

Index

- Abolition of Man, The* (Lewis), 14n8 abortion, 85n8, 86, 89, 111n26 absolute prohibitions, 91–104, See also moral absolutes agent-centered reasons for, 94n12 as anti-natural, 101 and consequentialism, 92, 99 contingency concerns, 102 and disengaged standpoints, 34, 92–3, 97 in divine law, 95–8 intrinsic reasons for, 98–101
 in Kantianism, 111
 sacredness affirming, 103
 in tradition-informed ethics, 101 acknowledged dependence, 78–80, 83
 Adams, Robert, 45n1
Adolescent, The (Dostoevsky), 186
After Virtue (MacIntyre), 14–17, 80n3
 Annas, Julia, 19n10
 Anscombe, G. E. M.
 on absolute prohibitions, 34, 92–6, 98–101
 on Aristotelian necessities, 12 “Dignity of the Human Being,” 86 disenchanted move, 8
 on divine law, 95, 98
 ethical naturalist approach of, 2 “Modern Moral Philosophy,” 8–9, 38, 86, 92–3, 99 “Murder and the Morality of Euthanasia,” 86 on murder, 39, 103
 on mystical perception, 10n3, 38–9, 85, 87, 89, 100 on natural law ethics, 99 on normative demands, 25n15 on obligation, 14, 38, 92–3 on reverence, 86–7, 100 anti-naturalism, 97, 101, 113 Apology (Plato), 168 appreciative attention. See also contemplation in being at leisure, 174–6 in cosmologies, 171–4
 defined, 167, 170
 in existential gratitude, 183 existential praise as, 186 importance of, 171
 in non-theistic outlooks, 143
 as the telos, 142–3, 176–7, 180
 Aquinas, Saint Thomas, 34, 45, 78–9, 99n18, 142n27, 173, 177
 Aristotelian categoricals, 12, 22, 25
 Aristotelian necessities, 12, 20, 25, 39, 58, 113 Aristotelianism. See also disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint anti-contemplative stances, 166 anti-supernaturalist stances, 156–7 constitutive goods in, 81
 contemplation in, 177
 and dignity and sanctity, 83 meaning of life addressed in, 115 other-regarding concern in, 77, 104, 112 problem of self-centeredness, 66, 76 re-enchantment in, 194 responding to disenchantment, 2 teleological outlooks in, 118 treatment of spirituality in, 150, 155–8 on virtues for their own sake, 25 Aristotle
 on community, 77
 contemplative ideal of, 166, 172–3, 176n31 cosmic outlook of, 115, 132 on courage, 72
 on death and loss, 68n18, 71–3 Eudemian Ethics, 172–3
 on friendship, 79 function argument, 11
 on good for non-human beings, 44 great-souled man ideal, 185n44

- Aristotle (cont.)
 on happiness, 44–5, 52–3, 62, 71, 125, 172–4 on human difference, 30, 31n21, 44 on human nature, 120
 on infanticide, 90n9
Metaphysics, 169n22
 on moral absolutes, 34, 93, 101n19 Nicomachean Ethics, 11, 45n1, 62, 79, 172 on the noble, 25, 45–6, 51–2, 62, 71–2, 125, 132, 172 Parts of Animals, 176n31 philosophical methodology of, 28n19 on philosophizing, 169
 on spirituality, 155–6
 teleological outlook of, 118, 129, 132
- Arnold, Matthew, 28, 151 asymmetrical reciprocity, 78, 87, 90 “at home in the world,” 151, 169–71, 173–4, 177, 180
- atheism. See also non-theistic outlooks and absolute prohibitions, 96 compared to theism, 187n45 and existential gratitude, 184 proposed underlying motives for, 190n48, 190 rationality of, 146
- Augustine, Saint, 146n32
- autonomy objection (spirituality), 189
- awe (wonder), 82, 154
- Axial shift, 162n15
- beatific vision, 173, 187n46
- beauty (aesthetic realm), 37, 68, 70, 82, 164, 171, 178–9
- Bellah, Robert, 162n15
- beneficence, 110–12
- benevolence, 19
- Bleak House* (Dickens), 109
- Brewer, Talbot, 170n23
- Brothers Karamazov, The* (Dostoevsky), 73, 96, 146, 186
- Bruce, Steve, 160n14
- Buddhism, 155n9
- Burnyeat, Myles, 28n19
- Camus, Albert, 195
- Carr, Bernard, 139
- categorical demands, 32, 38, 56–7, 70, 123,
See also normative demands
- charity (virtue), 49n6, 79, 110, 112
- chastity (virtue), 39
- Chesterton, G. K., 106, 168n21, 177, 182–5
- Common Humanity, A* (Gaita), 88–90
- community (social networks) and the contemplative life, 167
 in disengaged approach, 105, 112
- giving and receiving in, 77–80, 87, 105, 113
- in instrumental accounts, 83
- in Kantianism, 84
 and particular other-regarding concern, 109
- spirituality in, 151
- virtues promoting flourishing of, 105, 113
- compassion (virtue), 79, 83, 105, 107, 112–13
- consequentialism, 38, 92, 99, 102, 147
- constitutive account
 of language, 30
 of other-regarding concern, 76, 81–3, 114
- constitutive account (virtue-happiness relationship) strong evaluative version, 47, 51–5, 61, 65, 74, 76, 125
- virtue as own reward in, 47
- weak evaluative version, 47, 55–8, 126
- constitutive goods
- Aristotelian conception of, 40–1, 81
- fundamental nature of, 40
- God as, 41, 65, 82
- and the good life, 41, 52, 81–3
- human beings as, 41–2, 53, 81
- human life as, 99
- human potential as, 41, 52–3, 65, 81
- Letter-Writers example, 65
- non-human beings as, 41, 82
- in re-enchantment, 40
- truth as, 82–3
- and virtue-happiness relationship, 52
- virtues responding to, 41–2, 52–3, 81–3
- contemplation, 166–80, See also appreciative attention, See also spirituality
- actions inspired by, 175
- aesthetic, 37
- Aquinas’ view of, 173
- in Aristotelianism, 166, 177
- Aristotle’s views on, 172
- and cosmic question, 180
- cosmodycy connection, 173
- earthly contemplation, 173
- Greek term for, 170
- and leisure, 174–6
- in non-theistic outlooks, 143, 178–80
- philosophizing sense, 167–70
- as the telos, 142–3, 176–7, 180
- in theistic outlooks, 172–8
- contingency, 102, 128, 133, 135, 145, 147
- cosmic outlooks. See also teleology
- in Aristotelianism, 115
- of Aristotle, 115, 132

