

Index

- ambiguity view
  - connectives, 124
  - validity, 137
- applied logic, 17, 19, 39
- argument from
  - alethic pluralism, 87–92
  - appearance, 5
  - expressive limitations, 56
  - mathematical practice, 81–87
  - virtue, 6
  - weakness, 99, 148
- argument view of logic, 16, 30, 46
- canonical application, 17, 46
- Carnapian pluralism (see connectives pluralism)
- charity strategy, 130–133, 178–179
- collapse problem, 180, 183–189
  - contra-classical logics, 187
  - suspension of judgement, 185
- connectives pluralism, 113, 115, 159
- consequence pluralism, 113, 115
- context-sensitivity
  - connectives, 128
  - indexicality, 167
  - nonindexicality, 168
  - validity, 139, 166–170
- contextualism
  - indexical, 143
  - logical, 145–148
  - meta-contextualist account, 148, 164
  - nonindexical, 143
- contra-classical logics, 43
- correctness
  - applied logic, 28
  - exhaustive, 32, 60, 70
  - generic condition, 29
  - partial, 31, 60–62, 68
  - pure logic, 27
- correspondence
  - exhaustive, 32, 59
  - partial, 31
- criteria for logicality, 59
- criteria for theory choice, 73–76
- dimensions of plurality, 37
  - applicational dimension, 81
  - metaphysical dimension, 46
  - semantic dimension, 110
- domain-dependence, 37–41, 70
- E-sentences, 18, 29
- endorsement, weak vs strong, 187
- extra-systematic
  - plurality (see genuine plurality)
  - skepticism, 26
  - validity, 21–27, 34, 46–50, 52, 154
- generality (see universal applicability)
- Generalized Tarski Thesis (GTT), 5
- genuine plurality, 37, 64–67
- Hilbertian approach, 6, 28, 83
- individuation of logics, 15
- informal argument (see arguments extra-systematic)
- instrumentalism, 53–55
- intersection approach, 48–49, 99
- invariantism, 37, 44
- Kaplanian
  - monsters, 146
  - semantics, 140–142
- legitimacy, 84–85
- logical monism, 2, 204
  - extra-systematic, 58–64
  - theories, 72
- logical nihilism, 2, 53, 55–58, 92
  - about logical laws, 93
  - justificatory interpretation, 98
- natural language based, 96
- logical pluralism
  - about languages, 44, 113–115

Index

219

- applicational, 35
- conciliatory, 1, 150
- epistemic goals, 200
- formal, 35
- global consequence pluralism, 180
- logical consequence, 36, 172
- non-normative, 196–197
- revisionist, 2, 52, 120, 204
- single subject, 35
- within languages, 44
- logical relativism, 172
- logical theories, 18–19, 29, 34
- logical vocabulary, 20, 30, 41–45, 110, 115
- pragmatic meaning, 133
- meaning variance, 37, 112–113, 165
- modeling view, 34, 62, 68–70
  - monist interpretation, 63, 72–80
  - pluralist interpretation, 62–63
- necessity constraint, 100
- normative principle
  - narrow scope, 184
  - pro tanto reasons, 192
  - universality assumption, 198
  - wide scope, 182
- normativity from invalidity, 192
- P-correctness (see correctness partial)
- pluralism about theories, 119
- pluralistic theory, 120, 121
- plurality thesis, 7–8, 35
- polysemy view
  - connectives, 125
  - valid, 137
- pure logic, 14, 19
- purpose dependence, 40
- rival logics, 153, 154
  - applicational rivalry, 180
  - criteria view, 175–177
  - criterion, 165, 182
  - disagreement, 156
  - opposition thesis, 156, 166, 170
- sub-classical logics, 43
- superstructure of logical theories, 18, 29
- supplementary logic, 153
- truth-preservation in domains, 90
- union approach, 47–49
- universal applicability, 37, 38
- vagueness of logical consequence, 138
- validity in a structure, 85
- validity proper (see extra-systematic validity)
- X-correctness (see correctness exhaustive)