Index

adult safeguarding framework, 255–6 adult social care assessment, England entitlement to, 206–7
  matters considered during, 207–8 people involved in, 208 adult social care eligibility determinations, England eligibility criteria for carers, 209–10 eligibility for users, 209 exceptions and exclusions, 210 role of professionals in, 214 adult social care policy, England addressing of carer and disability rights claims, 240–3 adult social care users and carers, 205–6 care and support planning, 212–13 carer entitlements. See carer entitlements, Care Act 2014 (UK) charging regulations, 210–12 development of, 197–9 ethics of care and disability rights perspective, 240–3 reform process 2010–2014, 200–4 resource limitations and rights of all parties, 243–5 unequal footing of care and support workers, 239–40 well-being principle and, 196, 201, 232 adult worker model, 39, 45 adults with learning disabilities individual budgets and, 69, 199 alternative care and support arrangements availability of, 115–16
  Care Act 2014 and, 252–8
  Carer Payment (child) and, 174–6, 189
  choice and, 90–1, 117–18 ‘exit’ and, 116–17
  regulation of, 119
  unpaid carers and, 118–19
  Attendance Allowance (UK), 198, 211
basic income
  definition, 193
  hypothetical Australian basic income, 194 proposals for, 193–4, 279
care
  ‘burdens’ of, 4, 60, 163–4, 166–7, 215, 231, 238, 282–3, 290–2
  care in the community. See community care citizenship and, 99
‘commodification’ of, 38 constant care. See constant care
definition, 1
ethics. See ethics of care definition of, 1
full-time, devaluation of, 41–2 gender inequality in, 160–1, 185
mixed economy of, 56, 226 normality of, 230–1
political recognition of, 83 reconceptualization of, 82, 92, 171 redistribution of, 118
replacement care, 218, 223–4, 229, 261, 263, 288
Care Act 2014 (UK), 14–15, 177, 188, 196, 210, 215–16, 287, 289–90, 292, 294–6
‘adult safeguarding framework’, 255–6 carer entitlements under. See carer entitlements, Care Act 2014 (UK) consideration of ‘voice’ in strategy and planning, 270–1 continuity of care provisions, 263 Care Act 2014 (UK) (cont.)
determination of personal budgets and, 249–50 entitlement to needs assessment ... Quality Commission, 255 care/work divide. See unpaid care/paid work tension
caregiver parity model, 45

Index

302

Care Act 2014 (UK) policy, strengths and shortcomings of access to alternative sources of care, 247–51 access to financial resources, 251–2 appropriate budget and expanded options, 260–2 citizenship and migration status, 186, 275–6 employment and social assistance, 276–8 incorporation of ‘voice’ in, 270–1 recognition of gender division of labor, 272–3 recognition of impairment and disability, 274–5 time for care, paid work and self-care, 265–6 Care Act 2014 (UK) policy, strengths and shortcomings of access to alternative sources of care, 247–51
access to financial resources, 247–51
appropriate budget and expanded options, 258–61
recognition of gender division of labor, 272
recognition of impairment and disability, 273–4
time for care, paid work and self-care, 262–5 care and support policy, 2–3 adult, England. See adult care and support policy, England
advancement of rights in, 117 care as social good, 90, 114–15 carer entitlements, England. See carer entitlements, Care Act 2014 (UK) choice and flexibility in, 90–1 examples from the literature, 90–2 general features of, 87–90 market delivery and, 91, 188–9 regulation of care and support relationships, 92 rights-based design of. See rights-based care and support policy design rights-based, principles of. See rights-based care and support policy principles state responsibility for, 114–15 time for care and support, 91–2 voice in development of, 7 care and support policy tensions, 3 carer/disability rights tension. See carer/disability rights tension
‘either/or’ approaches, 3–5, 13, 43, 94, 98, 133, 140, 150, 167, 171, 188, 213, 220–7, 281–3 stalled attempts to resolve, 4–5 unpaid care/paid work tension. See unpaid care/paid work tension
care and support relationships, 6–7, 97, 103, 116, 121, 123, 150, 153, 253, 294
Care Act 2014 and, 228–30
Career Payment (child) and, 181, 191 migration and citizenship status of people in, 132 multiple, 282–3
regulation of, 92
rights of parties to, 170–1, 245, 286, 292 universal recognition of, 88 care and support rights principles, 5–8, 13, 284–5 after neoliberalism, 297–9
Care Act 2014 and, 246
demonstration of application of, 13–15 care and support rights principles case study analysis
change extending beyond individual policies, 266–7
coincidental advantages from a feminist perspective, 289–90
common limits on gender equality, 292–3 common limits on support for gender equality, 289 common limits on support for paid work, 288–9 conceptualizations of care ‘burden’ and disability, 290–2
necessity of comprehensive change, 294–6 non-alignment with principles, 286–7 principles pose major challenge to prevailing policies, 295–4
similarities and differences across countries and contexts, 287
care leave, 34, 36, 48, 129 Care Quality Commission, 255
care/work divide. See unpaid care/paid work tension
caregiver parity model, 45
Index

