Index

ABA. See American Bar Association
Adult Transition Centers (ATCs), 157
AFH. See Ambassadors for Hope African Americans
civil society institutions for, 174 class segregation of, 109
with disabilities, 105–106
disciplinary actions against students
with disabilities, 105–106
income level as factor for, 109
suspension rates for, 110
unequal distribution of, 105–106, 110
incarceration of, 62–63
in school-to-prison pipeline, 108–109 aggression, massage therapy interventions and, 204–205 Alabama, state prisons in, 154–157
CCPs and, 155
JRI and, 154–156
parole reform and, 155–156
prison population in, 154
recidivism rates in, 156
reform of, 155–156
under SB 67, 154–155
sentencing reform, 156–157
Alexander, Michelle, 1–2
Alded, Jacob, 203
Alvarez, Gerald, 173
Ambassadors for Hope (AFH), 180–182
American Bar Association (ABA), 88, 90–91, 94–95, 111, 170 American College of Pediatrics, 131 ancillary offenses, 29–32
aggressive prosecution of, 30–32
complementary, 29–30
supplementary, 29–30
anthropology
in criminal justice reform, 10–11
of criminalization, 32–34
Hammurabi code and, 32
Nuremberg Trials and, 33
Argyle, Michael, 201
assigned counsel public defense system, 94
ATCs. See Adult Transition Centers Atlantic, 122
attitudinal theory, judicial discretion and, 72
Ballan, Steven G., 99
Bard Prison Initiative (BPI), 187–188
Baumeister, Roy, 201
Beaufils, Vladimir, 35
Bennett, Mark W., 67
Bentley, Robert, 154–155
Beria, Lavrentiy, 17
Bibas, Stephanos, 48
BJS. See Bureau of Justice Statistics
Blankley, Tony, 28
Bodenkircher v. Hayes, 48 bodily survival, security and pleasure, 202–203 Booker v. United States, 68
Boy Scouts, 135
Boyle, Gregory, 109–102
BPI. See Bard Prison Initiative
Bureau of Justice Statistics (BJS), 88, 142
Caplan, Lincoln, 88, 92
CAPPS. See Citizens Alliance on Prisons & Public Spending CCFY. See Community Connections for Youth CCPs. See Community Corrections Programs
Changing Together program, 195–196 children. See also juvenile crimes; juvenile delinquency; juvenile justice system; truant behavior of incarcerated parents, 124–130 AFH and, 181–182
malreatment of, juvenile delinquency and, 205–209
in single-parent households, 124–131 Chrostowski, Brandon, 188–191 churches, 124–135
Citizens Alliance on Prisons & Public Spending (CAPPS), 170 Civil Asset Forfeiture Laws, 111 civil isolation, of exprisoners, 131–133
Civil Rights Act (1964), US, 174 Civil Rights Project, 124 civil society
criminal justice reform influenced by, 4 defined, 5 civil society institutions. See also reintegration of prisoners for African Americans, 174 before incarceration, 175–180
CCFY, 175–176
JDAI, 179–180
RIP, 178–179
SBCC, 175–176
TCR, 176–177
during incarceration, 180–188
AFH, 180–182
BPI, 187–188
Defy Ventures program, 184–185
PSCP program, 186–187
PEP, 182–183
PUP, 183–184
participation in, overcriminalization as influence on, 131–135
through churches, 134–135
community organizations, 135
criminal justice reform as principle of proportionality in, 26–27 critical realism, 8–9
curfew laws
invasion of privacy issues with, 120 214
Index
Community-based Juvenile Services Aid Program (CJSA), 164 competent counsel, in indigent defense systems, 82–87 incentive problems, 86
information problems, 86–87
insurance problems, 87
complementary ancillary offenses, 29–30 constitutional law, judicial discretion under, 64 contract defense public defense system, 94 Cooper, Robert, 180–181
C.O.R.E. program. See Community Offender Re-Entry Experience program Criminal Identification Act (2004), US, 128 criminal justice reform. See also personalism anthropological elements of, 10–11 civil society’s role in, 4 critical realism and, 8–9
exercising purposive agency approach, 207 government policy changes for, 4–5 identity coherence and affirmation approach, 206–207 knowledge of reality approach to, 206 legal standards for, 21 moral affirmation approach, 207–208
personalism in, 207–208
personalism and, 202
under SAFE Justice Act, 28–29
social belonging and love approach, 208–209 criminal justice system. See also defense attorneys; judges; prosecutors police in, 31
prosecutorial overreach and, structural advantages for, 34–37
student discipline influenced by, 107 overcriminalization, 20–22. See also overcriminalization of ancillary offenses, 29–32
aggressive prosecution of, 30–32
complementary, 29–30
supplementary, 29–30
anthropological approach to, 32–34
Hammurabi code, 32
Nuremberg Trials, 33
risk prevention and, 27–29
of student discipline methods, 115–116 theory of, 26–27
overpunishment in, 26
political partisanship in, 27 principle of proportionality in, 26–27
critical realism, 8–9
curfew laws
invasion of privacy issues with, 120
for juveniles, 119–120
paternalism as foundation of, 120
De Blasio, Bill, 109–110
Deci, Edward, 201
decriminalization, ... in, 153
under First Offender Act, 153
population of, 151–152
recidivism rates and, 153
reform of, 152–154
Index 215

