Contents

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of Figures</th>
<th>page ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of Tables</td>
<td>xi</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of Contributors</td>
<td>xiii</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. Introduction: From Parchment to Practice
   Tom Ginsburg and Aziz Z. Huq
   1

   PART I THE PROBLEM OF TRANSFORMATION IN CONSTITUTIONAL DESIGN

2. Looking “Backward” or “Forward” to American Constitutional Development: Reflections on Constitutional “Endurance” and “Adaptation” in the “First Republic”
   Sanford Levinson
   31

   Rosalind Dixon and Theunis Roux
   53

4. India’s First Period: Constitutional Doctrine and Constitutional Stability
   Madhav Khosla
   76

   Eric Alston
   98
PART II THE ISSUE OF GENDER

6 The Long Road Ahead: The First Period of a Gender-Responsive Constitution in Zimbabwe
   Claudia Flores

7 Constitutional Reform and Women’s Political Participation: Electoral Gender Quotas in Post-Arab Spring Egypt, Tunisia, and Jordan
   Susan H. Williams

PART III INSTITUTIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND THE ROLE OF COURTS

8 Explaining the Institutional Role of the Colombian Constitutional Court
   Diego González

9 Implementing a New Constitution in a Competitive Authoritarian Context: The Case of Kenya
   James Thuo Gathii

PART IV AUTHORITARIAN TRANSITIONS

10 Transformational Authoritarian Constitutions: The Case of Chile
    Tom Ginsburg

11 Authoritarian Straitjacket or Vehicle for Democratic Transition? The Risky Struggle to Change Myanmar’s Constitution
    Melissa Crouch

12 The Ethiopian Constitution and Ethnic Federalism
    Daniel Abebe

Index

Contents