CONTENTS

List of Figures page ix
Foreword xi
by Fleur Johns
Acknowledgements xiv
Table of Cases xx
List of Abbreviations xxii
List of Interviews xxiv

1 The Law of the List 1
1.1 Four Walls of Scholarship 9
1.2 Studying Global Security Law in Motion 16
1.3 Notes on the Method Assemblage 31
1.4 Structure of the Book 49

2 Global Listing Technologies and the Politics of Expertise 54
2.1 The List As a Technology of Governance 59
2.2 Global Counterterrorism and the Politics of Rendering Technical 67
2.3 Security Listing and the Construction of the Global Optic 74
2.4 Data Infrastructures and the Politics of Formatting 103
2.5 What’s in a List? Inscription, Translation, Preemption 126
3 The List As Multiple Object: the UN Office of the Ombudsperson 131

3.1 The Legal List: Asserting Individual Rights and Pursuing Accountability in the Courts 138

3.2 The Humanitarian List: Academic Expertise and the Moral Economy of Targeted Sanctions 153

3.3 The Living List: the ISIL and Al-Qaida Monitoring Team As Accountability Advocates 178

3.4 The Compliant List: Global Constitutionalism and the UN Special Rapporteurs 192

3.5 The Credible List: the Security Council P5 Making the Global Exception Durable 206

3.6 The Ombudsperson, Expertise and Assemblage 222

3.7 Multiplicity and Experimentation in Global Exceptional Governance 245

4 Complexity in the Courts: the Spatiotemporal Dynamics of the List 250

4.1 Non-Synchronous Law and the Use of Intelligence-As-Evidence 256

4.2 Dis-Located Law: Taking Listing Decisions beyond the Vanishing Point of Review 281

4.3 Spatiotemporal Dynamics and Global Legal Assemblage 299

5 Conclusions 305

5.1 The Law of the List: Key Arguments 306

5.2 The Law of the List: Original Contributions 312

5.3 From Al-Qaida to ISIL and Beyond: the Global Law of Endless War 328

Bibliography 332

Index 367