carer entitlements, Care Act 2014 (UK), 216 alignment with feminist claims, 220–3 choice to stop caring to undertake paid work, 219–20 gender inequality in caring and, 226–7 multiple unpaid carers, 219, 228–30 paid work participation secondary to caring role, 216–18 problems of lack of support for carers and users, 231–3 recognition of interdependence, choice and control, 227–8 resource allocation systems, 235 role of professionals in defining need and determining access, 233–5, 290 role of state in mitigating risks of greater individual responsibility, 216–8 social care entitlements, 190–200 support for care and care/work combination, 223–5 Carer Payment (adult) (Australia), 29, 142, 298 Carer Payment (Australia), 32, 59, 140
paid work by recipients of, 157
Carer Payment (child) (Australia), 14, 29, 129–40, 142, 150, 216, 279, 287, 289–90, 294, 296 alternative care and support arrangements and, 189 as maternalist policy, 139 ‘burdens’ of care policy priority, 163–4, 166–7 care loads and eligibility, 158, 293
citizenship and, 186
coincidental gender equality benefits of, 161–2 current eligibility criteria, 145–9 disability as individual, medical tragedy, 164–5 Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination, 147–9 extension of time for care, paid care and self-care, 179–81 family care and, 174–5, 177 feminist perspectives on, 128–61 flexible working rights and, 189–90 gender division of labor and, 162, 171, 186, 194 initial eligibility criteria, 142–3 interests of children with disabilities and, 162–3, 165–9, 173 means test, 152–3
multiple carers and, 155
paid work by recipients of, 161 paid work that fits around care, 152–4, 177–8 parental responsibility for caring, 154–6 potential disadvantage to all parties, 169–70 precedence of unpaid care over paid work, 151–2 reform process, 181–3, 294
reliance on for extended periods, 159–60 residency requirements, 172 respite services and, 175–6 rights-based care and support principles and, 294–7 role of health professionals and other paid carers, 155–6 Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), 144, 166 temporary care cessation provision, 177 unequal gender division of caring within families and, 160–4 Wollstonecraft’s dilemma. See Wollstonecraft’s dilemma Carer Payment (child) (Australia) policy, necessary reforms to access to alternative sources of care, 176 access to financial resources for all care and support situations, 173–4 challenge to prevailing norms, 190–5 complementary care, support and workplace policies required, 188–90 flexibility offered in multiple life domains, 179–81 incorporating ‘voice’ in future reform, 183–4 positive recognition of difference, 186–8
time for care, paid work and self-care, 181 Carer Payment (child) (Australia) policy, strengths and shortcomings of access to alternative sources of care, 174–6 access to financial resources for all care and support situations, 172–3 flexibility offered in multiple domains, 177–8 positive recognition of difference, 185–6
time for care, paid work and self-care, 179–81
Carers Storybook, 145, 165, 180 terms of reference, 163–4 carer perspective, 78
advantages of, 55–60
disadvantages of, 60–4
carer/disability rights tension, 4, 54–5, 80, 92, 94, 97, 106, 110, 139, 170–1, 191–2, 281, 286 universal access to care and support payments and, 192 Carer’s Allowance (UK), 28–9, 59, 211, 225, 250, 265, 277, 289, 298 carers disempowerment of, 71–2 eligibility criteria, Australia, 145–9 eligibility criteria, England, 209–10 establishment of distinct identity of, 55–6 multiple carers, 155, 219 paid work participation, Australia, 152–4 paid work participation, England, 216–18
Index

