

Index

An italic page number refers to a Problem on that page.

- see causal arrow ( $\rightarrow$ )
- $\Delta$  (change in) 92
- $\epsilon_0$  (permittivity of free space) 23
- $\mu$  see coefficient  $\leftrightarrow$  of dynamic (sliding) friction ( $\mu$ )
- $\mu_s$  see coefficient  $\leftrightarrow$  of static friction ( $\mu_s$ )
- $\omega$  see angular speed ( $\omega$ )
- $\boldsymbol{\omega}$  see angular velocity ( $\boldsymbol{\omega}$ )
- $\Sigma$  see summation notation ( $\Sigma$ )
- $\sim$  see twiddle ( $\sim$ )
- $\equiv$  see triple-equals sign ( $\equiv$ )
- $\mathbf{a}_{\parallel}$  see acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  parallel portion ( $\mathbf{a}_{\parallel}$ )
- $\mathbf{a}_{\perp}$  see acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  perpendicular portion ( $\mathbf{a}_{\perp}$ )
- accelerating
  - everyday-language meaning of 48, 113, 118
  - in elevator 161
  - in train see reference frame(s)  $\leftrightarrow$  noninertial  $\leftrightarrow$  of accelerating train
- acceleration 90–115
  - angular see angular acceleration
  - as rate of change of velocity 47, 100, 130
  - as same in all inertial frames 136
  - average 96–98
  - constant 119, 166
  - defined 95–101
  - due to gravity see  $g$  (gravitational acceleration)
  - for constant-speed motion 107–109, 168
  - for general motion 113–114
  - in circular motion see circular motion
  - infinite 73
  - instantaneous 100–101
  - measuring with pendulum see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  pendulum accelerometer
  - nonzero see Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  with nonzero acceleration
  - on freebody diagrams see freebody diagrams  $\leftrightarrow$  representing acceleration on
  - parallel portion ( $\mathbf{a}_{\parallel}$ ) 113, 145, 167
  - perpendicular portion ( $\mathbf{a}_{\perp}$ ) 113, 145, 167
  - scalars related to 97, 115
  - units of 98–100, 115
  - zero see statics
- accelerometer see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  pendulum accelerometer
- action–reaction see Newton's third law  $\leftrightarrow$  action–reaction form of (dangerous)
- active forces 7, 132
- adding vectors see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  adding
- air resistance see drag
- analogies
  - angular and regular acceleration 181
  - learning piano and Newton's laws 4
  - mass and moment of inertia 181
- angular acceleration 181, 184
  - as second derivative of angle 180
  - caused by torque 180, 183, 184
- angular momentum 72
- angular speed ( $\omega$ ) 176

- angular velocity ( $\omega$ ) 179
 area, cross-sectional see cross-sectional area
 Aristotle 191
 Armstrong, Neil 20
 arrow see causal arrow ( $\rightarrow$ )
Art of Insight in Science and Engineering, The 12, 67
 artificial gravity 162
 astronomical unit see earth–sun distance (astronomical unit)
 Asymptote (figure-drawing program) xi atmosphere 86, 88
 Atwood machine
 with equal masses 78–80, 86
 with unequal masses 166
 Atwood, George 78
 average speed see speed  $\leftrightarrow$  average average velocity see velocity  $\leftrightarrow$  average
- balancing 56
 distinguished from being equal and opposite 73, 134, see also mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  confusing two distinct ideas  $\leftrightarrow$
 Newton's third|second law
 bicycling 167, see also examples  $\leftrightarrow$  bicycling on level ground
 body forces 8, 160, 163, 175
 Boeing 747 (plane) 132, 165
 boldface type (vector notation) 1 bone growth 161
 bouncing ball 170, see also examples  $\leftrightarrow$  forces on ball while bouncing breaking strength 87
 buoyancy 18
 burning rubber 64, 126, see also rolling motion  $\leftrightarrow$  with slipping
- calculators, why avoid 10
 calculus 88, 109, 111, 130, 163, 168, 180, 186,
see also acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  instantaneous causal arrow ( $\rightarrow$ ) 50 causation
 distinguished from deduction 54, 79
 via modal verb 83
 in mental versus physical world 66
 no standard mathematical notation for 51 center of mass 2, 31
 acceleration of 142, 157, 164
 centrifugal force 6
 as dangerous, powerful like a chainsaw 177
 illusory nature of 7, 24, 148, 152