homelessness for, 145
in low-skilled labor markets, 146–148
job decentralization in, 148
spatial mismatch for, 148
participation in civil society, 132–133 public safety issues with, 140–141 re-traumatization of, 142–143
social costs of overcriminalization on with mental health issues, 141–143 psychological harm for, 138–140
PTSD, 141–143
reintegration into society, 141
voting rights for, 133
expulsion of students, 116
Fagan, Jeffery, 72–73
Fair Sentencing Act (2010), US, 68–69
fair trial. See right to fair trial
families
incarceration as influence on, 37–38 overcriminalization as negative influence on, 18 family structure, 123–124, 127 felonization, of individuals prosecution rates as factor in, 34–36
recidivism and, 35
social stigma of, 35–36
Finnis, John, 201
First Offender Act (1986), US, 153
Fisher, George, 52
Fiske, Susan, 201
Ford, Martin, 201
Forman, James, Jr., 3–4
free-market public defense systems, 97–98
Friedman, Milton, 39
Fromm, Erich, 201
funding
of indigent defense systems, 88–94
ABA reports on, 88, 90–91, 94–95
BJI on, 88
NACDL report on, 91–92
NLADA report on, 88–90
state-by-state, disparities in, 88–94 of public defense systems, 98–100
families
expulsion of students, 116
Fair Sentencing Act (2010), US, 68–69
Fair trial. See right to fair trial Ewing v. California, 65–66 exercise purposeful agency approach, to criminal justice reform, 207
ex-prisoners
civil isolation of, 131–133 education. See also school-to-prison pipeline; students; training programs for or prisoners

through BPI, 187–188
through P4CP program, 186–187
through PEP, 182–183
through PUP, 183–184
teacher discrimination, by race, 111
EDWINS Restaurant, 188–191
Emerge Connecticut, 192–193
C.O.R.E. program, 192–193
Ewing, Cary, 65–66

