

INDEX

- I ANZAC, 50, 60, 63, 65, 82
 II ANZAC, 50, 80
 1 Australian Dermatological Hospital
   Bulford, 174
 1st Australian Auxiliary Hospital
   Harefield, 109, 182
   all-female massage staff at, 130
   Army Massage Corps, 129–30 blurring of boundaries between medical professions at, 131 classification of soldiers at, 113–14 ‘Clinical Meetings of the Medical Staff’, 129 condition of soldiers on arrival at, 128–9 control of, 138–9
   culture of caregiving at, 180
   Department for Recreation and Study, 127
   employment of women at, 118–21 fancy work program, 133–8, 180 female advocacy for soldier care at, 122 marriages from, 122–3
   medical specialisations, 109 medical work undertaken at, 127–8 original purpose of, 113 physiotherapy treatment at, 129–30
   Recreation and Canteen
     Department, 132
   Routine Orders No. 151 for 1AAH, 121 social care at, 132–3 tensions between military and owners, 117
   use of orderlies at, 130–1
 1st Australian Casualty Clearing
   Station, 26, 33, 62
 1st Australian Division, 50, 59, 61–2, 65, 69, 94, 107, 148, 150
   field ambulance units, 61
 1st Australian General Hospital, 7, 25
 1st Australian Stationary Hospital, Lemnos, 25
 2nd Australian Auxiliary Hospital,
   Southall, 109, 136
   medical specialisations, 109
 2nd Australian Casualty Clearing
   Station, 118
 2nd Australian Division, 50, 60, 62,
   92–4, 96, 98–9, 107, 148, 150
 2nd Australian Stationary Hospital, 146
 3rd Australian Auxiliary Hospital
   Dartford, 109, 120
   medical specialisations, 109
 3rd Australian Division, 66, 69, 72,
   89–90, 98, 107
 3rd Australian Field Ambulance, 1, 4
 4th Australian Division, 50–1, 59, 63,
   89, 96, 98, 107
 5th Australian Division, 50–1, 53, 95,
   98–9, 104, 107
   ‘5th Australian Divisional Medical Order No. 1’, 52
   evacuation statistics, 55
   field ambulance units, 53, 55
 5th Australian Field Ambulance, 93
 9th Australian Field Ambulance, 89
 14th Australian Field Ambulance, 102 advanced dressing stations, 6
   Battle of Fromelles, 56
   Battle of Hamel, 100
   Battle of Mouquet Farm, 64
 American Expeditionary Force, 81
 Anderson, Lt Col John Hubback, 66–8, 71–3
 Anderson, Brig Gen Robert Murray
   McCheyne, 151, 153

- Anderson, LCpl W., see Lyon Taemer
- Anzac legend, Simpson and his donkey and, 3
- Armistice, 97
- Army Massage Corps, 129–30
- army school for medical officers, 84
- Australian Army Medical Corps, 28, 49, 62, 64
- challenge to traditional hierarchies by, 79
- consolidation of control of medical care by, 65
- and Dardanelles campaign, 24, 44
- development of, 179–87
- fatigue parties, 119, 121
- forms of authority contested with, 8–9
- forward medical posts, treatment in, 102
- influence on military areas, 46
- involvement of civilians in, 12, 180
- lobbying by, 47
- management of Australian auxiliary hospitals, 112
- management of sick and wounded, 1918, 108
- recognition of venereal disease problem by, 147
- role in First World War, 3–4
- service by Simpson in, 1–2
- and venereal disease, 155–6, 174
- venereal disease control conference, February 1915, 148–51
- see also* medical services
- Australian Army Medical Services constituent parts, 6
- see also* medical services
- Australian Army Nursing Service, 112
- Australian auxiliary hospitals, 7, 109–12, 159
- care in, 127–38
- domesticity and, 112, 123, 125–6, 138, 140
