

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations x
List of Maps xii
List of Tables xiii
Acknowledgements xiv
Chronology xvi
Maps xxiii

Introduction 1

1 On the Edge of Empire 5
 Transjordan and its ‘Dark Ages’ 6
 The Ottoman State and its Impact 8
 The Post-First World War Limbo 12

2 Founding State and Regime 17
 Abdullah’s Consolation Prize 18
 The Sharifian Moment 21
 Regime Politics: Incorporating Social Groups 24
 Britain and the Fate of Transjordan 28
 Towards Administrative Consolidation 33

3 The Long Road to Independence 36
 Creating Political Institutions 37
 Incorporating the Tribal Periphery 42
 Political Affairs in the Emirate 46
 Risks and Opportunities in the Region 49
 The Second World War 54
 Independence, at Last 59

4 Loss of Innocence 61
 The Onset of Strife 63
 A Hashemite Dream 66
 Unity across the Jordan 73
 The Death of a King 77

viii / Contents

- 5 The Roaring Fifties 82
 A Second Succession 83
 New Social Realities 86
 The Accession of Hussein 91
 The Baghdad Pact and the Ousting of Glubb 95
 The Radical Challenge from Within 98
 A Coup from the Palace 103
 Rebuilding Stability 107
- 6 The Road to Disaster 110
 Wasfi al-Tall and the Rest 111
 The Drive for Economic Development 116
 Conflicts across the Region 119
 The Awakening of Palestinian Nationalism 123
 The 1967 War 127
 Managing the Aftermath 131
 Bloody Conflict Within 136
- 7 Illusions of Progress 140
 Two Peoples, One State 141
 The Road to Rabat 144
 The October War 147
 Oil Wealth without Oil 149
 The Temptation of Camp David 154
 Hussein and Saddam: The Odd Couple 158
 Limited Domestic Reform 162
 Process, but no Peace 167
 West Bank Disengagement 172
- 8 Hussein's Choices 175
 While Jordan Burns 176
 Liberalisation for Austerity 181
 The National Charter 185
 The Iraq–Kuwait Crisis 187
 The 'Break' with Iraq 191
 Structural Adjustment 193
 Hussein's Gamble on Peace 196
 Democratisation on the Backburner 199
 Uphill Struggle for Normalisation 202
 A Messy Succession 206

ix / Contents

- 9 Abdullah's Governance Debate at Home 210
Liberals vs. Conservatives 212
The Frustrations of Cabinet Government 217
The 'Jordan Spring' 220
Political Reformism 222
'It's the Economy Again, Stupid' 225
Social Impacts 229
Parliament: 'A Form of Theater', but Little Else 232
The Muslim Brotherhood 234
Charity and Politics: The Islamic Action Front and the Islamic Centre Society 239
- 10 International Relations under Abdullah 242
Iraq Crisis, Syria Crisis 242
The US-Led Invasion of Iraq 244
Jordan and Hamas 247
Islamist 'Terrorism' 248
Jordan and the Diplomacy of the Arab Spring 251
Whose Foreign Policy is it Anyway? 252
Syrian Overspill 254
Superpower Relations: The USA 257
Superpower Relations: Russia 259
Israel: Whose Side are you On? 261
- Conclusion: Jordan: Still a Politely Run
Authoritarian State 264
- Notes* 268
Bibliography 287
Index 299