

INDEX

- accountability bureaucratic forms of, 247–8 civic trust and, 265–7 of fiduciary government, 241 as interpersonal activity, 246 managerial, 247–8
 political trust and, 267–72
 in psychology of trust, 97–9 psychological consequences of, 97–8
- accounting, in psychology of trust, 97–9 psychological consequences of, 97–8
 social approval in, 98
- “acting as” another, 136
- “acting for the benefit of” another, 136–7
- “acting in place of” another, 136–8
- ad hoc advisory relationships, 44–53 choice in, at extra-legal level, 48–50 under contract law, 48–9 promises in, 48–9
 as duty-imposing, 48
 epistemic dependence and, 53
 first grade choice dependent obligations, 49 judicial approach to, 44–6 loyalty in, development of, 51 notice concerns in, 46–8 power-conferring, 48
 second grade choice dependent obligations, 49–50 social relationships in, 45–6 third grade choice dependent obligations, 49–50 voluntariness in, 49–53
 of attachments, 35–50
 of involvements, 50–3
- ad hoc fiduciary relationships, 3 confidence in, 52–3
 epistemic dependence in, 36, 54
 under fiduciary law, 54 thick trust in, 3, 36
 trust in, 52–3
 vulnerability in, 36
- advisory relationships, in fiduciary contexts.
See also ad hoc advisory relationships
- bias in, 42
 challenges in, 36–9 discretion in, 36–7 critiques of, 37–9
 for doctors, 38
 for lawyers, 38–9
 for money managers, 38
- epistemic dependence in, 3, 36–7, 39–43
 in fiduciary law, 41–3
 in lawyer-client relationships, 41–3 over-inclusive rules for, 41–3 prophylactic measures for, 41–3
 trust and, 39–41
 vulnerability and, 39–41
- Miller on, 3, 37
- agency costs
 for financial trusts, 13 in trust law, 13
- Aggregate Theory, 112
- Anscombe, Elizabeth, 19
- anxiety. See insinuation anxiety
- apparent conflicts of interest, 162–3 definition of, 162–3
 potential, 163–4
- Atkinson, Rob, 12, 59
- attachments, voluntariness of, 35–50
- Aurelius, Marcus, 275–6
- Austin, J. L., 140
- authority authorization and, 176–9
 in international courts, 178–9
 in parent-child relationship, 177–8
 scope of, 176–7
- fiduciary, 18
 of institutions, 189, 195–6 contractual liability of, 190 extrinsic aspects of, 192 intrinsic aspects of, 192 through legitimate inquiry, 191 responsibility of, 190–1 at secondary level, 195–6
- political, 9
 ranking, 101

- authorization, 178–9 authority and, 176–9
   in international courts, 178–9
   in parent–child relationship, 177–8
   scope of, 176–7
 in fiduciary relationships, 2 mechanisms of, consent, 2 modes of, for Miller, 29 autonomy, 75–86
   beneficiary, 4–5
   complete deference and, 81 control and, 79–80
   definition of, 79
   in fiduciary relationships of beneficiaries, 4
   transfer of, 4
   trust and, 77–8
   gender socialization and, 83 imprudence and, 82
   partial deference and, 81 prudential deference and, 82 relational, 79, 83–6 self-governance and, 79, 81
   transfer of, 4
   trust and, 75–84
   in fiduciary relationships, 77–8 negative relationship with, 75–9 positive relationship with, 79–84 avoidance of fiduciary conflicts, loyalty as, 33
- bad faith consequences of, 144–8 allowances without profit, 144–5 dismissal of employees and agents, 145–7 forfeiture of commissions, 145 dishonesty and, 142–3
   of agencies, 147
 diversity of norms as distinct from, 128–36 good faith as lack of, 140–1 as legal concept, 128 through “misuse” of position, 147–8 Baier, Annette, 77, 139, 186–7, 228, 260–1
 basic trust, 257
Behemoth or the Long Parliament (Hobbes), 185–6 benefactor-plus model, of friendship, 30–2 beneficiary autonomy, in fiduciary relationships, 4–5 Bentham, Jeremy, 12, 286–8. See also utilitarianism critique of Lockean economic theories, 286–91 foundationalism of, 286–7 liberalism of, 286
 utilitarianism of, 12, 287–8
   for-profit organizations and, 12 “best interest” standard, of trust law, 13
- bias
 in advisory relationships, 42 conflicts of interest and, 161, 168–70 default, in psychology of trust, 95
 in fiduciary law, 169
 in private administration, 8
 in public administration, 8
 self-dealing, 92–3
 self-serving biases, 92–3
 status quo, 95
- bilateral fiduciary relationships, 74. See also fiduciary relationships Birtchnell v Equity Trustees, Executors and Agency Company Limited, 70 Bratton, William, 314