- employment of women at Harefield, 118–21
- gender difference in, 112
- gender norms and, 126
- gendered nature of work in, 112
- location of, 115–26
- purpose of, 113–15
- repatriation of soldiers from, 115
- as sites of medical–military authority, 138–40
- structure of agreements with property owners, 117–18
- women’s duties, Harefield, 121
- Australian command depots, 7, 113
- Australian Corps, 80–1, 97, 106, 108, 173, 182
- ‘defence scheme’ for, 85
- influenza outbreak, 1918, 93–5
- medical record-keeping, 85
- staffing of, 82–3
- withdrawal of, 101, 107
- Australian Field Ambulance, 6–7, 58, 78, 91
- see also* field ambulance units
- Australian Headquarters, London, 159, 163
- Australian identity and nationalism recognition of, 42–4
- significance of Dardanelles campaign for, 47–8, 181
- Australian Imperial Force, 49, 80
- hospitalisation rate, 4
- venereal disease and, see venereal disease
- Australian Naval and Military Expeditionary Force, 9, 40, 186
- Australian and New Zealand Army Corps, restructure, 1916, 50–1
- Australian Red Cross, 133
- Australian unit war diaries, 15
- Australian War Memorial, 15, 144
- Barber, Col George Walter, 83, 89, 91, 94, 99–103, 105
- resuscitation teams and, 106–7
- Barrett, Maj J.W., 25, 146, 150
- Battle of Amiens, 97, 99–100, 105–6
- Battle of Bullecourt, 65
- Battle of Dernancourt, 89
- Battle of Fromelles, 51–8
- Battle of Hamel, 81, 96–102, 105
- Battle of Messines, 49, 62, 65–74, 180, 182
- see also* Thomas splints
- Battle of Mont Saint-Quentin, 97, 101
- Battle of Mouquet Farm, 63–5

- Battle of Passchendaele, 77–9
 Battle of Péronne, 101
 Battle of Pozières, 58–63
 Battle of Pozières Ridge, 64
 Battle of the Somme, 51
 Battle of Villers-Bretonneux, 92–3
 Bean, Charles, 9, 35
 Bell, Jane, 25
 Billyard-Leake, Charles, 109, 117
 Birdwood, Gen Sir William, 24, 44, 50, 80, 82, 151, 156
 Birrell, Brig Gen W.G., 23, 25, 29, 32, 34, 36, 38, 45
 Blood Transfusion Team, 105
 Blue Label Outfits, 163, 173
 Blue Light Depots, 149, 171
 early treatment at, 164–5
see also early treatment depots
Boomerang, see Harefield Park
Boomerang
 Bowlby, Sir Anthony, 95, 104
 Braithwaite, General Sir Walter Pipon,
 22–3, 32, 38
 Bridges, Maj Gen Sir William, 24, 44
 British auxiliary hospitals, 112, 115
 British Expeditionary Force, 7, 50, 64–5, 78
 British Red Cross Society, 121, 132
 British Social Hygiene Council, 16
 British XI Corps, 51
 British XXII Corps, 80
 Britishness, 41
 Bullen, Capt N., 53, 56–8
 Burtchaell, Lt Col C.H., 95
 Butler, A.G., 4, 9–10, 21, 49, 74, 80, 141, 146, 150, 186
 Butler, Lt Col Harry Nairn, 61
- casualties
 Battle of Fromelles, 51, 53, 55–6
 Battle of Mouquet Farm, 63
 Battle of Pozières, 59
 estimate of by Keble, 32
 Gallipoli August Offensive, 34 casualty clearance and evacuation, 6–7, 102–3, 180–1
 Battle of Fromelles, 56–8
 Battle of Hamel, 97
 Battle of Messines, 68, 72–4
 Battle of Mouquet Farm, 64–5
 Battle of Pozières, 62
 changes to, 80
 evolving model of, 65
 and Ford motor cars, 101
 Hundred Days Offensive, 81, 101
 Western Front, 79, 84–5, 87–8, 90–3, 97, 184
 casualty clearing stations, 6, 91, 182, 184 and Australian soldiers, 115–16 medicine forward of, 106–7 casualty evacuation plans
 Battle of Fromelles, 52
 Gallipoli campaign, 33
 chancre, 164
 chastity, 143, 154, 177
 condoms, 154–5, 160, 172, 178
see also French letters confession, as medicalised phenomenon, 176–7