 in rotating frame 25, 176
 why avoid 24–25
 centripetal force
 definite-article formulation, danger of 152
 not a physical force 148
 why avoid 25–26, 150–152, 178
 changing mass see Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$
 with varying mass
 circular motion
 constant speed 153
 acceleration in 101–107, 115, 146, 163
 forces in 145–150
 varying speed
 acceleration in 109–112, 115, 167
 forces in 167
 classifying forces 4–9, 26
 as active or passive 7–8
 as long or short range 8–9
 as one of four interactions in nature 5–7
 as worthwhile effort 4 coefficient 20
 of dynamic (sliding) friction ( $\mu$ ) 20, 121, 123 of static friction ( $\mu_s$ ) 21 component see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  components of composite bodies 36, 57, 65, 172
 Newton's laws for 141–143
 conical pendulum 168
 contact forces 6, 8, 160, see also drag; dynamic friction; passive forces; static friction parallel and perpendicular portions of 55 representing on freebody diagrams 30, 149, 151
 contact time 137–139
 ConT<sub>E</sub>Xt (typesetting system) xi Coriolis force 178
 cornering car 191, see also examples  $\leftrightarrow$  cornering car; circular motion  $\leftrightarrow$  constant speed  $\leftrightarrow$  forces in in noninertial reference frame 175–177
 on elliptical track 168
 with varying speed 167
 coulomb (unit of charge) 23
 Coulomb's law 23, 187
 counterpart force 2, 3, 4, 8, 26, 27, 127, 128, 148, 175
 cross-sectional area 17, 24, 60
 C see coulomb (unit of charge)

- decelerating 113, 118
 everyday-language meaning of 48, 119
- deformation 15, 127
- density of air 18, 60
 of water 83
- dimensionless constant 20, 104, see also coefficient
- dimensions
 of acceleration 98
 of force 11
 of pressure 80
 of velocity 98
- direction (specifying) 131
- displacement 92
- drag 17–20, 87
 on hand 24
 on me sledding 68, 84
 on ping-pong ball 18
 on speed skater 27
 placement on freebody diagram 61
 while bicycling 59–64
- dynamic friction 20–21, 126
 as parallel portion of contact force 121
 for ice sliding on ice 121
 on me sledding 68, 84
 on speed skater 27
- earth
 average speed of 94
 average velocity of 92
 mass of 10
 orbital radius of 93
- earth–sun distance (astronomical unit) 10, 12, 93
- easy cases, method of 67, 84, 108
- Eff EE-kwuhlz emm ay see Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  phonetic rendition of
- Einstein, Albert 40, 117, 163, 188, 190, 191,
see also general relativity; special relativity
- electromagnetic interaction 5, 187–188
- electrostatic force see Coulomb's law
- normal*, archaic meaning of 20
- per*, mathematical meaning of 99
- energy conservation 112
- engine force see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$ invoking bogus forces  $\leftrightarrow$  from engine
- equal and opposite 1, 3, 29, 54, 125, 142, 148, 187, see also balancing  $\leftrightarrow$  distinguished from being equal and opposite
- equals sign (=), ambiguities of 50, 122
- equilibrium position 110, 133
- Euler force 179
- examples
 Atwood machine see Atwood machine ball bouncing repeatedly 34–35
 ball dropped from tower 174
 bicycling on level ground at constant velocity 57–64, 87
 with nonzero acceleration 124–128, 166
 box on hill 21
 bumblebees in a box 36–38, 164–165
 circular motion at constant speed 102–106
 cornering car 145–150
 earth's average velocity 92
 elliptical motion at constant speed 107–109 falling stone 32–34, 116–118
 forces on ball while bouncing 134–140
 mass suspended with strings 75–77, 84
 orbiting satellite 144–145
 particle moving on semicircular track average acceleration 97–98
 average velocity 94–95
 pendulum accelerometer 130–132
 pendulum motion 109–112
 pressure in a lake 80–84
 sledding at constant velocity 64–69, 84
 sliding down frictionless ramp 128–130
 sliding ice block 118–124
 standing on ground 29, 35, 53–55
 standing on hill 55–56
 steadily descending elevator 56–57
 swinging 156–158
 train-car reference frame 44–46
 tug-of-war see tug-of-war
- fictitious forces 175, see also Coriolis force;
 centrifugal force; Euler force; frame-acceleration force
- fifth force 179
- first law see Newton's first law
- $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}$  see net force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}$ )
