

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-48132-8 — The Cambridge Companion to Human Rights and Literature

Edited by Crystal Parikh

Table of Contents

More Information

CONTENTS

Notes on Contributors	page ix
Chronology of Major Works and Events, 1215–2018	xiii
SARONIK BOSU AND HEBA JAHAMA

Introduction	I
CRYSTAL PARIKH

PART I GENEALOGIES AND CONTEXTS

1 Recounting History, Locating Precursors for Human Rights SARAH WINTER	13
2 Humanitarianism's Way in the World: On Missionary and Emergency Imaginaries KERRY BYSTROM AND ELENI COUNDOURIOTIS	27
3 Literature, Human Rights, and the Cold War ANDREW HAMMOND	42
4 Human Rights in the Vernacular: Translating and Inventing Rights Outside the State DAVID PALUMBO-LIU	58

PART II FASHIONING METHODS

5 Law and Literature, the Procedural and the Performative AUDREY J. GOLDEN	75
6 Human Rights Modes and Media LIEVE GIES	88

Cambridge University Press

978-1-108-48132-8 — The Cambridge Companion to Human Rights and Literature

Edited by Crystal Parikh

Table of ContentsMore Information

CONTENTS

7	Remembering the Forgetting: Human Rights Literature and Memory Work CATHY J. SCHLUND-VIALS	100
8	Queering Human Rights: The Transgender Child WENDY S. HESFORD AND RACHEL A. LEWIS	114
PART III GENERIC REPRESENTATIONS
9	Narrating the Human Person SUNNY XIANG	129
10	The Dramas of Human Rights: Documentary Theater and Performance BRENDA G. WERTH	141
11	Poetic Justice and the Idea of Poetic Redress RAJEEV S. PATKE	154
12	Truth-Telling: Reportage and Creative Nonfiction JAMES DAWES	167
13	Visualizing the World: Graphic Novels, Comics, and Human Rights CHARLOTTA SALMI	178
PART IV WRITING HUMAN RIGHTS
14	Perpetrators, Victims, and Beneficiaries: The Subjects of Human Rights ELIZABETH SWANSON	193
15	Routing Emotions, Forming Humans: Affect, Aesthetics, Rhetoric GREG A. MULLINS	206
16	Beyond Sovereignty: Reimagining Vulnerability and Security ALEXANDRA S. MOORE	217
Select Bibliography SARONIK BOSU AND HEBA JAHAMA		233
Index		239