304

carers (cont.)
parent carers, Australia, 151 parent carers, England, 247–8 practical and political support for, 55–60 rights-based employment relationships, 258 rigid roles and limited options for, 151 unpaid. See unpaid carers wages and employment policy reform for, 114 well-being of, 232–2
work quality and safety, 256–7 zero-hours contracting and, 230
Caring for our Future (White Paper), 202, 217–18, 229–31, 247, 267, 277
childcare, 1–2, 24, 48, 112, 116, 129, 133, 175, 190, 262 individualized, 77
paid, 161, 173
subsidies, 35, 298
unpaid, 139
childcare workers, 177, 185; 286
children, 85
existence of in professional lives and spaces, 49 Children and Families Act 2014 (UK), 248, 298 children with disabilities, 76–8, 290
Carer Payment (child) and, 162–3, 165–9, 173
independent living and, 77
self-determination of, 168, 192 social model of disability and, 77
Chronically Sick and Disabled Persons Act 1970
(UK), 197–9
citizenship, 282, 294, 298
avoiding exclusion based on, 132–3 Carer Act 2014 and, 275–6
care and, 99, 281
Carer Payment (child) and, 186
ethics of care and, 84
exclusionary nature of, 282 international human rights law and, 104–5 social citizenship. See social citizenship citizenship rights, 102–5, 279
independent living and, 105
people with disabilities and, 104 citizen-worker norm
Carer Act 2014 and, 242
Carer Payment (child) and, 185 intense care as narrow exception to, 156–8 rejection of, 127–33
cohabitation rule, 31, 146, 161, 179, 181, 185, 187 Commission on Funding of Care and Support. See Dilnot Commission community care, 28, 56, 64 assessment for, 198–9
criticisms of, 56, 61
funding, England, 198
informal family carers and, 156 shift to, England, 197
unpaid family carers and, 223 community care policy, 160, 244 neoliberal, 72
constant care, 139–41, 145–6, 148, 151, 177, 191, 294, 205
definition of, 180
definition, Australia, 14
eligibility requirements, Australia, 147, 151, 155, 178, 180
impact on carers, 163
Coronavirus Act 2020 (UK), 293
crisis of care, 2, 288
deinstitutionalization, 2, 28, 56, 64 Dilnot Commission, 201–2, 267, 279 recommendations, 202–3, 226 direct payments. See also personal budgets adults with learning disabilities, 69, 199 assessment systems for, 71 employer responsibilities and, 236
ethics of care and, 85–6
independent living and, 66–7, 73, 112
individual responsibility for management of, 264–5 individualized funding programs, 69–70
people with disabilities and, 65
Disability Care Load Assessment (Child) Determination, 147–9
Disability Living Allowance (UK), 242, 276 disability models human rights model. See human rights model of disability medical model. See medical model of disability social model. See social model of disability welfare model, 63
disability rights perspective, 78, 284
advantages of, 64–71
attention to voice and, 126
Care Act 2014 and, 238–9
disadvantages of, 71–8
ethics of care and, 80
gaining independence and control, 64–71 reconciliation efforts with ethics of care, 92–4 support and advocacy networks, 91–2 Disability Rights UK, 241 dual-earner/dual-caregiver model. See universal caregiver model everal childhood education and care services, 49 spending on, 50–1
ethics of care, 84–7
Care Act 2014 and, 258–9

© in this web service Cambridge University Press

www.cambridge.org
gender inequality
Care Act 2014 and, 226–7
in care, 160–1, 185
liberal welfare states, 44
undervaluing of women’s caring and, 25 global care chain, 53, 103 consequences for migrant women, 58 effects of care and, 89–90

human rights
disability assessments and, 130–1
independent living and, 291 resources to realize, 130–2 social citizenship and, 106 human rights model of disability, 8, 80, 87–9, 117, 123 human rights perspective, 130–1
independent living and, 187
income testing for, 89–90

longitudinal trajectories of care and support policy and, 85–6
nature and quality of relationships and, 86
political recognition of care and, 85
policy consultation and, 86
policy preferences and, 89 reconciliation efforts with disability rights
perspective, 92–4
self-determination and, 91
universality of dependence and, 86, 93

focus of,
4, 44

independent living and,
130–1

Index

conceptions of care and, 81–2, 284 direct payments and, 85–6 disability rights perspective and, 80 effects of impairment and, 86 gendered nature of, 82–3 general features of care and support policy and, 87–90
global care chain and, 89–90
human rights model of disability and, 86–7 interdependence and, 80–4, 86, 93–4, 102–3, 194, 283
nature and quality of relationships and, 86
political recognition of care and, 85
policy consultation and, 90
reconciliation efforts with disability rights
perspective, 92–4