 Broughman, Brian, 12–13 business judgment rule (BJR), 13, 113–14, 120–1, 123
- Canada, Indigenous peoples in, fiduciary relationship with, 198 in Guerin case, 207–9, 211–16
 under Indian Act, 207
 for property rights, 208
 in Wewaykum case, 209, 212–18
- candor principle, 226
 Cardozo, Benjamin (Chief Justice), 118–19 choice, in ad hoc advisory relationships, 48–50 civic trust, 11, 182, 260–1
   accountability and, 265–7 climate of trust, 260–1
   as impersonal, 11
Clayton v. Clayton, 72–3 client-centered lawyering, 85–6 primary goals of, 85
 climate of trust, 260–1 cognitive dependency, epistemic dependence and, 3 cognitive dissonance, 93 colonialism. See Indigenous peoples; settler states communal sharing, 101
 communicative act consent as, 19–20
   presumed consent as, 29 community property, 123–4 competence, in psychology of trust, 94–7 in assessment of other’s needs, 95–7 maximization of wealth, 94–5 Prospect Theory and, 94–5 complete deference, 81

- Conaglen, Matthew, 155
- confidence
- in ad hoc fiduciary relationships, 52–3
  - in contract law, 55–64
    - development of, 58–9
  - in contractual relationships, 4
  - definition of, 4
  - in fiduciary relationships, 4
    - development of, 58–9
  - in systems, 61–2
  - trust as distinct from, 56
- conflict of duty, 160–1, 170
- conflict rules, 8
- lack of profit as distinct from, 8
  - in private administration, 8
  - in public administration, 8
- conflicts, 149–50, 154–65
- under corporate opportunity doctrine, 167–8
  - definition of, 154–7
  - elimination of, 158–9
  - management of, 158–9
  - no profit rule and, 166–7
  - non-disclosure of, 168
  - over unauthorized profits, 165–8
  - regulation of, 149–50
  - rules of, 8
- conflicts of interest, 152–3
- apparent, 162–3
    - definition of, 162–3
    - potential, 163–4
  - bias and, 161, 168–70
  - conflict of duty compared to, 160–1
  - de minimis* limit for, 164–5
  - definition of, 155–7, 161
  - duties against, 157–9
  - fiduciary, 154–5
  - misuse of power as distinct from, 171
  - in private fiduciary law, 157
  - regulations of, 152–3, 156–7
  - types of, 159–61
- consensualism principle, 226
- consent
- expressions of
    - as communicative act, 19–20
    - as external act, 18–19
    - in fiduciary powers theory, 18–22
    - as illocutionary force, 20–2
    - as intentional, 19
  - in fiduciary powers theory, 18–32
    - expressions of, 18–22
    - fiduciary reasons for, 22–32
    - presumption of consent, 24–5, 29–32
    - revocation of consent, 24
  - trust and, 22–9
  - in fiduciary relationships, 2–3
    - as authorization mechanism, 2
    - by decree, 2–3
  - Owen on, 18
  - presumed
    - actual consent and, 29
    - as communicative act, 29
    - fiduciary reasons and, 29–32
    - institutional grounds for, 29
- consequences of being informed, 98–9
- disclosure mechanisms, 99
- consumer contracts, 60–3
- contract forms, 65–7
- deployment of, 71–2
  - fiduciary forms compared to, 66–7, 71–2
  - thin trust and, 67–9
- contract law
- ad hoc advisory relationships under, 48–9
    - promises in, 48–9
  - confidence in, 55–64
    - development of, 58–9
  - for consumers, 60–1
  - discretionary power under, 69
  - equity's operation in, 58
  - expectation damages under, 60
  - good faith standards and, 69
  - lawfulness standard in, 69
  - no profit rule in, 60
  - reasonableness standard in, 69
  - regulation under, 61
  - trust in, 55–64
    - thin, 69
- contract model, for partnership fiduciary law, 115–16
- contract theory. See relational contract theory
- contracts. See also contractual relationships
- confidence in, 55–64
  - consumer, 60–3
  - forms for, 65–7
    - deployment of, 71–2
    - fiduciary forms compared to, 66–7, 71–2
    - thin trust and, 67–9
  - incomplete, 303–8
    - in startups, 312–13
  - non-fiduciary discretionary power, 69, 72–3
  - in relational contract theory, 68
  - self-interest in, 65–6
  - social relationships and, 63
  - in systems, 62–3
  - trust and, 306
  - trusting beliefs in, 64–73
    - contractualisation of, 70–2
  - zone of discretion for, 305

- contractual liability, of institutions, 190 contractual methods, 72 contractual relationships under fiduciary law, 12–13
   personal trust in, 4
