Contents

List of Figures page xi
List of Tables xiii
Acknowledgments xv

1 Introduction 1
The Question 3
Conceptualizing Regulation 6
Existing Explanations of FDI Policy 7
Why We Need New Theory 10
A Financing Constraints Theory of FDI Policy 13
Scope Conditions 17
Implications 18
Plan of the Book 25

2 Describing FDI Policy through Time and Space 30
Capital Account Openness and FDI Policy 31
Investment Policies in Historical Perspective 35
Regulating FDI 42
Comparing Broad Measures of Investment Climate 51
Conclusion 61

3 Financing Constraints and Liberalized Entry 63
FDI Restrictions as a Puzzle 67
Existing Explanations of Investment Policy Liberalization 72
The “Quiet Politics” of Investment Policy 77
Domestic Firms and Threats and Opportunities of FDI 83
Endogenizing Firm Financing Constraints 90
Mechanisms of Financing Environment Changes 94
Financial Repression and FDI Preferences 97
Implications and Research Design 101
Table of Contents

4 Quantitative Tests: Financing Constraints and Liberalization
- Historical Analysis, 1973–2000: 103
- Domestic Credit Environments and FDI Policy, 2000–2015: 105
- Probusiness Institutions and FDI Policy: 117
- Conclusion: 126
- Appendix: 136
- Endogeneity Tests: 139

5 Quantitative Tests: Firm- and Industry-Level Evidence
- Does FDI Liberalization Affect Firm Financing Constraints?: 150
- Do Capital-Intensive Industries Tend to Liberalize More?: 151
- Conclusion: 163

6 Comparing Malaysia and Indonesia, 1965–1997
- Case Selection: 183
- Overview of Policy Periods: 185
- Postcolonial Adjustment and the Oil Boom: 187
- Crisis, Deregulation, and Credit Booms: 191–197
- Conclusion: 200

7 Crisis, Reform, and Policy Divergence: Malaysia and Indonesia, 1997–2013
- The Asian Financial Crisis and Bank Recapitalization Strategies: 219
- Postcrisis Banking Sectors Compared: 222
- Investment Policy Politics: 233
- Conclusion: 236

8 Implications of Elite-Driven Integration
- When Elites Manage Reform: 256
- Our Current Moment: 257
- Future Directions: 260

References: 277

Index: 301