- $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}^{\text{ext}}$  see net external force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}^{\text{ext}}$ )
- force see also active forces; body forces; centrifugal force; centripetal force; contact forces; Coriolis force; drag; dynamic friction; Euler force; fifth force; gravitational force;
 internal forces; lift; long-range forces; net
 force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}$ ); normal force; passive forces; pressure forces; reaction force; resultant force; short-range forces; spring forces; static friction; tension forces; thrust; volume forces as not fully understood ix
 as one side of an interaction 1

- as push or pull ix
- as rate of change of momentum 186
- causes acceleration 51, 80, 101, 107, 116, 125, 136, 143, 147
- causes velocity see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  assuming what's never true  $\leftrightarrow$  force causes velocity
- changes velocity 12, 35, 58, 101, see also Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  three ideas of  $\leftrightarrow$  force changes motion
- distributed 2
- example magnitudes 22–24, 27
- friction see dynamic friction; static friction
- from engine see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  invoking bogus forces  $\leftrightarrow$  from engine
- labeling a 30
- line of action of 149
- metric (SI) units of see newton (unit of force)
- of motion see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  invoking bogus forces  $\leftrightarrow$  of motion
- on ball while bouncing see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  forces on ball while bouncing
- vector nature of ix
- force causes acceleration see force  $\leftrightarrow$  causes acceleration; Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  three ideas of  $\leftrightarrow$  force changes motion
- force changes motion (velocity) see force  $\leftrightarrow$  changes velocity
- force of motion see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  invoking bogus forces  $\leftrightarrow$  of motion
- forces to avoid 24–26
- four interactions in nature see classifying forces  $\leftrightarrow$  as one of four interactions in nature
- frame-acceleration force 179, 190
- free fall see free gravitational motion
- free gravitational motion 33
  - bees in 165, 172
  - eliminating gravity with 190
  - internal forces in 166
  - mass independence of 117, 122
  - of a stone 116–118, 166
  - of piece of toast 118, 165
  - sliding down frictionless ramp 129
- freebody diagrams 28–38
  - consistency of 78
  - dashed lines for representing secondary bodies on 32
  - finding mistakes in 35, 70, 146, 167
  - for primary body 29
  - for secondary bodies 29
  - of a point 76
  - of tube of water 81–83
  - recipe for making 28–32
  - representing acceleration on 109
  - representing contact forces on 30
  - representing gravitational forces on 31
  - representing long-range forces on 31
  - representing velocity on 61
- friction see static friction; dynamic friction
- $g$  (gravitational acceleration) 12
  - in low-earth orbit 27
  - reducing 78, 129, 130
- $G$  (Newton's constant) 9
- Galileo 51, 130, 173, 191
- Gavotte in  $G$  (Händel) 4
- general relativity 40, 117, 191
- Goddard, Robert 20
- gravitational acceleration see  $g$  (gravitational acceleration)
- gravitational field, uniform 163
- gravitational force 9–14
  - $mg$  form of 12
  - moon–earth 27
  - on car 23
  - on ping-pong ball 18
  - proton–electron 23
  - representing on freebody diagrams 31
  - sun–earth 10, 23
  - universal-gravitation form of 9
- gravitational interaction 5
- gravitational waves 191
- gravity
  - artificial 162
  - eliminating 190
  - gut feeling 136, 140
- hanging cable 86
- Hellingman, Cornellis 1, 2
- Hooke's law 15
- Huygens, Christiaan 168
- hydrogen 23
- hydrostatic equilibrium 83
- Händel, Georg Friedrich 4
- ice skating 121
- inclined plane see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  sliding down frictionless ramp
- inertial reference frames see reference frame(s)  $\leftrightarrow$  inertial
- infinitesimally short 100, 102, 105
- infinity

- in easy-cases reasoning 108
