

Index

- Aboriginal Australia, 20
 Abu Hureyra, 97
 Achuar people, 43, 49, 171
 burial customs, 50
 actor network theory, 198
 Addaura Cave, Sicily, 66
Aeneid (Virgil), 193
 afterlife
 indications of belief in, 106 aggressive egalitarianism (Hodder), 181, 207
 agriculture
 emergence of, 203
 invention of, 170
 'Ain Ghazal, Jordan
 violent injuries found, 68–69
 aleatory victim, see scapegoat mechanism;
 scapegoating
 altruism, 101
 explanations for, 213–214
 analogism, 20, 21, 171, 173–182, 204
 Andaman Islanders, 41
 animal breeding, 170
 animal sacrifice
 distorted perception of the victim, 132–135
 at Göbekli Tepe, 111–116, 121–122
 animism, 20–22, 171–173, 204
 anthropology
 “pacified past” issue, 8
 archaeology
 alternative interpretations of evidence, 62–63
 definition and interpretation of burials, 61–62
 potential contribution of mimetic theory, 243–245
 Arendt, Hannah, 226
 Arene Candide, Italy, 80
 Ashanti people, 139
 Aşıklı Höyük, 5, 236
 Assmann, Jan, 206
 Australopithecus, 191
 Axelrod, Robert, 214
 axial age, 29, 30

 Bandera, Cesáreo, 193
 Bauer, Joachim, 218, 224
 bears
 taboos relating to, 9
 Becker, Ernest, 42–43, 45–46, 53–54, 56
 Benajmin, Walter, 41
 Benz, Marion, 218, 224
 Bible, 51, 190
 Gospels, 210
 subversion of the sacrificial mechanism,
 192–194
 Bloch, Maurice, 56
 transcendental social, 6–8, 200–204, 226
 Boncuklu, 242
 Bouphonia of ancient Greece, 153, 155
 bow
 emergence of, 83
 Boyer, Pascal, 210, 221–222, 223
 Boz, B., 55
 Brno, Czech Republic, 80

- bucrania absence from Göbekli Tepe, 145–149
 building sacrifices, 50–53
 bull fighting, 155, 162
 bull sacrifice
 Bouphonia of ancient Greece, 153, 155
 effects of domestication of cattle, 153–163 image at Göbekli Tepe, 167 treatment of relics in Çatalhöyük, 166–170
 bulls
 as domestic (inside) and wild (outside), 15 purpose of teasing and baiting, 22 representing all-against-one violence, 15
 burials
 cultural importance of the tomb, 46–50 customs of the Achuar people, 50 definition and interpretation in archaeology, 61–62 emergence of the practice, 44–45 intramural burial at Tikopia, 49–50 irregular burials and scapegoats, 77–78
 irregular burials at Dolní Věstonice, Czech Republic, 79–80 irregular burials in the Palaeolithic, 78–81 irregular burials at Romito, Italy, 80
 irregular burials and scapegoats, 77–78
 irregular burials at Sungir, Russia, 47 within houses at Çatalhöyük, 49–50, 205, see also foundation burials Burkert, Walter, 42, 155, 176 theory compared with Girard's model, 159–160
 Cain and Abel, 51, 138
 Calasso, Robert, 160
 Canetti, Elias, 42, 45
 Çatalhöyük
 adoption of domestic animals, 22 alternative interpretations of archaeological evidence, 62–63 analysis of clay balls found, 86
 application of mimetic theory, 3–4, 29–30
 building sacrifices, 52–53
 bull as domestic (inside) and wild (outside), 15
 bull sacrifice and the domestication of cattle, 153–163
 decoding the leopard imagery, 135–145 depictions of ritualized violence against animals, 130 description and significance of the site, 4–5 disparate treatment of leopards compared with other animals, 135–145 distorted perception of the sacrificial victim, 132–135 emergence of religious consciousness, 174 evidence for interpersonal violence, 71–73 evidence for intragroup violence, 129–130 evidence for a potential scapegoat, 81–82 evidence for prohibitions and taboos, 9
 funerary customs, 48
 Girardian perspective on violence, 74–78 history and findings of excavations, 5–6
 history houses, 204–207
