INDEX

Achaemenid culture
bearded and beardless figurines and, 149–152
horse rider figurines and, 62–65

Aeschines, 87
agency
in female figurines, 182–185
figurine production and, 10 figurines as representations of, 16, 23–24 interactive figurines and, 52–53, 62–64
age specificity
in Babylonian figurines, 128–132
child figurines, 185–200
in heterosexual couples sculptures, 128–132 lack of, female figurines, 166–185, 197–200 male body in figurines, 149–156
young and beardless male figurines, 156–162

Alexander the Great, 1–2, 4, 160–161 amateurism, in musician figurines, 141–143 Ankh-nes-menra (Queen), figurine of, 109–110 anthropology, 7–11
miniaturization theory in, 14

Antioch, 264 n.93
ape figurines, 225–226

Aphrodite, figurines depicting, 205–212
Aphrodite anadyomene, 258 n.68
Aphrodite pudica, 78
Apollo
coins, 160–162
figurines of, 160–161, 217–219
intersexuality in figurines of, 218–219, 223–224 non-human representations of, 225–226 Apollo Toxotis, 218–219
apotropaism, masks and, 92–94 archaeological research on childhood, 53–57, 59–60 limitations in, 7–11
arm positions
athlete figurines, 162–166
child figurines, 197–200
construction of, 66–70, 72–76 female body figurines, 167–176 fragility of, 76–78
pseudo-intimacy of, 78–80
reclining female figurines, 237–246
votive function for, 70–76
art history, 7–11

Asyrian peoples
in Seleucia-on-the-Tigris, 4 slave-surrugacy and, 109
Athena, figurines depicting, 210–212
athlete figurines, 162–166
Artis, 109–110
audience
masks on figurines, 89–94
for mother and child figurines, 102–107 for musician figurines, collaboration with, 112–114 puppet figurines and, 82–89
aulos (double-piped instrument), 137–140 babies, figurines of, 91

Babylon
alleged abandonment of, 249 n.4
Aphrodite figurines in, 205–212
figurine production in, 3
Hellenistic ceramics in, 243–246
intersexed figurines in, 221–222
moveable arms on figurines from, 68
nude figurines in, 46–50
reclining figurines in, 237–246
theater in, 84–86

Bachelard, Gaston, 13–16
Bahram, Zainab, 210
Bailey, Douglas, 14–15, 22–23
banqueting figurines, 238–240, 241–242 “Barberini Faun,” 122–123
bearded and beardless figurines
in heterosexual couples sculptures, 128–132
mature male figurines, 149–152
royal image and, 156–162
bent arms, female body figurines, 167–176 Bes, 233–235
bird-teasing motif, in child figurines, 190
Bit Akitu, 5
Bit Resh, 5
bodily proximity. See corporeality bone figurines
abstract forms, 35–38
moveable arms on, 69
naturalistic motifs in, 35–38
schematic figurines, 35–38
Bonisspa, figurine production in, 3
INDEX

