CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-49147-1 — Ethical Dilemmas in Schools
Douglas J. Simpson , Donal M. Sacken
Index
More Information

Index

absolute claims
  reconstruction of, 55–7
absolutism, 45
accountability, 83–4
actions
  in ethical inquiry, 9
active needs
  of students, 192–4
Addams, Jane, 4
aesthetic depictions, 12–15
affections
  dilution of, 75–6
  sympathy and, 30–4
agency
  democracy and, in schools, 181–2
agents
  imperfectability of, 132–5 Aristotle, 4
  on moral choice, 182
  on recognizing ethically good people, 215 on wisdom, 141

balance
  between inquiry and reflection, 19 of internal and external satisfactions, 193 of life, 85–6, 98, 113
  of the unconscious and the conscious, 198 balanced personality, 213 benevolence
  respect and, 74
bias, 19, 54, see also prejudices educators and, 30
  perception of, need for inquiry and, 115

care ethics, xiii
  Dewey and, 4, 150
care respect (Dillon), 75
casuistry, viii
  criticism of, ix
central problem identification educators and, per Dewey, 200
Chipman, Alice, 4
closed-mindedness, see also open-mindedness
  Dewey on, 18, 32, 130, 195
co-curricular experiences, xix codes of ethics, 2
cognition
  sympathy and, 34–6
cognitive empathy, 32–3 collaborative discussions importance of, per Dewey, 78 collaborative engagements in schools, importance of, 81–3 collaborative experiences importance of, 116–17
  in schools, 195
collaborative exploration importance of, in schools, 57, 59 collateral learning, 29 common good, 77, 211
  schools' role in, 80, 201 communication, 217
  democracy and, in schools, 172–4
  Dewey on, 96
conclusions, investigative, 15–16 conclusions, tentative, 17–19 conduct
  in ethical inquiry, 9
conflict
  roots of, in schools, 183–4 conflictual communities
  schools as, 169, 182–91
conscientiousness in moral deliberations in an ethical person, 155–9, 213 consensualism, 118, see also collaborative experiences consequences
  consideration of, 84
  Dewey on, 111–12
  in moral situations, 114
consequentialism, xiii, 95
  Dewey and, 133

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-49147-1 — Ethical Dilemmas in Schools
Douglas J. Simpson , Donal M. Sacken
Index
More Information

context
  cultural sphere of, 104–6 of ethical decisions, 48 experiential sphere of, 102–3 personal sphere of, 101–4 of problematic situations, 6, 8–10 relevant variables for, 66–71 culture
  as context in problematical ethical situations, 104–6 curricula
  democracy and, in schools, 194–6

Darwin, Charles, 4
delight in thinking
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
democracy
  agency and, in schools, 181–2 communication and, in schools, 172–4 curricula and, in schools, 194–6 education and, in schools, 196–200 evaluation and, in schools, 178–80 expectations and, in schools, 174–7 learning and, in schools, 192–4 moral idea of, 84
  power and, in schools, 189–91 democratic communities
  schools as, 170–82
democratic success
  requirements for, per Dewey, 217
deontological ethics, xiii, 95, 145
  Dewey and, 133
desires
  Dewey on, 143
  in moral situations, 114
Dewey, John
  on ambiguities, 200
  analytical approach to problems of, 97–9, 122–3 on art, 13
  on change, 111
  on common people, 49
  on contrarian voices, 49
  critics of, 4
  on deliberation, 156, 158 desire theory and, 96
  on dishonesty, 53
  on educative experiences, 107 on ethical inquiry, 9
  on ethics, 209
  on evil, 99
  experimentalism of, 4–5
  on fraternity, 217
  on freedom of intelligence, 174–5 on good people, 131
  on happiness, 65, 69, 80–1, 86–7, 149, 156–7 on honesty, 52
  on imagination, 158
  on impulse, 143
  on laws and policies, 149
  on liberation, 134
  as meliorist, 75
  method of studying ethical inquiry of, 47 on miseducative experiences, 107 on moral learning, 97
  on moral theory, 96
  on noneducative experiences, 107
  on philanthropy, 189
  on the practical ideal, 113 on pragmatism, 4–5
  on reflective breaks, xv
  on relational universal claims, 54–5 on relativism, 58
  on religion, 143–4
  on rhythmic inquiry, 14
  on self-control, 137
dialogue
  democratic, Dewey on, 180
  of denigration, in schools, 101
  Dewey on, 166
  empirical generalizations and, 46 reflective, schools as a place for, 201 solutions and, 118
  value of inquiry and reflection in, 78 dilution of affections, 75–6 discernment, 159
disequilibrium, 69, 169, 193
diversity
  in schools, 109
dominance of class interactions
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
dramatic rehearsal
  importance of, 199