- relativistic  $\gamma$  factor becoming 189
- instantaneous acceleration see acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  instantaneous
- instantaneous velocity see velocity  $\leftrightarrow$  instantaneous
- interaction 1, 4, see also freebody diagrams; Newton's third law
- internal forces
  - canceling in net force 125, 142, 148
  - in composite bodies 85, 125, 142
- internal stresses 160
- inverse-square law 23, 144
- Jaynes, Edwin T. x, 66
- Jones, George 2
- Kibble, Bob 119
- kissing circle 108, 113, see also radius of curvature
- kitchen-sink experiment 24
- Kubrick, Stanley 182
- Latin 6, 24, 25, 150
- law of sines 77
- Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm 92
- lever arm 180, 184
- lift 18, 19, 87
- limit, instantaneous acceleration as 100, 105
- linear scale 22
- logarithmic scale 22
- long-range forces 8
  - representing on freebody diagrams 31
- low-earth orbit 13, 27, 153, 154
- mantissa 10, 11
- Mars Climate Orbiter, crash of 10
- mass see also Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  three ideas of  $\leftrightarrow$  acceleration is inversely proportional to mass
  - inertial versus gravitational 117
- Maxwell's equations 188
  - gravitational analog of 190
- mind-projection fallacy see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  assuming what's never true  $\leftrightarrow$  mind projection
- mistakes essential to avoid
  - acceleration not aligned with net 50
  - acceleration not aligned with net force 70, 147
  - assuming what's never true
    - force causes velocity 48, 58, 59, 79, 97, 101, 107, 119, 136, 143, 147, 154
- mind projection 66, 83, 159
- one force in an interaction causes the other 2
- torque causes angular velocity 181
- assuming what's not always true
  - acceleration and velocity lie on same line 101, 107
  - $N = mg$  or  $mg \cos \theta$  139
  - tension  $T = mg$  85
  - thrust is supplied by engines 19
- confusing two distinct ideas
  - change in velocity | change in speed 97
  - distance to center | radius of curvature 108
  - everyday | physics meaning of acceleration 118
  - gravitational-force | spring-scale definition of weight 154
  - net force | physical force 122
  - Newton's third | second law 54, 72
  - speed | velocity 91, 97, 102, 103, 118
  - tension | force 70, 73, 76
  - vector | component 16
  - vector | magnitude 9, 140
  - velocity | acceleration 97, 110, 136, 143
  - weightlessness | zero gravity 154
- forgetting static friction on rolling wheel 63
- forgetting that turning means nonzero acceleration 48, 114
- invoking bogus forces see also centrifugal force; centripetal force
  - dynamic friction in pure rolling 126
  - from active agent 126
  - from engine 128, 148
  - of motion 35, 38, 58, 101, 107, 119, 122, 135, 147
- misinterpreting deceleration as  $a_x < 0$  118
- net force  $\neq$  sum of actual forces 51, 147
- placing both forces from one interaction on same freebody diagram 30
- sign errors 96, 97, 103
- moment of inertia 181, 184
- momentum 120, 186, 187, 188
- net external force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}^{\text{ext}}$ ) 142
- net force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}$ ) 49
  - causes acceleration 116, 119
  - changes quantity of motion 120
  - not a physical force 122
  - zero see also statics
    - geometric statement of 76
- newton (unit of force) 2, 50

- falling-apple mnemonic for 13
- in terms of meters, kilograms, seconds 11
- Newton, Isaac 4, 10, 13, 101, 130
- Newton's constant ( $G$ ) 9
- Newton's first law 39–46, 98, 191
- Newton's laws of motion see also composite bodies; Newton's first law; Newton's second law; Newton's second-and-a-half law; Newton's third law
  - as useful approximation 189
  - inconsistency with Maxwell's equations 188
  - order in this book ix
  - what comes after 173–192
  - X-ray vision provided by 159
- Newton's second law 47–52
  - alternative forms of 51–52
  - causal form of (preferred) 50
  - $\mathbf{F} = m\mathbf{a}$  form of 51
  - incorrect intuitions about see mistakes essential to avoid
  - merging intuitive and formal models of 59
  - momentum formulation of 186
  - phonetic rendition of 51
  - redirecting intuitive model of 119
  - three ideas of 47–51