 contractualisation, 70–2 control, autonomy and, 79–80 corporal liberty, 184–5 corporate officers and directors, as stakeholder fiduciaries, 119–21
 corporate opportunity doctrine, 131, 167–8 corporate social responsibility, Friedman on, 12 Criddle, Evan, 6–7, 176, 192 criminal law, 175 culture of public justification, 241
- Darwall, Stephen, 266
 Davis, Seth, 220–1
de minimis limit, for conflict of interest, 164–5 decree, fiduciary relationships by, 2–3 default bias, in psychology of trust, 95 deference complete, 81
   partial, 81
   prudential, 82
 deontic second personal reasons, 27 dependence
   epistemic
     in advisory relationships, 3 cognitive dependency and, 3
     in fiduciary powers theory, 3
   personal trust influenced by, 2 dependency. See cognitive dependency; epistemic dependence
 Dictator Game, 92 disclosure
   as duty, 5 insinuation anxiety from, 5–6 trust influenced by, 5–6 disclosure effects, in psychology of trust, 93–4 discretion, in advisory relationships, 36–7 critiques of, 37–9
   for doctors, 38
   for lawyers, 38–9
   for money managers, 38
 discretionary power
   under contract law, 69
   in fiduciary relationships, 75–6 in government, 225
   non-fiduciary, 69, 72–3 of trustees, 194
 discretionary theory, good faith under, 130, 132–4
- dishonesty, bad faith and, 142–3
   of agencies, 147
 distrust, 255–6
 distrust, strategy of, rule of law and, 244 diversity of representational relationships “acting as” another, 136
   “acting for the benefit of” another, 136–7
   “acting in place of” another, 136–8 doctors, discretion by, 38 dual fiduciary problem, 313–14 duty not to breach undertaken obligations, 135–6
 duty-imposing ad hoc advisory relationships, 48
- empathy gap, 96–7
   cold state in, 96
   hot state in, 96
 encapsulated interest, trust as, 67 endowment effect, 95 Entity Theory, 112–13
 epistemic dependence
   in ad hoc advisory relationships, 53
   in ad hoc fiduciary relationships, 36, 54
   in advisory relationships, 3, 36–7, 39–43
   in fiduciary law, 41–3
   in lawyer-client relationships, 41–3
   over-inclusive rules for, 41–3 prophylactic measures for, 41–3
   trust and, 39–41
   vulnerability and, 39–41
   cognitive dependency and, 3
   in fiduciary powers theory, 3 outside of advisory relationships, 41
   trust and, 53
 ethical theory, 280
   of individual rights, 282–6 ethics of modern liberalism, 294 in neo-classical republicanism, 299–300 expectation damages, under contract law, 60 expressions of consent
     as communicative act, 19–20
     as external act, 18–19
     in fiduciary powers theory, 18–22
     as illocutionary force, 20–2
     as intentional, 19
     as shared knowledge, 20–1, 23–4 impersonal, 19
   personal, 19
 extrinsic aspects, of institutions, 192

- fairness, in fiduciary relationships, 109 faith. See good faith family relationships, 30 Faulkner, Paul, 2–3
   on fiduciary powers theory, 2, 17 fidelity, rule of law and, 244–6 fiduciary authority, 18 fiduciary Crown. See Canada; Indigenous peoples; New Zealand fiduciary duties loyalty as, 6–7
   personal trust and, 6–8 fiduciary government, 224–8 accountability of, 241 candor principle in, 226 consensualism principle in, 226 culture of public justification and, 241 discretionary power of, 225 information asymmetry problems in, 241 normative theory of the means and, 227 overview of, 223–4 political distrust and, 238–41 political participatory rights, 233 political trust and, 8–11, 228–33
     generalized, 228–30
     objective accounts of, 230–3 particular, 228–30
     republican conception of, 234 subjective accounts of, 230–3 political trustworthiness and, 236–8 publicity, 241
   thick accounts of, 10, 226–7 thin accounts of, 10, 227–8, 233–6 fiduciary jurisprudence, 216–21 fiduciary law academic interest in, 1 ad hoc fiduciary relationships under, 54 advisory relationships under, 41–3 contractual outcomes under, 12–13
   epistemic dependence and, 41–3 in horizontal business relationships, 13 incompleteness and, 308–15 limitation as solution to, 312–15 in traditional realms of business, 308–10 trust preservation and, 310–12
   loyalty in, 33, 309
   no conflict rule in, 59–60 performance under, 59–61
   personal trust and, 1–6 private, 157
     loyalty in, 193
   remedies under, 194–5 review of, grounds for, 151 risk minimization strategies as supplement to, 13