314 breastfeeding

figurines depicting, 106–107
wet-nurses and, 107–110
Bundrick, Sheramy, 137–140
Butler, Judith, 276–277 n.66 children, archaeology of, 53–57, 59–60 children, figurines of, 94–98, 185–200 as deities, 189–193
ritual and, 193–197
as slaves or servants, 185–189 user interaction with, 197–200
Cafarelli, Megan, 42
Clark, Andy, 22
Classical Greek sculpture age specificity in, 128–132
Babylonian figurines and, 247–248 bearded and headless figurines and, 149–152 homoeoticism in, 162–166 instruments for musician figurines in, 136–140 kiote tradition and, 102 limb modeling in, 268 n.48 masks and, 261 n.131
mother and child figurines in, 116–117 nude figures in, 46–50, 159–162 social positioning of women in, 115 symposium imagery in, 218–240 vision as touch in, 260 n.128 clay firing process for, 25–31
in mythology, 252 n.52
properties and availability of, 25–31
Chlopatra VII, 115
coigne, nude figures on, 160–161 Commagene sculptures, 212–217 constraints of candidacy, 201–202 coroplast, 25
corporeality
child figurines, 185–200
clay and, 25–31
cross-cultural interaction and, 12, 147–148, 201–202
female figurines, 166–184
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
in horse rider figurines, 227–230
of interactive figurines, 52–53 intimacy illusion of figurines and, 18–24 male figurines, 148–166
masks and, 90
miniaturization theory and, 15–16
naturalistic figurines, 35–38
nude figurines, 46–50
partially clothed figurines, 42–46
stone and metal figurines, 31, 254 n.88
theatricality and, 82–98
craftpersons, clay modeling process and, 25 cross-cultural interaction child figurines and, 197–200 double-piped instruments and, 137–140entanglement and, 231 n.21
in female figurines, 167–176, 183–185
figurine corpus and, 12, 147–148, 201–202 figurines as expression of, 1–7, 12, 147–148, 201–202
in heterosexual couples figurines, 128–132 research methodology for, 8–9 selective hybridity and, 246 cultic figurines, 23–26, 92–94, 139–140, 253 n.36, cuneiform tablets, in Ur, 5 Cybele, 109–110, 141–143, 210 defects in figurines, 26–29 deities, figurines depicting. See also specific deities, e.g.
Herales
characteristics of, 141–143
child figurines as, 189–193 global context for, 204–219 heterosexual couples as, 125–128 nude figurines as, 160–161 desire, sexuality in figurines and, 118–120
Dionysian worship, 141–143
Dionysus, figurines of, 160–161, 217–219 disability
absence in Hellenistic Babylonian figurines, 128–132
in figurines, 230–236
double-mold technique
in Hellenistic Babylonian figurines, 4, 6–7 heterosexual couples figurines and, 118–120 hybridity in use of, 10 musician figurines and, 141–143
in Seleucia-on-the-Tigris figurines, 4 unfinished elements in, 26–29 drums
double-pipes paired with, 139–140 figurines including, 136–140, 141–143, 196–197 dwarfism, in figurines, 230–236 E-anna, 5
echantment, Gell’s theory of, 251 n.9, 253 n.59 entanglement, cross-cultural hybridities and, 251
Erlch, Adi, 102, 142–143
Eros
Aphrodite figurines with, 205–212 child figurines of, 189–193 sculptures of, 127
with Psyche, 125, 127–128 erotic subject matter. See also homoeroticism; sexuality in figurines heterosexual couples figurines, 117–132
sexualized relationships with figurines, 65–71
stone and metal figurines, 34–35
Etruscan art, influence on Greek sculpture of, 278 n.111 exclusion, sexuality in figurines and, 120–123 extramission, Greek concept of, 16–17 family relationships audience admiration for, 102–107
in heterosexual couples figurines, 117–132
slave surrogates in, 109
social conduits and expectations in, 113–117 female body, figurines depicting, See also women children included in, 185–200 cohesiveness in age and body types and, 166–185 gender ambiguity in figurines and, 224–230 nudity and clothing and, 167–176
reclining figurines, 237–246 sexualized relationships with, 65–71 women in society and, 181–185 figurine assemblages, 100–101 foster children, socialization and, 262 n.32 fragility
in heterosexual couples figurines, 124–125
of moveable arm figurines, 76–78
fragmentation
athlete figurines, 165–166
bone figurines, 35–38
child figurines, 197–200
moveable arm figurines, 258 n.70
reclining figurines, 243–246
frame drum, 141–143 Frechot En-Natifum Tumuli, 3
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
female body in, 167–176
heterosexual couples figurines, 125–128 male body, 150–153, 156–162 funerary deposits, 270 n.111 bone figurines in, 72–76 mounted horse rider figurines in, 59–60
in Nippur, 5–6
rarity of, in Hellenistic Babylonia, 72–76
reclining figurines in, 243–246
Gansell, Amy Rebecca, 254 n.94
Gaze theory, miniaturization and, 258 n.67
Gell, Alfred, 251 n.0, 253 n.99 gender ambiguity, in figurines, 220–230 global trends and styles deity figurines, 204–219
local styles vs., 203–204
Gorgias, 16–17
Greek New Comedy
breastfeeding in, 262 n.30 dwarfism, disability, and grotesque in, 230–231
puppet figurines and, 88
wet-nurses in, 107–108
Greek peoples, migration by, 1–2 grotesque body types, 230–236
puppet figurines and, 87
grouped figurines. See also heterosexual couples, figurines depicting: mother and child figurines audience admiration for, 102–107
characteristics of, 100–101
musical figurines, 132–143 relationship and spectatorship and, 143–146 Gulliver’s Travels (Swift), 13–14
gymnasia
athlete figurines and, 165–166 multicultural variations in, 255 n.107 in Hellenistic Babylonia, 4 Hannumabi, Code of, 107–110 hand-modeled figurines, 141–143 Harpocrates, 94–98, 109–110
figurines of, 192–193
Hebrew Bible, 108
Hellenistic motifs. See also koine tradition bearded and beardless figurines and, 149–152
boundaries of attraction and, 80–81
in child figurines, 189–193
drums and, 140, 141–143
Hellenistic koina vessel, 279 n.119–120, 243–246
in heterosexual couples figurines, 128–132
India and, 259 n.94
koine motif and styles, 6–7 in male figurines, 153–154
nude figurines, 159–162
puppet figurines, 97, 150–151
Rococo style sculpture, 122–123, 124–125
in Seleucia-on-the-Tigris, 4 theater masks, 89–94
in Urk, 5
Hellenization theory, repudiation of, 9–10
Herakles, 153–154, 212–217 hermaphrodites, in figurines, 220–230 hetairai, Greek depictions of, 238–240 heteronormativity, dominance in figurines of, 128–132 heterosexual couples, figurines depicting, 117–132 desire and imagination in, 118–120 exclusion and voyeurism and, 120–125 mortal and deities, 125–128
social roles and cross-cultural interaction, 128–132 Heyn, Maura, 270 n.111
homoeoeroticism
child figurines and, 187–188
in Classical Greek sculpture, 162–166 horse rider figurines
abstraction and play with, 53–57 agency and interaction with, 53 diversity in, 64–65
fighting or battle poses for, 62–64
mold-made construction of, 57–61
otherness in, 227–230
INDEX 315