Index 215

© in this web service Cambridge University Press  www.cambridge.org criticisms of, 64–65
defendant rehabilitation and, 66–67
for juvenile criminals, 71
through reintegration, 73–74 extension of, 64
under Fair Sentencing Act, 68–69
historical development of, 64 under common law tradition, 65 implementation of, 74–75 judges’ response to, 69–70 for juvenile crimes, 71–73
defendant rehabilitation and, 71
legal interpretation as influence on, 63 legal precedent as influence on, 63 legal scope of, 66
limitations of, through mandatory sentencing, 65–66 mandatory sentencing and, 62–63, 68
as limitation strategy, 65–66
misconceptions of, 64
overview of, 65–69
personalism as factor in, 75–76 proportionality in, 62–63, 70 prosecutorial discretion compared to, 63–64, 66
under rule of law, 75 Sentencing Commission guidelines for, 67 jury trials. See also right to fair trial plea bargains as less expensive than, 54
right to fair trial, 79–80
Justice Reinvestment Institution (JRI), 154–156 juvenile crimes. See also juvenile justice system JDAI influence on, 179–180 judicial discretion for, 71–73
defendant rehabilitation and, 71
RJP influence on, 175–179
juvenile delinquency childhood maltreatment and, 205–209 curfew laws and, 119–120 intervention strategies for massage therapy, 204–205
touch therapy, 203
JDAI and, 179–180
parental neglect and, 203–204
RJP influence on, 175–179
from school discipline, 117–119
risk factors for, 118–119
Rotary Clubs and, 118
sensory deprivation and neglect as influence on, 205–206 types of, 203
Juvenile Detention Alternatives Initiative (JDAI), 179–180
juvenile justice system, 38–40
in Georgia, 153–154
girls in, 112–113
sexual abuse of, 113
JDAI and, 179–180
recidivism in, 112
school-to-prison pipeline fed by, 111–113
in Texas, 166–167
tunant laws and, 39–40
tunant behavior, 39–40
juvenile reentry programs, 164
Kennedy, Anthony (Justice), 53
Kennedy, David, 105
Kenner, Max, 187
King, John, 114
Klimon, William M., 155
Knife Skills (documentary), 190 Knoester, Chris, 131
knowledge of reality approach, to criminal justice reform, 206
Krauss, Rebecca, 48
Lacey, Clinton, 173
Larkin, Paul, 20
Latz, Ron, 169
Lawrence, Paul, 204
LB 605 (2015), US, 162
legal precedent, judicial discretion influenced by, 63
legal vindictiveness, 53
Leger, Walt, 151
Lennon, Thomas, 190
Levin, Mark, 28
Lewen, Jody, 184
Lieb, Doug, 51–52
Little League Sports, 135
Locked In (Phill), 78
Locking Up Our Own (Forman), 3 Lockyer v. Andrade, 66
low-skilled labor markets, 146–148
job decentralization in, 148
spatial mismatch for, 148
Luna, Eric, 43
mandatory sentencing, judicial discretion and, 62–63, 68
as limitation strategy, 65–66
Mannix, Andy, 167
marriage, overcriminalization as influence on, 123–124, 129–131
Marshall, John (Chief Justice), 64
Martin, Douglas, 50–51
Maslow, Abraham, 201
mass incarceration boom, 3–4. See also prison populations; prisoners
Index

massage therapy, 204–205
Max-Neef, Manfred, 201
McAdams, Richard, 57
mentoring programs, in public defense systems, 96 Michigan, state prisons in, 169–171
CAPPS, 170
MPRI and, 169–170
population of, 170
recidivism rates, 169–170
sentencing reform, 171
Michigan Prisoner Reentry Initiative (MPRI), 169–170
Miller, Marc, 67
Minnesota, state prisons in, 167–169
population of, 167
reform strategies for, 167–169
sentencing reform, 168–169
misconduct, prosecutorial, 46
lack of oversight of, 50
selective punishment of, 50, 58
Misner, Robert, 58
Missouri v. Frye, 53
Missouri v. Hunter, 32
mistrust, of judicial system, prosecutorial overreach as factor in, 60–61 moral affirmation approach, to criminal justice reform, 207–208
personalism in, 207–208
moral relativism, 7
morality, personalism and, 8 motivation, personalism and, 6 Mounier, Emmanuel, 6
Murnihan, Daniel Patrick, 126
MPRI. See Michigan Prisoner Reentry Initiative
Murphy-Dunning, Colleen, 103
Murray, H. A., 201
National Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers (NACDL), 91–92
National Legal Aid & Defender Association (NLADA), 88–91
National Registry of Exonerations, 46
National Youth Gang Survey (NYGS), 203
Nausbaum, Marth, 201
Nebraska, state prisons in, 161–165 CJSAs Program, 164
juvenile reentry programs, 164
under LB 605, 162
population of, 161–163
rehabilitation reform, 163–164
New Jim Crow, 2
The New Jim Crow (Alexander), 1–2
Nielson, Kai, 201

