

Contents

Preface	page	ix
1 What Does Paul Have to Do with Religion? Beginning the Conversation		1
Three Objections		2
Religion and Forms of Life		7
2 What Kind of Religious Interlocutor Is Paul? Understandings and Misunderstandings		18
Paul's Letters		18
Paul's Religious Experience		22
The Problematic Paul: His Self-Presentation		30
The Problematic Paul: Gender and Sex		35
The Religious Authority of Paul		40
3 What Is the Religious Form of Life for Paul? Going Wrong and Getting Right		44
In Adam		45
In Christ		59
4 What Does the Pauline Religious Form of Life Have to Do with Death? Amazing Grace		64
Grace		65
Mercy		69
Paul's Experience of Grace		72
Paul, Body, Death		77
5 What, for Paul, Is the Nature of the Religious Form of Community? Body, Family, Love		83
The Community As Body		83

The Community As Family	88
Agapic Love in the Religious Form of Life	101
6 How, for Paul, Should Life ‘in Christ’ Be Lived? Love and Do What You Will	107
The Mind of Christ	109
Mind and Heart	111
Freedom of the Spirit	117
The Mind of Christ, Again	122
Love and Do What You Will	124
7 What, for Paul, Are the Marks of Membership? Bodies and Hearts	126
Identity Markers	126
An Indelible Mark of Identity: Circumcision	137
What May We Conclude about Identity Markers for Paul?	153
8 How, for Paul, Does a Religious Community Relate to Others? Insiders and Outsiders	155
Problematic Insiders	156
Unbelieving Outsiders	160
Outsiders As God’s Agents?	162
Faithful Others: Outside or In?	165
9 Paul and Religion: The Conversation Continues	173
Religious Forms of Life: Pauline and Christian	173
Body, Gender, and Sex Again	177
Pauline Religion and Other Households of Faith	184
Select Bibliography	189
Locorum Index	196
Subject Index	198