European Convention on Human Rights, 232

family care
Carer Payment (child) and, 174–5, 177 exploitative nature of, 169

family care relationships, 76
informal, 85
unpaid, 33, 61, 116, 120–1, 151, 176, 179, 185, 191

family carers
informal, 156
unpaid, 71, 223, 226

financial resources
access to, 112–15
income testing for, 115

flexible working rights, 36–7, 48

Carer Payment (child) and, 189–90
gender division of labor, 5–7, 30–2, 44, 122, 282, 284, 294
Care Act 2014 and, 216, 226, 246, 272–3, 279
Carer Payment (child) and, 160–1, 171, 185–6, 191
‘choice’ and, 51
disruption of, 52
equalization of, 113, 128 feminist concerns about, 121 positive recognition of difference and, 129 unequal, policies to address, 129, 133 gender equality, 3, 6, 120, 127
Carer Payment (child) and, 161–2 common limits of support for, 289 parental leave and, 36
policy responses to, 24–5, 34
universal caregiver model and, 4, 44, 46–7, 51–3 income support payments, Australia, 140–1 categorization of, 140–1 origins and history of carer payments, 141–5 independent living, 4, 112 as well-being outcome, 275 children with disabilities and, 77

citizenship rights and, 105 criticisms of policy principles, 71–2
definition, 65
direct payments to support, 66–7, 69, 73, 112 disability rights claims and, 241
family care relationships, 76
human rights and, 291
key goals of, 118
‘male-centric’ focus of, 75 mistranslation of goals of, 72–3 movement, 55

notion of independence in, 75–6 perception of people with disabilities and, 65 removal of social barriers to, 78 right to, 64, 130, 242, 292
self-determination and, 245–6

Independent Living Association (England), 241

Independent Living Fund (UK), 69, 73, 242, 276 independent living movement, 232, 240

individualized funding programs, 69–70, 216

administrative requirements of, 74–5
criticisms of, 70–1
experiences of people using, 69–70 masculinist notions of autonomy and, 75
self-determination and, 69

