

Contents

List of Illustrations	page vii
Preface to the Third Edition	ix
Preface (1989)	xiii
1 Introduction: Magic as a Crossroads	1
Two Case Studies	2
Definitions of Magic	8
The Magical Power of Words and of Imagination	20
Plan for this Book	25
2 The Classical Inheritance	28
Evidence for Magic in Antiquity	29
Scientific and Philosophical Literature	34
Fictional Literature	40
The Bible and Biblical Apocrypha	44
Magic, Early Christianity, and the Graeco-Roman World	48
3 The Twilight of Paganism: Magic in Norse and Irish Culture	55
Conversion and Pagan Survivals	56
Runic Inscriptions	60
The Norse Sagas	61
Irish Literature	67
4 The Common Tradition of Medieval Magic	71
Practitioners of Magic: Healers and Diviners	72
Medical Magic: Herbs and Animals	80
Charms: Prayers, Blessings, and Adjurations	85
Protective Amulets and Talismans	92
Sorcery: The Misuse of Medical and Protective Magic	98
Divination and Popular Astrology	104
The Archaeology of Magic	111
The Art of Trickery	113
5 The Romance of Magic in Courtly Culture	117
Magicians at Court	118
Magical Objects: Automata and Gems	123
Magic in the Romances and Related Literature	128

vi	Contents
6	Arabic Learning and the Occult Sciences	139
	The Transformations of European Intellectual Life	139
	The Practice of Astrology	143
	Principles of Astrology	148
	Astral Magic	155
	Alchemy	158
	The Cult of Secrecy and Books of Secrets	165
	The Renaissance Magus	170
7	Invocation and Conjunction of Angels	178
	Magic Involving Angels of the Heavens	181
	Jewish Angel Magic	185
	Angel Magic as an Aid in Learning	189
	Angel Magic as a Means for Gaining a Vision of God	195
	Angel Magic and Magical Figures	199
	Angel Magic and Devotion to Angels	201
8	Conjunction of Demons	204
	The Making of a Clerical Underworld	208
	Formulas and Rituals for Conjuring Spirits	212
	The Sources for Demonic Magic	221
	Demonic Magic in the Exempla	227
9	Prohibition, Condemnation, and Prosecution	232
	Legal Prohibition	234
	Moral and Theological Condemnation	237
	Patterns of Prosecution	243
	The Rise of the Witch Trials	251
	Conclusion	259
	Further Reading	261
	Index	283