Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Contributors</th>
<th>page xi</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acknowledgments</td>
<td>xvii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Part I Introduction

1. Union Trends ................................................................. 3
   Richard Bales

2. The Consequences of Union Decline........................................ 12
   Jake Rosenfeld

Part II Labor Law Is Out of Date

3. Yesterday’s Labor Law and Today’s Challenges.......................... 25
   Cynthia Estlund

4. The National Labor Relations Board in the Twenty-First Century ........ 34
   William B. Gould IV

5. Beyond the Race to the Bottom: Reforming Labor Law Preemption to Allow State Experimentation ........................................... 46
   Charlotte Garden

6. Union Rights for All: Toward Sectoral Bargaining in the United States .... 56
   Kate Andrias

7. Public Sector Innovations: Valuing Voice........................................ 64
   Ann C. Hodges and Martin H. Malin

8. Combatting Union Monopoly Power: The Contrast Between Pre- and Post-New Deal Legal Regimes .................................................. 75
   Richard A. Epstein

9. The Case for Repealing the Firm Exemption to Antitrust (A Modest Proposal; or, a Response to Professor Epstein) ......................... 88
   Sanjukta Paul

10. Make Labor Organizing a Civil Right ........................................... 97
    Richard D. Kahlenberg and Moshe Z. Marvit
Contents

Part III  The “Fissured” Workplace

11 Some Problems With NLRA Coverage: Independent Contractors and Joint Employers ................................................................. 115
   Joseph Slater

12 Twenty-First Century Employers .............................................................................. 128
   Jeffrey M. Hirsch

13 The Problem of “Misclassification” or How to Define Who Is an “Employee” under Protective Legislation in the Information Age ...................... 140
   Kenneth G. Dau-Schmidt

14 Rupture and Invention: The Changing Nature of Work and the Implications for Social Policy................................................................. 154
   Katherine V. W. Stone

15 Contemplating New Categories of Workers: Technology and the Fissured Workplace ........................................................................... 168
   Miriam A. Cherry

16 Balancing Flexibility and Rigidity: Do Unions Make Sense in the On-Demand Economy? ................................................................. 179
   Seth C. Oranburg and Liya Palagashvili

Part IV  Barriers to Forming a Collective Bargaining Relationship

17 Tactical Mismatch in Union Organizing Drives...................................................... 199
   Charlotte Garden

18 The Power of Place ................................................................................................... 208
   Michael M. Oswalt

19 Assembly and Collective Rights .............................................................................. 221
   Marion Crain

20 Leveraging Secondary Activity Within and Outside Legal Boundaries ................... 232
   Anne Marie Lofaso

21 Captive Audience Meetings: The Right Not to Attend............................................ 245
   Paul M. Secunda

Part V  Barriers to Bargaining a Good Contract

22 Obtaining a First Contract after Winning Recognition ........................................... 259
   David A. Rosenfeld

   Lance Compa

24 Organizing for Workplace Rights When Immigration Law Discourages It............. 281
   Leticia M. Saucedo

25 The Central Role of the Right to Strike ................................................................... 291
   Julius G. Getman
Contents

26 Organizational Power for Workers within the Firm................................................. 300
Matthew T. Bodie

27 Returning Members-Only Collective Bargaining to the American Workplace:
How to Restore Labor’s Countervailing Power......................................................... 311
Charles J. Morris

Part VI Unions, Civil Society, and Culture

28 Can Labor Law Reform Encourage Robust Economic Democracy?...................... 327
Brishen Rogers

29 Union Security for the Twenty-First Century........................................................... 336
Catherine L. Fisk

30 Union Membership and the Ghent System ............................................................. 351
Matthew Dimick

31 Principled Hope: Labor Law Reform from an Alt-Labor Perspective...................... 361
César F. Rosado Marzán

32 Politically Engaged Unionism: The Culinary Workers Union in Las Vegas............................. 373
Ruben J. Garcia

33 Union Commitment to Racial Diversity................................................................... 381
Michael Z. Green

34 The Economics of Minimum Wage Regulations .................................................... 392
Jesús Fernández-Villaverde

35 The Role of Labor Research and Education in the Labor Movement of the Twenty-First Century:
The UCLA Labor Center and the CLEAN Carwash Campaign............................ 402
Victor H. Narro