Index

211

- and contemplation, 177–80
defined, 115
and ethical outlooks, 115, 130 and fine-tuning, 137–40 grounding moral phenomenology, 42, 89, 130
“at home in the world,” 151, 169–70, 173–4, 180 and the human point of view, 135 non-theistic cosmic teleology, 139–43, 181 non-theistic fine-tuning, 138–43 ontological grounding of, 128–35
and philosophy, 168
“place of humans in the cosmos,” 3, 6, 42, 48, 74, 82, 114, 130–3, 135, 141–2, 153, 164, 167–9, 171, 181, 195 problem of evil and suffering, 74, 145–9 quietist position on, 116, 128–35
and re-enchantment, 42
and reverence-worthiness, 100 in secular philosophy, 140–2 theistic, 144–5
theistic teleological worldview, 144–5, 181–2 tragic, 116, 120, 128, 134–7 Williams’ challenge regarding, 118–20
- cosmodycy connection with contemplation, 171–80 problem of, 73–5, 146–9, 178 and theodicy, 73, 146
- Costa, Paolo, 179n35
- Cottingham, John
on “buoyancy of the good,” 74, 182 on grand unified theory, 139n25
on human nature, 124
on sacredness (transfigured vision), 164, 176
on spirituality, 148–9, 161
on theism, 74–5, 144–5, 182
- courage (virtue), 32, 36, 48, 60, 69, 72, 132
- Darwall, Stephen, 83
- Darwinian evolution, 118–19, 136, 160, See also science
- Davies, Paul, 137, 139–40, 142–3, 145
- Dawkins, Richard, 136, 145, 179, 181
- De Caro, Mario, 157n12
- Delp, Alfred, 65
- Demons* (Dostoevsky), 186
- Den Uyl, Doug, 91n10
- Dennett, Daniel, 136
- Dependent Rational Animals (MacIntyre), 16, 157n10
- desires
in instrumental accounts, 48–51
and rationality, 18
strong goods as normative for, 32 and weak evaluation, 31, 33, 63, 126
- Dialogues Concerning Natural Religion* (Hume), 191
- Diamond, Cora, 91, 100, 103n20
- Dickens, Charles, 109
- dignity (human) and abortion, 85n8
and absolute prohibitions, 98
and Aristotelianism, 83
and disengaged standpoints, 84, 105 and engaged approach, 80–3 and human rights, 80n3 ideals recognizing, 192
Letter-Writers example, 68
of marginalized human beings, 87–91
and meaningfulness, 73 normative ideal based on, 106
in other-regarding concern, 53, 107, 114
in re-enchanted approach, 195 strong evaluative nature of, 35, 80–1 as a strong good, 41–2, 53, 65, 67, 81
- Dillard, Annie, 143
- disenchantment. See also disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint abandoning special sense of ought, 8, 10, 14, 92 in abandoning theism, 43, 92, 181 and contemplation, 177
defined, 1
and dignity and sanctity, 85–91 in the dominant approach, 1, 11–17 in ethical naturalism, 9–17 extreme views of, 3 and failure of cosmodycy, 74 and flourishing analogies, 10, 45n1 impacts of, 3
and impersonal worldview, 43, 181
and moral absolutes, 34, 92–104
other-regarding concern in, 104–5
problem of, 1, 194
and science, 1, 3
in scientific naturalism, 157 and self-enclosure, 4n4 and strong evaluative meaning, 33–9 and the virtues, 8–10
- disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint. See also disenchantment dignity and sanctity and, 80–91
as dominant approach, 1 failures of, 1
and flourishing analogies, 10–13 in Foot’s account, 12–13 human nature in, 11–14
in Hursthouse’s account, 11
instrumentalized accounts in, 47–51, 76–7, 83, 125

- disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint. (cont.)
 in MacIntyre's account, 14–17 meaning overlooked in, 1, 4, 10, 24–5, 164, 194
 and moral absolutes, 93–104 rationality in, 17–23
 scientism in, 25, 40
 strong evaluation overlooked by, 10, 126–7 treatment of spirituality, 156–7, 164–6
- divine law, 93, 95–9, 99n18. See also theism
- Dostoevsky, Fyodor, 73, 75, 96, 119n7, 146, 186
- Driver, Julia, 96n14
- dumb luck response (fine-tuning), 138
- Dying We Live* (Gollwitzer, Helmut, Kuhn, and Schneider), 59–60, 60n12, 64
- Dyson, Freeman, 137
- effective altruism, 107
- Ellis, Fiona, 157–9
- emotivism, 15
- empathetic identification, 78, 87, 90
- engaged (first-personal) standpoint. See also Neurathian approach, See also disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint, See also re-enchantment
- dignity and sanctity in, 80–91
 scientism, 157
 space of meaning in, 1–3, 24–40
 spirituality in, 148
 and strong evaluation, 10, 130–1, 164
- environment, 82
- eternal law, 99n18
- ethical naturalism (disenchanted version). See also Aristotelianism, See also disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint
- ethical naturalism (disenchanted version) and dignity and sanctity, 90
 as dominant approach, 1–2, 8–17 flourishing analogies of, 9, 116–18 human nature claims in, 11 language underexplored in, 29 meaning overlooked in, 1, 4, 10, 24–5, 164, 194 opposition to supernaturalism in, 156–7 other-regarding concern in, 77, 104–5 spirituality and, 156–9
- ethical naturalism (McDowell's expansive)
 rationality in, 20
 of second nature, 2, 26, 40, 129, 132, 157
 space of meaning in, 25–9 strong evaluation in, 32–3, 35–6
- Ethics in the Conflicts of Modernity* (MacIntyre), 17
- eudaimonia. See happiness
- Eudemian Ethics* (Aristotle), 172
- euthanasia, 86, 89
- evil. See also suffering and loss, See also cosmodycity and absolute prohibitions, 93, 97 and the contemplative life, 173 and cosmic outlooks, 74 cosmodycities addressing, 73–5, 146–9, 171–4 in the evidentialist argument, 147n33 and human nature, 119n7 Letter-Writers example, 59–60 and theistic spirituality, 182 theodicies addressing, 145–8 violating sanctity, 14, 39, 91 virtue-happiness relationship, 59–64
- evolution. See also science explaining appearances of design, 137 impact on meaning, 136 and rationality, 129n15 and religion, 160 theistic account of, 144 in Williams' challenge, 118–19
- evolutionary psychology, 161
- existential gratitude, 182–7
- existential praise, 186
- existentialism, 46n2
- expansive ethical naturalism, 2, 20, 158
- expressivism, 17
- fact-value divide, 1, 9. See also ought (obligation)
- festivals (religious), 175
- fine-tuning, 137–43, 160, 181
- Fisherman and His Wife, The* (Grimm), 103n20
- Fleischacker, Samuel, 175n29
- flourishing (human). See also happiness, See also good and goodness and absolute prohibitions, 93, 95, 97 analogies with non-human beings, 1, 10–13, 16 Aristotelian treatment of, 44 biological connotation, 44, 154n7 and dependency, 77 disengaged approach, 1, 10–13, 16, 38, 45n1, 97 in early religion, 162n15 and engaged approach, 126 in higher religion, 162n15 of marginalized human beings, 89–90 and ordinary sense of ought, 9, 38, 92 origin of term, 45n1 other-regarding virtues promoting, 77, 105 qua human being, 11n5, 92, 116–18 qua individual, 113, 117, 126

- sacred goods transcending, 154 sacrificed in transformation ideals, 188
- Foot, Philippa
 on Aristotelian necessities, 12 changing positions of, 47, 58–9 on charity, 113 ethical naturalism of, 2, 13
 on flourishing, 11–12
 instrumentalist account of, 48–51
 on language, 29
 on moral absolutes, 34, 94n12
 “Moral Beliefs,” 48, 54–5
 “Morality as a System of Hypothetical Imperatives,” 55 “Morality, Action, and Outcome,” 35n25 Natural Goodness, 20n11, 21, 55, 58–9, 113n28, 123n12
 on rationality, 13, 18, 20–3, 29 “Rationality and Goodness,” 60n12
 on virtue-happiness relationship, 47, 123n12 “Virtues and Vices,” 50n8 on virtues as correctives, 50n8 weak evaluative account of, 55–7
- Francis, Saint, 183, 188, 191
- free will defense, 146n31
- free will theodicy, 146
- Freud, Sigmund, 119, 161
- Frey, Jennifer, 46n3
- friendship, 79
- fullness (fulfillment). See also happiness
 in other-regarding concern, 76 and sacred goods, 154 through spirituality, 152, 163, 193 and strong evaluation, 154n7
- Gaita, Raimond, 88–90, 100, 114
- Geach, Peter, 12, 95n13
- generosity (virtue), 78, 83
- God
 absolute prohibitions of, 95 and the autonomy objection, 189–90 and the beatific vision, 173 as a constitutive good, 41, 65, 82, 153 image of God, 86
 and leisure, 174–5
 and moral absolutes, 96, 98–9 normative demands of, 68–9 personal nature of, 43 praise for, 175
 in problem of theodicy, 73, 146–9 teleological arguments for existence of, 137 and theistic spirituality, 180–7 transcendence of, 158–63
God, Philosophy, Universities (MacIntyre), 187
God, Value, and Nature (Ellis), 157–8
- good and goodness. See also constitutive goods, See also strong goods, See also flourishing (human) “buoyancy of the good,” 74, 182 contemplation affirming, 179 in disengaged accounts, 13, 15–17 fullness through, 152 functional usage of, 125 human good (good qua individual), 124 human goodness, 21–3, 59, 61, 124 in an open-contingency theodicy, 147
 and rationality, 13, 18, 59 revisionary accounts of, 162n15
 sacred goods transcending, 154
 in spirituality, 152
 in theistic spirituality, 182, 185 weak goods, 31–2, 37, 69
- good life, the and constitutive goods, 41, 52, 81–3 contemplation in, 167, 171
 in disengaged accounts, 15–17 and mixed natural tendencies, 119 and spirituality, 151, 154, 193
- Good Samaritan. See Parable of the Good Samaritan
- Gorgias* (Plato), 93, 97
- grand unified theory, 138
- gratitude (virtue), 78, 182–7
- Grimm, Wilhelm, 103n20
- Grimm’s Fairy Tales, 103n20
- Hacker-Wright, John, 19, 24n14
- Hadot, Pierre, 169, 176n31
- Haldane, John, 130n15
- Hampshire, Stuart, 102
- happiness. See also virtue-happiness relationship Aristotle’s views on, 45–6, 52–3, 62, 71, 125, 172–4
 and contemplation, 173, 178 differing conceptions of, 59, 66
 and leisure, 174
 as a meaningful life, 47
 as a natural end, 118 origins of eudaimonia term, 45n1 and other-regarding concern, 76 strong evaluative (moralized) view of, 52, 61, 63, 66–7 subjective understandings of, 44 utilitarian approach to, 107–8 weak evaluative (non-moralized) view of, 52, 63 whole life view of, 53
- hardship. See suffering and loss
- Hawking, Stephen, 139n25
- Heschel, Abraham Joshua, 175

