

Finn worked at his father's shop. It was a sunny day, but the shop was not busy.
'Can I go down to the beach?' said Finn.
'I want to see if there are any puffins.'

'Don't be long!' said Dad.
'We might get busy later on.'

Finn went down to the water. He stood and looked out across the bay.
He wanted to get a good look at the island.

A boy ran up to him.

‘What are you doing?’ he said.

‘I am looking for puffins,’ said Finn,
pointing to some rocks.

‘Over there. That’s where they sit.’