   self-interest in, 66
   social relationships and, 64
   for startups, 312–15
   trust in, 35
Fiduciary Obligations (Finn), 134 fiduciary political theory, 200–6 assimilation of state-Indigenous example, 216–21 fiduciary jurisprudence in, 216–21 fiduciary power, limits of, 76 fiduciary powers theory consent in, 18–32
     expression of, 18–22
     fiduciary reasons for, 22–32 presumption of, 24–5, 29–32 revocation of, 24
     trust and, 22–9
   epistemic dependence in, 3 fiduciary authority in, 18 fiduciary reasons in, 22–32 consent and, 22–9
     presumed consent and, 29–32 second personal, 22, 26–7 shared knowledge in, 22–3
     third-personal, 22
   fiduciary relationships and, 2, 17
   loyalty in, 32–4
   shared knowledge in
     as dynamic, 23–4
     in fiduciary reasons, 22–3
   trust in consent and, 22–9
     radical ethical demand of, 27 fiduciary reasons
     in fiduciary powers theory, 22–32
     consent and, 22–9
     presumed consent and, 29–32
     second personal, 22, 26–7
     shared knowledge in, 22–3
     third-personal, 22
 fiduciary relationships. See also advisory relationships; good faith; stakeholder fiduciaries authorization in, mechanisms for consent, 2 autonomy in of beneficiaries, 4
     transfer of, 4
     trust and, 77–8
   benefactor-plus model of friendship, 30–2 bilateral, 74

- consent in, 2–3
 as authorization mechanism, 2
 by decree, 2–3
 definition of, 17
 elements of, 74
 fairness in, 109
 fiduciary powers theory of, 2, 17 forms of, 65–7 contract forms compared to, 66–7
   thin trust and, 67–9
 friendship as distinct from, 51 with Indigenous peoples. See Indigenous peoples involvement-based, 44
 loyalty in, 32–4, 106
 Miller on, 17
 non-stakeholder, 106 parties in, 87
 paternalism in, 75–6, 78, 83
 personal trust in, 2–3 power/liability theory of agency in, 195 service mandates in, 75
 social relationships and, 63 with stakeholder fiduciaries, 108–9 entrusted power in, 108–9 evenhandedness in, 109
   fairness in, 109
   integrity as principle in, 109
   solicitude principle in, 109 with state, 9–10, 199–200 structural paternalism in, 4 trust in, 32–4, 55–64, 74 thick, 3, 32, 36
 trusting beliefs in, 64–73
   contractualisation of, 70–2 trusting relationships compared to, 29–30 philial, 30
   transactional, 30
   trustworthy pose in, 87 typologies of, 100–1 fiduciary responsibility, 62–3 financial trusts. See trusts Finn, Paul, 134
   on good faith standard, 143–4
 first grade choice dependent obligations, 49 for-profit managers Locke on, 278–82
   ethical obligations of, 278–9 in modern economic theory, 288–91 Bentham as influence on, 290–1 under neo-classical republicanism, 291–7 for-profit organizations neo-classical republicanism and, 12 utilitarianism and, 12
 foundationalism, 286–7
 Fox-Decent, Evan, 216–20, 226–7 Friedman, Milton, 12, 278–9, 284–5, 300–1 friendship
   benefactor-plus model, 30–2 fiduciary relationships as distinct from, 51 as involvement, 51–2 obligations of, 30–2 trust as element of, 52
 Fuller, Lon L., 196
 Gallanis, Thomas, 13
 gender attitudes, in psychology of trust, 100 gender socialization, 83
 general partnerships, 7 generalized political trust, 228–30 Gold, Andrew, 3
   on fiduciary relationships, 3. See also ad hoc fiduciary relationships on thick trust, 3 good faith, in fiduciary relationships, 7–8. See also bad faith contract law and, 69 through corporate opportunity doctrine, 131
   as duty, 128
   in duty not to breach undertaken obligations, 135–6
   elements of, 139–40
   Finn on, 143–4
   good will as distinct from, 138 as lack of bad faith, 140–1 loyalty and, 7–8 motivation as element of, 7–8 through “no conflict” principle, 130–4 through “no unauthorised profit” rule, 131–2 in proper purposes doctrine, 134–5
   scope of, 7
   trustworthiness as distinct from, 138 through voluntary trust and agency obligations, 129
   under Trustee Act 1925, 129 good will, good faith as distinct from, 138 Gray, John Chipman, 323–4 group stereotypes, in psychology of trust, 99–100 Guerin case (Canadian Supreme Court), 207–9, 211–16 Hardin, Russell, 67 Harding, Matthew, 4, 32, 35
   on trust, 40
   thick trust, 88

- Hawley, Katherine, 317
 Hillman, Robert, 117–18
 Hobbes, Thomas, 9, 136, 176, 180–2, 185–6.