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-48814-3 — Figurines in Hellenistic Babylonia
Stephanie M. Langin-Hooper
Cambridge University Press

© in this web service Cambridge University Press
www.cambridge.org
INDEX

Horus, 109–110. See also Harpocrates human facture, miniaturization theory and role of, 29–31 hybridity
  animal-human hybrids, 225–226
  boundaries of attraction and, 80–81
cross-cultural interaction and, 9–10, 246
  in female figurines, 167–176, 183–185
  in horse rider figurines, 64–65
  local context and, 236–246
  in mother-and-child figurines, 115–117 multiculturalism and, 11–12 “otherness” in figurines and, 219–236 post-colonial theory and, 10
  puppet figurines, 82–89
  theoretical approaches to, 10 hyperreality in figurines, 78–80 iconography of service, mother-child figurines as, 107–110 identity
  figurines and, 143–146, 201–202 self-presentation and, 147–148, 201–202
  young and beardless male figurines, 156–162 youthful male bodies, 156–162 imagination
  abstraction and play with figurines, 53–57 miniaturization and stimulation of, 22–23 sexuality in figurines and, 118–120 incense burners, figurines as, 196–197 instruments in figurines, 195. See also specific instruments
  ape figurines, 225–226
  arm placement and, 179–181
  attachment of, 195
  audience collaboration and, 132–143 horse riders, 227–230
  paired instruments, 137–138 performance and, 84–86, 133–136 professional direction in, amateurish immediacy with, 141–143
  puppet figurines, 82–89
  relations and spectatorship involving, 143–146 stringed instruments, 26–29
interactive figurines
  abstraction and play with, 53–57
  boundaries of attraction for, 80–81 broken bodies and hyper-reality of, 78–80
  fighting or battle poses for, 61–64 fragility and sexuality of, 76–78 horse riders and soldiers, 33 hybridity in, 64–65
  intimacy of, 52–53, 98–99 masks and babies, 89–94 mounted horse rider figurines, 57–61
  moveable arms on, 66–70
  puppets, 82–89
rattles, 94–98
sexuality and relationships with, 63–71
soldiers, 61–64
theatricality and performance and, 82–98 two-piece mounted soldiers, 57–61
votive function for, 70–76
intersexuality, in figurines, 220–230 intimacy, figurines and illusion of, 10–11
bone figurines, 37–38
community motivations and, 23–24
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
heterosexual couples figurines and, 118–120
interactive figurines, 52–53, 98–99
miniaturization theory and, 14, 18–24
mother-and-child figurines and, 102–107 moveable-arm figurines and, 78–80
nude figurines, 46–50
object vs. representation and, 38–40
partially clothed figurines, 42–46
rattles and, 94–98
stone and metal figurines and, 34–35
theatricality and, 82–98
Irīgal, 5
Ishtar, figurines of, 210–212
gender ambiguity in, 221
Isis, 109–110
jewelry, miniaturization and, 193–197
Joyce, Rosemary, 14, 15, 16
Kish, figurine production in, 3
khtau (box lyre), 193
Klengel-Brandt, Evelyn, 245–246
Knappert, Carl, 22
Knidian Aphrodite, 31, 46–50, 78
Koine tradition, 6–7. See also Hellenistic motifs
  Aphrodite figurines in, 205–212
  Apollo figurines, 218–219
  athletic figurines in, 162–166
  Babylonian figurines and, 247–248
  child figurines in, 189–193
  deity figurines in, 204–219 dwarfism, disfigurement, and grotesque in, 230–236 figurines of “otherness,” 219–236
  fully clothed figurines, 40–42
  gender ambiguity in figurines and, 224–230
  global vs. local context for, 203–204 Herakles in, 212–217
  heterosexual couples figurines in, 124–125, 128–132
  local nature of, 11–12
  mother and child figurines in, 101–103, 107–108, 116–117
  nude figurines in, 159–162
  partially clothed figurines, 42–46
  stone and metal figurines and, 31
  Tanagra tradition, 182
  widespread distribution of, 240
INDEX