NLADA. See National Legal Aid & Defender Association
one-violent drug offenders as first time offenders, 22 overcriminalization of, 21–22
in prisons, 2–5
Nuremberg Trials, 33
NYGS. See National Youth Gang Survey Obama, Barack, 68
overcriminalization, 17–19. See also economic costs; incarceration; prison populations; school-to-prison pipeline; social costs; students, discipline of defined, 22–25
families negatively influenced by, 18
juvenile justice system and, 38–40
transynlaw and, 39–40
truant behavior, 39–40
new and unnecessary criminal laws as result of, 20 of non-violent drug offenders, 21–22 political partisanship over, 27 popular opinions on, 20
re-offenders and, 18
under SAFE Justice Act, 28–29
War on Drugs and, 21–22
PeCP program. See Prison-to-College Pipeline program parental neglect, juvenile delinquency and, 203–204 parents
incarceration of, 124–130
single-parent households, 124–131
parole, 23–24, 36–37
in Alabama state prison system, 155–156 decline in services, 36
recidivism and, 36–37
partisanship, political criminalization theory and, 27 decriminalization and, 27
paternalism, 120
Pennsylvania Prison Society, 166–167
PEP. See Prison Entrepreneurship Program personalism, 5–9
civil society institutions and, 211 criminal justice reform and, 202
critical realism and, 5–9
defined, 6
education reform and, 121 goodness of humans and, 209–210 human goodness and, 7–8 individualism and, rejection of, 5–9 in moral affirmation approach, 207–208 moral relativism and, 7 morality and, 8
motivation as part of, 6
ontology in, 8
prosecutorial overreach influenced by, 61
public defenders and, 102 skepticism and, 7
student discipline influenced by, 121
persons, defined, 10
Pfaff, John, 2–3, 22, 43–44, 78
on prosecutors, 47
accountability of, 60
plea bargains, 31–32
by defendants, 53
as less expensive than jury trials, 54 prosecutorial abuse of, 52–54 through control of judicial process, 54 reform proposals for, 58
police
in criminal justice system, 31 role in discipline of students, 106 tactics against poor, 51 political participation, overcriminalization as influence on, 131–133 political partisanship. See partisanship poor. See also indigent defense systems; inequality; public defense policing tactics against, 81 prosecutorial bias against, 50 targeting of poor, social costs of, 136–137 post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), 141–143 poverty, overcriminalization as influence on, 123–124 Powell, Lewis Franklin (Justice), 54 Powell v. Alabama, 79–80 primary crimes, 29. See also ancillary offenses principle of proportionality. See proportionality Prison Entrepreneurship Program (PEP), 182–183 prison populations. See also school-to-prison pipeline; state prisons in Alabama, 154
decrease in, states’ role in, 29
demographics of, 17, 23
in Georgia, 151–152
global, US percentage of, 17
in Illinois, 157
increase in
with non-violent drug offenders, 2–3
race as factor in, 2
War on Drugs and, 1–2
in Michigan, 170
in Minnesota, 167
in Nebraska, 161–163
in Texas, 165
in Utah, 159–160
Prison Rape Elimination Act, US, 166–167
Prison University Project (PUP), 183–184 prisoners. See also non-violent drug offenders; school-to-prison pipeline; state prisons under Civil Asset Forfeiture Laws, 111 costs of, 25
debs of, 110–111
education of
through BPI, 187–188
through P2CP program, 186–187
through PEP, 182–183
through PUP, 183–184
physiological effects of overcriminalization on, 138 release of, 21
prisons, increase in. See also state prisons 13–15, 2
War on Drugs as factor in, 1–2
Prison-to-College Pipeline (P2CP) program, 186–187 private defense attorneys, 82–83 indigent defense systems and, 102 probation, 23–24
proportionality, principle of, 26–27
prosecutorial overreach accountability in, 46–47, 49–52 civil institution engagement as factor in, 61 criminal justice system advantages for prosecutors, 54–57 defense attorneys and, 54–55
defined, 47–46
encouragement of, 47–49
incentives for, 46–47
judges’ role in, 47
judicial mistrust as result of, 60–61
legal vindictiveness, 53
misconduct as part of, 46
lack of oversight of, 50
selective punishment of, 50, 58
personalism and, 61
plea bargain abuse, 52–54
cost factors in, 54
through prosecutors’ control of plea bargains, 54 reform proposals, 58
rates of, 43
solutions to, 57–60
through expansion of judicial powers, 57–58 misconduct punishment as, 58 plea bargain reform as, 58 sentencing alternatives, 59 with third party civil institutions, 59 transparency of prosecutors, 59 Stuntz on, 57–58
prosecutors, prosecution and, 31–32
accountability of, 46–47, 49–52
Pfaff on, 60
of ancillary offenses, 30–32
complementary, 20–30
supplementary, 29–30
bias against poor, 50
consequences of, 34–38
criminal justice system advantages for, 54–57 discretionary power of, 54–57, 63–64, 66 felonization as result of, 34–36
recidivism and, 35
social stigma of, 35–36
judges’ responses to, 47
misconduct of, 46
motivations of, 32
Pfaff on, 47
increased accountability of, 60 plea bargains controlled by, 54 in popular culture, 45
transparency of, 59
PTSD. See post-traumatic stress disorder public defenders, 84. See also competent counsel low pay for, 85
personalism and, 102
