

THE LAW AND FINANCE OF RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

A globe-spanning group of leading law and finance scholars bring together cutting-edge research to comprehensively examine the challenges legislators face in regulating related party transactions in a socially beneficial way. Combining theoretical analysis of the foundations of efficient regulation with empirical and comparative studies, readers are invited to draw their own conclusions about which regulatory responses work best under differing circumstances. The careful selection of surveyed jurisdictions offers in-depth insight into a broad variety of regulatory strategies and their interdependence with socioeconomic and political conditions. This work should be read by scholars, policymakers, and graduate students interested in a critical, much-debated area of corporate governance.

LUCA ENRIQUES is the Allen & Overy Professor of Corporate Law at the University of Oxford and European Corporate Governance Institute (ECGI) Research Fellow. He has published widely in the fields of corporate law and securities regulation. He is a coauthor of The Anatomy of Corporate Law (3rd ed., 2017) and of Principles of Financial Regulation (2016) and has held visiting positions, among others, at Harvard Law School and Cambridge University.

TOBIAS H. TRÖGER holds the Chair of Private Law, Trade and Business Law, Jurisprudence at Goethe-University Frankfurt am Main. His research interests include corporate law, banking law and the economic analysis of law. He is Program Director Corporate Finance and Corporate Governance at the Research Center Sustainable Architecture for Finance in Europe (SAFE) and a Research Member of the European Corporate Governance Institute (ECGI).

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We wish to thank the participants of a workshop hosted by the University of Oxford and a conference organized by the LOEWE Research Center Sustainable Architecture for Finance in Europe (SAFE) at Goethe University Frankfurt that brought together authors, discussants and other interested scholars, policy makers, and practitioners to discuss earlier versions of the chapters included in this volume. In addition to our extraordinarily dedicated authors, we are especially indebted to Marc Amstutz, Moritz Bälz, Marco Becht, Andreas Engert, Jill Fisch, Ron Gilson, Paolo Giudici, Gérard Hertig, David Kershaw, Jan Pieter Krahn, Joe McCahery, Peter Mülbert, Wolf Georg Ringe, Rolf Skog, Lorenzo Stanghellini, and Christoph van der Elst who acted as discussants of the draft chapters presented at the Frankfurt conference. Research on this volume was generously supported by the LOEWE Research Center SAFE, the European Corporate Governance Research Fund (ECGRF), and Enel.