- Holocaust, 14, 39, 59–60, 63–5, 73 homo religiosus, 43, 159, 162–7 honesty (virtue), 56n11, 82 hope (virtue), 74, 122, 182 Hopkins, Gerard Manley, 63, 181 hospitality (virtue), 79, 105 human nature in disengaged approaches, 11–14
 in ethical naturalism, 11 functional view, 125 harmonious view, 117, 122
 as indeterminate to ethical life, 127 mixed-bag view, 51, 119–20, 123–4, 155 normative conception of, 124–5, 127–8 value-loaded conception of, 52, 62, 66, 125, 128 human rights, 80n3
 human sexuality, 39
 Hume, David, 145, 160, 191–2 humility (virtue), 166n17 Hursthouse, Rosalind on abortion, 85n8
 on absolute prohibitions, 94n12 on acquired ethical outlooks, 133 anti-contemplative stance of, 166 anti-supernaturalist stance of, 156–7 claims regarding virtues, 116–18 on dignity, 85
 on ethical evaluation, 11
 ethical naturalist approach of, 2
 on flourishing, 11
 harmonious human nature view of, 117, 122 “Human Dignity and Charity,” 85 instrumental view of, 125
 on language, 29
 on natural ends, 13, 117, 125
 On Virtue Ethics, 85, 118 on other-regarding virtues, 83 on piety, 165
 on rationality, 18, 21
 on role of bonding, 112 “Virtue Theory and Abortion,” 85n8
 on virtue-happiness relationship, 21, 50n7, 116–18, 125–7 on Williams’ challenge, 116, 120, 130 hypersensitive agency detection device (HADD), 161 image of God, 82, 85n8, 86, 106, 145 imperfect duties, 111 impersonal benevolence, 19 infanticide, 85n8, 89 injustice
 and absolute prohibitions, 93–6 in an instrumental account, 48–51
 instrumental account
 of other-regarding concern, 76, 83 of virtue-happiness relationship, 47–52, 54 intellectus, 167n20
 inviolability (sanctity), 38n27, 92, 94, 98, 103n20, 103, 153 Irwin, Terence, 170n23, 174n27
 James, William, 181–2
 Jaspers, Karl, 162n15
 Jesuits, 167n19
 Jesus, 50, 64, 66, 105–6 just generosity (virtue), 78 justice (virtue)
 and human dignity, 53
 in an instrumental account, 48–51, 54, 83
 Letter-Writers example, 68
 overriding other strong goods, 69 Stoic views of, 54, 67
 in a strong evaluative account, 54 in a weak evaluative account, 56
 Kant, Immanuel, 110–12, 119n7 Kantianism, 8, 24n14, 83, 105, 110–12 kindness (virtue), 53, 119, 123, 132 Kolnai, Aurel, 37, 179
 Kristjánsson, Kristján, 179n35, 185n44
 Lacey, Michael, 184, 185n43 Laitinen, Arto, 70n19
 language constitutive account of, 30 designative (enframing) account of, 30 human difference through, 18, 30 and normative demands, 31
 and rationality, 18, 27, 29
 and the sacred, 164
 and the space of meaning, 29–31
 and strong evaluation, 30–1, 127
 as transfiguring, 31, 127 Language Animal, The (Taylor), 30 leisure, 174–6
Leisure, the Basis of Culture (Pieper), 174 Letter-Writers, The, 59–60, 63–5, 67–8, 72, 75
 Lewis, C. S., 14n8 liberal (broad) naturalism, 157 liberal ironism, 133 life-orientations, 53, 153, 165. See also spirituality logical positivism, 46n2 loss. See suffering and loss love (virtue), 88, 112, 144, 181 Lovibond, Sabina, 97, 101, 103n20, 178–80 loyalty (virtue), 112

