–9 identification of suitable places for European settlement, 306–9
 India Act of 1784, 62
India in Words and Images (E.
 Schlagintweit), 283
 India Museum proposal for Berlin, 7
 Schlagintweits’ attempts to create in Berlin, 255–56, 257–77
 India Museum of the East India Company, 244
 history of, 257–59
 influence on the Schlagintweits collection strategy, 259–60
 India Office, 15, 252, 259, 279, 280, 297, 317
 Indian Civil Service (ICS), 84–85
 colonial statecraft, 84 competitive entry examinations, 84
 Indian candidates, 84
 Indian Forest Act of 1878, 81
 Indian Forestry Department, 9, 81
 German expert recruitment, 81
 Indian Meteorological Department, 81 proposal of Hermann
 Schlagintweit, 309–11
 Indian Rebellion (1857), 1, 81, 111, 194, 196, 207, 225–29, 311, 347 consequences for the East India Company, 219, 224–25
 impact on the Schlagintweit controversy, 217 question of the legitimacy of British rule, 225–26
 Indian subcontinent early European travellers and missionaries, 63–64
 Indian Surveyor-General’s Bureaus, 13 indigenous informants, 28, 124, 186, 205
 indigenous knowledge Schlagintweits’ dependence on, 206–7 indigenous partners composition of the expedition party, 161–79

- description in the first volume of Results, 314–15
 forced recruitment, 180 implications for the scientific authority of the expedition, 351–52
 lack of recognition of their contribution, 4, 161–79, 213–16 means of access to indigenous cultures, 24–25
 motivations for joining the Schlagintweit
 expedition, 199
 multiple hierarchies and power relations in the expedition, 179–82 nature of the Schlagintweits' relationship with, 119–21
 range of tasks and accomplishments, 12–13, 140–41, 183–99
 role in cultural and religious artefact collection, 141
 Schlagintweits' dependence on, 179–82 indigenous rulers power exercised by the Indian Government, 150–54
 indigo, 16, 138, 239
 industrial collections and interests, 258, 265, 281, 356
 informal empire, 350
 information management by the Schlagintweits, 99–108
 information order attempts to spread misleading information, 204–6 concept, 200–1
 fragility of, 199–213 instruments for the Schlagintweit expedition types and costs, 109–11
 intermediaries, 7, 43, 104, 119, 141, 171, 183, 199, 200, 223, 282, 284, 312, 315, 319, 323
 irrigation, 134, 138, 240
- Jacquemont, Victor, 66, 80 jade stone, 133, 197
 Jäschke, Heinrich August, 312
 Java
 Buitenzorg laboratories, 82
 Jesuit missionaries, 64
*Journal of Botany and Kew Garden
 Miscellany* (W. Hooker), 51
Journal of the Asiatic Society of Bengal, 102
 Justhus Perthes Anstalt publishing house, 41
- Kaempfer, Engelbert, 333
 Karakoram chain, 24, 42, 65, 103,
 113, 118, 193, 223, 231, 314, 319, 322, 325
- Kashgar, 1, 2, 130, 158, 194–97, 206, 341
 Kashmir, 64, 76
 access for the Schlagintweits, 152
 description by the Schlagintweits, 306–7
 Kew Gardens. See Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew
 Khan, Wali, 194–95
 Kiepert, Heinrich, 41, 92–93
 Kitchener, Herbert, 326
 Kladderadatsch, 328 satirical attack on the Schlagintweits, 234–35
 Klotzsch, Johann Friedrich, 271 knowledge gaps between Germany and Britain over Indian exploration, 323–25
 consequences of the death of Adolph Schlagintweit, 229–36
