

INDEX

- African American, 30–33
 Americans with Disabilities Act contrasts with Lactation at Work Law, 56 groundbreaking, 181
 aural privacy, 87
 Australia
 maternity leave, 182
 awareness of resources, 100–2, 115, 134–35
- Brazil
 breastfeeding, 45
 lactation law, 45
 milk banks, 128
 burden asking for accommodation, 187
 educational conversations, 155
 if lactation lacks legitimacy, 67 rights assertion, 153
 social reproduction, 192
 Business Case for Breastfeeding, The, 57–58
- children’s health conservative frame, 196–97 contrast to workers’ rights, 164, 168, 181 counterbalance to managerial norms, 144–45 educational conversations, 155
 for healthy, competitive America, 144–45 improved by breastfeeding, 163 for its own sake, 139, 141–45 as managerial benefit, 112, 142 obscuring workers’ rights, 164
- Chile, 44
 maternity leave 44. See maternity leave, Chile
- China
 breastfeeding, 41
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, China
- coercive mechanisms field-level pressures, 105 invoking the law, 104–9, 143 organizational mission, 103–5 coercive power of law contrasted to expressive power of law, 135
- Colombia
 breastfeeding, 45
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, Columbia
- convenient accommodations lack of, 79, 81
- Costa Rica. See maternity leave, Costa Rica
 lactation law, 44
 maternity leave, 44
- co-workers, 88–90, 102–3, 199–200 confirming legitimacy of lactation, 89–90 frustration, 108
 supportive, 103
- Cuba, 44
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, Cuba
- cumulative effect of accommodations, 71, 79–80, 84, 96, 100–1, 198
- Democratic Republic of the Congo
 lactation law, 43
- educational conversations, 165 challenging, 145, 187 changes at Time 2, 145, 147
 children’s health, 141–42 emotionally difficult, 145 importance of organizational location, 140–41 irony, 141, 156
 law’s critical role, 145–46, 153–54, 174, 178–79 moralization of the law, 139 power, 155–59
 risks, 146
 unsuccessful, 155
- Egypt
 lactation law, 43
 maternity leave, 43. See maternity leave, Egypt
- empathy, 121–26, 173, 197 breast milk, 125
 knowledge base, 122–24, 126 lactation accommodations, 121. See lactation accommodations, empathy social proximity, 122–24, 135–36 empowered by the law, 147
- Expressive Power of Law, 62, 128–29, 133, 135, 146–47, 153–54, 176–77
 educational conversations, 139

INDEX

- Finland
 Baby Boxes, 40
 breastfeeding, 40
 formula, 33–36
- human resource personnel contrasted with supervising managers, 140–41, 151–52, 179
- ideal worker norm, 55–56, 160–62, 194–95, 202 insufficient legitimacy, 160–61
- India
 breastfeeding, 42
 lactation law, 42
- Indonesia
 breastfeeding, 42
 lactation law, 42
- institutional entrepreneurs, 59, 120, 132, 139, See policy entrepreneurs
- Iran
 lactation laws, 46
- Iraq
 breastfeeding, 45
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, Iraq
- Israel, 129
 “society’s responsibility”, 129
 breastfeeding, 46
 lactation law, 46
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, Israel
- Japan
 breastfeeding, 41–42
- La Leche League, 36–37
- lactation accommodations, 140 beyond compliance, 131–35, 189–90 contrasted to other accommodations, 54–55 empathy, 121, See empathy, lactation accommodations
 immediate benefits, 166 managers vs. human resources, 140–41
 maternity leave, 171
 organizational location, 140–41 clocking out, 81–82
 relational work, 99, 184 specific, unlike other civil rights laws, 154, 178
- lactation space, 79, 85–86, 102, 112, 184 private offices, 96–97 shared space, 83–86
- lactation time, 82–83, 184 flexible schedules, 97–98
- law as leverage, 120, 126–28, 133, 135, 147, 153–54, 173–74
- legitimacy, 61–62, 67, 70–72, 82, 87, 95–118, 154, 185–87
 expressive power of law, 132–33 human resource specialists, 95 from law, 96–105, 146–47, 154, 170–71
 law as symbolic resource, 63–64 needed to overcome hurdles, 70 and organizational mission, 104, 115–16 organizational politics, 186
- managerial mechanisms, 110–14
 organizational mission, 114–16
- managerialization, 95–96, 110, 115–17, 122, 168, 172–73, 178, 191, 199
- mastitis, 83
- maternity leave
 Asia, 41
 Australia, 182
 breastfeeding rates, 38
 Chile, 44
 China, 41
 Columbia, 45
 contrast to lactation accommodations, 30
 Cuba, 43–44
 Egypt, 43
 European Union, 39
 formula makers, 34
 Indonesia, 42
 inverse with need for lactation accommodations, 37, 192
 Iraq, 45
 Israel, 46
 lactation accommodations, 171
 Latin America, 44
 Mexico, 44
 Pakistan, 42
 Saudi Arabia, 46
 Sweden, 40
 United States, 2
 Venezuela, 44
- Mexico
 breastfeeding, 45
 lactation law, 44
 Senator Márquez harassed, 44
- moralization of the law
 educational conversations, 140
 Morally Motivated Advocates, 139, 197
 supervising managers, 139
- normative pressure, 63
- Norway
 breastfeeding, 40
 breastfeeding PSA campaign, 40
- organizational allies, 59–60, 180
 organizational politics, 179, 186–87
- Pakistan
 breastfeeding, 42
 lactation law, 42

- Peru
 “Baby with Best Suck” contest, 44
 breastfeeding, 44
 lactation law, 44, 182
 nursing contests, 128
- Philippines
 Guinness breastfeeding contest, 129 physical placement of workers’ bodies, 92, 192 policy entrepreneurs, 60, See institutional entrepreneurs
- retention, 98, 110–13, 142 rights awareness, 117, 129–31, 145–47, 153–54, 163–64, 167–68, 178–80 advocates, 129–31, 189 health rhetoric over workers’ rights, 166–68 rights of the child, 180 tangible accommodations, 153–54, 178
- Saudi Arabia
 breastfeeding, 46
 maternity leave. See maternity leave, Saudi Arabia
- Singapore
 breastfeeding, 41
 maternity leave, 41
 smoking breaks, 99
- social reproduction, 6 burden on women, 192, 195 managerial logic, 191 race, 193–94
 socioeconomic status, 193–94 worker vs. employer needs, 191
- socioeconomic status, 30–33, 86–87, 90–92, 98–99, 156–58, 174–76 dispute options, 91 lactation resources, 91, 191–93 professors, 91
 retail workers, 90
- South Africa
 lactation law, 43
- Sweden
 maternity leave, 40
 subsidized childcare, 182
- symbolic compliance, 11–13, 19, 22–24, 26, 66–68, 78, 87–88, 199
- travel time, 80–81, 89 easy, 112
 placement of lactation accommodations, 78, 80 unworkable, 12
- World Health Organization (WHO), 29, 36, 38, 40