

Index

---

- Abaza, Mona, 145
 Abbo, Pieter, 185 accommodation
   on JCJL ships, 77
   for Mecca pilgrims
     on Kamaran quarantine island, 152–153 in Mecca and Jeddah, 160–161
     on ships, 50, 54
   on RL and SMN ships
     for first- and second-class passengers, 103 for nannies/baboes, 110 for stewards, 110
     for third- and fourth-class passengers, 123
Adolph von Beyer (ship), 188 Adriaanse, C., 163, 166 advertising
   by JCJL
     for Chinese customers, 76, 88
   by Kongsí Tiga, 57
 Ahmadiyya movement, 137
al-Ahram (newspaper), 145
 Aiichiro Fujiyama, 232
 Ā'ishiyah (women's section of Muhammadiyah), 63
Ajax (ship), 45
 Akita, Shigeru, 241
 Ali, Mohammed, 176
 Alimin, 258–259
 Alsagof, Syed Sagoff, 108
 American Express Company travel to colonial Indonesia organized by, 127
 Amoy (Xiamen)
   Dutch Consulate in efforts to solve Chinese boycott of JCJL by, 204
 Anderson, Benedikt, 40
Anking (ship), 72
 anticolonial activism, 17–20
   boycotts, 207
   British surveillance of, 143, 155
   Dutch surveillance of, 4–5, 20–22, 24, 28
   communism, 73, 168–170, 172–182, 257–259
   Japanese nationalism/expansionism, 210, 220–227, 241–245
   maritime, 4–5, 21–22, 25, 71, 182–194
   pan-Islamism/nationalism, 27, 138, 155
   in port cities, 27, 138–149, 170 maritime networks used for, 207–208, 255 anticolonial rhetoric in Xiao Case, 195–196
 anticolonial violence
   in colonial Indonesia, 138
 anti-Russian immigration measures
   in colonial Indonesia, 179–180
 anti-Western agitation at al-Azhar University (Cairo), 144 Arabs
   in colonial Indonesia
     leadership of communities of, 42 passengers on ships for Mecca pilgrimage transport and hierarchies on ships, 49, 52–53
   surveillance of, 39–50, 70
 archives of Dutch government, 25
   of Dutch shipping companies, 24
 ARD (General Investigation Service (Algemeene Recherche Dienst)), 20, 170 armed police escorts
   on ships, 80
 Asia
   economy of, 92
   Japan's political expansion in, 241 maritime networks in hotel brokers in, 92
   women in contested freedoms of, 195–196
 Asian culture
   Dutch perceptions of femininity of, 202
 Astrid (princess/queen of Belgium), 124 authenticity, staged, 130

- automobiles obligatory use of
 for travel to Mecca, 157
 Aydin, Cecil, 226
 Azharists
 Dutch suspicions of, 142–146, 148–149
- B&S (Butterfield & Swire, shipping company), 89, 93
 Baars, Mr., 258
 Balachandran, G., 85, 87
Al Balagh (journal), 225 Bali
 as tourist destination, 127, 129, 131–132
Bali Religion and Ceremonies (Bali Godsdienst en Ceremonien), 128 Ballantyne, Tony, 3
Baloeran (ship), 9, 111, 120–122
Bandoeng Maru (ship), 234 Bangka mines
 coolies employed at, 75
 Barnouw, A. J., 99
 bathing methods, traditional, 153
 Beauchamp, Lord, 121 benign exceptionalism of Dutch colonialism, 23, 254
 Bentley, Jerry, 3
 Berlin, 169
 Bickers, Robert, 96
 Bin Ali, Amat, 175–177
 Bin Amat, Amat, 174–175
 Bin Soleiman, Abdoellah, 159
Bintang Timur (Star of the East, newspaper), 222–223
- blacklisting of passengers
 on Europe-colonial Indonesia transport, 122
 black passengers discrimination against, 107
 Bloembergen, Marieke, 13
 Blue Funnel Line, 8, 250
 Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 35, 162
 boat trains, 9
 Boegis, Ali, 158 book printing
 in Cairo, 145
 booking agencies, 10
 Bose, Sugata, 7
 Bosma, Ulbe, 254 boundaries production and transgression of, 4
 Boven Digoel prison camp, 19, 187
 Boxer, Charles, 6 boycotts, Chinese, 203, 205
 anti-Japanese, 219
 of JCJL ships, 196–207
- branch offices of JCJL
 in China, 198
 European staff of, 93–97 in Kobe, 216
 non-European staff of, 85 relations with Head Office, 205–206
- Brickdal family, 107
 brokers/brokerage systems for Chinese passengers, 87–93
 Japanese
 JCJL's use of, 216 for Mecca pilgrimage travel, 45 power of, 47, 50
- Brooshooft, P., 13
 Bruning, P. L. F., 121
Buitenzorg (ship), 51
 Burak, L. H., 180
 Burak, Solomon, 180
 Burton, Antoinette, 3 business/businesses and politics
 in Dutch-Japanese trade negotiations, 229–231, 235
 Dutch, in colonial Indonesia/Indonesia, 248 nationalization and expropriation of, 249–251
- Cairo
 Indonesian students at al-Azhar University
 in, 148–149
 Dutch suspicions of, 142–146
- Campo, Joep (Joseph Norbert Frans Marie) à, 3, 10 captains of JCJL ships policing of anticommunist activism by, 183–184
- cartelization of Dutch shipping, 9, 12
- Carter, James, 202
 caste systems
 on Bali, 131
- Celebes
 as tourist destination, 129
- ensorship enforcement on ships of, 186
 in colonial Indonesia, 186
- Charles, Mrs., 118
 Chiang Kai-shek, 172
 Chief Hajjis (Kapala Hajji), on ships, 45, 48
- China
 communism in, 172
 Dutch foreign direct investments in, 87
 European perceptions of, 202
 Japanese military expansion in, 237