Koldewey, Robert, 245–246
kourotrophos (child-carrying) figurines, 101–103 Kruger, Barbara, 122
lagynos pottery, 185–189 left-side positioning of child, in mother-and-child figurines, 110–113 lion-hunting figurines, 212–217 local context
hybridity within, 236–246
Macedonian peoples, migration by, 1–2 Mack, John, 252 n. 38
male body, figurines depicting, 148–166 age specificity and, 128–132, 149–156
athlete figurines, 162–166
child figurines, 183–200
diversity in, 156–166
gender ambiguity in figurines and, 224–230
mature male figurines, 149–156
puppet figurines, 88
reckoning figurines, 241–242
royal image and, 156–162
unified pose of, 152–153 young and beardless images, 156–162 manufacturing process for figurines, 25–31 Martin, S. Rebecca, 210
masks, figurines and, 89–94 Masséglia, Jane, 127 material culture research, 7–11
materiality
masks and, 90
miniaturization theory and, 15–16
Menegazzi, Roberta, 7–8, 28–29, 88, 245–246
Meskell, Lynn, 17
Mesopotamia
ouples figurines from, 131–132 drum use in, 140, 141–143
gender ambiguity in, 224–230
Herakles imagery in, 212–217 left-side positioning of child in mother and child figurines from, 110–113 non-human figurines in, 225–226
nude figurines in, 46–50, 159–162 scarcity of metal and stone materials in, 31, 34–35 sexual attractions in, 80–81 size and dominance linked in, 255 n. 2 terracotta figurines, 25
wet-nurses in, 107–110
metal figurines, 31, 254 n. 88
mid-limb joining technique, athlete figurines, 162–166 miniaturization affect of figurines and, 50–51 anthropology and, 14
bodily proximity and, 15–16 child figurines, relative scale of, 193–197 contextual analysis of, 17 Gaze theory and, 258 n. 67
gender ambiguity in figurines and, 224–230
grouped figurines and, 143–146
hybridity and, 9–10
intimacy illusions and, 18–24 manufacturing process and, 29–31 mid-limb joining technique, 162–166 mother and child figurines, scale in, 113–117 practical rationalizations in, 17–18 principles of, 10–11
social cohesion and, 247–248 theater masks and, 89–94
theatricality and, 82–98
theory, 7–8
morts, heterosexual couples figurines as, 125–128 mother and child figurines audeavor admiration for, 102–107
bent arms in, 167–169
characteristics of, 16, 94–98, 101–103
as iconography of service, 107–110 left-side positioning of child in, 110–113
slave surrogates in, 109
social conduits and expectations in, 113–117 “mouth-opening” (pit pî) ritual, 92–94 “mouth-washing” (nia pî) ritual, 92–94 moveable arms in figurine production, 76–78 multiculturalism
boundaries of attraction and, 80–81
horse rider figurine and, 64–65
hybridity and, 11–12
musicians. See also instruments in figurines Apollo and, 218–219
bent arms in, 179–181
grouped figurines of, 132–143 performance and repetition in, 133–136 pipes and drum in, 136–140 professionals vs. amateurs and, 141–143 women figurines as, 133–136 Myrina site, Greek figurines from, 238–249 mythology
child figurines from, 271 n. 130 clay as motif in, 232 n. 52
Nakamura, Carolyn, 17
Neo-Babylonian era
male figurines from, 152–153
mother and child figurines from, 110–113, 115–117
Nike, figurines depicting, 210–212
Nippur
absence of Hellenistic kôrê vessels in, 243–246 absence of reckoning female figurines in, 237–246
figurine production in, 3, 5–6, 11–12, 29
heterosexual couples figurines from, 123–124 horse rider figurines from, 55–56 rattles from, 261 n. 143
tactile interaction with figurines in, 279 n. 132 non-human figurines, 225–226
nude figurines, 46–50
of Apollo, 218–219
athlete figurines, 162–166
of children, 185–189
female body in, 167–176
male body in, 153–154, 159–162 movable arms on, 66–70
reclining figurines, 240–243
tactile interaction with, 46–50
Old Kingdom figurine, 109–110
On Longing: Narratives of the Miniature, the Gigantic, the Souvenir, the Collection (Stewart), 14–15
Osborne, Robin, 270 n.111 “otherness,” figurines of, 219–236 dwaratism, disability, and the grotesque, 230–236 hermaphroditism, intersex, and gender ambiguity, 220–230
Paleolithic figurines, 13–14
Parthian period
bone figurines during, 33–38
horse rider figurines and, 64–65
male figurines and, 130–133
in Nippur, 5–16
puppet figurines and, 88–89
Seleucid kingdom and, 1–2 partially clothed figurines, 42–46
performance
cross-cultural interaction and, 143
interactive figurines and, 82–98
miniaturization and, 82–98
musician figurines and, 133–136
puppet figurines, 82–89
rattles, and, 94–98
Persian culture. See Achaemenid culture pipes, musician figurines including, 136–140 plaque-style figurines, 120–125 plays, with interactive figurines, 53–57 Plutarch, 261–262 n.13
pornography, 80–81
power dynamics
male figurines and, 135–136
sexualized relationships with figurines and, 78–80 professional distance, in musician figurines, 141–143 Psyche, 127
pubis pose, female figurines, 183
puppet figurines, 82–89
rattles, figurines and, 94–98, 196–197
reclining figurines, 237–246
repetition, in musician figurines, 133–136 representations, objects in, 38–40 research methodology, overview of, 7–11 ritual
child’s body in, 193–197

