

INDEX

- attachment, 126–127, 144–146
 Attachment Security Enhancement Model, 26, 95, 105, 128, 147–148, 195–196
 closeness, 352
 diathesis-stress model, 132
 Dyadic Regulation Model of Insecurity
 Buffering, 146, 148–149
 Emotionally Focused Therapy, 152, 154–156
 geographic variation, 56–57
 partner regulation, 127–129
 perceived partner responsiveness, 129
- commitment, 82, 317
 and culture, 83–84
 desirability, 271–272
 and interpersonal value goals, 217
 norms, 278–279, 320
 readiness, 273–274
 and self-expansion, 235–236
 to wed, 317
- communal and exchange relationships, 77
 culture, 74
 ethnicity, 74
 geographic variation, 51
 Individualism and Collectivism, 75
 intersectionality, 333–336
- Expected Interdependence Scale, 299
- goals
 Goal Systems Theory, 207
 goal-shielding, 38–39, 277
 interpersonal value goals, 204
 need for approval, 209
 prosocial behavior, 206
 self-image goals, 209
- interdependence, 121
 comparison level, 84, 276, 278, 317
 diagnostic situations, 20, 26, 99–100, 123–124
 functional interdependence theory, 14–15
 situation characteristics, 11, 14, 95, 98–99
 situational characteristics, 16–19
 transformation of motivation, 23, 82, 187, 217–218, 226, 228, 230–232
- investment model, 23, 77–78
 cultural moderators, 79, 84–86
 expectations, 295–297
- life spaces, 51
- multi-level modeling, 19–20, 58, 214
- perceived partner responsiveness, 26
 relational regulation theory, 123
- physical touch, 124
 affection exchange theory, 124
 attachment security, 124–125, 150
 risk regulation theory, 125
- psychological needs, 184
 cyclical feedback loop, 189–191
 mutual responsiveness, 38
 outcome of interdependence, 37, 270
 partner responsiveness, 147, 205
 perceived partner responsiveness, 43, 95
 personal vs relational needs, 185–186, 188–189, 283
 Personal-Relational Equilibrium Model, 187
 and self-expansion theory, 190, 238
- relationship maintenance, 329–330
 accommodation, forgiveness, sacrifice, 27, 123, 187–188, 237, 280

- Michelangelo phenomenon, 232
- trust, 24, 38, 40–41, 122, 251
- Relationship receptivity theory, 270
  - desirability. See commitment desirability
  - readiness. See commitment readiness
  - timing, 274–275
- Risk regulation theory, 24, 40, 122, 134, 252

- self-disclosure, 246–247, 345
  - closeness generating tasks, 345–347
- self-esteem, 248. See trust
  - attachment, 109
  - complementarity, 258
  - negative expressivity, 251
  - partner responsiveness, 247–248, 256–257
  - relationship goals, 45–46
  - and social support, 250
- self-expansion theory, 225
  - approach motivation, 226–227
  - expectations, 298
  - and implicit theories, 227–228
  - inclusion of other in the self, 229, 232, 237, 345
  - self-concept, 231
  - and self-concept, 228–230
- stress, 161
  - closeness, 359
  - communal coping, 130
  - coping, 166
  - sexual minority stress, 162, 164
  - spillover, 161, 164
  - systemic-transactional model, 161, 166
  - transition to parenthood, 163, 165, 297