training programs for, 96 value-based recruitment of, 96 public defense systems. See also indigent defense systems alternatives to, 94–102
with mentoring programs, 96 through training programs, 96 with value-based recruitment, 96 with voucher system, 98 assigned counsel type, 94 contract defense type, 94
free-market types of, 97–98 Gideon v. Wainwright and, 79, 84 increased state funding of, 98–100
social stigma of, 87
standards-setting for, 100
through state public defender office, 94 systemic disadvantages of, 87
public safety issues, with ex-prisoners, 140–141 public values, overcriminalization as influence on, 135–141 punishment, purpose of, 210
PUP. See Prison University Project Qizilbash, Mozaffar, 201 race. See also discrimination class segregation by, 109 incarceration rates by, 62–63 prison populations and, 2 school-to-prison pipeline and, 108–109 racism. See also African Americans; discrimination; New Jim Crow incarceration rates and, 62–63
War on Drugs and, 2
Rakoff, Ted, 55–57
Ramsey, Maureen, 201
Rapping, Jonathan, 95–97
RAR program. See Root and Rebound program
Ranner, Bruce, 157
Rawls, John, 268
Ray, Evan, Jr., 77
Ready, Willing and Able (RWA), 194–195 realism. See critical realism recidivism, 18
in Alabama, 156
felonization and, 35
in Georgia, 153
in Illinois, 157
in juvenile justice system, 112
in Michigan, 169–170
parole and, effectiveness of, 36–37
reintegration of offenders into society and through behavioral therapies and treatment, 73–74
judicial discretion and, 73–74
programs for, 74
social costs of overcriminalization and, 136
in Utah, 161
rehabilitation, 18–19
judicial discretion and, 66–67
for juvenile criminals, 71
prisoner reintegration and, 73–74 in Nebraska state prisons, 163–164 RJP and, 158–159
reintegration of prisoners, back into society advocacy for, 196–198
through behavioral therapies and treatment, 73–74
Changing Together program, 195–196
through civil society organizations, 188–196
C.O.R.E. program, 192–193
Def Ventures program, 184–185
DOE Fund, 194–195
RWA and, 194–195
EDWINS Restaurant, 188–191
Emerge Connecticut, 192–193
Homeboy Industries, 191–192
judicial discretion and, 73–74
P2CP program, 186–187
Pennsylvania Prison Society and, 196–197
PEF and, 182–183
policy changes for, 196–198
www.cambridge.org
programs for, 74
PUP and, 183–184
RAR program, 197–198
social costs of overcriminalization on, 141
through TCR organization, 176–177
VCI and, 195–196
Reiss, Steven, 201
re-offenders. See recidivism repeat offenders. See recidivism restitution, 18–19
Restorative Justice Project (RJP), 178–179
retribution, 18–19
Reynolds, Glenn Harlan, 46–47
Ricketts, Pete, 162
right to fair trial, 79–80
RJP. See Restorative Justice Project
Root and Rebound (RAR) program, 197–198
Rothschild, Steve, 176
Ronke, Rosita, 5
RWA. See Ready, Willing and Able Ryan, Richard, 201
Ryff, Carol, 201
SAFE Justice Act, 28–29
SB 67, 154–155
SBCC. See South Bronx Community Connections Scared Straight programs, 119–120 Schmidtz, David, 207–208 school resource officers (SROs), 115–116 school-to-prison pipeline. See also Prison-to-College Pipeline program ABA report on, 111
African Americans in, 108–109
class segregation and, 109 disciplinary procedures as factor in, 113–116 discrimination by teachers and, 111 income levels as factor in, 109
juvenile justice system and, 111–113
national data on, 106–109
race as factor in, 108–109
Scared Straight programs and, 119–120
Schultz, David, 168
“second chance law.” See First Offender Act Sensenbrenner, Jim, 28–29 sensory deprivation and neglect, juvenile delinquency and, 203–206 sentencing
African Americans’ response to, 3–4
in Alabama, 156–157
alternatives to, 59
under Fair Sentencing Act, 68–69
indigent defense systems and, disparities in, 82–83 mandatory
judicial discretion and, 62–63, 65–66, 68
“third strike” law, 77
prosecutorial overreach and, 59
reform strategies
in Illinois, 158–159
in Michigan, 171
in Minnesota, 168–169
in Utah, 160–161
under SAFE Justice Act, 28–29
sexual abuse, of girls, 113 Silvergate, Harvey, 51
single-parent households, 124–131
6th Amendment, 79–82. See also public defense systems skepticism, 7
Smith, Christian, 5
Smith, DeShawn, 122
social belonging and love approach, to criminal justice reform, 208–209 social costs, of overcriminalization, 123–143 on civil isolation, 131–133 through distortion of social norms, 138–141 for ex-prisoners
mental health issues for, 141–143
psychological harm for, 138–140
PTSD, 141–143
reintegration into society, 141
on participation in civil society institutions, 131–135
through churches, 134–135
community organizations, 135
physiological effects on prisoners, 138 on political participation, 131–133 public values influenced by, 138–141 recidivism issues, 136
through targeting of poor by law enforcement, 136–137 voting rights and, loss of, 133 social networks, overcriminalization as influence on, 127–128 community cohesion in inner cities, 129–131 family structure and cohesion, 123–124 incarceration of parent as factor in, 124–130 for marriage, 123–124, 129–131 poverty issues, 123–124
single-parent households, 124–131
social norms, 135–141
social stigma
for disciplined students, 107–108 of felonization, 35–36 against public defenders, 87
South Bronx Community Connections (SBCC), 175–176
Index