- Macarthur, David, 157n12
- MacIntyre, Alasdair
 on absolute prohibitions, 96, 104 on acknowledged dependence, 83 After Virtue, 14, 80n3
 on compassion, 113
Dependent Rational Animals, 16, 157n10
 on divine law, 98
 ethical naturalist approach of, 2, 14–17 Ethics in the Conflicts of Modernity, 17
 on flourishing, 11, 105
God, Philosophy, Universities, 187 on human rights, 80n3
 on language, 29
 “On Being a Theistic Philosopher,” 96
 on other-regarding concern, 77–80, 83, 87, 90, 105
 on rationality, 18, 29
 on spirituality, 157n10, 187
- Mackie, J. L., 146n31
- marginalized human beings, 78, 87–91
- McCarthy, Cormac, 182n37
- McDowell, John
 on absolute prohibitions, 101n19
 and anti-supernaturalism, 156n10 Neurathian approach, 26, 28, 126
 on the noble, 32, 35, 164 “no-priority” view of, 131–3 on normative demands, 2, 31, 57 quietist position of, 42, 116, 128–30 “rational wolf” thought experiment, 20, 25 second nature naturalism of, 2, 26–9, 40, 58, 101n19 on space of meaning, 25–9 Stoic view of, 36, 47, 55, 61, 67, 69 on strong goods silencing, 33, 69 on supernaturalism, 157
 “Two Sorts of Naturalism,” 20, 58 on value-loaded human nature, 52, 62, 124
- meaning. See also strong evaluative meaning aspects of, 2, 31–9 cosmic (ultimate) source of, 3, 42, 74, 133, 142, 153, 164, 195 language enabling understanding, 29–31 neglected in ethical naturalism, 10 space of meaning, 24–31
 in tragic cosmic outlooks, 136
- meaning in life changing focus on, 46 connected to the meaning of life, 74, 133, 164, 195 and immanent naturalistic frameworks, 163
 in engaged standpoint, 2 neglected by Aristotelianism, 46 and radical contingency, 128, 135
 and re-enchantment, 42
- meaning of life, the
 in Aristotelianism, 115
 changing focus on, 46n2
 in engaged standpoints, 3, 128 and meaning in life, 74, 133, 164, 195 in moral philosophy, 44 non-theistic accounts of, 142–3
 and re-enchantment, 42
 theistic accounts of, 144–5
- meaningful life, a changing focus on, 46n2
 in engaged standpoints, 2, 42 happiness as, 47
 and human potential, 72 impediments to, 72–3 and the meaning of life, 74, 133, 164, 195 role of contemplation in, 37, 167
 in spirituality, 153
 strong evaluative conception of, 36, 44, 53, 66, 128 suffering and loss in, 62–5, 67, 70–5 virtue-happiness relationship, 62–6
- meaning-seeking animal, the
 aspects of, 2
 and the contemplative life, 168 and cultural development, 163n15 existential questions of, 187
homo religiosus, 162–4
 in re-enchantment, 42, 194
 role of language in, 31 and self-transcendence, 134 spiritual needs of, 153, 188
- Metaphysics* (Aristotle), 169n22
- methodological scientific naturalism, 157n12
- Metz, Thaddeus, 46, 66
- Midgley, Mary, 141n26, 168
- Mill, John Stuart, 107, 176n33
- Mind and Cosmos* (Nagel), 141
- misericordia*. See compassion (virtue)
- mixed bigness, 119–20, 123–4, 155
- Monod, Jacques, 136
- monotheism, 160
- moral absolutes, 91–104. See also absolute prohibitions. See also normative demands. See also strong evaluation and disengaged standpoints, 34, 92–3 intrinsic reasons for, 98–101 limited moral absolutism, 94n12 moral necessities, 57, 92, 108, 113 as negative in nature, 70
 and rationality, 34
- moral anarchy, 102, 103n20
- moral necessities, 57, 92, 108, 113

- moral objectivism, 9, 14, 92, 133, 157 moral ontology, 42, 128–35 moral subjectivism, 1, 14–15, 27, 47, 153n3, 189
More, Thomas, 98n16
Morgan, Seiriol, 119n7
multiverse hypothesis, 138 murder absolute prohibitions on, 93–4 and dignity and sanctity of life, 86, 89, 94, 98, 100, 102 supra-utilitarian objection to, 39, 103 Murdoch, Iris, 170
- Nagel, Thomas, 133, 140–3, 145, 180–1, 190 narrative quests, 15, 53 natural ends of social animals, 13, 19, 24n14, 112, 117, 125, 127, 165 natural evil, 146
Natural Goodness (Foot), 20n11, 21, 55, 58–9, 113n28, 123n12 Natural History of Religion (Hume), 160 natural law, 99, 137, 139 naturalism, 26–9, 40, 157 naturalized platonism, 27, 129n15, 158 “neighbor” concept, 106
Neo-Aristotelian, 112–14
Neurathian approach, 26, 28, 126, 129
Nicomachean Ethics (Aristotle), 11, 45n1, 62, 79, 172 Nietzsche, Friedrich, 160
noble, the (nobility) Aristotle on, 25, 51–2, 62, 69n18, 72, 125, 132, 172
 and language, 164
 in loss and suffering, 71
 in a meaningful life, 45, 124–8
 Stoic views on, 35
 strong evaluation inherent in, 25, 32, 51, 125
 in theistic outlooks, 145
non-theistic cosmic teleology, 139, 181 non-theistic outlooks. See also atheism contemplation in, 178–80 cosmic teleology view, 139–40 dumb luck response, 138
 and existential gratitude, 184 fine-tuning accounts, 138–43 and “God-substitutes,” 187
 grand unified theory, 138
 multiverse hypothesis, 138 “no-priority” view, 131–3 normative demands. See also ought (obligation) of asymmetrical reciprocity, 78 based on the noble, 124 categorical demands, 32, 38, 57, 70 dignity affirming, 80–1, 114 and disengaged accounts, 18 in engaged approach, 25, 164 Kantian approach to, 24n14
 ontological grounding of, 130–3
 in other-regarding concern, 78, 81, 110, 114
 and radical contingency, 123, 128, 143, 145
 and rationality, 20
 in re-enchantment, 4
 role of language in, 31
 of the sacred, 80–1, 153–5 in second nature naturalism, 2
 in spirituality, 151, 153
 of strong evaluative meaning, 10, 32 of strong goods, 32, 70 and tradition, 29
 in tragic cosmic outlooks, 128
 in weak evaluative account, 55–8
Nussbaum, Martha, 28n19, 71n21, 83, 156n10, 188
- obligation. See ought (obligation)
Oderberg, David, 110
On Virtue Ethics (Hursthouse), 85, 116 ontological scientific naturalism, 157n12 other-regarding concern balancing, 104
 constitutive account, 76, 114 dignity and sanctity of life in, 114 disenchanted approach to, 105 engaged approach to, 114 instrumental account of, 76 intrinsic worthiness in, 80–7 Kantian approach to, 83, 110–12 limitations of MacIntyre’s account, 80 MacIntyre’s account of, 77–80 for marginalized human beings, 87–91
 and moral absolutes, 91–104 Parable of the Good Samaritan, 105 particular, 104, 109–12 re-enchanted approach to, 194 universal, 104–5, 110–12 utilitarian approach to, 106–10
other-regarding virtues
 in Aristotelianism, 77, 104–5
 in ethical naturalism, 76
 and flourishing, 76
 and human dignity, 41, 53, 80–1
 in instrumental accounts, 49, 83 responding to constitutive goods, 41, 81–3 value of, 76
ought (obligation). See also normative demands in disenchanted approaches, 10, 33
 in engaged standpoint, 2, 194 in the fact-value divide, 1
 in Kantianism, 110–12