- Koch, Robert
 work on cholera, 82
 Königliche Legationskasse, 269–70
 König, Johan, 75
 Kumaon, 58, 64, 189
 Kunlun range, 24, 113, 118, 193, 194, 222, 223, 229, 319, 325
 Kunlun Shan, 42, 221, 230
- labour market, 10, 84, 88
 Latham, Gordon, 325
 Lauth, Franz Joseph, 32
 Lawrence, John, 230
Le voyage aux régions équinoxiales du nouveau continent
 (Humboldt), 317
 Leichhardt, Ludwig, 333
 Lepsius, Karl Richard, 252
 Liebig, Georg von, 77–78, 84
 Liebig, Justus von, 10, 77, 79
 Linguistic Survey of India, 81
 Linnaeus (Carl von Linné), 12, 75, 78
 Linnean Society, 51, 314
 Livingstone, David, 106, 124, 301, 322 criticism in the German press, 327–28
Missionary Travels, 322
 Löffler, August, 319
 London
 preparation of the Schlagintweits' Asian expedition, 97–99
 travels of the Schlagintweits (1850/51), 50–52 See also East India Company; Linnean Society; Royal Geographical Society; Royal Society
 London Missionary Society, 76

408 Index

- looting boundary between collecting and, 17
 plundering of tombs, 148 procurement of skulls and skeletons of indigenous people, 148
- Ludwig II, King of Bavaria, 292
- Luitpold, Prince of Bavaria, 293
- Lyell, Charles, 98
- Lyman, Theodore, 284
- Macpherson, J., 129
- magnetic crusade in Britain, 15, 17, 52–56
- magnetic observations, 126
- magnetic observatories, 53
- magnetic survey training for the Schlagintweits, 98–99
- malaria
 anti-malarial campaigns of the Rockefeller Foundation, 77 contracted by Hermann Schlagintweit, 309
- Manjapra, Kris, 11
- Mann, Gustav, 83–84, 356
- mapping of south Asia. See Great Trigonometrical Survey of India
- marble, 267, 279, 280
- Marchand, Jean-Baptiste, 326
- Markham, Clements, 134
- martyr of science, 1, 343, 358
- Mauray, Alfred, 80
- Maximilian II, King of Bavaria, 12, 31, 59, 91
 ennoblement of the Schlagintweit brothers, 296–300
- meteorological research, 126–29
- meteorology
 influence of the Schlagintweits' work in India, 304–11
- mineral resources survey, 132–34
- mineralogical collection, 83–84
- missionaries, 76, 312
 Schlagintweits' encounters with German missionaries in the Himalayas, 66
- missionary organisations, 76–77
- Missionary Travels* (Livingstone), 106, 322
- mobility
 channelling of, 18 privileged, 160, 355
 social, 28
- modern research laboratory, 10, 79
- Monteiro (assistant to the Schlagintweits), 183–85
- Montgomerie, Thomas George, 212
- Montgomery, Robert, 197
- Moorcroft, William, 64–65, 158
- Morocco
 Spanish military invasion in 1859–60, 6–7
- mountain morphology studies, 130–32
- Mueller, Ferdinand von, 74
- Mughal Empire, 62
- Müller, Max, 349
- Murad (Jewish caravan trader, companion of the Schlagintweits), 191–92, 195, 290
- Murchison, Roderick, 19–20, 45, 108, 220–23, 232, 253, 294, 301, 324 on David Livingstone, 322 equivocal view of the Schlagintweits' capabilities, 95–97, 247–49, 321
- museology, 4, 7, 256
- Museum für Naturkunde, Berlin, 277
- Museum für Völkerkunde, Berlin, 276–77
- Muséum national d'Histoire naturelle, Paris, 266, 288
- Museum of Economic Geology in India, 133
- museums
 difficulty of turning collections into, 292–93
See also India Museum and specific museums, 277
- myth
 solitary explorer, 118–19, 155–60, 161–79
- Namgye, Chomphoe, Raja of Sikkim, 150–51
