

Contents

List of Figures	page viii
List of Tables	x
Preface	xi
PART I POLITICAL INCENTIVES IN HEALTHCARE SYSTEMS	1
1 The Political Design of Health Systems	3
Government and Healthcare	3
Government Intervention and the Health System	9
From Market Failure to Government Failure in Healthcare	21
The Rise of the ‘Patient Citizen’	22
The Motivation of Political Decisions	24
The Book’s Road Map	26
PART II THE POLITICAL CONTEXTS OF HEALTHCARE POLICIES	33
2 The Multilevel Nature of Healthcare Governance	35
The Purpose of Healthcare Governance	35
Why Do Countries Decentralise Their Health System?	37
The Fiscal and Political Space	39
Institutional Imbalances	42
Challenges	47
Summary	51
3 ‘Collective Action’ and Global Healthcare	53
Global Collective Action	53
Globalisation as a New Challenge	57
Global Public Health Needs	62

vi CONTENTS

	Global Health Governance	66
	Professional and Patient Mobility	68
	Does the Patient Citizen Gain from Globalisation?	71
	Summary	73
PART III POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS AND HEALTH
		75
4	Constitutional Health System Design	77
	Constitutions and Healthcare	77
	The Constitutional Right to Health	78
	Constitutional Trade-offs and Veto Points	81
	The Allocation of Power-Sharing	84
	Electoral Competition	85
	Veto Players and Agenda-Setting	89
	Summary	90
5	Democracy and the Patient Citizen	91
	Why Does Democracy Matter?	91
	Is There a Health Dividend of Democracies?	93
	Mechanisms and Mediating Factors	97
	What Does the Evidence Tell Us?	101
	Effects on Health Inequality	105
	Summary	106
6	Theory of Political Markets in Healthcare	108
	Political Markets	108
	The Political Demand for Healthcare	111
	The Median Voter Explanation	112
	Extensions Involving Healthcare Supply	117
	The 'Ends against the Middle' Explanation	119
	Recent Contributions and Extensions	121
	Gerotocracy and Middle-Class Capture	124
	Summary	124

7	Ideology and Healthcare	126
	Do Healthcare Ideas Matter?	126
	'Left' and 'Right' Health Policy	127
	Beliefs and the Demand Side	129
	The Role of the Media	133
	The Political Cycle and Healthcare	136
	Summary	138
	 PART IV POLITICAL ALLOCATION IN HEALTHCARE	 139
8	Healthcare Waste and Corruption	141
	Waste and Its Sources	141
	Explaining 'Red Tape'	143
	Sources of Inefficiencies and Measurement	151
	Characterising Corruption	153
	What Are the Consequences of Corruption?	158
	Summary	159
9	Interest Groups and Health Policy	161
	Interest Groups in Healthcare	161
	Regulatory Capture	164
	Lobbying and Rent-Seeking in Healthcare	172
	Summary	173
10	Political Sustainability of Health Innovation	176
	The Political Value of Innovation	176
	Political Drivers of Health Technology	182
	Summary	188
	 Bibliography	 190
	Index	216