 interpretation of the evolution of images, 186 interpretations of the imagery of cattle, 153–163 interpretation of sculptures, 106 leopard claw find, 53 living closely with the dead, 41
 management of social violence, 220–221
 managing the risk of lethal conflict, 129–132 memory and links to the past, 206–207 placement of bull relics in houses, 166–170 placement of stag relics in houses, 166–170 plastering and repainting of houses, 204–207 possible depictions of de-domestication of cattle, 155 prevalence of intramural burial, 49–50 purpose of teasing and baiting bulls, 22 reasons for adherence to taboos, 10 repeated plastering over and repainting of murals, 159 sacred areas within the houses, 134–135 sacrificial interpretation of images, 165–166
 sacrificial rituals, 130–132
 significance of relics of sacrificial animals, 134–135 symbolism and practical rules, 241–242 terror management, 53–56
 transition from relics to images, 183–186 treatment of the dead, 16–17

- violent imagery similar to that at
 - Göbekli Tepe, 6
 - vulture imagery, 136
- Çatalhöyük Research Project, xiii
- cattle
 - de-domestication for sacrifice, 155
- cattle domestication
 - bull sacrifice and, 153–163
 - timing of, 153–163
- Cauvin, Jacques, 154
- cave paintings, 240
- Çayönü, 5, 97, 147
- Cervantes, Miguel de, 30, 189
- Chantre, Benoît, 204
- child sacrifice, 51
 - foundation burials, 51–52
- Chipewyan people, 20
- Christianity
 - influence on Girard's theories, 18–19
 - perspective of mimetic theory, 194–197
- City in History, The* (Mumford), 46
- Clare, Lee, xiv, 145–146, 148, 155, 167, 219, 225
- Clastres, Pierre, 183
- clay balls
 - analysis of those found at
 - Çatalhöyük, 86
 - potential use as projectile weapons, 83–84
- climate change
 - transition to sedentism and, 17
- cognitive anthropology, 209
 - accounting for religion, 209
- cognitive archaeology
 - accounting for religion, 209
 - approach to violence and the sacred, 217–225
 - aversion to transcendence, 225–230
 - on the emergence of cooperation, 213–217
 - on the emergence and persistence of religion, 210–213
 - origins of the discipline, 209
 - relationship to Girard's anthropology, 210
 - view of religion, 13–14
- cognitive neuroscience, 209
- community
 - Dunbar's number, 99–101
- complexity
 - concept, 227
 - work of von Neumann, 227–228
- cooperation
 - game theory, 214–216
 - views on the emergence of, 213–217
- cooperative behavior, 101
- corvid birds (crow family)
 - association with Göbekli Tepe, 120
- cult of the dead, 56, 183, 184, 185
 - interpretation of Göbekli Tepe, 106–108
- cultural transmission
 - Girardian perspective, 11–13
- culture
 - importance of the tomb, 46–50
 - origins and meaning of, 190–191
 - significance of emergence of burial, 18
- Czeszewska, Agata, 185
- Da Vinci Code, The* (Brown), 210
- Damasio, Antonio, 28
- Darwin, Charles, 28
- Dawkins, Richard, 210, 211, 215, 223
- de Waal, Franz, 41
- death
 - attitudes towards, 41
 - attribution to some evil intention, 43
 - avoiding further violence over, 36–37
 - desire for lasting importance, 46
 - potential violence unleashed by, 16–17
 - purpose of funerary rites, 43
 - role of religion to help deal with, 43–44
 - as ultimate violence, 42–46
- death anxiety
 - cultural hero-system and, 55–56
 - means of overcoming, 42–46
 - terror management in
 - Çatalhöyük, 53–56
 - yearning for immortality, 53–54
- death erection phenomenon, 116–117, 167
- Deceit, Desire and the Novel* (Girard), 30
- de-domestication