    - acceleration is inversely proportional to mass 50–51
    - net* force is what matters 49
    - force changes motion 47–48, 90
    - symbolic representation of 51
  - types of analysis with
    - type C (calculating) 55, 117
    - type I and C (mixed) 64
    - type I (inferring) 55, 121, 146
  - with nonzero acceleration 116–172
  - with varying mass 120, 186–187
  - with zero acceleration see statics
- Newton's second-and-a-half law 143, 148, 156, 157, 172
- Newton's third law 1–27, see also counterpart force
  - action–reaction form of (dangerous) 1, 2, 4
  - conservation of momentum and 187
  - force pairs in 74
  - instantaneous nature of 187–188
  - interaction form of (preferred) 1, 3
  - strong form of 181
- noninertial reference frames see reference frame(s)  $\leftrightarrow$  noninertial
- nonzero acceleration see Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  with nonzero acceleration
- normal force 20
  - as portion of contact force 56
  - attractive 140
  - need not equal  $mg$  or  $mg \cos \theta$  139
  - negative 140
- on y va* (let's go) x
- orbiting see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  orbiting satellite; weight  $\leftrightarrow$  in orbit; weightlessness
- orbiting satellite 167
- oscillation see spring motion
- particle on semicircular track see examples  $\leftrightarrow$
  - particle moving on semicircular track
- pascal (unit of pressure) 80
- passive forces 7, 54
  - easy to overlook 8
  - point of application of 185
  - static friction as 21
  - strength adjustment of 8, 132–134
- Pearl, Judea 51
- pendulum 168, see also examples  $\leftrightarrow$  pendulum accelerometer; examples  $\leftrightarrow$  pendulum motion
- pendulum accelerometer 167
- permittivity of free space ( $\epsilon_0$ ) 23
- physical sense, checking for 107, 137, 145
- poison, choosing 150
- polar coordinates 102
- portion see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  portions of
- pound (unit) 155
- pressure 80–84
  - air 82
  - as pseudoscalar 81
  - at sea level 83
  - metric (SI) units 80
- pressure forces 61, 80
- pseudoscalars see scalars  $\leftrightarrow$  true versus pseudo-
- pseudovectors see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  true versus pseudo-
- pulleys, benefit of 85
- Pythagorean theorem 45, 62
- Pólya, George 135
- quantity of motion 119, 120, 147, 186, see also momentum
- questions in this book, three types of ix
  - end-of-chapter problem, first 26
  - leftward-pointing triangle (question from you), first use of 4
  - rightward-pointing triangle (question for you), first use of 2

- radians 105, 106, 176, 177, 184
 radius of curvature 108, 113, 114, 148 reaction force 3, 8
 reaction times, human 118
 reference frame(s) 39–41
   as a lattice 40, 46
   inertial 41
   local 190
   making new 44–46
   of steadily descending elevator 57
   of train car 40
 noninertial 43–44, 173–180
   of accelerating train 46
   of elevator in free gravitational motion 40, 190
   of rotating merry-go-round 41, 43
   of turning vehicle 44
   orbiting with the earth 41, 46
   rotating earth 174
   rotating frames as 25, 175–177
   skiing on a wedge 192
   of bicycle-wheel hub 63
   of earth 40, 46
 resultant force 49, see also net force ( $\mathbf{F}_{\text{net}}$ ) rockets 20, see also Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$
   with varying mass
   thrust on, origin of 186
 roller-coaster car 141, 160, 169 rolling motion
   pure (without slipping) 63, 126, 130
   with slipping 64
 rolling resistance 62
 rope (physics meaning) 70, 85
 rotation 72, 143
   describing 180
   explaining 180
 Roth, Joshua xi
 salt 14
 savagery 135
 savanna story 48, 59
 scalars 91, 103, 115
   true versus pseudo- 81, 180
 scientific revolution 191
 second law see Newton's second law second squared see acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  units of short-range forces 8
 Sigma ( $\Sigma$ ) see summation notation ( $\Sigma$ ) skidding 126, see also rolling motion  $\leftrightarrow$  with slipping skiing
   how to stand while 182–185
   on a wedge 158–160
   weight while 167
 skiing on a wedge 170