- in modern moral theories, 8 ordinary sense, 9–10, 14, 92, 95
in other-regarding concern, 110 through proximity, 106, 108, 110, 113
in re-enchanted approach, 194 special (moral) sense, 8, 10, 14, 33, 38, 92, 95, 98, 100, 194
in weak evaluative account, 55
- Parable of the Good Samaritan, 105–6 compassion in, 79
engaged approach to, 113
Kantian approach to, 112
proximity element, 108n24
utilitarian approach to, 106–10
- particular other-regarding concern
in Aristotelianism, 112 balancing with universal concern, 104
in Kantianism, 110–12
and love, 109–10
in utilitarianism, 110
- Parts of Animals* (Aristotle), 176n31
- Peterson, Michael, 147
- Phillips, D. Z., 47, 50, 52, 54, 67–8
- philosophical anthropology, 24
- philosophy
as a way of life, 169 philosophical life, 167–70
- Pieper, Josef, 115n1, 167n20, 170n23, 173–6
- piety (virtue), 42, 82, 94, 100, 165–6, 193
- pity. See compassion (virtue)
- Plantinga, Alvin, 146n31
- Plato
Apology, 168
Gorgias, 93, 97
Republic, 49, 119n5
- platonism, 27, 129n15, 158
- Pollyanna problem, 119n4
- polytheism, 160
- potential (human), 26, 52, 67, 72, 81
- practical rationality, 19n10, 22, 47, 58–9 prayer, 170n24, 182
- Priam (king of Troy), 71
- profane, the (mundane), 154
- projectivism, 3
- proximity, 106, 108, 110, 113
- prudence (virtue), 48
- quasi-scientific standpoint. See disengaged (quasi-scientific) standpoint
- quietism, 42, 116, 128–35, 195
- Quinn, Warren, 21
- radical contingency, 57, 102, 123, 128, 133, 135, 143, 145
- rampant platonism, 27, 129n15, 158
- Rasmussen, Doug, 91n10
- ratio*, 167n20
- rationality
in a cosmic teleological account, 142 in disengaged accounts, 13, 17–23
in engaged accounts, 17
in ethical naturalism, 117
and evolution, 129n15
as the human difference, 17–24, 30
in instrumental accounts, 48–51
and language, 27, 29
in McDowell's account, 20
in a meaningful life, 70
and moral absolutes, 34
and nature, 19n10
and normative demands, 20 practical rationality, 22, 58–9
and the space of meaning, 25 and virtuous living, 58–9, 61
- reasoning. See rationality
- re-enchantment
in Aristotelianism, 194
and dignity and sanctity, 84
and ethical naturalism, 2 losses if not affirmed, 195 meanings emphasized in, 1 normative demands in, 3 possible misleading language of, 4 as recovering, 4
and science, 3
in second nature naturalism, 2, 26, 158 and space of meaning, 31 in theistic naturalism, 158 and theistic spirituality, 43, 180 ways of realizing, 40–3
- Rees, Martin, 138
- relativism, 127, 133
- religion. See also theism Axial shift, 162n15
in “death of God” secularization view, 160 deflationary genealogical accounts of, 160–2 fear of, 190
organized religion, 151 social impacts of, 191–2 source of meaning in, 163–5
and spirituality, 152
and suffering and loss, 64–6, 73–5 and violence, 192
- Republic* (Plato), 49, 119n5
- respect (respect-worthiness) Anscombe's approach to, 39, 86–7
in engaged accounts, 80–2, 130
in other-regarding concern, 80–2, 108 and weak evaluative accounts, 56n11