 - cattle for sacrifice, 155
 - dogs in contemporary culture, 162
- Deir el Medina, 206
- Demirköy, 99t.1
- Denial of Death, The* (Becker), 53
- Descola, Philippe, 43, 49, 166, 167
 - four human–animal ontologies, 20–22
 - four “world compositions”, 170–182
 - ontological stages, 204
 - symbolic revolution in the Neolithic, 170–182
- doctrinal mode of religion, 156, 158–159, 161

- dogs
 de-domestication in contemporary culture, 162
- Dolní Věstonice, Czech Republic
 irregular burials, 79–80
- domesticated animals
 as sacrificial victims, 22
- domestication
 of animals, 203–204
 consequences of sedentism, 174
 timing of cattle domestication, 153–163
- Domuztepe, 9
- Dostoyevsky, Fyodor, 30, 189
- Dream Beings, Australia, 175–176
- Dumont, Louis, 230
- Dunbar, Robin, 222
- Dunbar's number, 15, 218
 community and, 99–101
 and the emergence of the sacred, 212–213
- duopoles, theory of, 219
- Dupuy, Jean-Pierre, xiv, 60, 200
- Durkheim, Émile, 31, 158, 211–212, 223, 226, 227
- economics
 consequences of generalized imitation, 229
- Egypt
 origin of the pyramids, 49
- Elementary Forms of Religious Life, The* (Durkheim), 211
- emissary victim, 166, 167, 168, 173, 180
- endogenous fixed point, 227
- Eteocles and Polyneices, 138
- evil intention attribution of death to, 43
- Evolution of Cooperation, The* (Axelrod), 214
- evolutionarily stable strategy (ESS), 215
- evolutionary cognitive psychology, 209
- evolutionary psychology
 view of religion, 13–14
- evolutionary theory
 altruism, 213–214
- Firth, Raymond, 49–50
- Flaubert, Gustave, 30
- Formicola, Vincenzo, 169
- foundation burials, 50–53, 183, 184, 205
 evidence for child sacrifice, 51–52
- foundational myths, 51
- founding event for rituals, 34–36
- fratricidal violence fear of, 138–139
- Frazer, James George, 31
- Freud, Sigmund, 31, 43, 166, 190
- functionalism, 216
 ritual and, 29
- functionalist view of religion, 13–14
- funerary practices
 Çatalhöyük, 48
 interpretation in archaeology, 61–62
 purpose of, 43
 Qafzeh 11 individual, Israel, 63–64
- Fustel de Coulanges, N.D., 49
- game theory
 cooperation and, 214–216
 evolutionarily stable strategy (ESS), 215
 meaning of defection, 214
 Nash equilibrium, 214–215
 prisoner's dilemma, 218, 220
 Stag Hunt game, 216, 218, 220
- Gauchet, Marcel, 196
- Geometric Kebaran culture, 64
- Gibraltar skulls, 28
- Girard, René
 applying mimetic theory in Neolithic sites, 3–4 approach to a theory of religion, 30–31
 bull sacrifice and the domestication of cattle, 153–163
 Christian perspective, 194–197
 complexity and self-transcendence, 225–230
 cultural importance of the tomb, 48–49
 definition of religion, 31–34
 explanation for the ritual of lapidation, 35–36 imitation and rivalry, 138
 interpretation of building sacrifices, 50–53 interpretation of human culture, 28 meaning of “religion” and “religious”, 197–199
 mimetic desire, 220
 mimetic theory applied to Çatalhöyük, 29–30 on the origins and meaning of culture, 190–191 paper on violence and the sacred, xiii place of violence in the Neolithic Near East, 86–88

- ritual origins of human culture, 36–37 ritual repetition of an original event, 53
 role of death and burials, 45
 role of prohibitions, 32 role of ritual, 32–34
 sacrificial interpretation of Çatalhöyük images, 165–166
 source of human rivalry, 45–46
 stag and bull sacrifices at Çatalhöyük, 166–170
 surrogate victim mechanism (scapegoat mechanism), 132
 surrogate victim and ritual victim, 132–135
 theory compared with Burkert's model, 159–160