     See also laws of nature on corporal liberty, 184–5 on mutual trust, 179–86 on sovereignty, 183–4 horizontal business relationships, fiduciary law in, 13
 horizontal trust, 182
 Hume, David, 260
- illocutionary force, in expression of consent, 20–2
- impersonal expressions, 19 impersonal trust, 11
     civic trust, 11
     political trust, 11
     fiduciary government and, 8–11
     as particularized, 10
- imprudence, autonomy and, 82 incomplete contracting, 303–8
     in startups, 312–13
 Indian Act, Canada, 207 Indigenous peoples, fiduciary relationship with state as beneficiaries, 205
     in Canada, 198
     in Guerin case, 207–9, 211–16
     under Indian Act, 207
     for property rights, 208
     in Wewaykum case, 209, 212–18
     in fiduciary political theory, 200–6 assimilation of state-Indigenous example, 216–21
     fiduciary jurisprudence in, 216–21 fiduciary relationship with state, 9–10, 199–200
     monism in, 200
     in New Zealand, fiduciary relationship with, 198
     for Māori rights, 210–11, 215–16 for property rights, of Indigenous peoples, 215–16
     under Treaty of Waitangi, 210–11
     in Wakatū case, 210–16
 paternalism in, 200
 in political sphere, 200–6 under private fiduciary law, 199–206, 211–16
     independent legal interests and, 211–12 protection of independent interests, 212–16
 under public fiduciary law, 199–206, 211–16
     independent legal interests and, 211–12
     private rights protections under, 201–2 protection of independent interests, 212–16
     public statuses of, 202–3 individual rights, ethical theory of, 282–6 information asymmetry in fiduciary government, 241 in non-stakeholder fiduciary relationships, 109
     in startups, 312–13
 insinuation anxiety, 5–6 institutional grounds, for presumed content, 29
- integrity, 109
 intentionality, of consent, 19 international courts, 178–9 international law, in settler states, rejection of, 203
- interpersonal trust, 87–8, 248–54
     basic trust, 257
     impersonal contexts for, 257–9 non-trust and, 254–6
     distrust, 255–6
     mistrust, 256
     predictive reliance in, 249–50 recognition dimensions of, 249–50 proleptic trust and, 253–4
     proto-trust, 249–50
     robust recognition trust and, 250–3 Ur-trust, 256–7, 264
- intrinsic aspects, of institutions, 192 involvement-based fiduciary relationships, 44 involvements, 30
     friendships, 51–2
     as syndrome of attitudes, 51 tort law and, 53
     voluntariness of, 50–3
- joint enterprises, 118–19
 joint venturers, 7, 118–19 judges, ad hoc advisory relationships and, 44–6 juridical trust, 263–5
- Keech v Sandford*, 165–6
 Klass, Gregory, 48
Klug v Klug, 142–3 knowledge. See shared knowledge
- Laby, Arthur, 37–9
 Langbein, John, 154 lawfulness standard, in contract law, 69 laws of nature dispositional aspect of, 187–8

- trust and, 186–97
- lawyers
- client-centered lawyering, 85–6
  - discretion by, 38–9
- legal forms, in property law theory, 65
- as regulative ideal, 65
- legality principle, 244–5
- Leslie, Melanie, 123
- Leviathan* (Hobbes), 180–2
- liberalism. See modern liberalism
- liberty. See corporal liberty
- Locke, John, 277–86
- Bentham’s critiques of, 286–91
  - on ethical liberty, 283
  - ethical theory for, 280
  - of individual rights, 282–6
  - on for-profit managers, 278–82
  - ethical obligations of, 278–9
  - liberalism of, 12
  - on natural rights, 280–1
  - on private property, 277–8
- Loewenstein, George, 93–4
- loyalty
- in ad hoc advisory relationships, 51
  - as avoidance of fiduciary conflicts, 33
  - definitions of, 33–4
  - as fiduciary duty, 6–7
  - in fiduciary law, 33, 309
  - in fiduciary powers theory, 32–4
  - in fiduciary relationships, 32–4, 106
  - good faith and, 7–8
  - under partnership fiduciary law, 111–12
  - in private fiduciary law, 193
  - psychological research on, 5
  - in psychology of trust, 91–4
  - moral norms for, 91–2
  - self-dealing biases and, 92–3
  - self-serving biases and, 92–3
  - social norms for, 91–2
  - of stakeholder fiduciaries, 108–17
  - as duty, 106
  - true, 33
  - from trust, 33–4
- MacNeil, Ian, 68
- managerial accountability, 247–8
- Māori rights, in New Zealand, 210–11, 215–16
- market pricing, 101
- Markovits, Daniel, 65–7, 75–6
- maximization of wealth, in psychology of trust, 94–5
- McLeod, Carolyn, 4–5