- Napoleon III, Emperor, 94
- nationalism, 359
- Nepal, 303
 difficulty of access for Europeans, 57 political pressure to allow the Schlagintweits access, 151
- networks
 Anglo-German, 49–52
 cross-border, 11
 cross-border networks of patronage, 18, 20 distribution of field observations, 104 fragility of cross-border networks, 360 informal German networks in India, 84, 110 information networks of informants, 213 knowledge networks of British imperialism, 44, 52, 67, 92, 101, 148–50, 350 logistical networks, 84 mechanisms of inclusion and exclusion, 21

- patronage networks, 349
 Prussian consuls in India, 57
 Schlagintweits' use of, 44, 50, 160, 284 scientific, 54, 84
 sources of tension and controversy, 21
 trans-regional networks of merchants, 183
 Neue Pinakothek, Munich, 292
 Nicholas I, Tsar, 42
 Niebuhr, Carsten, 8, 333
 Nilgiri Hills
 suitability for settlement by Europeans, 307
- Olfers, Ignaz von, 270, 271, 272
 opium, 69, 197
 Opium Wars, 65, 175
 Order Pour le Mérite for Sciences and Arts, 52
 Osten-Sacken, Baron von, 342
 Otto, King of Greece, 281
 Overweg, Adolf, 80, 108, 222
- Palmerston, Lord, 50 paper manufacturing commercial interest in the Schlagintweit collections, 280–81
 Paris Geographical Society, 2, 94, 342
 Gold Medal awarded to the Schlagintweits, 301
 Parsons, William, Earl of Rosse, 55
 patronage
 Hooker's struggles with, 67–73 influence on scientific enquiry, 3–4 reasons for the Schlagintweit controversy, 90 shifting motives of the Schlagintweit expedition, 347–48 sources of controversy for the Schlagintweit brothers, 18–23 tensions caused by changes in, 18–23 patrons escalating costs of the Schlagintweit expedition, 108–15 high expectations for the Schlagintweits' mission, 90–99 information management by the Schlagintweits, 99–108
People of India survey (1868–75), 353
Personal Narrative (Humboldt), 35
 Petermann, August, 41, 93, 102, 104–6, 108, 324 link between Britain and the German lands, 43–44 promotion of the Schlagintweits' achievements, 325–26 support for further German-led expeditions, 332
 Petermanns Geographische Mitteilungen, 41, 107, 329
 Peters, Wilhelm, 272
 Petersburg Society, 342
 philanthropic organisations, 76, 77
 philosophical botany, 68–69
 See also Hooker, 69
 photography, 118, 132, 145, 321, 353
 physical anthropology, 17, 24, 141–44, 148, 288, 352 context of British rule in India, 142–48
 measurements, 24
Physical Geography (Somerville), 246
 Physikalische Gesellschaft zu Berlin, 41
 Pitt, William, 62
 plague outbreaks in India, 82
 Plassey, battle of (1757), 62
 Poggendorf, Johann Christian, 104, 271
 power asymmetries
 exploitation by the Schlagintweits, 355 facial plaster casting of indigenous people, 142–46
 in cultural encounters, 17 power relations within the Schlagintweit expedition, 179–82 press coverage
 Collectanea Critica, 290–92 collection by the Schlagintweits, 290–92 professionalism, 73, 219, 256, 271
 philosophical botany, 68–69
 Prussian Meteorological Institute, 50
 Przheval'skii, Nikolai Mikhailovich, 341 public health, 77
 public sphere, 8, 11, 14, 19, 20, 21, 26, 27, 58, 60, 71, 85, 88, 89, 100, 104, 217, 219, 225, 235, 237, 247, 249, 260, 302, 324, 327, 339, 351, 358
 pundits, 208, 212–13 exchange with the Schlagintweits, 311–13