318

INDEX

drums and, 139–140
masks and, 92–94
theatricality and, 260 n.122
Rococo style sculpture, 122–123, 124–125
child figurines in, 185–193
royal image, 156–162
Sasanian period, 150–152
sculptural dislocation, 52–53 scopophilia, sexuality in figurines and, 120–125 seals, 160–161
Selective concretization, miniaturization and, 22
Seleucia-on-the-Tigris
Aphrodite figurines in, 205–212
child figurines from, 185–189 dwaratism, disability, and grotesque in figurines of, 230–236
figurine production in, 1–4
Hellenistic ceramics in, 243–246
Herakles statue from, 212–217 intersexuality in figurines from, 222
mounted horse rider figurines in, 59–60 movable arms on figurines from, 68–68
nude figurines in, 46–50, 160–162
puppet figurines in, 88–89, 259 n.106
reclining figurines in, 237–246
Seleucid Heroon, 88–89, 93–94
Seleucid kingdom, Parthian conquest of, 1–2 Seleucus I, 149–152
self-presentation
identification with figurines and, 147–148, 201–202 object agency of figurines and, 11
royal image and, 156–162
young and beardless male figurines, 156–162
šem /mezi drum, 140
sensory perception, miniaturization and, 82–90 and limits of, 20
servants, children in, 185–189
sexuality in figurines
desire and imagination in, 118–120
exclusion and voyeurism and, 120–125 gender ambiguity and, 220–230
in heterosexual couples figurines, 117–132 musical couples figurines, 133–136
reclining figurines, 240–243
stone and metal figurines, 76–78
sexualized relationships with figurines, 65–71
boundaries of attraction and, 80–81
fragility and, 76–78
hyper-reality of, 78–80
single mold technique
child figurines, 193–197
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
heterosexual couples figurines and, 118–120
Sippar, figurines from, 68
INDEX 319