 Corbin, Lt Col John, 28, 34
 Crowther, Lt Col William, 97
- Dardanelles campaign, 12, 16–17, 175
 and Australian nationalism, 47–8
 medical services at, 21–6, 47–8
see also Gallipoli campaign
 Dardanelles Commission, 32–4, 47, 183, 187
 and Australian medical–military expertise, 42–4
 communication between medical services and Royal Navy, 28–9 evidentiary materials, 37–9 and Howse, 19, 28, 39–40, 44, 74, 82, 180–2
 interaction of Howse and Fisher at, 41–2
 and Keble, 23–4, 33, 40
 purpose of, 36
 reasons for preoccupation with medical care, 36–7
 Dennis, Lt Col C.E., 131–2 Devonshire House, 121
 divisional collecting stations, 104
 donkeys, First World War service recognition, 3
 Downey, Col W.H., 92, 95, 98, 100–4

- Early Treatment Depot, London, 163–4
 early treatment depots, 149, 155, 178
   see also Blue Light Depots ‘Empire Medical Service’, 75–7
- fancy work, 133–8, 180
- field ambulance units
   1st Australian Division, 61
   5th Australian Division, 53, 55
   Battle of Fromelles, 53, 57
   Battle of Hamel, 98
   Battle of Messines, 68–9
   and German Spring Offensive, 101
   see also Australian Field Ambulance
- Field Service Regulations*, 7, 102, 184–5
- Fisher, Andrew, interaction with Howse at Dardanelles
   Commission, 41–2
- French letters, 160–1, 163, 172–3, 181
   see also condoms
- Gallipoli campaign, 179
   aftermath, 35–9
   April landings, 26–31
   August Offensive, 32–5, 181
   Australian medical–military expertise, 39–44
   casualty transportation, 28 competing masculinities at, 185 gas warfare, 86–7
   gender hierarchies, 185–6
   German Spring Offensive, 81, 88–93 and field ambulance operations, 101
   Godley, Gen Alexander, 50, 76–7 gonorrhoea, 146, 148, 164
   Gordon-Taylor, Maj G., 105, 107
   Gough, Gen Sir Hubert, 50, 60
   Griffiths, Col Thomas, 120
- Haig, Sir Douglas, 60, 95–6
   ‘Special Order of the Day’, 23 March 1918, 88–9
- Haking, Lt Gen Sir Richard, 51
- Hamilton, Sir Ian, 15, 22, 24, 32, 34, 37–9, 45, 95, 182
   and Australian officers, 40–1
- Hardy, Col Charles Henry William, 51–3
- Harefield Park Boomerang*, 16
   fancy work and, 135, 138
- ‘Hospital-ities’ column, 123 and marriage in, 123–5
- Hayward, Col W.T., 116–18
- ‘Hints on Health in Egypt’, 147
- Holmes à Court, Maj Alan Worsley, 105–7
- hospital magazines, 16
- hospital ships, 22, 28, 32–3, 127 conditions on, 29–31
- Howse, Sir Neville, 11, 15, 24, 34–5, 44–5, 68, 74, 76–7, 81, 86, 106,
 118, 122, 128, 130, 149–51,
 156, 175, 181–2, 184–6
   criticism of, 40
   and Dardanelles Commission, 19, 28, 39–40, 44, 74, 82, 180–2
   and Fisher at Dardanelles
   Commission, 41–2
   Gallipoli arrangements and, 25–6
   Hundred Days Offensive, 81, 97
   casualty clearance and evacuation, 81, 101
- Huxtable, Col R.B., 94
- ‘imperial army project’, 77
- ‘Imperial Medical Administration’, 75
- imperial medical services, discussions on future of, 74
- ‘Incidence of Venereal Disease in the AIF’, 153
- influenza outbreak, 1918, 93–5
- Jennings, Mary, 131–2
- Keble, Lt Col Alfred Ernest Conquer, 32–3, 38, 45
   Australian identity and nationalism and, 43–4
   Dardanelles campaign plan, 24
   and Dardanelles Commission, 23–4, 33, 40
   Gallipoli August Offensive casualty estimate by, 32
- Keogh, Sir Alfred, 22, 38, 44, 74–6
- Kirkpatrick, John Simpson, see
 Simpson, John
- Lyon Taemer, 123
   ‘Why women remain single’ and,