- reverence (reverence-worthiness). See also piety (virtue)
 and absolute prohibitions, 39, 91, 94–5, 98–101, 103, 153
 Anscombe's approach to, 38–9, 86–7, 98–101
 in engaged accounts, 80–2 and human life, 39, 98, 100 and human sexuality, 38n27
 in non-theistic outlooks, 89, 99–100 in spiritual practices, 151
 in spirituality, 151, 164–5
 strong evaluation inherent in, 38, 40, 103, 166
- Roberts, Robert C., 185n42
- Rorty, Richard, 133
- Rowe, William, 147n33
- Russell, Daniel C., 46n3, 63n14
- Sabbath-experience, 174–5
- sacred, the. See sanctity (sacredness)
- Samaritan, Parable of the Good. See Parable of the Good Samaritan
- sanctity (sacredness). See also reverence (reverence-worthiness), See also dignity (human) and abortion, 85n8
 and absolute prohibitions, 35, 38–9, 91, 94, 98–103, 153
 and Aristotelianism, 83 and disenchanting approach, 84, 105
 in engaged approach, 80–3 grounding supra-utilitarian virtues, 38–9, 85 of human life, 14, 35, 39, 76, 80, 83–4, 90, 94, 98–100, 105, 114, 153–4, 192 of human sexuality, 38n27
 ideals recognizing, 192
 inviolability of, 38n27, 91, 94, 98, 103, 103n20, 153
 of marginalized human beings, 87–91
 and meaningfulness, 73
 in non-theistic outlooks, 89, 99–100
 normative demands of, 80–1, 153–5
 in other-regarding concern, 80–2, 107, 114
 and piety, 100, 165–6, 193 and the profane, 154
 in re-enchanting approach, 195 and self-transformation, 151, 155 and special sense of ought, 14, 38–9, 85–7, 98–100
 in spirituality, 151, 153–5, 164–6
 strong evaluation inherent in, 35, 38, 40, 80–2, 103, 164–6 through spiritual practices, 151
- Sandel, Michael, 109–10
- Sartre, Jean-Paul, 195
- Schneider, Paul, 68n17
- science and ethical life, 118–19, 131, 136–7 impact on disenchantment, 1 impact on meaning, 136
 impersonal order in, 181 and objective values, 137n22 opposing tragic cosmic outlooks, 137–40 and re-enchantment, 3
 and religion, 160
 and scientism, 157
 supporting tragic cosmic outlooks, 136–7
- scientific (strict) naturalism, 157
- scientism, 1, 4, 25, 40, 157, 190
- scientistic naturalism, 26
- Scripter, Lucas, 177n34
- Scruton, Roger, 190n48
- second nature naturalism absolute prohibitions in, 101n19 moral formation in, 58
 normative demands in, 2, 26 quietism in, 132
 role of upbringing, 26–9
 space of meaning in, 26, 40, 129, 164 supernaturalism avoided by, 158 theistic version of, 158
- second-person standpoint, 84
- Secular Age, A* (Taylor), 163
- secular wonder, 179n35
- secularization (secularity) “death of God” view, 160, 163 secular philosophy, 140–2
 and spirituality, 163
- self-centeredness, 66, 76
- self-interest, 21–3, 48–51, 58–9, 61
- self-regarding virtues, 48
- self-transcendence. See transcendence
- Setiya, Kieran, 176n33
- Singer, Peter, 19, 89, 99, 107–8, 112
- social networks. See community (social networks)
- social peace objection (spirituality), 191–2
- Socrates, 93, 97, 168
- solidarity, 103, 106–7
- Solomon, Robert C., 184
- soul-making theodicy, 147
- speech. See language
- spiritual practice appreciative attention as, 171 keeping the Sabbath, 174
 and piety, 193
 prayer, 170n24, 182
 in spirituality and religion, 151–2
- spirituality. See also contemplation and appreciative attention, 171 Aristotelianism's treatment of, 150, 155–8

- Aristotle's views on, 155–6 components of, 151–5
 defined, 43, 150
 and ethical naturalism, 156–9
 in the good life, 148, 193 humans as homo religiosus, 159–66 as a life-orientation, 152–3 naturalistic forms of, 157 objections to, 188–93
 as practical, 151–2
 in re-enchantment, 43
 and religion, 152
 role of contemplation in, 167, 171–3 role of philosophy in, 169–70
 and the sacred, 153–5, 164
 theistic spirituality, 180–7
- Stohr, Karen, 112n27
- Stoicism, 36, 54, 67
- strong evaluation compared to weak evaluation, 31 in deep happiness, 62
 defined, 10, 31
 of dignity and sanctity, 80–3, 99, 154 identifying the noble, 124–8
 and language, 30–1, 127
 ontological grounding of, 128–35
 in other-regarding concern, 76, 80–2 overlooked by disengaged approach, 10, 24–5, 126–8
 in quietism, 128
- strong evaluative meaning and beauty, 37
 categorical feature of, 32, 38, 70, 123 and the category of the moral, 36–8
 defined, 2, 10, 31
 in engaged standpoint, 2, 24
 and homo religiosus, 164 incommensurability feature of, 32–3, 35–6, 38
 in loss and suffering, 74
 in a meaningful life, 2, 36, 53, 66 of the noble, 32, 51–2, 124–5 normative demands of, 10, 32–4, 133 overlooked by disenchanted approaches, 10, 24–5
 in quietism, 128–35
 in re-enchanted approach, 1–3, 10, 194
 of the sacred, 80–2, 153–5, 164–6
 and special sense of ought, 10, 31–40
 in spirituality, 153, 164–6
 in tragic cosmic outlooks, 137
- strong goods. See also constitutive goods
 and absolute prohibitions, 69
 categorical feature of, 32, 38, 70 compared to weak goods, 32 conflict among, 36, 67
 in constitutive approach, 66
 in the good life, 41, 51–3
 incommensurability feature of, 32–3, 35–6, 38 life-orientation demanded by, 53 loss following sacrifice of, 70–3 as normative for desires, 32 ordering and weighing of, 37, 68–9 overriding other strong goods, 67, 69 plurality of, 38, 40, 67 sacred goods, 154 silencing weak goods, 32, 35, 37, 69 supra-utilitarian value of, 39
- suffering and loss. See also cosmicity, See also evil
 and absolute prohibitions, 97
 Aristotle on, 68n18, 71–2
 and the contemplative life, 169, 172–3 and cosmic outlooks, 74 cosmicities addressing, 73–5, 146–9, 172–4
 Letter-Writers example, 59–60, 63–5
 McDowell's view on, 55, 61, 67
 in a meaningful life, 62–5, 70–5 in sacrificing strong goods, 68
 Stoic views on, 36, 54, 67
 and theistic spirituality, 182 theodicies addressing, 145–8
 and virtue-happiness relationship, 59–64, 67–75
- suicide, 86, 94n12
- supernaturalism, 27, 156–9
- supra-utilitarian virtues, 39, 85, 100
- Taylor, Charles, 3, 29–32, 36, 70n20, 130, 163
- teleology. See also cosmic outlooks arguments for God's existence, 137
 in Aristotelianism, 118
 of Aristotle, 129, 132
 evolution challenging, 118–19 need for, 6, 29, 42, 116, 128–35, 142–5, 180 non-theistic cosmic accounts, 139–43 in pre-modern worldviews, 3, 15, 135 in theism, 144–5, 181
 and Williams' tragic outlook, 134
- temperance (virtue), 36, 48
- theism. See also religion absolute prohibitions in, 95–101 “buoyancy of the good” in, 74, 182 compared to atheism, 187n45
 constitutive goods in, 41, 65, 82
 contemplation in, 173–8