286 Index

- China (cont.)
 shipping to colonial Indonesia and Japan from, 26, 72–73
   coolie transport, 74–75
   Japanese competition, 215–219, 235
   non-coolie transport, 75–80 Chinese crewmembers on JCJL ships and Japanese military expansion in China, 238–239
 surveillance of, 183
 and Xiao Case, 198–200 Chinese diaspora/communities
 anticolonial sentiments by, 206 business activities of, 92 in colonial Indonesia, 12, 16, 90–91, see also coolies (contract laborers)
   deportations of people from, 191–194
   Japanese propaganda aimed at, 243
   JCIL's efforts to find favor with, 204
 Chinese language training
 European perceptions of, 96
 for staffmembers of shipping firms British firms, 94
   JCJL, 93–97
 Chinese Maritime Customs Service (CMCS), 185–186
 Chinese Overseas Association, 197
 JCJL's criticism of, 204
 Chinese passengers brokerage systems for, 87–93
 on JCJL ships, 97–98
   coolies, 72–75
   non-coolies, 75–80, 87–89
 racial prejudices against, 80
 Chinese shipping companies competition for JCJL of, 94–95 cholera protection against spread of and Mecca pilgrimage, 150–151 citizenship
 in colonial Indonesia, 15
City of Bremen (ship), 175 club, Chinese
 in colonial Indonesia, 90
 Colijn, H., 19
 Collins, G. E. P., 122
 colonial gaze
 of first- and second-class passengers, 113–114
 male heterosexual, 122
 colonial norms
 teaching on ships of, 117
 SMN and RL ships, 114–117, 132–133 transgression of on Europe-colonial Indonesia transport, 117–126
 colonial nostalgia
   British, 253
   Dutch, 252
 Comintern
 Dutch fears of, 180
 Shanghai as Far Eastern Bureau of, 179
 communism
 in China, 172
 in colonial Indonesia/Indonesia, 39, 178, 259, see also PKI (Partai Komunis Indonesia, Indonesian Communist Party)
   Dutch fears of, 21, 38, 172
   Dutch surveillance of, 27, 168–170, 172–187, 257–259
   Islamic communities, 138
   uprisings (1926–27), 141, 176 Russia as international center for the study
 of, 257–259
 compensation for nationalization of Dutch firms in Indonesia, 250
 competition for Dutch shipping firms, 201
 Chinese, 94–95
 Japanese, 27, 90, 209–220, 225, 228–236, 245 limitation of, 9, 11–12
   Mecca pilgrimage transport, 53–54, 56–71 complaints on female passenger behavior, 118–119 on Indonesian stewards, 111–113 on sexual misconduct
   by Dutch crewmembers, 194
   by male European passengers, 121 compradors on B&S ships, 89
 Chinese, 216
 on JCJL ships, 78, 92
 concubinage
 in colonial Indonesia, 122
 conference agreements
 of Dutch shipping firms, 9
 of European shipping firms, 53–54 of JCJL with Japanese shipping firms, 211 Consulates, Dutch
 in Amoy (Xiamen) efforts solve Chinese boycott of JCJL by, 204
 in Hong Kong and deportations of Chinese from colonial Indonesia to China, 193–194
 in Jeddah
   on destitution of returning Mecca
   pilgrims, 159–165
   surveillance activities by, 27, 46, 138–149, 167

- in Nanking
  - JCJL's pledges for, 203
- in Shanghai
  - and deportations of Chinese from colonial Indonesia to China, 192
  - on smuggling of arms, 190
  - surveillance of communist activism by, 27, 168, 171–182, 257–259
- consumerism
  - in colonial Indonesia, 213
- Coolie Ordinance (Koelie Ordonnantie, 1931), 76
- coolies (contract laborers), 72
  - China - colonial Indonesia transport of, 72–74
  - unrest among, 73–75
  - in colonial Indonesia, 73, 75–77
- costs
  - of Mecca pilgrimage, 156–158
- cotton trade, 215
- crewmembers
  - Chinese
    - on JCJL ships, 183, 198–200, 232, 238–239
    - suspected communist activism of, 183
  - Dutch
    - racial prejudices of, 80
    - sexual misconduct complaints against, 194
  - European
    - on JCJL ships, 85–87, 201
    - on SMN and RL ships, 108
    - racial prejudices of, 44
  - Indonesian/Javanese
    - on SMN and RL ships, 108–116
    - suspected communist activism of, 168, 173–178
  - non-Western
    - on JCJL ships, 81–85
  - racial exclusivity of, 81
- Crisis Import Ordinance (Crisisinvoerordonnantie, 1933), 214
- cruises
  - on KPM ships, 126–132
- CSU (Chinese Seamen's Union), 198–200
- Cultivation System, 166
- cultural flexibility of maritime actors, 4
- customs officials
  - inspections of ships by, 190
  - and anticommunist surveillance activities, 185
- Dahlan, Ahmed, 63
- daily routines
  - for Europeans on ships, 105
- Dao (Chinese Vice-Consul in Surabaya), 194, 196
- Darsono, 258
- Deabrist* (ship), 189
- “Dealing With Chinese Asians and Other Asians” (JCJL directive), 200–201
- debts
  - of Mecca pilgrims, 158
- decolonization
  - of Dutch imperial history, 23, 255–256
  - of Indonesia
    - Dutch attitudes towards, 247
    - economic, 249
    - impact of, 251
  - “decolonization trauma” of Netherlands, 251
- Dempo* (ship), 9, 106, 117–118, 121
- Dengah, 258
- deportations of subversive people from colonial Indonesia
  - on JCJL ships, 191–194
- destitution of Mecca pilgrims and Dutch authorities, 155–166
- diasporas, Chinese
  - in colonial Indonesia, 90
- Dick, Howard, 244
- Dik, Kornelis Egbert, 185
- diplomacy/diplomatic relations
  - Dutch-Chinese
    - to solve Chinese boycott of JCJL, 200
  - Dutch-Indonesian, 248
  - Dutch-Japanese, 220
- disciplining
  - of European women passengers, 119–120
- disruptions on ships
  - Mecca pilgrimage ships, 45
- Djakarta Lloyd, 250
- Djamboe, Tengkoek, 148
- Djoehdar, Mohammed Noer, 158
- DOAZ (Dienst der Oost-Aziatische Zaken, Service for East Asian Affairs)
  - on NKKK, 236
  - surveillance activities by, 220, 242
  - in colonial Indonesia, 241–244
  - in Japan, 223–226
- domestic services
  - in colonial Indonesia, 110
- dress codes on ships
  - for Europeans traveling to colonial Indonesia, 105, 117
- Dutch colonial authorities
  - ensorship by, 186
  - civilizing mission of, 13–16
  - government support for Dutch shipping companies by, 10–11, 216–220, 234
  - Indonesian participation in, 18

