Contents

List of Examples [page ix]
List of Figures [x]
List of Tables [xii]
Acknowledgments [xiv]
Note to the Reader [xvi]

Introduction [1]

PART I MUSIC ABOUT MUSICIANS [9]

1 From Paintings about Painters to Music about Musicians [11]

2 Miserere supplicanti Du Fay: Building Community through Musical Devotions at Cambrai Cathedral [19]

3 Ora pro nobis: Forms of Self-Reference in Musical Prayers for Musicians [53]

4 Plorar, gemir, crier: Musical Mourning and the Composer [94]

PART II MUSIC ABOUT MUSIC [123]

5 Paintings about Painting and Music about Music-Making [125]

6 Simple Lessons? Music Theory as Emblem of Composition [135]

7 Constructing the Composer: Symbolic Use of the Hexachord in Compositions c. 1500 [166]

8 Conclusion [208]
viii    Contents

Sources and Sigla  [220]
Appendix A  Music about Music and Musicians  [226]
Appendix B  Sixteenth-Century Masses Based on the Hexachord  [234]
Bibliography  [236]
Index  [276]