- Qing Empire, 153
 Quarter Master General
 Bombay, 180, 187
 Deputy Assistant's Office, Mooltan, 186
 Madras, 13, 180, 185, 355
 Quetelet, Adolphe, 146
- race, 85, 125, 146, 148, 352
 Radde, Gustav, 331
 Ram, Basti, Governor of Leh, 152–53

410 Index

- Ramsay, Colonel, 149, 151
 Raumer, Karl Otto von, 45, 48, 269, 270, 271–72
 Red Cross, 296n149
 Reiss, Wilhelm, 102
 reliability of data, 125, 208, 215, 234, 348 Report on the Improvement of Indian Agriculture (1893) (Voelcker), 83 reputation, 4, 25–26, 37–41, 49, 50, 59, 101, 107, 114, 199, 218, 219–24, 226–29, 235, 246, 247, 253, 275, 281, 294, 295, 313–23, 327, 328, 332, 353, 354, 355 resource exploitation proposals from analysis of expeditionary data, 137–39 resource imperialism, 72, 356
 respectability in science, 19, 67, 73, 294, 296 Revolutionary Wars, 62
 Ribbentrop, Berthold, 81
 Richardson, James, 108
 Richthofen, Ferdinand von, 3, 102, 194, 331
 Ritter, Carl, 18, 31, 44, 46, 50, 92, 102, 104, 222–23, 270, 324
 influence on the Schlagintweit brothers, 40–41 publications on Asia translated into Russian, 41–42 rivers effects of erosion by, 139
 hydrographical studies, 134–35
 potential for resource exploitation, 137–39 search for the sources of, 64, 139 Rockefeller Foundation anti-malaria campaigns, 77
 Rohlf, Friedrich Gerhard, 102
 Roquette, Alexandre de la, 94–95, 301
 Rose, Gustav, 271, 272
 Ross, James Clark, 67, 69
Route-Book, 124, 140, 200, 239, 240, 356 routes intelligence gathered by the Schlagintweits, 140
 Roxburgh, William, 75
 Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, 19, 67, 70, 83, 257, 279
 Royal Danish Arabia Expedition (1760s), 8
 Royal Geographical Society, 19, 43, 44, 66, 96, 220, 222, 314
 Royal Society, 19, 20, 37, 44, 51, 53, 54, 55, 62–67, 74, 88, 253 expert advice offered to the Schlagintweits, 97–99
 Rudel, Alwin, 280
 Russegger, Joseph, 333
 Russell, William Howard, 111
 Russian Empire, 28, 53, 175, 194, 333 allegations of Schlagintweit treachery with, 111–12 ambitions in Tibet, 64
 British rivalry with, 108, 196, 251, 313
 Crimean War (1853–56), 220
 employment of Humboldt, 42 popularity of the Schlagintweit brothers, 340–41
 Robert Schlagintweit's lecture tour, 339 territorial ambitions for south Asia, 62 translation of geographic works into Russian, 41–42 travellers and missionaries in south Asia, 41, 312 Sabine, Edward, 20, 52, 55, 57, 97, 126, 253, 272–73, 327, 347 influential connections, 51–52 magnetic survey training for the Schlagintweits, 98–99
 Said, Sayad Mohammad (munshi, companion of the Schlagintweits to Berlin), 141, 187–89, 211
 Salvation Army industrial homes', 76
 reformatories, 76–77
 social disciplining, 77
 sanatoriums in south and high Asia, 16, 304, 307, 356
 Saussure, Horace-Bénédict de, 51
 Scheuchzer, Johann Jacob, 33–34
 Scheuchzer, Wilhelm, 319
 Schiefner, Franz Anton, 282
 Schlagintweit, Adolph, 6
 Amin's reports of his murder, 195–96 attempt to obtain his Habilitation from Berlin University, 45–49 attempts to retrieve his notes and instruments after his death, 231–32 circumstances of his murder at Kashgar, 193–95, 206–7, 229–31 consequences of his murder at Kashgar, 311 death linked to German imperial ambitions, 342–44