- theism. (cont.)
 cosmic outlooks in, 74, 140, 144–5 and cosmicodicy problem, 73–5 disenchantment from abandonment of, 9 fine-tuning explained by, 137 human need for, 186
 the language of praise in, 143, 180 personalistic nature of, 43, 144, 180
 rationality of, 137, 146, 159–62
 source of meaning in, 163–5 on suffering and loss, 64–6, 73–5, 145–8 teleological order of, 144–5, 181
 theistic spirituality, 180–7 theistic naturalism, 158 theodicy, 73, 145–8
 theoretic culture, 163n15 theōria (contemplation), 170
 Thomism, 187n46
 Thompson, Michael, 12
 Thomson, Judith Jarvis, 111n26
 Toner, Patrick, 183n39 traditions (cultural capacities)
 and absolute prohibitions, 101
 and evil, 119n7 and natural tendencies, 119, 127 in a socially teleological account, 15 and the space of meaning, 27–9 tragic cosmic outlooks, 115, 120, 128, 134–7
 transcendence continued draw to, 163
 and meaning-seeking, 134 perceived threats of, 188 in re-enchantment, 4n4, 84
 and the sacred, 154
 in spirituality, 151, 153
 transfiguration, 31, 127, 165, 167, 176 transformation, 148, 151–2, 154, 188 truth, 82–3
 underdetermination, 120, 132 universal other-regarding concern
 in Aristotelianism, 104–5 balancing with particular concern, 104
 in Kantianism, 110–12
 Parable of the Good Samaritan, 105
 utilitarian approach to, 106–10 Updike, John, 142–3, 180 utilitarianism, 105
 and dignity and sanctity, 89 impartiality requirement of, 109 moral obligation in, 8
 on other-regarding concern, 106–10 rule-utilitarianism, 102 and solidarity, 104
 virtue-happiness relationship accounts of, 47–8 coming apart, 58–66
 constitutive (strong evaluative) account, 44, 46–7, 51–5, 61, 63–76, 127
 constitutive (weak evaluative) account, 47, 55–8, 126
 Hursthouse's theses on, 116–18
 instrumental account, 47–51
 Letter-Writers example, 59–60, 63–5
 in loss and suffering, 59–64, 73–5
 in a meaningful life, 46, 62–6 normative (value-loaded) human nature account, 52, 62, 66, 124 in a reduced form of ethics, 123 re-enchanted approach, 194 and self-centeredness concern, 76 Stoic views on, 54–5, 67–9 virtues. See also other-regarding virtues. See also virtue-happiness relationship of acknowledged dependence, 78–80 as Aristotelian necessities, 12, 22, 58 cardinal virtues, 48
 in disengaged accounts, 8–17, 19
 Hursthouse's theses on, 116–18
 in instrumental accounts, 48–51
 as mixed goods, 176
 as modes of proper responsiveness to constitutive goods, 42, 52–3, 81–3 natural tendencies toward, 51 in normative (value-loaded) human nature accounts, 52, 124
 performed for their own sake, 25, 42, 47, 51, 53, 66, 76
 in quietism, 131–2
 role in flourishing, 8–14, 16–17, 116–18 self-regarding aspect of, 34n24, 48 silencing other considerations, 33, 35–6, 69 and strong evaluative meaning, 31–4, 44, 47, 51–5, 66
 supra-utilitarian, 39, 85, 100 utilitarian, 38
 Vogler, Candace, 46n3, 98n16
 voluntarism, 98, 190 Waldron, Jeremy, 108n24 weak evaluation
 compared to strong evaluation, 31 desires weighed in, 33, 63, 126
 in constitutive (virtue-happiness) account, 55–8, 126
 weak goods
 compared to strong goods, 31 strong goods silencing, 32, 35, 37, 69 Weil, Simone, 103n21, 170

Index

221

- Weinberg, Steven, 136n21, 136, 192 wholeness objection (spirituality), 188 Wiggins, David, 44, 102–4 Williams, Bernard challenge of, 116, 118–20
 on human nature, 127
 on radical contingency, 102–3, 123–4 reading of Aristotle, 129 reduced form of ethics of, 121–2 tragic cosmic outlook of, 116, 128, 134–5 underdetermination in account, 120 Winch, Peter, 108, 113
Wittgenstein, Ludwig, 62, 114n29
Wolf, Susan, 46, 66, 133 wonder (awe), 82, 154, 179n35
Woodruff, Paul, 166n17