spatial mismatch, in low-skilled labor markets, 148
Splain, Tim, 196
SROs. See school resource officers Stalin, Joseph, 17
Starr, Sonja, 59
state prisons. See also Alabama
in Georgia, 151–154
under First Offender Act, 153
prison population in, 151–152
recidivism rates and, 153
reform of, 152–154
in Illinois, 157–159
ATCs and, 157
under Criminal Identification Act, 158
prison population in, 157
recidivism rates, 157
sentencing reform and, 158–159
in Michigan, 169–171
CAPPS, 170
MPRI and, 169–170
prison population in, 170
recidivism rates, 169–170
sentencing reform, 171
in Minnesota, 167–169
prison population in, 167
reform strategies for, 167–169
sentencing reform, 168–169
in Nebraska, 161–165
CJSA Program, 164
juvenile reentry programs, 164
under LB 605, 162
prison population in, 161–163
rehabilitation reform, 163–164
new approaches to, 211
in Texas, 165–167
budget cuts for, 167
juvenile justice system, 166–167
prison population in, 165
under Prison Rape Elimination Act, 166–167
in Utah, 159–161
under HB 348, 160–161
prison population in, 159–160
recidivism rates, 161
reform of, 160
sentencing reform, 160–161
state public defenders offices, 94
Staup, Ervin, 201
Stith, Kate, 65
Strickland v. Washington, 85 students, discipline of. See also school-to-prison pipeline of African Americans
with disabilities, 105–106
income level as factor for, 109
suspension rates for, 110
unequal distribution of, 105–106, 110
class segregation and, 109
criminal justice methods in, 107 criminalization of, 115–116
with disabilities, 105–106, 110
disproportionate application of, 109–113 through expulsion, 116
high school dropout rates and, 117–119
income levels as factor in, 109
juvenile delinquency as result of, 117–119
risk factors for, 118–119
Rotary Clubs and, 118
personalism as influence on, 121 police’s role in, 106
social stigma as result of, 111
zero tolerance policies, 106, 113–115
Civil Rights Project and, 114
enforcement of, 114
Stuntz, William, 44, 50–52
on prosecutorial overreach, 57–58 supplementary ancillary offenses, 29–30 suspension of students, 116
Swartz, Aaron, 51–52