- erection of a monument in his memory, 1–3, 341–42
- final excursion in 1857, 1
- Jules Verne's telling of his disappearance, 340
- mystery surrounding his death, 328–29
- portrayal as a martyr of science, 358
- Schlagintweit, Eduard, 6–7
- Schlagintweit, Emil, 6, 114, 342
 - dispersal of the collections, 293
 - Tibetan scholarship, 311–13
 - use of the collections, 282–83, 353
- Schlagintweit, Hermann, 6, 46
 - advice valued by Raj surveyors and travellers, 303–4
 - death of, 293
 - effects of malaria, 309
 - lecturer at Berlin University, 46
 - meteorological work in India, 304–11
 - on Schlagintweits' lack of acknowledgement in Britain, 322
 - proposal for an Indian Meteorological Department, 309–11
 - Travels in India and High Asia*, 336–37
 - work produced after returning to Europe, 23–24
- Schlagintweit, Joseph, 6
 - distinguished medical career, 30–31
 - marriage to Rosalie Seidl, 31
- Schlagintweit, Max, 7, 357
- Schlagintweit, Robert, 6, 116–17
 - death of, 293
 - description of Kashmir, 306–7
 - documentation of his role as a science populariser, 358–59
 - invitation to explore central Asia for Russia, 340–41
 - lectures in North America (1868–9, 1880), 337, 339, 340
 - lectures in Russia (1867), 340–41
 - on colonial motivation of exploration, 206
 - on the idea to explore the Himalayas, 45
 - photography, 132
 - public lectures in Germany, 324–25, 337–40
 - work produced after returning to Europe, 23–24
- Schlagintweit brothers, 354–55
 - aesthetic quality of their images, 36–37
 - artistic training, 32
 - association with Berlin science societies, 37–41
 - attendance at Königliche Wilhelmsgymnasium, 31
 - building a reputation, 37–41
 - change in public sentiment in Britain, 226–29
 - collection and use of positive press coverage, 290–92
 - communication strategy, 99–108, 219–24, 357–58
 - concept of High Asia and its inhabitants, 159–60
 - consequences of the Indian Rebellion (1857), 217, 224–29
 - disclosure of their private fortune, 296
 - divergent reputations in different countries, 25–26, 313–23
 - early education and training, 31–32
 - ennoblement by the King of Bavaria, 296–300
 - excursions in the Alps, 32–41
 - exploitation of the collections in various ways, 353–54
 - failure of their first (1852) petition for a Himalayan expedition, 45–49
 - German interest in trade and settlement opportunities, 333–35
 - high aspirations for the 1854–7 expedition, 56–60
 - idea for an Indian and Himalayan expedition, 45–49
 - influence of Alexander von Humboldt, 14–15, 35–38, 40–41
 - influence of Carl Ritter, 40–41
 - innovations to enhance the appeal of their work, 37–40
 - integration into the British colonial establishment, 155–60
 - knowledge gaps after the death of Adolph, 229–36
 - making connections within the scientific establishment in Britain, 49–52
 - making use of Anglo-German networks, 49–52
 - mountain reliefs of the Alps, 37–40
 - personal/self-constructed archives, 4–5, 358
 - petition for further patronage from the East India Company, 236–51
 - plan for publication, 316–17
 - plans for an India Museum in Berlin, 255–56, 257–77
 - popularity in France, 340
 - popularity in Russia, 340–41
 - portrayal as scientific heroes in Germany, 323–44

412 Index

- Schlagintweit brothers (cont.)