 sledding see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  sledding at constant velocity; drag  $\leftrightarrow$  on me sledding; dynamic friction  $\leftrightarrow$  on me sledding sliding friction see dynamic friction Sommerfeld, Arnold 168 sound speed 138
 special relativity 188
 speed
   average 94–95, 114, 117, 123
   confusion with velocity see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  confusing two distinct ideas  $\leftrightarrow$  speed|velocity of fast sprint 123
 spring constant 16, 155
   of a string 70
 spring forces 14–17
   tension forces as 70
 spring motion 133, 139
 spring scale 37, see also weight  $\leftrightarrow$  definition of  $\leftrightarrow$  as spring-scale reading (best) squared second see acceleration  $\leftrightarrow$  units of static friction 21–22, 126, see also passive forces
   as portion of contact force 56, 128, 129
   has oxymoronic name 22
   how it knows its direction 127
 statics 53–89, 136
 stopping distance 123, 124
 stopping time 122
Street-Fighting Mathematics 67
 strings see also tension; tension forces inextensible nature of 79
   no gravitational force on 72
   no net force on 72
   physics definition of 70
   spring constant of 70
 strong nuclear interaction 5
 summation notation ( $\sigma$ ) 49
 summation notation ( $\Sigma$ ) 49
 sun, mass of 10
 surface forces see contact forces swinging see examples  $\leftrightarrow$  swinging; weight  $\leftrightarrow$  while swinging symmetry 127, 128
 symmetry argument 79, 82, 111, 112

- Taylor, Edwin F. 188, 191
 tensile stress 87
 tension 70–80, 86, 172
 tension forces 70
   as spring forces 70
   direction of 73
 terminal speed 68
 Terry, Colin 2
 third law see Newton's third law thought experiments 42, 43, 64, 110
 three-stage on-paper calculations 10–12, 26 thrust 18, 19, 20, 87, 186
 tip-to-tail see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  adding tip-to-tip see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  subtracting toast, falling 118, 165
 topspin 182
 torque 72, 130, 143, 180–185
   causes rotation 181
   estimating 183
   external 181
   in two dimensions 180
   magnitude of 180
 triangle questions see questions in this book, three types of trigonometry
   for right triangles 67, 84, 132
   law of sines 77
 triple-equals sign ( $\equiv$ ) 19, 92
 tug-of-war 70–74, 85, 180
 twiddle ( $\sim$ ) 18
 two-dimensional motion 143–152
 type-C (calculating) analysis see Newton's
   second law  $\leftrightarrow$  types of analysis with  $\leftrightarrow$  type C (calculating) type-I (inferring) analysis see Newton's second law  $\leftrightarrow$  types of analysis with  $\leftrightarrow$  type I (inferring)
 uniform circular motion see circular motion  $\leftrightarrow$
   constant speed
 unit systems 2, 99, 155
 universal gravitation, law of 9, 23, 189
 vector difference see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  subtracting vector equation 131
 vector sum see vectors  $\leftrightarrow$  adding vectors
   adding 45, 49, 62, 66, 69, 76, 87, 131, 149, 162, 167
   boldface notation for 1
   components of 19
   distinguished from scalars 91
   portions of 19
   scalars related to 91, 97
   subtracting 103, 104, 105, 106
   true versus pseudo- 81, 180
 velocity 90–95
   average 92–93, 114
   confusing with speed see mistakes essential to avoid  $\leftrightarrow$  confusing two distinct ideas  $\leftrightarrow$
     speed|velocity
   constant see statics
   distinguishing from acceleration 97
   instantaneous 92–93
   irrelevance to Newton's laws of 57
   on freebody diagrams see freebody diagrams  $\leftrightarrow$  representing velocity on our intuitive part's fascination with 120
   relative 63, 126
   volume forces 8, see also body forces; long-range forces
 Warren, John William v. x, xi, 94, 145, 161
 water, density of 83
 weak nuclear interaction 5
 weight 152–165
   definition of
     as gravitational force (not good) 153
     as spring-scale reading (best) 153, 154
     mixed (worst) 154
   how felt 160–164
   in orbit 153–155
   in roller-coaster car 169, 170
   of ball while bouncing 170
   of food in elevator 171
   while skiing 158–160, 167, 169
   while swinging 156–158, 169
 weightlessness 153, 154, 165
 Wheeler, John Archibald 105, 188, 191
 zero acceleration see statics zero net force 76, see also statics