TGR organization. See Twin Cities R!se organization teachers, discrimination by, 111 Texas
juvenile justice system in, 166–167
state prisons in, 165–167
budget cuts for, 167
population of, 165
under Prison Rape Elimination Act, 166–167
“third strike” law, 77
Thomas, Anthony, 102–102
Tocqueville, Alexis de, 135
touch therapy, 205
touch therapy, 205
touch therapy, 205
training programs, for public defenders, 96 trial strategies. See jury trials truancy laws, 39–40
truancy behavior, 39–40
See also juvenile delinquency
Turner, Jonathan, 201
Twin Cities R!se (TCR) organization, 176–177
United States (US). See also specific states Civil Rights Act, 174
Criminal Identification Act, 158
Index

DOJ, 25
Fair Sentencing Act, 68–69
First Offender Act, 153
LB 605, 162
prison populations in, 17. See also prison populations Prison Rape Elimination Act, 166–167
Urban Resource Initiative, 192–193
US. See United States
Utah, state prisons in, 159–161
under HB 348, 160–161
population of, 159–160
recidivism rates, 161
reform of, 160
sentencing reform, 160–161

Walsh, Dylan, 84, 93
War on Drugs
overcriminalization and, 21–22 prison expansion influenced by, 1–2 prison populations influenced by, 1–2 racial bias and, 2
Warren, Earl (Chief Justice), 105
Washington Post, 21
Wayte v. United States, 48, 54
Wilcox, W. Bradford, 134–135
Wildeman, Christopher, 127–128
William, Jeff, 177
Wisconsin Law Review, 82
Wolfinger, Nicholas H., 134–135
Wright, Eric Patrick, 62
Young, Coleman, 3

zero tolerance policies, 106, 113–115
Civil Rights Project and, 114
enforcement of, 114

value-based recruitment, of public defenders, 96 Violent Crime Initiative (VCI), 105–106 voting rights, for ex-prisoners, 133 voucher systems, for public defense, 98