skin contact
bone figurines, 37–38
with figures and figurines, 38–40
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
nude figurines, 46–50
object representation and, 38–40 slaves
cradle-rearing by, 109
children as, 185–189
“Slipper Slapper” Aphrodite, 210 social structure
child figurines and, 185–189
family structure and, 262 n. 32 female body in figurines and, 181–185
figurine corpus and, 11, 29–31, 201–202 figurines as reflection of, 203–204
gender ambiguity in, 224–230
grouped figurines and, 143–146
in heterosexual couples figurines, 128–132
interactive figurines and, 52–53
mother-and-child figurines and, 113–117 nude figurines and, 50
puppet figurines and, 88
reclining figurines and, 243–246 role of figurines in, 247–248
soldiers
fighting or battle poses for, 61–64
interactive figurines as, 53 mounted soldiers, production of, 57–61 solo musicians, figurines of, 141–143
Sophocles, 87
Sophosyne (self-control), 182–185
Stewart, Susan, 14–15,
266 n. 1
stone figurines, 31, 254 n. 88
intersexuality in, 221–222 sexuality of, 76–78
votive function for, 72–76
supernatural, child figurines and, 189–193 Swift, Jonathan, 13–14, 19
symplegma (sexualized struggle or fighting), 122–123 tactile interaction
abstraction and play with figurines, 53–57
bone figurines, 57–58
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
interactive figurines, 52–53
intimacy illusion and, 18–24
miniaturization theory and, 14–18
mother-and-child figurines and reduction of, 102–107
nude figurines, 46–50
partially clothed figurines, 42–46
with reclining figurines, 240–243 sexualized figurines and, 76–78 skin contact with figures and figurines, 38–40
stone and metal figurines, 31, 254 n. 88 substance of figurines and, 24–25 visual process and, 260 n. 128
Tanagra tradition, 40–42
female figurines in, 182
mother and child figurines in, 116–117
Tell ‘Umar (Seleucia-on-Tigris), 4 temperature sensation, stone and metal figurines, 254 n. 80
Terme Ruler statue, 149–152, 160–161
terracotta, production of, 23–31, 60–70, 70–76, 82–94
theatricality miniaturization and, 82–98
puppet figurines, 82–89
rattles and, 94–98
thing theory, 15–16
Thomas, Nicholas, 273 n. 167
three-peaked headress, in child figurines, 192–193 Topper, Kathryn, 278 n. 111, toys
interactive figurines as, 53–57
mounted horse rider figurines as, 57–61 Treasury Relief at Peneopolis, 150–152

ub / uppu drum, 140
unfurnished elements in figurines, 26–29 unpredictability, of miniaturization, 20–22 Unuk
Aphrodite figurines in, 203–212
figurine production in, 3, 5
Hellenistic ceramics in, 243–246
intersexed figurines from, 226–230
moveable arms on figurines from, 68
reclining figurines in, 237–246
Van Buren, E. Douglas, 245–246
Van Ingen, Wilhelmina, 243–246,
257 n. 59
Venus of Willendorf, 13–14
votive functions of male figurines, 152–153
moveable arm figurines, 70–76 voyeurism, sexuality in figurines and, 120–125
Watt culture figurines, 252 n. 36
“Weary Herakles,” 212–217
Weary Herakles sculpture, 153–154 wet-nurses, figurines depicting, 107–110
Winter, Irene, 111
women
economic status and activity of, 264 n. 93 figurine representations of, 16
fully clothed figurines, 40–42
in horse rider figurines, 227–230 interactive figurines of, 52–53
in mother and child figurines, 94–98, 101–103
in musician couples figurines, 133–136 nude figurines of, 46–50
women (cont.)
relationships and role of, 143–146 service images of, 107–110
as slave surrogates, 109
social positioning of, in mother and child figurines, 113–117
in society, female body in figurines and,
181–185
stone and metal figurines of, 32–34 workshops for figurine production, 253 n. 56 ziggurats, 5