 theory of religion and violence, 130–132
 victimary mechanism, 50–53
- Girardian perspective
 alternative to cognitive, functionalist and evolutionary view of religion, 13–14 alternative view of cultural transmission, 11–13
 cultural significance of tombs, 18 distinction between human and animal
 sacrifice, 19–22
 on the emergence of cooperation, 213–217
 on the emergence and persistence of religion, 210–213
 generative mechanism for the emergence of religion, 14–18
 influence of Christianity, 18–19
 potential contribution in archaeology, 10–11
 relationship to cognitive archaeology, 210
 religion and sedentism, 17–18 role of mimesis in the generation of violence and religion, 13–14 on violence at Çatalhöyük, 74–78
 violence and the sacred, 217–225
- Göbekli Tepe, 170, 236, 237, 240
 animal sacrifice, 111–116, 121–122
 application of mimetic theory, 3–4, 118–122
 association with corvid birds (crow family), 120
 bull sacrifice image, 167
 debate over the purpose of the site, 97
 description of the site, 105
 discovery and interpretations, 46–48 human sacrifice and, 116–118, 119–121
 interpretations of the purpose of the site, 105–106
 as a non-domestic ritual center, 145–149 phases of construction and rearrangement, 108–111
 as a place of the dead, 106–108
 possible reasons for lack of bucrania, 145–149
 purpose of, 202
 purpose of the circles of stones, 15 sacrifice and, 108–118
 symbolism, 5
 violent, male imagery, 6
- Great Chain of Being, 20
 Greenberg, Jeff, 45, 47–48, 54
 Gusir Höyük, 97, 99t5.1, 148
- Hager, L. D., 55
 Hahn, Eduard, 154
 Hallan Çemi, 97, 99t5.1, 148, 242
 hand motif paintings, 185
 Hasankeyf Höyük, 97, 99t5.1
 Haudricourt, André-George, 182
 Hayek, Friedrich, 228
 Hegel, Georg, 223
 Helwan lunate projectile, 68 hero-system
 cult of the dead, 55–56
 history houses
 Çatalhöyük, 204–207
 Hobbes, Thomas, 216
 Hocart, A. M., 28
 Hodder, Ian, 142, 145, 156, 159, 166, 167,
 174, 175, 176, 177, 178, 181, 183, 184, 207
 evolution of images at Çatalhöyük, 186
 foundation burials, 52
 house sacrifices, 183 management of social violence at Çatalhöyük, 220–221
Homo erectus, 18, 213
Homo habilis, 191
Homo naledi, 41
Homo Necans (Burkert), 160, 176
 house sacrifices (Hodder), 183 houses
 memory and links to the past in Çatalhöyük, 206–207
How We Became Human (Antonello and Gifford), 243
 human–animal ontologies, 20–22
 human behavioral ecology, 240

- human culture
 interpretation of René Girard, 28 origins in ritual, 36–37
- human history
 early interpersonal violence, 8–9
- human sacrifice
 Göbekli Tepe and, 116–118, 119–121
- human–thing entanglement, 239–243
- hunter-gatherers relation between humans and animals, 20–22
- hunting
 relationship to animal sacrifice, 19–22
- idolatry, 201, 202
- imagistic mode of religion, 156, 158–159, 161
- Imitatio research group, 155
- imitation
 influence in economics, 229
 rivalry caused by, 138
 self-transcendence and, 228–229
- immortality through self-sacrifice, 43
 yearning for, 44–45, 53–54
- individuality
 emergence of, 174
- interpersonal violence
 in early human history, 8–9
- Intifada (1987–1992)
 types of injuries, 71
- Isaac, Erich, 154
- iterated prisoner's dilemma, 214–216
- ithyphallic depictions, 116–117
- Jebel Sahaba, 8
 violent injuries found, 66
- Jerf el Ahmar, 97, 99t5.1, 120–121, 147, 148, 237
 violent injuries found, 66–68
- Jesus Christ, 35
 implications of the Passion, 194
- Kammerman, Anke, 136–138, 140
- Keen, Sam, 53–54
- Keynesian revolution, 212