288 Index

- Dutch colonial authorities (cont.)
 Mecca pilgrimage mistrusted by, 32–33 suppression of rebellions by, 19 surveillance by, see surveillance of
 anticolonial activism
 trade negotiations with Japan, 227–237
- Dutch colonial empire, see also imperialism:
 Dutch
 expansionism of, 13
 in twentieth century scholarship on, 22–24
 transoceanic perspectives of, 1, 3
- Dutch language use in colonial Indonesia, 17
- Dutch-Indonesian Union Treaty and Agreement on Financial and Economic Cooperation (1949), 247
- Dyke, John C. van, 99
- earnings, see also profits of Kongsu Tiga on Mecca pilgrimage transport, 35, 165
- economic expansion of Japan
 in colonial Indonesia, 210, 212
- economic interdependence between Japanese and European firms, 235
- “Economic Self-Reliance in the Netherlands East Indies” (lecture, Hatta), 221
- economy
 intra-Asian, 92
- education
 in colonial Indonesia, 16–17
 of Hadrami Arabs, 42 indigenous criticism of, 63, 146 missionary, 83
 of colonists
 on SMN and RL ships, 114–117
- Egypt pan-Islamism in on Islam in Japan, 224
- Egyptian Gazette* (newspaper), 225
- elites in colonial Indonesia
 Balinese, 131
 European, 102
- Elout, C. K., 122
- embarkation procedures for Chinese passenger transport, 78
 for Mecca pilgrimage transport, 60–61
- English language competence of Javanese stewards, 83
- entertainment
 on RL and SMN ships “performances” by locals, 114–116 viewing of lower class passengers by first and second class passengers, 112–114
- epidemics of infectious diseases Dutch concerns about and the Mecca pilgrimage, 150–152 responsibilities for, 153
- espionage
 British
 on arms smuggling in Southeast Asia, 189
 on Kamaran island, 154
- Ethical Policy, 13–16, 23, 122
- Dutch opposition to, 18
- Europe-colonial Indonesia passenger transport, 99, 132
 colonial learning, 112–117
 first and second classes, 103, 105–108
 Javanese crewmembers, 108–116
 third and fourth classes, 104
 transgression of colonial norms, 117–126
- Europeans
 crewmembers
 on JCJL ships, 85–87
 office staff
 of JCJL, 86, 93–97
 passengers to and from colonial Indonesia, 99–102, 132–133
 colonial lessons for, 116
 daily routines and leisure activities, 105
 dress codes for, 117
 freedom experienced by women, 118–121
 instructions for, 102–103 self-perceptions of, 129
- Excessemota*, 253–254
- excursions for cruise passengers, 128–129
- exoticism importance in tourist experience of, 130
- exports of colonial Indonesia, 212
 of Japan
 to colonial Indonesia, 212
- expropriation
 of Dutch businesses in Indonesia, 249–251
- Far Eastern Freight Conference (FEFC), 211
- fares for Mecca pilgrimage transport of Japanese shipping firms, 225 reductions for return journeys, 164–165
- Farrington, F. J., 122
- al-Fath* (newspaper), 145–146
- femininity interwar, 118
 of Asian culture
 Dutch perceptions of, 202
- first-class passengers
 Chinese, 79–81
 daily routines and leisure activities, 105–106

- facilities for, 103
  - non-Europeans, 106–108
- Fock, Dick, 171, 189
- food rations for steerage passengers
  - on China transport ships, 78
  - on pilgrimage ships, 55–56
- Foucault, Michel, 2
- fourth class passengers
  - facilities for, 104
  - viewing by first and second class passengers of, 112–114
- freedom
  - of Asian women, 195–196
  - of European women passengers, 118–121
- Furlough, Ellen, 129
- Gaus, Mahjuddin, 223
- Geertz, Clifford, 142
- Gelar Soeis Soetann Pengeran, Mr. and Mrs., 51
- gendered rhetoric
  - on Asians
    - by JCJL Head Office, 202
    - on Dutch imperialism, 196
- Gerke, P. J., 234
- Gilroy, Paul, 4
- Giok Yong Kong Hwee (Chinese club), 90
- globalization, 3
- Gobée, Emile, 68–70
- Gold Coast
  - Dutch withdrawal from, 13
- Governor General of colonial Indonesia
  - powers of, 186
- Graeff, A. C. D. de, 184, 187
- Great Britain
  - arms embargo against Japan by, 191
  - espionage by
    - on arms smuggling in Southeast Asia, 189
    - on Kamaran island, 154
  - surveillance by
    - of Cairo students, 143
    - of Mecca pilgrims in Kamaran, 155
  - trade negotiations with Japan, 238, 241
- Great Depression (1930s), 213, 244
  - in colonial Indonesia, 213
- Greater East Asia Coprosperity Sphere, 227
- guidebooks
  - for European travelers to colonial Indonesia, 102–103
- Guomindang (GMD, Chinese Nationalist Party)
  - and Chinese boycott of JCJL, 203
  - in Shanghai, 171
  - shipping rights program of, 95
- Hadrami Arabs
  - travel between colonial Indonesia and Mecca
    - by, 40–45
    - and hierarchies on ships, 52–53
  - surveillance of, 70
- hajiphobia, 33
- hajj, see pilgrimage to Mecca
- hajjis, 35
  - in colonial Indonesia
    - Dutch suspicions of, 142, 149
  - networks of
    - information spread through, 147
- al-Halaby, Mustafa Baby, 145
- Hammond, Kelly, 227
- Handa Jisaburō, 209–210
- Harahap, Parada, 222
- Harper, Tim, 253
- Harris, Walter B., 123
- Harukazu Nagaoka, 228, 230
- hate-sowing laws (haatzaai artikelen), 186
- Hatta, Mohammad, 221
- Head Offices of JCJL, 85–87, 209
  - on Chinese boycott, 200–206
  - on fears of Chinese crewmembers for
    - Japanese aggression, 238–239
  - on Japanese competition, 216
  - relations with branch offices, 205–206
- Headrick, Daniel, 6
- hierarchies
  - on ships
    - British, 85
    - of JCIL, 81
    - of Kongsì Tiga, 50–54, 61
  - racial
    - in colonial Indonesia, 87
- Highland Bank* (ship), 175
- historiography
  - of colonial Indonesia, 254
- Ho Sit Kioen, 192
- Hokchia, 90
- Hoken (Norwegian seaman), 173
- Hong Kong
  - Dutch Consulate in
    - on deportations of Chinese from colonial Indonesia, 193–194
  - importance as port city/hub of
    - for JCJL, 76
  - JCJL branch office in
    - on fears of Chinese crewmembers in Japan, 238
- Horst, Otto, 159
- hotel brokers, Chinese
  - JCJL attempts at elimination of, 87–93
- Hueting, Joop, 253
- Husson, Laurence, 45