- Meinhard v. Salmon*, 118–19
- Mill, John Stuart, 295–6
- Miller, Paul, 10, 59
- on advisory relationships, legal differentiation between types of, 3, 37
- fiduciary powers theory
- epistemic dependence in, 3
  - fiduciary relationships and, 2, 17
  - on fiduciary relationships, 17
  - fiduciary powers theory and, 2, 17
  - modes of authorization, 29
- mistrust, 256
- “misuse” of position, as bad faith act, 147–8
- misuse of power, 150–4
- conflict of interest as distinct from, 171
  - conflicts of interest as distinct from, 171
  - under private law, 154
  - under public law, 152, 154
  - remedies for, 153
- modern liberalism
- Bentham as influence on, 286
  - capitalism and, conflicts between, 292
  - cultural sector of, 293–4
  - ethics of, 294
  - Locke as influence on, 12
  - modern legal theory, 291–2
  - political majoritarianism and, 291–2
- money managers, discretion by, 38
- monism, 200
- moral licensing, 94
- motivation, in good faith, 7–8
- mutual trust, 179–86
- natural right theories, 285
- natural rights, Locke on, 280–1
- neo-classical republicanism, 294–300
- cultural sector of, 299
  - economic sector of, 279–97
  - for-profit managers under, implications of, 291–7
  - for-profit organizations and, 12
  - integration of politics and ethics, 299–300
  - legal sector of, 279–99
- New Zealand, Indigenous peoples in, fiduciary relationship with, 198
- for Māori rights, 210–11, 215–16
  - for property rights, 215–16
  - under Treaty of Waitangi, 210–11
  - in Wakatū case, 210–16
- “no conflict” principle, 130–4
- no conflict rule, in contract law, 59–60
- no profit rule
- conflicts and, 166–7
  - in contract law, 60
- “no unauthorised profit” rule, 131–2
- unauthorized profits, conflicts over, 165–8

- non-fiduciary discretionary power, 69, 72–3 non-stakeholder fiduciary relationship, 106, 109–10 as asymmetrical, 109 information asymmetries in, 109 non-trust, 254–6
   distrust, 255–6
   mistrust, 256
 normative theory of the means, 227 notice concerns, in ad hoc advisory relationships, 46–8 Nozick, Robert, 286
- O'Neil, Colin, 139–40 obligations of friendship, 30–2 O'Neill, Onora, 243
 Owens, David, 18, 49, 51
- parent–child relationship, 177–8 partial deference, 81 particular fiduciary government, 228–30 partnership fiduciary law, 110–17 Aggregate Theory and, 112 business judgment rule, 113–14 contract model for, 115–16 Entity Theory and, 112–13 loyalty under, 111–12 partnership governance under, 114–17 partnership management, 112–14 property model for, 115 under Revised Uniform Partnership Act, 110–11 solidarity as duty under, 111 partnership governance, 114–17
 partnership management, 112–14 partnership stakeholder model, 117 paternalism, in fiduciary relationships, 75–6, 78, 83 with Indigenous peoples, 200 Penner, James, 7–8 personal expressions, 19 personal trust through conduct, 2
   in contractual relationships, 4 dependence or vulnerability as influence on, 2 fiduciary duties and, 6–8 fiduciary law and, 1–6
   in fiduciary relationships, 2–4 motivation as factor in, 1–2 proleptic trust and, 11, 253–4 recognitional trust and, 11 Pettit, Phillip, 10, 243 philial grounds, for presumed content, 29–30 philial trusting relationships, 30 with family, 30
   involvements, 30
 political authority, trust and, 9 political distrust, 238–41 political majoritarianism, 291–2 political participatory rights, 233 Political Theology (Schmitt), 192–3 political trust
   accountability and, 267–72
   fiduciary government and, 8–11, 228–33
   generalized, 228–30
   objective accounts of, 230–3
   particular, 228–30
   republican conception of, 234 subjective accounts of, 230–3
   as impersonal, 11
   as particularized, 10
   Trust Challenge and, 262–3 political trustworthiness, 236–8 Pollman, Elizabeth, 12–13 Postema, Gerald, 10–11
   on types of trust, 11 power. See also discretionary power; fiduciary powers theory; misuse of power fiduciary, limits of, 76 power-conferring ad hoc advisory relationships, 48 power/liability theory of agency, 195 predictive reliance, in interpersonal trust, 249–50 recognitional dimensions of, 249–50 presumed consent
   actual consent and, 29
   as communicative act, 29
   fiduciary reasons and, 29–32
   institutional grounds for, 29
   philial grounds for, 29–30 private administration
   bias in, 8
   conflict rules in, 8