Prospectus for their forthcoming publications, 252–53, 300 pursuit of scientific medals and honours, 301–2 quest for social advancement, 294–302 reception on return to Europe, 226–29 response to criticism and ridicule, 247–49 return of Herman and Robert to Europe, 217–19 secrecy of communications, 358 slide into obscurity in Britain, 321–23 social exclusion in Britain, 294–95 struggle to establish credibility and authority, 21–22 unfulfilled ambitions, 292–93 university education, 33
 visualisation techniques, 130–32
- Schlagintweit controversy, 90 allegations of treachery regarding Russia, 111–12 breaking conventions of gentlemanly science, 99–108 British resentment of non-British recruitment, 88 contradictory attacks from critics, 348 layers of controversy, 88–89 negotiating a reputation, 219–24, 226–29 place in wider social and imperial debates, 217 privileging German journals and newspapers with field reports, 101–8
- Schlagintweit expedition access to indigenous cultures, 24–25
 anthropometric measurements, 146–47 approach to collection of observational data, 123–26 artefact collection through indigenous mediators, 141 benefits from imperial knowledge networks, 148–50 breadth of studies, 22–23 brothers' financial gain through salaries, 114 characterisation of Nain Singh, 208–12 collaborations with external agents, institutions and imperial authorities, 13–14, 119–21, 128–30 collections. See collections
 colonial context, 13–14
 composition of the expedition party, 161–79 concerns about the scope of the mission, 95–99 contribution of the indigenous partners, 119–21 core practices, 123–26
 denial of dependence on indigenous partners, 213–16 dependence on indigenous knowledge and partners, 179–82, 206–7 different expectations of multiple patrons, 14 East India Company terms agreed for publication, 249–52
 economic geology, 132–34
 encounters with pundits, 311–13 entrepreneurial aspects, 25, 211, 256, 284, 336, 339, 354 escalating expenses and debt, 108–15 establishment of a hierarchy of knowledge, 213–16
 ethnographic studies, 141–42, 201, 207–12
 excursions into Chinese-controlled territory, 153–54 exploitation of their collections, 25
 facial plaster casting of indigenous people, 142–46, 208 following a tradition of exploration in the region, 63–66
 geology, 132–34
 high-altitude research, 139–40
 high expectations of patrons, 90–99
 hydrographical studies, 134–35
 hypsometrical data, 130–32
 instruments required and costs, 109–11 interpretative flexibility of the Schlagintweit mission, 14, 58 large volume of expedition documentation, 22–23
 magnetic observations, 126
 management of information provided to multiple patrons, 99–108
 meteorological research, 126–29
 modification and expansion of the mission, 56–60 mountain morphology studies, 130–32
 multiple hierarchies and power relations, 179–82
 multiple roles of the brothers, 123–26
 physical anthropology, 141–42
 pioneering achievements, 118 place in the continuum of British imperial surveys and expeditions, 122–23 political information gathering, 148–54

- power asymmetries in cultural encounters, 17
- problem of distinguishing reliable information, 199–213
- processing of materials collected, 135–36
- programme and objectives for the expedition, 12, 15
- proposals for resource exploitation, 137–39
- recognition of commercial opportunities, 15–16
- relationship to previous and future European expeditions, 16, 331–32
- roles of indigenous partners, 12–13
- route intelligence gathered, 140
- routes planned through India and central Asia, 57–60
- satirical attack by Kladderadatsch, 234–35
- self-portrayal as masters of south Asian lands and peoples, 213–16
- shifting motives due to multiple patrons, 347–48
- sources of controversy for the brothers, 18–23
- studies and records of Himalayan glaciers, 139–40
- study of local names and pronunciation, 140–41
- survey of mineral resources, 132–34
- surveyors and draughtsmen, 13
- topographic studies, 130–32
- travel to India, 117
- use of caravan traders as informants, 140
- use of documents and materials by scholars, 23–24