290 Index

- Ibn Saud (king of Saudi Arabia), 157
 Ibrahim (Hajji), 158
 Ibrahim II (sultan of Johor), 119 identities fluidity on sea of, 117, 125 transformation of and maritime networks, 3
 imagined communities, 40 immigration documents
   of colonial Indonesia, 156
 immigration restrictions
   in colonial Indonesia
     anti-Japanese, 221
     anti-Russian, 179–180
 imperialism
   Dutch, 12–17
     concerns over projected image of, 4, 81, 87, 97, 154, 166 concerns over threats to survival of, 167 cooperation with British imperialism, 155 destabilization of, 208 end of, 246–256
     gendered rhetoric on, 195 instructions of European passengers on rules of, 103
     twentieth century, 22–24, 255 European/Western
     Japan's opposition to, 227 Muslim struggles against, 147 role of shipping in, 6
   and maritime networks, 1
 import restrictions for Japanese products by British colonial government, 215 by Dutch colonial government, 213, 220, 236 imports
   Japanese
     of cotton, 215
   of colonial Indonesia, 212
   Japanese products, 212, 232 imprisonment of destitute Mecca pilgrims, 158 independence of Indonesia
   Dutch recognition of, 247 operations of Dutch shipping companies after, 248
 India trade negotiations with Japan, 228
 indigenous male sexuality
   colonial fears of, 120–121
Indische Nederlanders, 253
Indische Sociaal-Democratische Vereeniging, 18
 Indo-Europeans
   JCJL staff
     racial prejudices against, 86
   passengers, 106–107
 Indonesia, 2
   independence of Dutch recognition of, 247
     operations of Dutch shipping companies
       after, 248
   nationalization of Dutch businesses in, 249–251
   war crimes committed by Dutch armed forces in, 253–254 Indonesians
   crewmembers
     on JCJL ships, 81–85
   Dutch stereotyping of, 85 governmental participation by, 18
   in Japan
     Dutch surveillance of, 221–224
Indonesische overpeinzigen (Sjahrir), 246
Indrapoera (ship), 111
 Ingelson, John, 74 inspections of ships
   by customs officials and anti-communist surveillance activities, 185 interdependence of Japan and Great Britain, 241 inter-island shipping routes of Indonesia operation of, 250 intermarriage of Indonesian women with Dutch men, 107, 122 with Hadrami Arabs, 41
 International Agencies Ltd. (Jeddah), 163, 166 International Sanitary Convention (1926), 36, 55, 154 internationalism of anti-colonial groups, 21 Internet activism through, 256
 Iscandar, Hoesein, 144
 Ishihara Hiroichirō, 210–213, 222–223, 230–234, 236–237
 ISK (Ishihara Sangyo Kaiun Kaisha), 210 Islam
   in colonial Indonesia, 41
   in Japan/Japan's use of, 225
   DOAZ on, 225
 Islamic learning
   in colonial Indonesia
     radical, 137
 isolationism
   Japanese, 241
 JanMohamed, Abdul, 113
 Japan
   British arms embargo against, 191

- economic and nationalist activities in colonial Indonesia by, 209–210, 212
 Dutch surveillance of, 220–227
 industrialization in, 212 military expansion of, 244
 in China, 237
 in colonial Indonesia, 245–246
 political expansion in Asia of, 241 propaganda from anti-imperialist, 227
 Indonesian exposure to, 226
 shipping industry/shipping firms from competing with JCJL, 27, 90, 209–220 protectionism of, 236 trade negotiations with Great Britain, 238, 241 trade negotiations with Netherlands, 210, 227–237, 245
 Japanese Law (Jappanerwet, 1899), 15 Japanese residents
 in colonial Indonesia, 15, 221, 241, 244
 Japan-Netherlands Trade Agreement (1912), 214
 Jardine Matheson & Co. Ltd., 239
Java bode (newspaper), 223
Java Nippo (Java Daily, later Tohindo Nippo) (journal), 226
 Java community (Indonesians in Mecca), 139 books in Cairo printed by, 145
 Dutch surveillance of, 139–142
 economic difficulties of, 163
 JBL (Java Bengalen Lijn), 8 JCJL (Java-China-Japan Lijn, Java-China-Japan Line), 1, 8–10, 26 boycott of Chinese against, 196–207 branch offices of, see branch offices of JCJL Chinese passenger transport by, 97–98 attempts to eliminate hotel brokers, 87–93
 coolies, 72–75
 non-coolies, 75–80, 87–89
 competition faced by Chinese, 94–95
 Japanese, 90, 209–220, 228–236, 245
 conference agreement with NKKK, 237, 239
 crewmembers
 Chinese, 238–239
 non-Western, 81–85
 deportations of subversive people from colonial Indonesia by, 191–194
 government loans received by, 11 head offices of, see Head Offices of JCJL maritime historical studies of, 3 merger with KPM, 248 routes of Hong Kong/Mentok - Bangka, 74–75 surveillance activities by, 27, 182–187, 207
- Jeddah
 Dutch Consulate in
 on destitution of returning Mecca
 pilgrims, 159–165
 surveillance of pilgrims by, 27, 46, 138–149, 167
 Joesoef, Mr., 249, 259
 Johan Johor (trading company), 221
Johan van Oldenbarnevelt (ship), 180
 Jong, Lou de, 254
 Jonge, B. C. de, 164, 234, 246 journalists, Indonesian visits to Japan by, 222–223
- Kahar, Abdul (alias Dalhar), 148
 Kamaran quarantine station, 61, 149–155
 surveillance activities at, 155
 Kamu (seaman/communist informant), 178–179, 257–259
 Kastelein, Mrs., 120
 Katsujiro Kizaki, 209
Kina (ship), 177
 Knight, G. Roger, 213
Kobe shinbun (newspaper), 223
 Koki Hirota, 232
 Kongsu Tiga (Trio Line), 1–2, 8, 26
 Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 31–36, 40
 accommodations for, 50–54 competition from other companies, 62–70, 225
 earnings, 35, 165
 and hierarchies on ships, 51–53, 61
 monopoly over, 36, 70 numbers, 35
 return journeys, 159–166
 sanitary regulations, 154
 steerage passengers, 54–62
 surveillance activities by, 33, 39–50
 of Arab passengers, 39–50, 70
- Korang Adat*, 43
Kota Agoeng (ship), 119–120
Kota Nopan (ship), 65, 165
 KPM (Koninklijke Paketvaart Maatschappij, Royal Packet Navigation Company), 2, 8–10
 local competition of, 12 maritime historical studies of, 3
 merger with JCJL, 248 passenger transport by, 99, 122–123 first-class travel by non, 107–108 pleasure cruises, 126–132
 Kurusu Saburō, 228
 KUTV (Kommunisticheskiĭ universitet trudiashchikhhsia Vostoka, Communist University for Toilers of the Far East, Moscow), 178
 Kwa, Dr., 259

292 Index

- labor actions, 206
 Lallajee and Company, 52
 Lamb, Nicole, 75
 language use
   in colonial Indonesia, 17
 Le Clair, John C., 243 leadership of Arab communities in colonial Indonesia, 42 Lebert, W. H., 199–200 legislation
   in colonial Indonesia
     censorship, 186
     coolie labor regulations, 76 Pilgrims Ordinance, 36–37, 54, 60, 66, 68
   in Japan
     maritime, 236
 Leiden University
   Chinese language training provided by, 93 leisure activities for European passengers to colonial Indonesia, 106 for third-class passengers, 123
 Leopold (crown prince/king of Belgium), 124
 Levine, E., 257
 Lewis, Su Lin, 195
 licensing of Mecca pilgrimage transport, 67
 Lijphart, Arend, 251
 Lim Khe-dok (alias Lim Kek-dok), 179 liminal personae, 125
 Lindblad, J. Thomas, 249 literature, anticolonial/subversive
   in colonial Indonesia, 148
   in Middle East, 147
   Dutch surveillance of, 145
   on ships, 186–187
 loans, governmental to Dutch shipping firms, 11
 Locher-Scholten, Elsbeth, 117
 Lovink, A. H. J. (Tony), 220 luxury on KPM cruise ships, 127