interdependence, 80, 92–3, 113, 122

Care Act 2014 and, 227–8
effects of care and, 80–4, 86, 93–4, 101–2, 194, 283

masculinist notions of autonomy and, 75

universal caregiver model and, 4, 44, 46–7, 51–3

masculinist notions of autonomy and, 75

universal caregiver model and, 4, 44, 46–7, 51–3
interdependence (cont.)
importance of, 112
norm of, 283
recognition of, 171
'transnational' nature of, 103, 275, 296 International Classification of Functioning, 132 intersectionality, 7, 38, 46, 73, 111, 124–5, 127, 183, 268, 270, 296 Invalid Care Allowance (UK), 28–9, 198
liberal welfare states
care, support and citizenship in, 8–13 childhood education and care services spending in, 50
gender inequality in, 44 organized carer movements in, 54 privatization and marketization of care services in, 119, 281 responses to disability in, 63 safety net support in, 115, 140, 292 social support policies, 10–12 universal caregiver model in, 49–50 local authorities, England adult care and support planning and, 212–13 adult social care assessment and. See adult social care assessment, England assistance for management of Care Act 2014 responsibilities, 236–7 budget insufficiencies and statutory obligations, 243–4 care workforce and, 229
charging regulations, 210–12, 218 COVID-19 pandemic and, 293
determination of personal budgets and, 249–50 fluctuating needs assessment and, 259–60 market-based services and, 258 market-shaping role of, 253–5
multiple carers and, 219, 225 obligations under Care Act 2014, 166, 213 provision of carer services by, 208 purchase of services from non-government providers by, 198–9
well-being principle and, 206
Low Pay Commission, 257
male breadwinner model, 10, 25, 31, 45, 185, 187, 191 decline of, 45
marginalization, 46, 61, 78, 85, 93, 111, 118, 128, 131, 170, 182, 290 market-based services, 50, 73, 75, 134, 280
Care Act 2014 and, 237–8, 253, 292
‘effective consumers’ of, 255
local authorities and, 258
prioritization of, 282
marketization, 19, 106, 119–20, 238, 281 maternalist policies, 25–8
advantages of, 25–30, 64–71
social assistance payments and, 25–6, 30–1, 113 sole parent payment, 26–7 women’s access to, 103
maternity leave, 36, 50 medical model of disability, 62–3, 66, 78, 164, 169–9, 185, 222–4, 239, 287 policy responses based on, 62–3 methodology
case study methodology, 15–16
migrant women
global care chain and, 38
migration status, 186, 204
avoiding exclusion based on, 132–3
National Assistance Act 1948 (UK), 197
National Disability Insurance Scheme (Australia), 60–70, 174, 177, 187–8, 208
National Disability Insurance Scheme Quality and Safeguards Commission, 189
National Health Service (UK), 197, 279 national living wage (UK), 251 neoliberalism
care and support rights principles after, 297–9
definition, 12
paid work participation access to payments and, 252–7 as societal aspiration, 11
Care Act 2014 and, 216–17, 222
care and support policy tensions and, 3, 24, 33
Carer Payment (child) and, 152–4, 157, 172, 174, 177–8, 180
citizenship and, 41–2, 106, 121 gender egalitarian strategies and, 187 limits on support for, 287–9 male norm of, 4
prioritization of, 44–6, 84
sharing of care and, 191 social insurance schemes and, 10 parental care
state’s role in, 41–2
parental leave, 36, 48, 50
gender neutral, 50
policies, 36
Parenting Payment (Australia), 140–1, 180, 298 eligibility for, 143, 156, 172 paternity leave, 50
people with disabilities ‘active citizen’ obligation, 74 charity and welfare approach to, 63
citizenship rights and, 104 confine of, 64
direct payments assessment systems and, 71 direct payments to, 65
independent living philosophy.
See independent living
individualized funding programs, 69–70
individualization and, 75–8 institutionalization of, 120 limited care choices of, 72–5 personal budgets, 177, 242 realization of human rights of, 118 undermining of rights and dignity of, 60–4 personal assistance services, 66, 77, 105, 112, 116, 118, 179, 198 direct payments for, 68–9, 112 for children, 175
market-based, 75
redistribution of care responsibilities and, 129
right to, 104
personal budgets, 15, 68–9, 73, 224–5, 289. See also direct payments
Care Act 2014 and, 249–50
care and support planning and, 212 carer’s entitlement to, 217, 223 flexibility of, 253–8, 260–1
individual responsibility for management of, 264–5
people with disabilities and, 177, 242 purchase of employment support and, 263 review of, 260
Personal Independence Payment (UK), 276 personalization policies, 68–9, 72, 120, 108, 233, 238, 241
positive recognition of difference, 111, 115, 127–8 Carer Payment (child) reform options and, 185–8 difference in relation to impairment and
disability, 185–7
gender division of labor and, 129
human rights model of disability and, 187 redistribution of responsibility from women to men, 125–30
resources to realize human rights, 130–2 privatization, 19, 106, 119, 198, 245
replacement care, 218, 223–4, 229, 261, 263, 288
respite services, 14, 51
Carer Payment (child) and, 175–6
responsibilization, 72, 238, 245, 279
time to time to care
Care Act 2014 and, 262–3
Carer Payment (child) and, 179–81
resources to realize human rights, 130–2 privatization, 19, 106, 119, 198, 245
replacement care, 218, 223–4, 229, 261, 263, 288
respite services, 14, 51
Carer Payment (child) and, 175–6
responsibilization, 72, 238, 245, 279
