

Index

- ability to do otherwise, 29–30, 46–48, 54–55, See also Principle of Alternative Possibilities complete ability to do otherwise, 47 modest ability to do otherwise, 48
- Alexander, David E., 22
- Almeida, Michael, 134, 136
- Anselm, 108
- Armenianism, 3
- aseity, divine
 and the Theory of Middle Freedom, 146–47
- Augustine, 87, 161
- author metaphor, 31–32, 92–93, 167
 and the problem of creaturely love, 181–82
- author of sin objection disambiguation, 86
- authority, divine, 118–25
- Báñez, Domingo, 47
- beliefs
 desire beliefs, 190–94
 desire beliefs vs possibility beliefs, 188 possibility beliefs, 188–90 pre-philosophical, 34–35 religious, 24–28, 218–19
- Beta, 37, 40
- Bigelow, John, 101
- blame, 55–56
 divine, 203–15
 God's standing to, 203–15 and hypocrisy, 206–7 internal vs external, 205 nature of, 205
- blameworthiness objection and the appeal to teleology, 126–27 and the argument from analogy, 111–12 and divine causality, 130–32 and divine command theory, 127–28 and general moral precepts, 109–11 and harm done to the wicked, 121–22 and harms other than murder, 122
- consequentialist reply to, 125–26
- disjunctive reply to, 132–33
- hard-line response to, 112–13 and the harm of dying, 121
- informal characterization of, 105–6
- intention-based reply to, 113–18 vs problem of evil, 106–7 and the question of divine moral agency, 128–30
- bullet-biting, 83–85
- Byerly, T. Ryan, 153, 157–58
- Calvin, John, 1–2, 20–21
- Calvinism, 15
- causality, divine, 29–33, 40–43, 70
 and the problem of creaturely love, 181, 184
 vs human, 130–32
- causation
 horizontal vs vertical, 42
- choices, morally significant, 136
- Cohen, G. A., 207–8
- commands, divine, 188–98, See also divine command theory and deception, 188–94
 and desire beliefs, 190–94
 and divine intention, 190–94
 and the divine will, 190–94
 and human fulfillment, 193–94 indeterminate, 150
 weighed against the divine will, 195
- commands, sincere, 188
- compatibilism
 and the authorship of scripture, 25–26
 definition of, 4–5
 historical, 147–49
 independent, 147–52
 nonhistorical, 147–49
 reasons for investigating, 5
- Consequence Argument, the, 36–38
- Consequentialism, 125–26

- contingency, 42–43, 45–46, 70 contrition, 57, 198–203
 and indeterminism, 199
 control
 basic, 144–46
 direct, 143–46
 indirect, 143–46
 nonbasic, 144–46
 regulative, 142–46
 counterfactual of creaturely freedom, 139 control over, 141–46
 Cowan, Steven B., 137–39, 154
 Crabtree, J. A., 41
- Davies, Brian, 128–30 deception, divine, 188–94
 and desire beliefs, 188
 and possibility beliefs, 188, 190 dependence God's on humans, 23–25
 humans' on God, 21, 185 of human knowledge, 22–23 Descartes, René, 21
 determinism, divine and Calvinism, 3
 definition of, 1, 14–18
 as distinct from foreknowledge, 18 and explanation, 3, 19–20 and the evidential problem of evil, 155–56, 158 and the giving of divine commands, 188–94 and the logical problem of evil, 134–55
 and the problem of creaturely love, 177–80
 and the problem of divine love, 161–64 as pragmatically defined, 15 Edwardsian divine determinism, 37–38, 97–100, 114–16 hard, 55–58
 importance of, 4–7
 motivations for, 18–28
 primary divine determinism, 30–32, 38, 92–93, 116–18, 181–83 varieties of, 33
 determinism, natural, 29 determinism, physical
 definition of, 4–5, 16
 as a live option, 7–8
 as a motivation for divine determinism, 6–8 worries concerning, 5–6, 35 Deuteronomy, Book of, 27 dialectical burden, 54, 70 disjunctive replies, 132–33, 175 divine command theory, 127–28
- Edwards, Jonathan, 2–3, 29 ends, human vs divine, 126–27 essentialism, verbal, 15 eternity, divine, 24–25 Exodus, Book of, 27
 explanations, noncausal, 101–3
- Fischer, John Martin, 5–6, 54–55, 142 Flew, Antony, 204
 foreknowledge, divine as distinct from determinism, 18 foreseen vs intended, 114–16 Four-Case Argument, 61–65
 hard-line reply to, 67
 soft-line reply to, 67, 82–83
 Freddoso, Alfred, 25
 free will. See also compatibilism; incompatibilism; libertarianism and the authorship of scripture, 26
 and the Consequence Argument, 36–38 hanging by a thread, 5
 and moral responsibility, 34 and the Revised Consequence Argument, 39–40 Free Will Defense
 basic presentation of, 136–37 goal of, 137–39
 and the inclusion of false claims, 138–39
 and independent compatibilism, 147–52
 and libertarianism, 137
 and the Theory of Middle Freedom, 139–47
- Genesis, Book of, 27 glory, divine, 153–54, 157 governance, divine, 7. See also sovereignty, divine grace, divine, 7
 Grant, W. Matthews, 44, 88–91, 126–27
 Green, Christopher, 153
- hard-line reply. See Four-Case Argument: hard-line reply to; problem of creaturely love: hard-line reply to; Revised Four-Case Argument: hard-line reply to Hart, Matthew, 153
 Hasker, William, 14, 16 hell
 and divine love, 164–74 and the greater glory reply to the problem of evil, 153–54
 and respect for human autonomy, 164–65
 Hick, John, 157–58
 Howsepian, A. A., 139–47