 MacCannell, Dean, 130
 Maier, Hendrik M. J., 186
 Malaka, Tan, 169, 258
 Malaysia conflict with Indonesia, 250 male passengers
   European
     sexual improprieties by, 121–122
 Mankupradja, Gatot, 222

 Mansvelt, W. M. F., 187 maritime communities
   in Shanghai, 177
 maritime history, 1, 3 of Netherlands, 3, 6–12 ships in, 2
   transoceanic, 24
 maritime networks anticolonial activism through, 170, 207–208, 255
     Communism, 179
   Asian
     hotel brokers in, 92
   global, 1 colonial Indonesia, 2
   hajj
     Dutch policing and surveillance of, 32 and identity formation, 3 of surveillance, 184 study of, 24, 28 maritime travel duration of, 9
   improvement of, 7
Marnix van Sint Aldegonde (ship), 9, 124
 May, Andrew, 117
 McVey, Ruth, 179
 Mecca, see also pilgrimage to Mecca hajji communities in, 139
   Indonesian community in, 139
   Dutch surveillance of, 139–142
 Meijer, Hans, 254
Melampus (ship), 32, 36
 memorialization of World War II
   in Netherlands
     marginalization of warfare in the Pacific in, 251 Middle East
   Dutch surveillance in of anticolonial literature, 147
     of hajjis, 138
 middle classes
   in colonial Indonesia
     expatriate, 101
 migration of Europeans
     to colonial Indonesia, 100–102
   of Indonesians
     to Netherlands, 252
 military expansion of Japan, 227, 244
   in China, 237
   and Chinese crewmembers on JCJL ships, 238–239
   in colonial Indonesia, 211, 246
   Dutch views of, 245

- military interventions of Dutch in colonial Indonesia, 247 war crimes committed in, 253–254 Miller, Anna, 259
 Minihasa people conversion to Christianity of, 83 mobility, transoceanic of anticolonial activists, 169
 of colonial subjects, 167
 effects of, 4, 100
 Mobini-Kesheh, Natalie, 42
 “A Modern Flapper” (article), 195 modernity imperial quest for, 14 monopolies of Kongsi Tiga for Mecca pilgrimage transport, 36, 62, 66–68, 70
 Moon, Suzanne, 15
 Morris-Suzuki, Tessa, 227 mortality rates on ships
 for Mecca pilgrimage transport, 58
 Moscow
 international communist network in, 178
 Mrázek, Rudolf, 15
 Muhammadiyah, 62 attempts to organize Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 62–71
 women’s section of, 63 munitions illicit presence on ships of and explosions in harbors, 188 Muslim relief committees on Java help for destitute Mecca pilgrims by, 164 Muslims
 Indonesian
 at Dutch Consulate in Jeddah, 140
 Dutch concerns over, 137–138
 in Japan, 226
 mutinies, 208
Myrmedon (ship), 165

Nagasaki Maru (ship), 218 Nahdlatul Ulama group, 162, 164 names of ships and businesses, 2
 Nanking JCJL’s pledges for a Dutch Consulate in, 203
 nannies
 on Europe-colonial Indonesia transport
 European, 120
 Indonesian, 108, 121
Nanyang Monthly (journal), 187

 Nanyo Warehousing Company (Nanyo Veem), 209–210
 Nanyo Yusen Kaisha, 231
 Naoto Kagotani, 232, 241
 Naoto Kawatani, 237
 Nashi’at al-Āishiyah, 63
 Nata, Prawira di, 143 nationalism
 in China
 and opposition to foreign shipping lines, 95 Indonesian, 17–21
 and Hadrami Arabs, 42 and Muslim effort to transport Mecca
 pilgrims, 63–65
 and pan-Islamism, 146
 Japanese influences on, 221, 226, 229–231
 in Japan, 209
 in business policies, 214
 in Netherlands, 13
 nationalization
 of Dutch businesses in Indonesia, 249–251
 Nederlandsch-Indische Scheepvaart
 Organisatie, 248
 Nederlandsche Handel-Maatschappij (NHM), 11
 Netherlands
 colonial empire of, see Dutch colonial authorities, see Dutch colonial empire foreign direct investments in China, 87 imperialism of, see imperialism:Dutch Indonesians in, 252 maritime history of, 6–12
 memorialization of World War II in marginalization of warfare in the Pacific
 in, 251
 national self-image in and colonial past, 255
 trade negotiations with Japan, 210, 227–237, 245 networks, see also maritime networks anti-colonial
 Japanese, 244
 communist, 178
 of hajjis
 information spread through, 147
 transoceanic, 167, 255
 New Guinea dispute between Netherlands and Indonesia over, 249, 251
 Nichting, B., 121
Nieuw Holland (ship), 180
 NISM (Nederlandsch-Indische Stoomvaart Maatschappij), 8