- use of established travel routes and accommodations, 155–60
- Schlich, Wilhelm, 81
- Schomburgk, Richard Moritz, 74
- Schomburgk, Robert Hermann, 74, 333
- Schweinfurth, Georg August, 102
- science as a tool of empire, 355–57
- science popularisation, 37, 337, 339, 354, 359
- scientific imperialism, 44, 237
- Scott, Robert H., 310
- secrecy, 358
- seed collections, 168
- Seemann, Berthold Carl, 313–14, 348
- Select Committee on Colonisation and Settlement in India, 197, 251
- Semenov, Peter, 41–42
- Sepoy Rebellion. See Indian Rebellion (1857)
- Seven Years War (1756–63), 62
- Siebold, Philipp Franz von, 333
- Sikkim, 70
- diplomatic pressure to allow access to Hooker, 150–51
- Silk Roads, 1, 183, 194
- Simla (Shimla), 58, 111, 158, 196
- Singh, Gulab, Raja of Jammu and Kashmir, 152
- Singh, Mani, 13, 169–79, 208, 212
- Singh, Nain, 13, 169, 199, 212, 286, 288, 290
- facial plaster cast, 208
- later extensive explorations in his own right, 212–13
- role in the Schlagintweits' expedition, 208–12
- training of other pundits, 311
- Siwalik fossils, 132
- Smithsonian Institution, Washington, 284
- social advancement
- Schlagintweit brothers' quest for, 294–302
- soil samples, 138, 239, 259, 356
- Somerville, Mary, 246
- South Kensington Museum, London, 279, 288
- sovereignty, 6, 9, 58, 175
- spice trade, 62
- sponsors of the Schlagintweit brothers, 12, 15, 56–57, 113–14
- Standfield, Rachel, 176
- Stanley, Lord, 249
- Steinen, Karl von den, 102
- stereoscopic photographs, 37
- Strachey, Henry, 169, 221, 231, 310, 324
- Strachey, Richard, 65, 169, 221, 310, 324
- strategic intimacy, 201–5
- surveying of south Asia. See Great Trigonometrical Survey of India
- Surveyor General's Office, 180, 355
- processing of materials collected by expeditions, 135–36
- surveyors and draughtsmen on the Schlagintweit expedition, 13, 158, 165, 185, 186, 187, 311, 355
- Sykes, William Henry, 20, 55–56, 95, 102–3, 107, 253, 261
- fear of reputational damage over the Schlagintweits, 247
- interest in meteorology and health issues, 309

414 Index

- Sykes, William Henry (cont.) on the location of the Schlagintweits' collections, 244 response to Dove's letter about the Berlin India Museum, 272–74
 response to the Indian Rebellion (1857), 224, 225
 support for the Schlagintweits, 223–24, 251
- tea, 16, 69, 83, 138, 197, 239, 337
- textiles manufacturing commercial interest in the Schlagintweit collections, 280–81
- Thomson, Thomas, 30, 71, 98, 221, 223, 246, 247, 280, 324
- Thuillier, Henry, 123, 129, 134–35
- Tibet, 63, 64, 70, 303
 collections used by Emil Schlagintweit, 282–83, 311–13
- Tibetan-Sanskrit Dictionary* (E. Schlagintweit), 312
- timber, 16, 69, 86, 87, 164, 186, 240, 242, 259, 264, 279
- Times, The*, 111, 225, 226
- topographic studies, 130–32
- transnational history, 5
- transnational imperial recruitment typology, 74–85
- transnational science dynamics of inclusion and exclusion, 359–60 issues relating to, 3 secrecy of communications, 358
 sources of tension and controversy, 21 volatile nature of authority, 348–49
- transport modes of travel in India, 154–55
- Travels in India and High Asia* (H. Schlagintweit), 336–37
- Trigonometrical Survey. See Great Trigonometrical Survey of India
- trustworthiness, 19, 93, 186, 202, 214, 351
- Tsarist Empire, 8
- Tsarist government, 14
- Tsarist Russia, 175
- Turkestan. See Chinese Turkestan
- Ullah, Mir Izzet, 158
- Verne, Jules, 340
- Vernon Smith, Robert, 224, 249
- Victoria & Albert Museum, London, 279
- Virchow, Rudolf, 276
- Voelcker, John Augustus, 77, 82–83, 356
- Vogel, Eduard, 222, 332
- vom Rath, Gerhard, 104
- Waagen, Wilhelm Heinrich, 77
- Wagner, Moritz, 79
- Wallich, Nathaniel, 30, 50–51, 63, 78, 80, 346
- water samples, 117, 138, 239
- watercolours, 132 preparation for inclusion in the Atlas, 317–20
- Waugh, Andrew Scott, 63
- Webb, William, 64
- Weiss, Christian Samuel, 46–48, 348
- Whewell, William, 50
- Wilkins, Charles, 258
- Wilhelm II, German Emperor, 342
- William, Prince of Prussia, 275
- Winterbottom, J. E., 65
- Zwengauer, Anton, 32