- kin selection, 215
- Kluckhohn, Clyde, 138
- Knüsel, Christopher J., xiv, 177
- Kocanizam, 99t5.1
- Körtik Tepe, 97, 236
 application of mimetic theory, 118–122
 description of the site, 102–103
- evidence of interpersonal violence, 96, 102–103
 evidence of intragroup violence, 129 evidence of within-group violence, 105 lack of evidence of warfare, 103 population estimates, 99t5.1
 possible evidence of scapegoating, 104–105
 violence in a changing world, 103–105
- Kuijt, Ian, 97
- Lanier, Jaron, 45
- lapidation
 Girard's explanation for, 35–36 role in the origin of the pyramids, 36, 49, see also stoning
- Lascaux, 116
- Latour, Bruno, 198–199
- Laum, Bernhard, 158
- Leibniz, Gottfried Wilhelm, 230
- Leopard's Tale, The* (Hodder), 160, 166, 174, 177
- leopards
 decoding the leopard imagery at Çatalhöyük, 135–145
 disparate treatment compared with other animals at Çatalhöyük, 135–145 leopard claw find at Çatalhöyük, 53 representing all-against-all symmetric violence, 15
 taboos relating to, 9
 totemic identification with, 174–177
- Levant viper (Macrovipera lebetina), 113
- Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 37, 180
- Lombardi, Vince, 129
- Lorenz, Konrad, 190
- lynching, 165, 167, 168, 169, 172, 180, 201
- Malinowski, Bronisław, 43–44
- material context of mimetic theory, 239–243
- material culture, 226–227
- méconnaissance (Girard), 29
- Mellaart, James, 62, 63, 83, 136, 165, 172, 181
 excavations at Çatalhöyük, 5–6
- memory
 links to the past in Çatalhöyük, 206–207
- Meskel, Lynn, 145
- mimesis
 association with rivalry, 11–13 management of the mimetic process, 11–13

- positive and negative outcomes in humans, 16
- role in generation of violence and religion, 13–14
- mimetic theory
- application to Göbekli Tepe, 118–122
 - application to Körtik Tepe, 118–122
 - application in Neolithic sites, 3–4
 - Christian perspective, 194–197
 - focus of this fourth volume, 237–239
 - Girard's interpretation of
 - Çatalhöyük, 29–30
 - historical examples of the same insight, 189
 - material context, 239–243
 - obedient mimesis, 185
 - possible scapegoating at Körtik Tepe, 104–105
 - potential contribution to archaeology, 243–245
 - role of death and burials, 45
 - scapegoat mechanism, 190–192
 - self-critical insight, 189
 - and things, 239–243
 - tripartite model, 189
 - violence in a changing world, 103–105
 - violent mimesis, 185
- Minoan bull-jumping, 155, 162
- Modes of Religiosity* (Whitehouse), 34
- money
- emergence of, 158
- Moses, Sharon, 51
- mother goddess notion, 8
- Mount Carmel, Israel
- violent injuries found, 68–69
- Mumford, Lewis, 46–47
- Mureybet, 66, 97
- mythical hero-system
- society as, 46
- Nash equilibrium, 214–215
- Natufian culture, 68, 97
- naturalism, 20, 171, 182, 204
- Neanderthals
- burial of the dead, 44
 - injuries on the Shanidar 3 male, Iraq, 63
- Neolithic
- naturalism, 182
 - origins of sedentism, 183–186
 - “pacified past” issue, 8
 - sites in the Middle East, 4–5
 - sites in northern Mesopotamia, 96–98
 - symbolic revolution, 170–182
- Neolithic Europe
- violence in, 69
- Neolithic lifeways
- apparent lack of evidence for intra- and inter-group violence, 101–102
 - challenges caused by expanding group sizes, 97–101
 - changes and challenges, 96–101
 - conflict mitigation, 101–102
 - population estimates for various settlements, 97–99
 - violence in a changing world, 103–105
 - violence and social change, 96
- Neolithic Near East
- interpretations of violent injuries, 86–88
- Neolithic western Asia