294 Index

- NKKK (Nanyo Kaiun K.K., South Seas Shipping Company), 232–235, 245 conference agreement with JCJL, 237, 239 establishment of, 233
 and Japanese military expansion in China, 239
- non-European ships travel by Mecca pilgrims on, 155
- non-Europeans
 JCJL office staffmembers, 85 objectification of, 113–114
- passengers
 in first and second classes, 106–108
- NSMO (Nederlandsche Stoomvaart Maatschappij Oceaan, Netherlands Steamship Company Ocean), 8–10
 Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 31–32, 58
 and hierarchies on ships, 51–52
 preference of pilgrims for, 56–62
- NYK (Nippon Yusen Kaisha), 211, 215, 230–231, 233
- objectification of non-Europeans, 113–114
- oligarchies
 of Dutch shipping companies, 10
- Op ten Noort, L. P. D., 10
- Oranje* (ship), 110
- OSK (Osaka Shosen Kaisha, Osaka Mercantile Marine Co.), 90, 199, 211, 230–231
- OTB (Official Tourist Bureau), 126
- othering
 of colonial subjects, 21
- otherness
 ships as places of, 2
- Oudekerk* (ship), 189, 191
- Oudendijk, J. W., 200, 204
- Pacific
 World War II in Dutch marginalization in memorialization of, 251
- Palesang, Daeng, 158
- Pan-Asian Conference (Tokio, 1933), 222
- pan-Asianism
 in colonial Indonesia, 222–223
 in Japan/Japan's promotion of, 221, 226–227
 and pan-Islamism, 224–225
- pan-Islamism
 in colonial Indonesia
 and communism, 39
 Dutch fears of, 21, 142, 146
 Dutch surveillance of, 27, 138
- European fears of, 39 and pan-Asianism, 224–225
- passenger services
 on JCJL ships, 77
 on Mecca pilgrimage ships, 54–62
- passengers
 Arab
 and hierarchies on ships, 49, 52–53
 numbers of, 48
 surveillance of, 39–50, 70
 blacklisting of, 122
 Chinese, 97–98
 brokerage systems for, 87–93
 coolies, 72–75
 non-coolies, 75–80, 87–89
 racial prejudices against, 80
 European, 132–133
 colonial lessons for, 116
 dress codes for, 117
 freedom experienced by women, 118–121 information on
 for Mecca pilgrimage transport, 37
 non-European in first and second classes of SMN and RL ships, 106–108
- pauperism, 166
- Pax Neerlandica*, 11
- Penoeloeng Hadji* (ships), 63–70
- performances, native for cruise passengers onshore, 129–132
- Perhimpunan Indonesia (Indonesian Union), 184, 224
- Pertja Selaten* (journal), 49
- pesantren* (Muslim village schools), 142
- Pewarte Deli* (Deli Herald, journal), 49
- Picard, Michel, 129
- PID (Politieke Inlichtingendienst, Political Information Service), 20
- Pieter Corneliszoon Hooft* (ship), 110
- Pijper, Dr., 165
- pilgrimage to Mecca countries of origin, 151 destitution of pilgrims and Dutch authorities, 155–166 mistrust of Dutch colonial authorities of, 33 numbers from colonial Indonesia, 33–35, 38, 45, 58, 70 quarantine regulations, 149–155 shipping of passengers from colonial Indonesia for, 8, 26, 31–38 and communist threats, 38 competition between shipping companies, 53–54

- and hierarchies on ships, 51–53
- Japanese shipping, 225–226
- Muslim attempts at management of, 62–70
- passenger lists, 37
- return journeys, 159–164
- sanitary regulations, 36, 54, 154
- Singapore ships, 54, 56
- steerage passengers' comfort on board, 54–62
- surveillance and policing of, 27, 166–167
  - in Jeddah, 138–149
  - Kamaran quarantine station, 155
  - on ships, 32, 39–50, 138
- Pilgrims Ordinance (Pilgrims Ordonnantie, 1922), 36–37, 54, 60
  - Kongsi Tiga monopoly for transport of pilgrims in, 66
  - possible by-passing of, 68
  - regulations on sanitary facilities in, 54
- piracy
  - in Southeast Asia, 72
- PKI (Partai Komunis Indonesia, Indonesian Communist Party), 18–19, 39, 182
  - outlawing of, 19
- Plancius* (ship), 114
- police forces of Shanghai
  - information sharing with Dutch authorities by, 170–172, 179
- Police Political Surveys (ARD), 20–21
- policing on ships
  - armed police escorts, 73
  - by captains of JCJL, 183–184
- political expansion/penetration of Japan
  - in Asia, 241
  - in colonial Indonesia, 210, 244
  - Dutch views of, 242, 245
- Political Information Service (Politieke Inlichtingendienst), 170
- politics
  - and business
    - in Dutch-Japanese trade negotiations, 229–231, 235
  - transoceanic
    - destabilization of Dutch imperialism by, 208
- port cities
  - Dutch surveillance of anticolonial activism in, 27, 138–149, 170
  - hotel brokers in, 91
- Post, Peter, 91
- postal services
  - payments for, 10
- poverty
  - of returning Mecca pilgrims, 165–166
- power
  - of Governor General of colonial Indonesia, 186
  - of pilgrim brokers, 47, 50
  - tourism as a relationship of, 131
- printing industry
  - in Cairo, 145
- profits, see also earnings
  - of Dutch shipping firms
    - on passenger transport, 8, 10
- promotion brochures
  - on colonial Indonesia as tourist destination, 127, 129–131
  - of shipping companies
    - RL and SMN, 108, 110, 113, 121
- propaganda
  - communist
    - Dutch fears of, 186
  - Dutch
    - to dissuade Indonesians from study in Cairo, 148–149
    - on necessity of maintaining colonial Indonesia as colony, 247
  - Japanese
    - anti-imperialist, 227
    - Indonesian exposure to, 226, 242–244
- protectionism
  - in Dutch-Japanese trade relations, 236, 245
- quarantine requirements/stations
  - for Mecca pilgrimage, 61, 149–155
- Raben, Remco, 13, 254
- race/racial categorization
  - in colonial Indonesia, 14, 87, 107
  - of passengers on ships
    - in first and second classes, 81
    - in third class, 105
  - transgressions of, 122–124
- racial prejudices
  - of Dutch crewmembers
    - on Chinese, 80
    - on Hadrami Arabs, 44
  - of Dutch office staff
    - on Indo-Europeans, 86
- radio propaganda, Japanese
  - aimed at colonial Indonesia, 244
- Radygin, Gregore, 180
- Raemaekers, Louis, 181
- Rais, Ayub, 221
- Ratu Joyoboyo (king of Java), 243
- reading gardens, 16
- rebellions in colonial Indonesia
  - anticolonial, 138
  - communist, 17–20, 141, 176