education
  democracy and, in schools, 196–200
educational leaders
  esprit de corps and, 178
  ethics of, 169
educators, see also teachers ambiguities and, Dewey on, 200 bias of, 30
  central problem identification and, Dewey on, 200 class interactions and, Dewey on, 200 delight in thinking and, Dewey on, 200
  Dewey's ethical considerations for, 19–20
  Dewey's ethical theories, relevance for, 5–6 ethical expectations for, 2–6, 132, 208–9

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-49147-1 — Ethical Dilemmas in Schools
Douglas J. Simpson , Donal M. Sacken
Index
More Information

ethical qualities of, 159–60, 213–14 ethical, recognition of, 214–15
ethically good, Dewey on, 197–8 experiences and, 101–2 fuzzy thinking and, Dewey on, 200 genuine interest of, importance of, 81–2 as hospitality workers, 67 indoctrination by, Dewey on, 197 intellectual depth and, Dewey on, 200 mental digestion and, per Dewey, 200 as mental health support personnel, 111 objective conditions, regulation of by, 107, 110–11 propagandization by, 197 questioning and, per Dewey, 200 reasonableness and, per Dewey, 200 regard for people and, 65 rewards for, 216–17
study of issues by, Dewey on, 200
sympathy and, 28, 31–2, 35–6, 39
tactfulness and, Dewey on, 200 word choice by, importance of, 101 emotional intensity, 210 emotions, see also specific emotions
in ethical inquiry, 9
in evaluative moments, 152 empathy, 27–30
ethics and, 210
empirical generalizations, 46–50 environment
in problematic ethical situations, 106–11
spatial features of, 108 temporal features of, 108–9 epistemic accuracy, 177 esprit de corps
in schools, 178
ethical deliberation, 95
ethical expectations
for educators, 2–6
ethical growth, 131–40
impermanence of, 135–6
ethical theory
Dewey on, 3–4
of Dewey, dynamacy of, xx ethics versus, 1
ethics
ethical theory versus, 1
in secondary schools, per Dewey, 145 evaluation
democracy and, in schools, 178–80
evaluative judgments, thoughtfulness in
as a quality of an ethical person, 150–5, 175–6, 213
evaluative moments
emotions in, 152
expectations
democracy and, in schools, 174–7
experiences, see also reflective experience aesthetic, 107, 113
importance for educators of, 101–2 experimentation
in inquiry, Dewey on, 18, 26, 47–8 external evaluators
in problematical ethical situations, importance of, 120–1 forces

contradictory, competing and intersecting, 223 ordinary, 189
organismic and environmental, 85 personal, political and social desires, 84, 189 social and political, 58, 189, 196 urges and interests, 193 fuzzy thinking
educators and, per Dewey, 200

genuine interest
of educators, importance of, 81–2 good self, 123

habits
in ethical inquiry, 9
Hegel, Georg Wilhelm Friedrich, 4 hospitality, 167
hospitality workers
educators as, 67
hubris, 35, 151
human traits
interpenetration of, 136–40

imperfectability
of agents, 132–5
impermanence
of ethical growth, 135–6 individual good, 77
indoctrination
by educators, Dewey on, 197
intellectual depth
educators and, per Dewey, 200
interpenetration
of human traits, 136–40

