Contents

Figures, maps and tables vi
Preface ix
Acknowledgements xi
Note on style xiv
Abbreviations xv

Introduction: More than a man and his donkey 1

1 Gallipoli: A case of criminal negligence? 19

2 Medicine in the lines: Stationary warfare on the Western Front, 1916–17 49

3 The Western Front in 1918: The AAMC in mobile warfare 80

4 A pleasant dose of medicine? The purpose, place and practice of auxiliary hospitals 109

5 The most difficult problem: Preventing and treating venereal disease 141

Conclusion: Developing an Australian medical service 179

Notes 188
Bibliography 207
Index 214