Index

237

- identity, personal, 170–71
 incompatibilism
 and the authorship of scripture, 25–26
 definition of, 4
 Independence (principle), 149 benefits for divine determinists, 151–52
 costs of, 152
 and Edwardsian divine determinism, 150–51
 and primary divine determinism, 151 inference to the best explanation, 65 intention, divine
 and the blameworthiness objection, 118
 and divine commands, 190–94
 and independent compatibilism, 150–51
- Johnson, Daniel M., 153
 Joshua, Book of, 27 judgment, 57–58
 justice, divine, 154
- Kant, Immanuel, 121
 King, Matt, 208–12
 knowledge, divine, 18
 as different from human knowledge, 22–23
- libertarianism, 5
 love, divine, 163
 as identical with God, 162
 as parental, 162–64
 revising, 173–74
 as sacrificial, 162
 as a source of benefit, 161 love, human and manipulation, 179
 types of, 177–78
 and union, 178
 love, union, 177–78
 and autonomy, 178–80
 and historical sensitivity, 180
 and manipulation, 179
 revised account of, 185
- Mackie, John, 135
 manipulation
 and the blameworthiness objection, 111–13
 definition of, 62–63
 differences between human and divine, 69–70 and the standing to blame, 212 and union love, 179
 manipulation arguments. See Four-Case Argument; problem of creaturely love:
 versions of; Revised Four-Case Argument;
 Zygote Argument
- McCann, Hugh, 19–20, 127–28, 130–31, 164–67, 169
 McKenna, Michael, 68
 Mele, Alfred, 148–49
 mercy, divine, 58
 and the greater glory response, 154 modest privation solution, 88–100 objections to, 91–100
 Molina, Luis de, 49
 Molinism, 141
 moral agency, divine, 128–30 moral responsibility, 34, 107–8 and Consequence-style arguments, 59 denial of, 55–58
 God's moral responsibility for sin, 105–33 and manipulation arguments, 60–85 for sin, 107–8
- necessity
 absolute, 46–47
 conditional, 16, 45
 metaphysical, 16
 nomological, 16
 suppositional, 47
 non-involvement condition, 207–11
- Oderberg, David, 43, 50–55
 omissions, 89
 as causes, 90
 as effects, 97–100
 One-Case Argument, 73–76
 responses to, 76–82
 ought implies can, 188–89
- Pawl, Timothy, 137–39
 Pereboom, Derk, 17, 23–24, 55–58, 61–65, 108
 Philippians, Letter to the, 27–28
 Plantinga, Alvin, 134, 136–37, 157–58
 Plato, 121
 Plotinus, 87
 power, divine, 21
 premotionism, 50–55
 Principle of Alternative Possibilities, 30 and divine deception, 189 Principle of Double Effect, 114
 Principle of Middle Freedom, 140
 Principle of Non-Excuse, 197–98
 Principle of Sufficient Reason, 19–20 problem of contrition, 198–203
 responses to, 200–3
 problem of creaturely love, 177–80
 and Edwardsian divine determinism, 183 and the First Principle of Union Love, 178
 hard-line reply to, 183–84