   123–5

- Maclagan, Maj Gen Ewen Sinclair, 97
 Maguire, Col F.A., 89
 main dressing stations, 6
   Battle of Hamel, 100, 105
   blood transfusions, 105
   gas poisoning cases and, 86
   location of, 104
   Western Front, 84, 86, 91–2
 Manifold, Col Courtenay Clarke, 78, 83–6, 91 marriage in Harefield Park Boomerang, 123–5 and women interested in, 124–5 marriages, from 1st Australian Auxiliary Hospital Harefield, 122–3 masculinity, 14
   competing narratives of, 186
   derivation of, 169 and Gallipoli campaign, 185 martial, and fancy work, 136–7 rural living and, 40
   and venereal disease, 153
 masseurs, use of orderlies as, 131
 masseuses, 130–1, 139
 May, Maj Leonard, 87
 McClure, Lt Col Fay, 9
 McGregor, Lt Col Roy Stanley, 97, 105
 McWhae, Col Douglas Murray, 156, 158–62, 175
 medical care
   central role of in warfare, 13
   gender hierarchy in, 14–15 structure of, 1918, 81
   see also venereal disease medical services changes to as response to Gallipoli landings, 31–2 exclusion from Dardanelles campaign planning, 45 Gallipoli August Offensive and, 32–5 history of, 9–16
   involvement in planning for Battle of Fromelles, 52 organisation of, Dardanelles campaign, 21–6
   see also Australian Army Medical Corps medicalisation of the military, 45–8 of venereal disease treatment, 176 medicine, wartime structures of, 6–9 Mediterranean Expeditionary Force, 2, 11, 19, 26, 31, 141
   after Gallipoli August Offensive, 34 ‘Force Order No. 1’, 22
 Metcalfe, Maj J.B., 78 military forces, medicalisation of, 45–8 mobile warfare, 91–2, 96, 108
 Monash, Gen Sir John, 80, 96
 Monro, Gen Sir Charles, 34, 51
 motor ambulances, 52, 61, 64, 85, 91, 97, 99
 Nargol Outfits, 154–5, 160–1, 163–4, 172
 Nash, Lt Col Brady, 148
 National Archives of Australia, 144
 National Council for Combating of Venereal Disease, 171 national creation myth, 1, 9–11
 New Zealand Expeditionary Force, 50
 No Man’s Land, 4, 55, 57, 64
 nurses, 9, 187
 O’Keefe, Maj Gen W.W., 103–6 orderlies, 6, 114, 119
   auxiliary hospitals, 118
   at Harefield, 130–1
   venereal disease treatment and, 155 physiotherapy treatment, 129–30
 Plumer, Gen Sir Hubert, 50
 Porter, Sir James, 32
 purity movements, 142, 144, 169, 170–1
 Rae, Capt Keith Stanley, 86–7
 Raffan, Maj George, 153–7, 174 efficacy of approach to venereal disease by, 172–4 instructions to medical officers on venereal disease prevention and treatment, 162–8
 Ramsay Smith, Col W., 25, 149
 Red Cross, 22, 112 insignia, respect for, 26, 35 regimental aid posts, 6
   Battle of Messines, 69, 71
 Regimental Medical Officer, 6 rehabilitation of soldiers, treatment of by historians, 110–11

- Reid, Sir George, 22 reserve dressing stations, 100 Resuscitation Committee, 107 resuscitation teams, 102–8, 184
 Rout, Ettie, 143, 151–3
 Royal Army Medical Corps, 6–7, 24,
 28, 49, 62, 179, 183, 185
 Royal Navy, 28–9
 Ryan, Col C., 30–1, 149
- Second Army Medical Society, 66, 68
 sexuality history of, Australia, 143–4
   and venereal disease, 154
 Shepherd, Col A.E., 53, 55, 57, 92, 94, 97–8, 101
 short-arm parades, 162, 167–8
 Simpson, John, 1–3, 11
   service in AAMC, 1–2
 Sloggett, Lt Gen Sir Arthur, 90–2, 95–6
 Smeal, Maj James A., 127, 130
 Smith, Col Kenneth, 99–100 soldier health care, as part of social contract, 12–13
 Soldiers' Entertainment Fund, 133
 State, control of male bodies by, 13–14