296 Index

- recruitment
  - of coolie labor, 77
- regions
  - maritime historical analysis of, 3
- Reid, Anthony, 107, 139
- reisbaboes* (travel nannies)
  - on RL and SMN ships, 108, 121
- repatriation of destitute Mecca pilgrims
  - Dutch government assistance for, 164–166
  - requests for, 163–164
- Richard, Mr., 121
- RL (Rotterdamsche Lloyd NV, Rotterdam Lloyd Limited), 2, 7–10, 27
  - Europe-colonial Indonesia passenger transport by, 99, 132
  - colonial learning, 112–117
  - first and second classes, 103, 105–108
  - Javanese crewmembers, 108–116
  - third and fourth classes, 104
  - transgression of colonial norms, 117–126
- Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 58
  - and hierarchies on ships, 52
  - competition with other Dutch shipping companies, 56–59
- Roff, William, 143
- Rondo* (ship), 123
- Roosegaard Bisschop, P.J., 85
- Round Table Agreement (Netherlands-Indonesia, 1949), 247
- rubber production
  - in colonial Indonesia, 212
- rumors
  - Japanese agents accused of spreading of, 242
  - on ships
    - on Chinese communist activities, 197
    - on Japanese competition, 232
- Russia
  - communist literature from
    - on ships, 186
  - communist studies in, 179, 257–259
  - connections with Shanghai, 179
- Russians
  - in colonial Indonesia, 182
- Saburō Kusuru, 234
- Saiman (Sumatran crewmember), 173–174
- Sakkap, Heda, 108
- Salamoen, Mas, 137, 162
- Saleh, Baharuddin, 174
- Sandberg, C.G.S., 246
- Sandkuyl, Mrs., 120
- sanitary facilities
  - for Mecca pilgrims from colonial Indonesia Pilgrims Ordinance on, 54
- sanitary regulations
  - on ships for Mecca pilgrimage transport
    - for Mecca pilgrimage transports, 36, 154
- Sarekat Indonesia (Indonesia League), 223–224
- Sarekat Islam, 17
- Sarikat Boeroek Laoet (Communist Seamen's Union), 176
- Saudi Arabia
  - destitute pilgrims in
    - enslavement of, 158
    - imprisonment of, 158
  - regulations on Mecca pilgrimage in, 157
- Saut El Hijaz* (Voice of the Hijaz, newspaper), 225
- sayyids, 42
- Schattenburg, T. P., 72
- Scheepvaarthuis (Amsterdam), 9
- Schulte Nordholt, Henk, 131, 248
- seamen, see crewmembers
- second-class passengers
  - daily routines and leisure activities, 105–106
  - facilities for, 103
  - non-European, 106–108
- security
  - sense of
    - of tourist destinations in colonial Indonesia, 130
  - on ships, 73
- segregation, racial
  - in colonial Indonesia, 40, 102
  - on Dutch ships
    - of JCJL, 80–81
    - of Kongsi Tiga, 40, 44
    - of SMN and RL, 27, 105
- Semaun/Semaoen (Indonesian communist and nationalist), 18, 178, 257–259
- Seruan Azhar* (journal), 147
- servants, domestic
  - in colonial Indonesia, 110
- service levels
  - on JCJL ships
    - of native stewards, 84
  - on SMN and RL ships
    - in first and second classes, 103
    - in third and fourth classes, 104
- sexual misconduct
  - by Dutch/European crewmembers, 194, 206
  - by European male passengers, 121–122
- sexuality
  - indigenous male
    - colonial fears of, 120–121
- Shanghai
  - communist activists seeking refuge in, 171
  - deportations of Chinese from colonial Indonesia to, 192–193
  - Dutch Consulate in
    - on smuggling of arms, 190
    - surveillance of communist activism by, 27, 168, 171–182, 257–259

- JCJL branch office in, 96
 police forces/local authorities in information sharing with Dutch authorities by, 170–172, 179–180 Support Committee of the Xiao Case in, 197–198
- shaykhs, 42
   in Hedjaz, 46
   on Mecca pilgrimage ships, 45–50
- Shelley (British captain), 184
- Shimada glass factory, 209
- Shimizu, Hiroshi, 3
- Shingle, Miss, 118
- shipping agencies, 10
- shipping conferences, see also conference agreements
   European
     Japanese participation in, 211 Shipping House (Scheepvaarthus, Amsterdam), 9
- shipping industry/shipping firms, British competition for Dutch shipping firms, 250
- shipping industry/shipping firms, Chinese operations in colonial Indonesia, 12
- shipping industry/shipping firms, Dutch, 1, 6–12, see also competition for Dutch shipping firms archives of, 24
 cartelization of, 10, 12
 China/Japan-colonial Indonesia, see also JCJL (Java-China-Japan Lijn, Java-China-Japan Line)
 China/Japan-colonial Indonesia transport by, 26, 72–73
 consolidation of, 248, 250
 Dutch imperialism image projected by, 81,
 87, 97
 Europe-colonial Indonesia transport by, 26,
see also RL (Rotterdamsche Lloyd NV, Rotterdam Lloyd Limited), see also SMN (Stoomvaart Maatschappij
 Nederland, Netherlands Steamship Company) government support for, 10–11, 216–220, 234 historical works on, 25 and Indonesian nationalization policies, 250
 maritime historical studies of, 3
 Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 34–38,
see also Kongsji Tiga (Trio Line) operations in interwar period, 22 operations post Indonesian independence, 248 profitability of passenger transport for, 8, 10 surveillance of anticolonial activism by, 4–5, 25, 182–194, 208
- shipping industry/shipping firms, Japanese, 211, 236
 competition with JCJL, 27, 90, 209–220
 Japanese protectionism in, 236
- Shipping Routes Control Law (Koro Tosei Ho, 1936), 236
- ships
 anticolonial activism on, 24, 28
 Dutch fears of, 21
 British
   hierarchies on, 85
 Dutch
   colonial society on, 4
   hierarchies on, 50–54, 61, 81, 87
   passenger liners, 100 sanitary regulations on, 36
 non-European for Mecca pilgrimage transport, 54, 56, 155
- Shiraishi, Takashi, 19
- Sibajak* (ship), 121
- Silver-Java-Pacific Lijn, 22
- Simla Rules (1931), 40
- Sinar Selatan* (Star of the South) (newspaper), 226
- Singapore
 return destination for Mecca pilgrims, 162
- Siregar, Amir Hamza, 168–170
- Sitjintijn, Mahmud (Mohammad Jusuf), 184
- Sitoebondo* (ship), 43, 257
- Sjahrir, Soetan, 246
- Sjoekoer, Hajji Abdoel (Kjai Abdoelsjoekoer), 162
- slavery
 of destitute Mecca pilgrims, 158
- smallpox outbreaks blame for, 153
- SMN (Stoomvaart Maatschappij Nederland, Netherlands Steamship Company), 1, 7–10, 27
- Europe-colonial Indonesia passenger transport by, 99, 132
 colonial education, 114–117
 first and second classes, 103, 105–108, 112–114
 Javanese crewmembers, 108–116
 number of passengers, 99
 third and fourth classes, 104
 transgression of colonial norms, 117–126
- Mecca pilgrimage transport by, 58
 competition with other Dutch shipping companies, 56–59
 and hierarchies on ships, 52
- smoking by female passengers complaints on, 118
- smuggling of weapons on ships
 Dutch surveillance of, 187–191