- evidence for violence, 70–71
- Neo-Lithics*, 217
- Nevalı Çori, 51, 106, 120–121, 147
- new materialism, 16
- northern bald ibis (Geronticus eremita), 114
- Nuer culture, 153
- Nyakyusa people, 139
- Oedipus, 196
- Oedipus Rex* (Sophocles), 193
- offering
- sacrifice as, 156–158
- origin myths
- relation between humans and animals, 21
- originary scene (Girard), 190
- Osiris and Set, 138
- Palaeolithic
- irregular burials, 78–81
- Palaver, Wolfgang, 159
- Pascal, Blaise, 210, 213
- Pascal's Wager, 210
- path-dependency, 227
- political violence, 103
- Pongratz-Leisten, Beate, 157
- population growth
- transition to sedentism and, 17
- population levels
- challenges caused by expanding group sizes, 97–101
 - community and Dunbar's number, 99–101
 - Dunbar's number and the emergence of the sacred, 212–213
 - estimates for various Neolithic settlements, 97–99

- pottery
 cultural transmission of styles, 11–13
- prehistory
 tendency to interpret violence as ritual, 60–63
- prisoner's dilemma, 214–216, 218, 220
- processual archaeology, 209
- prohibitions, 241
 role in mimetic theory, 32
 use of religion to control violence, 130 used to control violence, 9, see also taboos
- projectile weapons
 injuries caused by, 82–86
- Proust, Marcel, 30
- Pyszczynski, Tom, 45, 47–48, 54
- Qadan culture, 66
- Qafzeh 11, Israel
 violent injuries found, 63–64
- Rank, Otto, 42, 49, 51
- Rawls, John, 220
- relational archaeology, 16, 199
- relics
 transition to images at Çatalhöyük, 183–186
- religion
 challenge to archaeology and
 anthropology, 209
 challenges of defining, 197–199
 consequences of the scapegoat
 mechanism, 190–192
 Dunbar's number and the emergence of the sacred, 212–213
 Girard's definition, 31–34
 Girard's generative mechanism, 14–18
 Girard's theoretical approach, 30–31
 Girard's theory of religion and violence, 130–132
 help to deal with the threat of
 death, 43–44
 imagistic and doctrinal modes, 156, 158–159
 origins in human violence, 31–34
 prohibitions to control violence, 130 sacrificial ritual violence, 130–132
 scapegoat mechanism, 132
 subversion of the sacrificial mechanism, 192–194
 surrogate victim and ritual victim, 132–135
 transition to sedentism and, 17–18
 views on the emergence and persistence of, 210–213
- religion in the Neolithic focus of earlier volumes, 235–237 mimetic theory focus of this fourth volume, 237–239
- Religion, History and Place in the Origin of Settled Life* (Hodder), 236
- religious challenges of defining, 197–199
- religious consciousness
 emergence of, 174
- religious figurations of women, 37
- ritual
 connection with violence, 60–63
 definition of ritual, 61 founding event, 34–36
 interpretation of prehistorical violence as, 60–63
 origins of human culture, 36–37 repeated plastering over and repainting of murals, 159
 repetition of an original event, 53 ritualized violence against animals at Çatalhöyük, 130
 role in mimetic theory, 32–34
- ritual sacrifice
 distorted perception of the victim, 132–135
 fallacy behind, 16
- ritual victim
 distinction from the surrogate victim, 132–135
- rivalry
 association with mimesis, 11–13 caused by imitation, 138 drivers and consequences, 45–46
- Romito, Italy
 irregular burials, 80
- Romulus and Remus, 51, 138, 139, 140
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 216, 220
- sacred violence
 fallacy behind, 16
- sacrifice
 alternative interpretations of skeletal injuries, 119
 distinction between human and animal
 sacrifice, 19–22
 at Göbekli Tepe, 108–118