 private fiduciary law, 157 Indigenous peoples under, 199–206, 211–16
   independent legal interests and, 211–12
   protection of independent interests, 212–16
   loyalty in, 193
 private law
   misuse of power under, 154 reciprocal limits on interactions under, 175–6 stakeholder fiduciaries in. See stakeholder fiduciaries private property, Locke on, 277–8

- profit, lack of. See also for-profit managers; for-profit organizations; no profit rule;
 unauthorized profits as distinct from conflict rules, 8
- proleptic trust, 11, 253–4
- promises, in contract law, 48–9
- proper purposes doctrine, 134–5
- property law theory, legal forms in, 65
 as regulative ideal, 65
- property model, for partnership fiduciary law, 115
- property rights, for Indigenous peoples, 208, 215–16
- prophylactic measures, for epistemic dependence, 41–3
- Prospect Theory, 94–5
- proto-trust, 249–50
- prudence, in psychology of trust, 94–7
- Prudent Investor rule, 95
- prudential deference, 82
- psychological research on loyalty, 5
 on trust, 5–6
- psychology of trust accountability in, 97–9 psychological consequences of, 97–8 accounting in, 97–9
 psychological consequences of, 97–8
 social approval in, 98
 in authority ranking, 101 cognitive dissonance in, 93 in communal sharing, 101 competence in, 94–7
 in assessment of other's needs, 95–7
 maximization of wealth, 94–5
 Prospect Theory and, 94–5 consequences of being informed, 98–9
 disclosure mechanisms, 99 default bias in, 95 disclosure effects in, 93–4 empathy gap and, 96–7
 cold state in, 96
 hot state in, 96
 endowment effect in, 95 in equality matching, 101 for interpersonal trust, 87–8
 loyalty in, 91–4
 moral norms for, 91–2
 self-dealing biases and, 92–3
 self-serving biases and, 92–3
 social norms for, 91–2
 in market pricing, 101 measures of, 88–9 methodological approach to, 88–91
- Dictator Game in, 92
 research methods in, 89–91 Trust Game in, 90–1
- prudence in, 94–7
- Prudent Investor rule, 95
- scope of, 87–8
- status quo bias in, 95
- warmth in, 91–4
- public administration
 bias in, 8
 conflict rules in, 8
- public fiduciary law, Indigenous peoples under, 199–206, 211–16
 independent legal interests and, 211–12
 private rights protections under, 201–2 protection of independent interests, 212–16
- public law
 misuse of power under, 154 stakeholder fiduciaries in. See stakeholder fiduciaries
- public officials, as stakeholder fiduciaries, 124–5
- public status, of Indigenous peoples, 202–3
- publicity, 241–3
- reasonableness standard, in contract law, 69
- reciprocating second personal reasons, 27
- recognitional trust, 11
- regulations, under contract law, 61
- relational autonomy, 79, 83–6
- relational contract theory, 68
- remedies and damages
 under fiduciary law, 194–5
 for misuse of power, 153
- representation of the sovereign, 136
- republican conception, of political trust, 234
- republicanism. See neo-classical republicanism
- responsibility. See fiduciary responsibility
- Revised Uniform Partnership Act (RUPA), 110–11
- Ripstein, Arthur, 201
- risk minimization strategies, fiduciary law supplemented by, 13
- robust recognitional trust, 250–3
- Rule Against Perpetuities, 323–4
- rule of law, 244–8 accountability fit for, 246–8 distrust of strategy and, 244 fidelity and, 244–6
 legality principle, 244–5
 Trust Challenge and, 10–11
- RUPA. See Revised Uniform Partnership Act
- Ryman, Emma, 4–5

- Schmitt, Carl, 192–3
 second grade choice dependent obligations, 49–50 second personal reasons deontic, 27
   in fiduciary powers theory, 22, 26–7 reciprocating, 27
 self-abnegation, 106
 self-dealing biases, 92–3 self-governance, autonomy and, 79, 81 self-interest. See also conflicts of interest in contracts, 65–6
   in fiduciary law, 66
 self-serving biases, 92–3 service mandates, for fiduciary relationships, 75 settler states. See also Canada; New Zealand fiduciary duties in, 203–5. See also Indigenous peoples multiple legal authorities in, 202 rejection of international law in, 203 Shaping the Normative Landscape (Owens), 51 shared knowledge
   consent as, 20–1, 23–4
   in fiduciary powers theory
     as dynamic, 23–4
     in fiduciary reasons, 22–3 shareholders, as stakeholder fiduciaries, 121–2 Skinner, Quentin, 180
 Smith, Adam, 265
 Smith, Gordon, 12–13
 Smith, Henry, 42