 stretcher-bearers, 2, 6, 57
   Battle of Fromelles, 55–6, 58
   Battle of Mouquet Farm, 64
   Battle of Passchendaele, 77
   Battle of Pozzières, 61–2
 Sturdee, Col Alfred Hobart, 62, 64–5
 'Suggested Reform in the Management of the Venereal Disease Problem', 156
 Sutherland, Lt Col Bertram Milne,
   118–20
 Sutton, Col Alfred, 62, 72
 syphilis, 146, 148, 164
- Thomas, Hugh Owen, 66
 Thomas splints, 66–8, 84
 Thompson, Lt Col A.S., 102–3 Treloar, John, 15
 trench warfare, 90, 108
- venereal disease
   Australian manhood and, 153, 157
   Cairo, 1916, 151
   furlough and, 159–60, 175–6 infection rate, Egypt, 141
   medicalisation of, 145 military authorities and, 149 punitive consequences for hospital admittance for, 171 reasons for pragmatic approach to, 174–8
   reasons for prevalence of, 142 recognition of as problem by Australian Army Medical Corps, 147
   repatriation of soldiers with, 141 response to, 142–3 shame and, 157–8
   soldier financial loss and, 158–9 statistics, 141–2, 172–3, 180–1 venereal disease control, 16, 186 analyses of, 144–5
   Australian Army Medical Corps
     conference, February 1915, 148–51
   British involvement with, 183
   gender norms and, 15
   soldiers and, 14
 venereal disease lectures, 164, 168–72, 177 venereal disease prevention and treatment, 84, 154 abortive treatment, 149, 155, 157, 160–1, 165, 170–1, 173–4, 181
   Blue Label Outfits, 163, 173
   Blue Light Depots, 149, 164–5, 171 condoms, 154–5, 160, 172, 178 (see also French letters) dissemination of educational materials, 150
   early treatment depots, 149, 155, 178
   Form 4, 160, 162, 172, 174
   French letters, 160–1, 163, 172–3,
     181 (see also condoms)
   'Hints on Health in Egypt', 147 influence of non-government figures on, 151–3
   instructions to medical officers from Raffan, 162–8
   medicalisation of, 176
   monthly lectures, 160, 168
   Nargol Outfits, 154–5, 160–1, 163–4, 172

- venereal disease prevention and treatment (cont.)
 orderlies and, 155
 prophylactic depots, 149–50 prophylactic treatment, 171
 Raffan's approach to, 172–4 reforms to, 155–6
 restraint of male sexuality, 154 role of ignorance in prevention of, 159 shift to medical approach, 155–62
 short-arm parades, 162, 167–8 soldier response to policy, 147–8 supply shortages, 166–7
 use of probes in, 165–6 and women, 147
 Victoria League, 133
 Voluntary Aid Detachment, 112
- Walker, Maj Gen Harold, 60, 86
 walking wounded
 Battle of Fromelles, 58
 Battle of Messines, 68
 Battle of Mouquet Farm, 64
 Battle of Passchendaele, 78
 Western Front, 85, 91
 Webb, Col Ramsay, 72
 Western Front
 acceptance of civilian expertise at, 95–6 casualty clearance and evacuation, 85, 87–8, 90–1, 97, 184 defensive medical planning for, 85–8 medical care decisions at, 93 retreat plans, 92
 White, Maj Gen (Cyril) Brudenell, 82
 white Australia, protecting the flower of, 143, 151–5
 White Cross League, 170–1, 176
 Williams, Sir William ('Mo'), 25, 35–6, 113, 148–9, 181
 'Woman Labour', 118 women and auxiliary hospital service, 121–2
 at Harefield, 118–21, 185–6
 as sites of disease, 177 and venereal disease prevention, 147 voluntary war service by, 122
 Women's Auxiliary Army Corps, 112, 118
 'women's work', 112, 118–21 139
 Woodward, Brig Gen E.M., 22–4, 38
 Yeatman, Lt Col Charleton, 121–2, 128–31
 Young Men's Christian Association, 112, 151, 174
 Zwar, Maj Bernhard, 146, 175