 individuals identified as 'other', 16 nature of the victim, 19–22
 as offering, 156–158

- relationship to hunting, 19–22
- as scapegoating, 156–158
- use of domesticated animals, 22
- sacrificial imagery
 - capturing the moment of death in sculpture, 116–117
- sacrificial mechanism
 - subversion from within, 192–194
- sacrificial rituals
 - controlled form of violence, 130–132
 - interpretation of Çatalhöyük images, 165–166
 - relationship to sedentism, 169–170
- sacrificial victim, 168
- Saint Francis of Assisi, 56
- Savage Mind, The* (Lévi-Strauss), 180
- scalping (trophy-taking), 103
- Scapegoat, The* (Girard), 195
- scapegoat mechanism, 132, 173
 - consequences of, 190–192
 - distorted perception of the victim, 132–135
 - means of overcoming death
 - anxiety, 42–46
 - origin of religion and, 29
- scapegoating
 - irregular burials and, 77–78
 - lapidation, 35–36
 - possible scapegoating at Körtik Tepe, 104–105
 - potential scapegoat at Çatalhöyük, 81–82
 - sacrifice as, 156–158
 - types of victim chosen, 77–78
- Schmidt, Klaus, 106–108, 111–116, 147, 148, 167
 - discovery and interpretation of Göbekli Tepe, 46–48
- Schwartz, Glenn M., 51
- secular age, 30
- sedentism, 203
 - cultural transition in the Neolithic, 183–186
 - domestication and, 174
 - emergence of, 96–98
 - ordeal of the town, 183–186
 - relationship to the practice of sacrifice, 169–170
 - role of religion, 17–18
 - symbolic complexity and, 174
 - theories on the transition to, 17–18
 - threat of violence in larger groups, 169–170
- self
 - development of the notion of, 16
 - evolutionary perspective, 28
 - self-exteriorization, 228
 - self-sacrifice
 - explanations for, 213–214
 - immortality and, 43
 - self-transcendence, 14, 217, 227, 228
 - imitation and, 228–229
- Serres, Michel, 49
- Shakespeare, William, 189
- shamanism, 183, 202–203, 204
- Shanidar 3, Iraq
 - violent injuries found, 63
- Sheikh Hassan, 97
- Shults, F. LeRon, 133
- Sie bauten die ersten Tempel* (Schmidt), 106, 113
- skeletal remains
 - alternative interpretations of injuries, 119
- sling stones
 - injuries caused by, 82–86
- Smith, John Maynard, 215
- Smith, Martin, 61
- snake eagle (Circaetus gallicus), 114
- social bootstrapping, 217
- social cohesion
 - role of ritualized violence, 60–63
- social network, 226
- social order
 - notion of “us” against individuals identified as “other”, 16
- social transcendence, 6–8
- society
 - as a mythical hero-system, 46
- Sofsky, Wolfgang, 42
- Solomon, Sheldon, 45, 47–48, 54
- Sophocles, 193
- Spinoza, Baruch, 220
- stag sacrifice
 - treatment of relics in Çatalhöyük, 166–170
- Statues* (Serres), 49
- Stendhal, 30
- stone projectiles
 - injuries caused by, 70–71, 82–86
- stoning
 - purpose and participants, 36, 75–77, see also lapidation
- Stordeur, D., 66–68
- suicide bombers, 43

- Sungir, Russia
 grave sites, 47
 irregular burials, 79
 surrogate victim, 180
 distinction from the ritual victim, 132–135 surrogate victim mechanism, 132
 symbolic revolution of the Neolithic, 170–182
- taboos, 158, 175, 222, 223, 241
 reasons for adherence to, 10
 used to control violence, 9, see also
 prohibitions
- Tabun Cave, Israel
 oldest burial, 44
- tangled hierarchy, 14, 227, 230
- Taylor, Charles, 30, 196
- Tell 'Abr 3, 66, 97
- Tell Qaramel, 97, 99t5.1
- terror management
 in Çatalhöyük, 53–56
- terror management theory, 45–46, 54
- Testart, Alain, 87
- Theodicy* (Leibniz), 230
- theogonic mechanisms, 133
- Thiel, Peter, xiv
- Things Hidden since the Foundation of the World* (Girard), 168, 240