298 Index

- Sneevliet, Henk (Maring), 18, 171, 178
 Snouck Hurgronje, Christiaan, 33, 42, 46, 137, 157
 Soe Po Sia organization, 192
 Soebakat, 258
 Soedjak (Hajji), 45, 68
Soerabaiasch Handelsblad (newspaper), 75, 162
Soerakarta (ship), 55–56
 Soetomo, Dr. Raden, 149
Soli (ship), 173
Solviken (ship), 79
 South Seas Study Group (Nanyo Kenyūkai), 222 Southeast Asia
   anticolonial activism in, 28
 souvenirs Balinese, 128
 spatiality, 3 staged authenticity, 130
 Stanley, Jo, 118 stealing
   on ships, 120
 Steel, Frances, 117, 126
 steerage passengers on JCL ships, 77
   food rations of, 78
   on pilgrimage ships, 55
   food rations of, 55–56
 Steptoe, Harry, 174 stereotyping of Chinese crewmembers, 82 of Chinese passengers, 80
   of Indonesians, 85
 stewards, Indonesian/Javanese, 82–85, 109–110 accommodation for, 110
   complaints on, 111–113
 Stoler, Ann, 21, 206
 Straits Steamship Company, 250 students, Indonesian
   at al-Azhar University (Cairo)
   Dutch suspicions of, 142–146, 148–149
   in Japan, 223–224
   in Russia, 257–259
 Subardjo, Ahmad, 222 subversive literature
   in colonial Indonesia, 148
   in Middle East, 147
   on ships, 186–187
 sugar industry
   in colonial Indonesia, 212–213
   Japanese, 232
 sugar transports
   by JCJL, 76
 Sukarno, Ahmed, 221
 Sumatra
   excursions for cruise passengers on, 128
 Suppen, Miss, 119
 Surabaya
   Chinese club in, 90
   Japanese residents in Dutch surveillance of, 242–243
 surveillance of anticolonial activism, 4–5, 20–22 by British authorities, 143, 155
   communism, 27
     in Shanghai, 168–170, 172–182, 257–259
   Japanese nationalism/expansionism, 210, 220–227, 241–245
   Mecca pilgrimage, 27, 32, 39–50, 138, 166–167
     in Jeddah, 138–149
     Kamaram quarantine station, 155
   in port cities, 27, 170
   on ships/maritime, 22, 25, 71, 182–194
Swartenhondt (ship), 112
 Tadjoeidin, H. H., 165
 Tagliacozzo, Eric, 4
Taiku Haru (ship), 174
Tantalus (ship), 153
tempo doeloe, 252
 Temporary Ship Control Law (Rinji Senpaku Kanri Ho, 1937), 236
The Lloyd Mail (journal), 104 third-class passengers European women in, 120
   facilities for, 104, 123
   viewing by first- and second-class passengers of, 112–114
 Thomas, Martin, 20, 180
Tjibadak (ship), 194, 196, 206
Tjibesar (ship), 238
Tjikembang (ship), 72
Tjikini (ship), 185
Tjileboet (ship), 83–84
   Chinese crewmembers on, 238
Tjilemoet (ship), 79
Tjisalak (ship), 185
Tohindo Nippo (journal), 226 tourism, European to colonial Indonesia, 99–100, 108, 129
   KPM pleasure cruises, 126–132 tourist gaze, 131
 Touwen, Jeroen, 3
Toward the Rising Sun: A Journey to Japan, 1933–34 (Harahap), 222
 Tōyama Mitsuru, 222

- trade agreements
 Dutch-Japanese, 214, 237
 Indo-Japanese, 238
- trade negotiations
 British-Japanese, 238, 241
 Dutch-Japanese, 210, 227–237, 245
 Indo-Japanese, 228–229
- Trans Pacific* (journal), 230
- transgressive behavior possibilities at sea for, 117–126
- transgressive history, 24
- translocality, 3
- transnationalism, 2–3
- transoceanic history, 24
- transoceanic mobility
 impact of, 4, 256
 of anticolonial activists, 169
- transoceanic networks and Dutch imperialism, 167 of maritime surveillance, 184
- transoceanic perspectives, 3, 7
- on decolonization, 255–256
- on Dutch colonialism, 3
- transoceanic politics
 Dutch imperialism destabilized by, 208
- travel guides
 on colonial Indonesia, 128
- travel passes
 for Mecca pilgrims, 37
- Treaty of Tientsin (1863, Dutch-Chinese treaty), 197
- Tsing Nien Hui* (journal), 195
- Turner, Victor, 125
- Uchida Ryōhei, 222
- unrest on ships
 Chinese contract laborers, 72, 74–75
- Usman, Madjid, 223
- vaccination
 of Mecca pilgrims, 54, 153
- Van den Berg, Jan, 174, 176
- Van den Bussche, C., 234
- Van der Putten, Frans-Paul, 3, 205
- Van der Wal, G. C., 96
- Van Deventer, C. Th., 13
- Van Dyke, John, 123
- Van Etten-Slauson, Edna, 119–120
- Van Hengel, Mr., 96
- Van Rees, J., 185–186
- Van Wijk, D. F., 230
- Vertovec, Steven, 3
- Vice Consuls, role of
 at Dutch Consulate in Jeddah, 140
- Vickers, Adrian, 131
- viewing of lower class passengers as first- and second-class entertainment, 112–114
- VNS (Vereenigde Nederlandsche Scheepvaartmaatschappij), 10
- Vogel, W.G. de, 54
- Volmers, Doctor, 74
- Von Aswegen, E., 188
- Von der Mehden, Fred, 33
- Wafd (Egyptian nationalists)
 Indonesian students attracted by, 144
- Wakeman, Frederic, 170, 184
- wakil, see shaykhs
- Wang, C. T., 200
- war crimes committed by Dutch armed forces in Indonesia, 253–254
- Warning, J. H., 78
- Waworuntu (Wawoerontoe), Johannes, 177, 257
- weapons smuggling on ships
 Dutch surveillance of, 187–191
- Wee Tong Boo, 78
- Welfare Association of Jawa Students at the University of al-Azhar (Djama'ah al-Chairiah al-Talabijja al-Azhariah al-Djawiah), 143, 147
- Wentoeck, Clement, 257–258
- West
 Japanese perceptions of, 226
- Whittle, E. S., 152
- Widjoasmodjo, Raden Abdulkadir, 149
- Wieseng, Ethel, 188
- Wilcox, Miss, 118
- “wild men”
 tourists' wishes to see, 130
- “wild school” movement, 16
- Wilhelmina (queen of the Netherlands), 13, 247
- Willems, Wim, 254
- Willy* (ship), 174
- Wiranatakusumah, R. A. A. Muharam, 55–56, 152
- Wøller, Johan, 124
- women
 Asian
 contested freedoms of, 195–196
 Dutch in colonial Indonesia, 122
 European
 dress codes on ships for, 117 freedom on ships experienced by, 118–121
 Muslim in colonial Indonesia organizations for, 63

300 Index

Wong Tsen-Hsing, 190–191

World Health Organization (WHO), 151

World War II

in Pacific

Dutch marginalization in memorialization
of, 251

Wray, William D., 211

Wright, Richard R., 107

Xiao Case, 194–207

Xiao Xin'an, 194–195, 206

Yahya Muhammad Hamid ed-Din (imam of Yemen), 155

Zeven Provinciën (ship), 208

Zosma (ship), 185