

CONTENTS

Figures, maps and tables	vi
Preface	ix
Acknowledgements	xi
A note on casualty statistics	xiii
Glossary	xiv
Introduction	1
1 Raising the white flag: The capture of Australian troops on the Western Front	18
2 The reciprocity principle: Respecting and abrogating wartime agreements	40
3 Giving the game away: The intelligence value of Australian prisoners of war	66
4 Saving lives: Patriotic women, prisoners of war and the Australian Red Cross Society	86
5 Challenging the Holzminden illusion: The myth and reality of escape	107
6 Well fed and plenty of freedom: Autonomy and independence in German captivity	129
7 Hun haunted? Repatriation, home and afterwards	151
Conclusion	174
Appendix 1: Australians who died in German captivity, 1916–21	178
Appendix 2: Awards and escapes from German captivity, 1916–18	207
Notes	212
Bibliography	240
Index	256