James, William, 4–5
Jen (Confucian idea), 154
justice, 53–4, 210

Kant, Immanuel, 4
Kunzman, Robert
teaching approach of, 190

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-49147-1 — Ethical Dilemmas in Schools
Douglas J. Simpson , Donal M. Sacken
Index
More Information

learning
  democracy and, in schools, 192–4
learning communities
  schools as, 191–200

meaningful endeavors, 107
mental digestion
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
mental health support personnel
  educators as, 111
moral deliberations, conscientiousness in
  as a quality of an ethical person, 155–9

natural learning theory, 194

objective conditions
  regulation of, by educators, 107, 110–11 open-mindedness, 103, see also closed-mindedness

Peirce, Charles, 5
personal liability, See responsibility Plato, 4
power
  distribution of, 54, 67, 132, 170, 187
  democracy and, in schools, 189–91
practical certainties, xi, 56–7 prejudices, see also bias
  Dewey on, 77–80
problematic situations, 6–11, 212–13 careful consideration of, importance of, 119–22, 198 defined, 94–5, 111–13
propagandization
  by educators, Dewey on, 197

qualitative judgments
  importance of, 59
questioning
  educators and, per Dewey, 200

reasonableness
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
reflective experience, 11–12 reflective morality, 86 regard for people, 71–6, 211 benevolence compared to, 74
  Dewey on, 71–3
  importance of, 85
  importance of, for educators, 65
  as a quality in good school communication, 173 respect compared to, 74–5 sympathy compared to, 74 relational ethics, 145
respect
  benevolence and, 74
  Dewey on, 73–5
  as a quality in good school communication, 173
  regard for people compared to, 74–5
  sympathy and, 74
responsibility, 83–4
rewards
  for educators, 216–17
rhythmic inquiry
  Dewey on, 14
rights and duties
  of individuals, in schools, 184–9 romantic Dewey not as, 75

satisfaction, see happiness Schindler, Oskar, 53
school districts
  evaluation of, per Dewey, 160
schools
  collaborative engagements, importance of in, 81, 83 conceptualization of, evaluative relationships and, 152–3 as conflictual communities, 169, 182–91 as democratic communities, 170–82
  Dewey on, 97
  diversity in, 109
  ethical obligations of, 76–7 ethically good, characteristics of, per Dewey, 166–7, 200–2, 215–16 ethically good, indicators of, 180
  evaluation of, per Dewey, 160
  as learning communities, 191–200 role in common good of, 80, 201 transformation of, 208
secondary schools
  ethics education in, per Dewey, 145 selfish ethics, 65
selfless ethics, 65
spatial-temporal setting, see environment stress
  of students, 109–10
students
  active needs of, 192–4
  ethically good, Dewey on, 197–8
  stress and, 109–10
study of issues
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
subjectivism, 1, 50

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org

CAMBRIDGE

Cambridge University Press
978-1-108-49147-1 — Ethical Dilemmas in Schools
Douglas J. Simpson , Donal M. Sacken
Index
More Information

sympathy, 27–30
  Dewey on, 26, 34, 38
  ethics and, 209–10
  intelligent cycle of, 33
  respect and, 74

tactfulness
  educators and, per Dewey, 200
teachers, see also educators Dewey on, xiv, 200
thoughtfulness in evaluative judgments
  as a quality of an ethical person, 150–5, 175–6, 213
tolerance
  as a quality in good school communication, 173
transformation
  of schools, 208
trustworthiness
  as a quality of an ethical person, 145–50, 213
Tubman, Harriet, 53

unconscious system
  evaluation of, per Dewey, 198
universal claims
  reconstruction of, 50–5
universalism, 45

vices
  in schools, 59
virtue ethics, xiii, 95
  Dewey and, 133, 138–9, 150
virtues
  in schools, 59

wealth-and-poverty gap
  in schools, effect of, 178–80 whole situation
  in problematic ethical situations, 113–19
wisdom, 211–12
  deliberation and, 156
  as a quality of an ethical person, 140–5, 213
word choice
  by educators, importance of, 101
  Dewey on, 52

xenophobic behavior
  predictability of, 80

© in this web service Cambridge University Press www.cambridge.org