- problem of creaturely love (cont.)
 loose characterization of, 177 and participation, 182–83
 and primary divine determinism, 183
 and the Second Principle of Union Love, 178–79
 versions of, 178–79
- problem of divine blame, 203–15
- problem of divine love and the author metaphor, 167 costly responses to, 168–75
 costs of, 175–77
 disjunctive reply to, 175
 and future autonomy, 166–67 for indeterminists, 175–77 and personal identity, 170–71
 and respect for human autonomy, 164–65
 responses to, 180–85
 and revising the account of divine love, 173–74
 and sacrificing an object of love, 171–73 and skepticism, 167–70
 and universalism, 168–70 unsatisfactory responses to, 164–68
- problem of evil
 and character formation, 153 evidential, 155–58
 and the greater glory reply, 157 greater good responses to, 153–54
 and independent compatibilism, 147–52 logical, 135–36
 logical vs evidential, 134 and natural laws, 153
 and the Theory of Middle Freedom, 139–47
- prophecy, 24–25
- providence, divine, 23–24
- Pruss, Alexander, 37, 115
- punishment, 58
 vs blame, 213–15
- punishment, divine, 213–15
- Quran, 28
- relations, internal, 93–97
- Revised Consequence Argument, 39–55
- Revised Four-Case Argument, 65–67
 hard-line reply to, 68–69
 responses to, 67–73
 soft-line reply to, 67–73, 82–83
- robust privation solution, 100–3
- Rogers, Katherin, 73–75, 108, 188–94, 204
- scripture
 as a motivation for divine determinism, 26–28
 authorship of, 25–26
- Scruton, Roger, 178
- semi-compatibilism, 54–55
- Sher, George, 55
- sin
 act of, 88–89
 composition of, 88–89
 defect of, 88–89, 93–97
 and the divine will, 194–98, 203
 and hard divine determinism, 56–57
 and the Principle of Non-Excuse, 197–98 privation account of, 87
- skeptical theism, 156–57
 and the logical problem of evil, 153
- Socrates, 121
- sovereignty, divine, 20–21
 and independent compatibilism, 152
- Strong Authority Thesis, 123–25 and the appeal to mystery, 125 objection to, 123–24
- Stump, Eleonore, 124
- Swinburne, Richard, 120, 157–58
- Tanner, Kathryn, 43–48, 101
- teleology, 126–27
- Theory of Middle Freedom, 139–47 and agential control, 141–46 and Molinism, 141
 and the Preliminary Principle of Middle Control, 142
 and the Principle of Middle Freedom, 140 worries about, 141–47
- Thomas Aquinas, 88, 173
- Timpe, Kevin, 137–39
- Todd, Patrick, 209–12, 218
- Tooley, Michael, 136
- Trabbi, Joseph, 42–50
- transcendence, divine, 42–43
- Turner, Jason, 147–52
- universalism
 and hard divine determinism, 57
 and the problem of divine love, 168–70
- van Inwagen, Peter, 6, 36–37
- Vicens, Leigh, 14–17
- Wallace, R. Jay, 206
- Weak Authority Thesis, 120–23
 insufficiency of, 121–22
- Westminster Confession of Faith, 2
- White, Heath, 3, 15–16, 42, 113–14, 116–18
- Widerker, David, 24
- will, divine
 antecedent vs consequent, 190–91, 200–3
 and the definition of divine determinism, 15–16

Index

239

and divine commands, 190–94
and human contrition, 198–203 and human deliberation, 194–98 human ignorance of, 2 human knowledge of, 194–95 and human motivation, 195 and human willing, 203
and the Principle of Non-Excuse, 197–98

and sin, 188–203
 weighed against divine commands, 197 will, human antecedent vs consequent, 200–3
 and the divine will, 194–98
worm account. See identity, personal

Zygote Argument, 148–49