

Contents

Acknowledgments	page vii
Introduction	I
PART I. FOUNDATIONS
1 “Morality Not in Accordance with Virtues but in Accordance with Duties”: The Pufendorfan Shift in Moral Philosophy	21
2 The Structure of Practical Ethics: Duty and Virtue	42
3 The Structure of Practical Ethics: Duty and Right	63
PART II. RELATIONS TO GOD
4 Duties to God, Revelation, and Morality’s History	87
5 Breaking with Convention: Hume, Smith, and the God of Natural Religion	107
PART III. RELATIONS TO SELF
6 Moral Relations to Self and the Significance of Self-Harm	133
7 Anthropological Optimism, Pessimism, and the Scope of Self-Cultivation	158
PART IV. RELATIONS TO OTHERS
8 Relating to Others: Natural Rights and Community	183
9 Why Not Polygamy? Natural Law and the Family	203

vi	Contents
10	Political Jurisprudence and Its Limits	228
	Conclusion	250
	Bibliography	255
	Index	276