time to time to care
Care Act 2014 and, 262–3
Carer Payment (child) and, 179–81
resources to realize human rights, 130–2 privatization, 19, 106, 119, 198, 245
replacement care, 218, 223–4, 229, 261, 263, 288
respite services, 14, 51
Carer Payment (child) and, 175–6
responsibilization, 72, 238, 245, 279
time to time to care
Care Act 2014 and, 262–3
Carer Payment (child) and, 179–81
rights-based care and support policy design, 97–8 alternative rights discourse, 104–6 care and support as social citizenship, 5–8 dismantling dichotomies to expand options and balance interests, 283–5 either/or approaches problematic for all constituencies, 281–3 expanded citizenship rights to care and support, 106 feminist concerns, 101–2 nation-state boundaries and exclusive citizenship, 102–4
securing care and support rights, 98 social citizenship rights, 98–100 theoretical and conceptual limitations, 286 rights-based care and support policy principles, 106–12, 133–4
access to alternative care and support services, 112–15
access to financial services, 112–15
Care Act 2014 and, 295–6
Carer Payment (child) and, 294–7 flexibility in care and support provision and use and in care/unpaid work combination, 120–2 inclusion of voices of all parties, 124–7 recognition of difference and rejection of independent citizen-worker norm, 127–33 time for care and support, paid work and self-
care, 122–4
self-care, 91, 122–3
Carer Act 2014 and, 262–6, 295
Carer Payment (child) and, 179–81, 294
self-determination, 75, 80, 239, 253, 295
children with disabilities and, 168, 192
independent living and, 64–5, 295 individualized funding programs and, 69 social assistance payments, 9, 25–8, 30–1, 59, 140, 211. See also income support payments, Australia
cohabitation rule, 31, 146, 161, 179, 181, 185, 187
family care responsibilities and, 33 means tests, 31–3
reintroduction of women’s responsibility for care and, 32–3
social citizenship, 10
care and support as elements of, 5–8
human rights and, 106
liberal welfare states, 8–13
rights of, 97
rights-based care and support policy design and, 98–100
social model of disability, 66, 77–8, 86, 93, 187–8, 232, 239, 287, 291 children and, 76–7
crisis of, 71
human rights model and, 87 measures of disability and, 132 social model of disability (cont.)
policy responses based on, 66–7
social policy
feminist, 3, 6, 12, 98, 113, 120, 158, 282, 289
Social Security Act 1991 (Cth), 144, 165
sole mothers’ payment, 26–7
Australia, 27
Canada, 26
neoliberal reform to, 40–2
United Kingdom, 26–7
United States, 26
universal caregiver model, 5, 7–8, 15, 45–6, 81, 85, 99, 122–3, 127, 134, 221, 283, 285 access to financial resources and services and, 7, 113 criticisms and limitations of, 51–3 features of, 44–7 flexibility of paid work and, 7 gender equality and, 4, 44, 46–7, 51–3 implications for care recipients, 53 liberal welfare states, 49–50 male participation in, 52 multi-dimensional assessment framework, 46–7 universal caregiver model implementation main elements of, 48 policy proposals from the literature, 47–9 promises and limits of existing policies, 49–51 universality of dependence
ethics of care and, 86, 93
unpaid care/paid work tension, 3–4, 42–3, 53–4, 97, See also Wollstonecraft’s dilemma
Care Act 2014 and, 223–5, 250
policy responses to, 24–5 ‘utopian’ reorganization visions of, 45–6 unpaid carers
alternative care and support arrangements and,
118–19
family carers, 71, 223, 226
multiple, 219
policy advocacy by, 54–5 women. See women’s unpaid caring voice
Care Act 2014 and, 267–71
Carer Payment (child) and, 181–3 development of care and support policy and, 7
disability rights perspective and, 126
ethics of care and, 124–5
welfare delivery
citizenship model of, 65 welfare model of disability, 63 welfare spending reduction of, 73 welfare-to-work programs. See workfare programs well-being
definition, 232
entitlement to, 244
of carers, 211–2
well-being principle, 201, 232 adult social care policy and, 196
Care Act 2014 and, 205–7, 230, 232, 236, 266
local authorities and, 206
Wollstonecraft’s dilemma, 23–4, 27, 34, 45–6, 98, 106, 134, 151, 192, 282, 288
Carer Payment (child) and, 151, 156, 162 women’s paid work. See also paid work participation
advantages of, 34–6
disadvantages of, 30–42
equal participation and economic independence through, 34–6 ignoring and undervaluing of care and loosening attachment to work, 36–42 inequalities in valuing of, 114 women’s disproportionate caring responsibilities and, 39 women’s unpaid caring. See also unpaid care/paid work tension advantages of, 25–30
disadvantages of, 31–4
entrenchment of dependence and precluding paid work, 31–4 paid work participation and, 33–4, 217 people with disabilities and older people, 28–30 support payment reinforcement of, 32–3 value of and support for, 25–30 work-care reconciliation policies, 34, 47, 122 Care Act leave, 36
‘commodification’ of care and, 38 province of care services to replace unpaid care, 35 ‘replacement’ services and, 218 right to request flexible working conditions, 35, 48, 50 workfare programs, 40, 113, 156, 162 neoliberal reforms to, 143 participation requirements, 141 sole mothers, 42
sole parents, 43
World Health Organization
International Classification of Functioning, Disability and Health, 132 zero-hours contracting, 229–30