 Smith, Lionel, 8, 38, 75, 113, 131, 143 social approval, 98 social perception, psychology of, 89 social relationships
   in ad hoc advisory relationships, 45–6 contracts and, 63
   fiduciary law and, 64
   fiduciary relationships and, 63
 social responsibility, corporate, 12
The Social Responsibility of Business to Increase Its Profits (Friedman), 278–9 “sole interest” standard, of trust law, 13 solicitude principle, 109 solidarity, under partnership fiduciary law, 111 sovereignty, 183–4 trust of sovereign leaders, 192–3 Sovereignty’s Promise (Fox-Decent), 226 Spier, Kathryn, 307
 spouses, as stakeholder fiduciaries, 123–4 stakeholder fiduciaries, 7. See also non-stakeholder fiduciary relationship; partnership fiduciary law community property and, 123–4
   definition of, 105–6 fiduciary relationships and, 108–9 entrusted power in, 108–9
     evenhandedness in, 109
     fairness in, 109
     integrity as principle in, 109
     solicitude principle in, 109
   general partnerships, 7
   joint venturers, 7 judicial review of, 106–7 loyalty of, 108–17
     as duty, 106
   partnership stakeholder model, 117
   in private law, 117–26
     under business judgment rule, 120–1, 123 corporate officers and directors as, 119–21 joint enterprises in, 118–19 joint ventures in, 118–19 shareholders as, 121–2 spouses as, 123–4 stakeholder trustees as, 123 in public law, 117–26 public officials as, 124–5 self-abnegation in, 106 trust among, 108–17 typology of, 125–6
   voting rights of, 106
 stakeholder trustees, as stakeholder fiduciaries, 123 startups agency costs for, 312–13 incomplete contracting in, 312–13 information asymmetry in, 312–13 uncertainty in, 312–13
 state. See settler state status quo bias, 95 stereotypes. See group stereotypes; trust stereotypes structural paternalism, in fiduciary relationships, 4 Tawney, R. H., 277, 286 Tetlock, Phil, 97–8, 101 theft, definition of, 142 Theft Act (1968), 142
Theory of Moral Sentiments (Smith, Adam), 265 thick account, of fiduciary government, 10, 226–7 thick trust, 40, 56, 88
   contract forms and, 67–9
   in fiduciary relationships, 32
     ad hoc, 3, 36

- thin account, of fiduciary government, 10, 227–8, 233–6
- thin trust, 40, 56
 contract forms and, 67–9
 in contract law, 69
- third grade choice dependent obligations, 49–50
- tort law, involvements and, 53
- transactional trusting relationships, 30
- transfer of autonomy, 4
- Treaty of Waitangi, 210–11
- true loyalty, 33
- Trust Challenge, 248–59. See also impersonal trust civic trust, 11, 182, 260–1
 climate of trust, 260–1
 as impersonal, 11
 juridical trust, 263–5
 political trust in, 262–3 responses to, 263–72
 to rule of law, 10–11
- Trust Game, 90–1
- trust law, 13
 agency costs in, 13 beneficiary interests in, 13 “best interest” standard of, 13 “sole interest” standard of, 13 in U.S., 13
- trust stereotypes, in psychology of trust, 99–100
- trust, as concept. See also impersonal trust; interpersonal trust; personal trust; political trust; psychology of trust in legal sense, 318–30 under U.S. law, 318–30 discretionary nature of, 320–3
- Trustee Act 1925, England and Wales, 129
- trustees, discretionary power of, 194
- trusting relationships, fiduciary relationships compared to, 29–30
- trusts, financial, agency costs for, 13
- trustworthiness, as distinct from good faith, 138
- trustworthy pose, in fiduciary relationships, 87
- unauthorized profits, conflicts over, 165–8
- uncertainty, in startups, 312–13
- Uniform Directed Trust Act, U.S. (2017), 329–30
- United Dominions Corporation Ltd v Brian Pty Limited*, 70
- Ur-trust, 256–7, 264
- utilitarianism, 12, 287–8
 for-profit organizations and, 12
- voluntariness
 in ad hoc advisory relationships, 49–53
 of attachments, 35–50
 of involvements, 50–3
- voting rights, of stakeholder fiduciaries, 106
- vulnerability
 in ad hoc fiduciary relationships, 36
 epistemic dependence and, 39–41
 personal trust influenced by, 2
- Wakatū* case (New Zealand Supreme Court), 210–16
- warmth, in psychology of trust, 91–4
- Wealth of Nations* (Smith, Adam), 286–7
- Weinrib, Ernest, 37, 201
- Wewaykum* case (Canada Supreme Court), 209, 212–18
- Wilkinson-Ryan, Tess, 5–6
- Wolff, Jonathan, 245
- women autonomy for, 83
 gender socialization of, 83
- Woolley, Alice, 38–9
- zone of discretion, in contracts, 305
- Zuckerberg, Mark, 296