- Tikopia, 41
 intramural burial, 49–50
- tombs
 cultural significance, 18
- Totem and Taboo* (Freud), 190
- totemism, 20–22, 171, 174–182, 204
- Totemism* (Lévi-Strauss), 180
- transcendence association with violence, 6
 aversion of cognitive archaeology, 225–230
 emergence of, 174
- transcendental imagination, 205–206
- transcendental social, 6–8, 200–204, 226
- tribe-selection
 altruism and, 213–214
- trophies of killed animals
 symbolism, 42
- Tupinamba sacrificial rituals, 134
- Turner, Victor, 139
- twins
 fear of fratricidal violence, 138–139
- Vico, Giambattista, 48
- victimary mechanism
 building sacrifices, 50–53
- violence
 association with transcendence, 6 bulls representing all-against-one
 violence, 15
 in a changing world, 103–105 connection with rituals, 60–63 contagious nature through mimesis, 34–36
 converting all-against-all into all-against-one, 129–132
 death as ultimate violence, 42–46
 deep prehistorical origins, 69–70 estimating levels from skeletal remains, 69
 evidence for interpersonal violence at Çatalhöyük, 71–73
 evidence of projectile weapon
 injuries, 82–86
 fallacy behind sacred violence, 16
 fear of fratricidal violence, 138–139
 Girardian perspective on Çatalhöyük, 74–78
 Girard's theory of religion and violence, 130–132
 good and bad violence, 14 injuries which do not show on the skeleton, 69
 injury patterns associated with intentional violence, 69–70
 interpersonal violence in Körtik Tepe, 102–103
 interpretation as ritual in prehistory, 60–63
 interpretations of violent injuries, 86–88
 irregular burials in the Palaeolithic, 78–81
 leopard imagery at Çatalhöyük, 135–145 leopards representing all-against-all symmetric violence, 15
 managing the risk of lethal conflict, 129–132 means of controlling intra-group
 violence, 129–132
 in Neolithic Europe, 69
 in Neolithic western Asia, 70–71 “pacified past” issue, 8
 polarizing to all-against-one, 34–36 potential for retribution over a
 death, 36–37
 potential violence unleashed by death, 16–17
 risk in early human groups, 34–36 role in the origin of religion, 31–34

- social transcendence, 6–8
- stone projectile injuries, 70–71
- threat to the existence of the group, 130
- two types of, 130
- use of prohibitions and rules to control, 9
- violence and the sacred
 - perspectives on, 217–225
- Violence and the Sacred* (Girard), 31, 130, 153, 154, 160, 172, 176
- violent imagery
 - interpretation challenges, 3
 - similarities at Çatalhöyük and Göbekli Tepe, 6
- violent injuries found
 - 'Ain Ghazal, Jordan, 68–69
 - Jebel Sahaba, Sudan, 66
 - Jerf el Ahmar, Syria, 66–68
 - Mount Carmel, Israel, 68–69
 - Qafzeh 11, Israel, 63–64
 - Shanidar 3, Iraq, 63
 - Wadi Mataha, Jordan, 64–66
- Virgil, 193
- Voltaire, 225
- von Neumann, John, 227–228
- vultures
 - images at Çatalhöyük, 48, 136
 - images at Göbekli Tepe, 47–48
- Wadi Mataha, Jordan
 - violent injuries found, 64–66
- Wadi Rabah culture, 85
- warfare
 - lack of evidence at Körtek Tepe, 103
 - ritualized nature, 61
- warriors
 - purification after the violence of battle, 139
- Watkins, Trevor, 218, 219, 223
- Watts, Christopher, 199
- Westermarck, Edward, 43
- Whitehouse, Harvey, 34, 156, 158–159, 184
 - foundation burials, 52
- wild boar
 - placement of sacrificial relics, 166
- Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 198
- wolves
 - domestication, 203–204
- women
 - religious figurations of, 37
- world compositions (Descola), 170–182
- Younger Dryas, 97
- Zagros, 236