

Index

- 60/60 parenting, 41
- abilities/expertise as gendered see essentialist views housework preferences and, 33, 45, 72, 260, 273–274, 334 influence of family of origin, 104–105, 116, 125, 142, 339, 342, 383–384
 men's childcare expertise, 38, 114, 173–174, 336, 352–353 rejection of gender-based see antiessentialism of Robinson (Honduras), 52–53
- administrative tasks see management/planning
- Altintas, E., 15
- Anderson, N., 18
- anti-essentialism, 377–379
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 231
 Czech Republic (Denisa), 267
 Czech Republic (Martin), 256
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 143
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 304
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 102–104
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 37–39
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 342
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 291–292
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 89
 USA (Nick and Patty), 176
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 157
- anti-materialism, 34, 77, 203, 341–342, 380–381
see also income (as secondary to family)
- arguments see conflict
- attachment see emotional bonds
- Australia (Mike and Joanne)
 background, 195–197
 division of everyday tasks, 197–200
 equality development, 200–201
 family-paid work balance, 201–203
 influences on equality, 203–204
 national context, 196–197
- Austria (Richard and Christine)
 background, 221
 division of everyday tasks, 221–226
 equality development, 227–229
 family-paid work balance, 226–229
 influences on equality, 229–234
 national context, 222–223
- autonomy hypothesis, 9
- bargaining approach, 9
- Baxter, Janeen, 195
- Becker, G. S., 8–9
- bed-time routine, 172
- beliefs (unconventional), 373–381 see also anti-essentialism; antimaterialism; familism; feminism;
 nontraditional gender ideology
- Berk, S. F., 17
- Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang)
 background, 121–122
 division of everyday tasks, 124–131
 equality development, 125–126
 family-paid work balance, 127–128
 influences on equality, 132
 national context, 122–123

- Brazil (João and Cecília)
 background, 181
 division of everyday tasks, 181–186
 equality development, 186
 family-paid work balance, 186–188
 influences on equality, 188–192
 national context, 182–183, 188
 breadwinner role co-breadwinners, 175–176, 210–211, 213, 302
 and hegemonic masculinity, 18, 143–144, 157, 338, 345, 363 and men's self-esteem, 152, 157 women in, 357
 Australia (Joanne), 201, 204
 Austria (Christine), 227, 229
 Czech Republic (Denisa), 262–263
 Honduras (Angelica), 49
 Hungary (Mia), 143–144
 Portugal (Inês), 338–339
 Sweden (Elisabet), 86–87, 89
 USA (Xochitl), 157
 breastfeeding, 35–36, 95–96, 114, 173–174, 324–325, 350
 Buchebner-Ferstl, Sabine, 221
 Buddhist practices, 126–127
- California see Southern California care giving see childcare/care giving career opportunities men's rejection of, 347
 Austria (Richard), 226
 Brazil (João), 187–188
 Germany (Hannes), 313
 Honduras (Robinson), 48
 Indonesia (Budi), 101
 Montenegro (Luka), 61
 Singapore (Osman), 212
 Slovenia (Tomaž), 287, 289
 UK (Dale), 325
 as secondary to family
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 141
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 100
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 337–338
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 212–213
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 77
 women's rejection of Singapore (Siti), 213
 Sweden (Elisabet), 86 caring masculinity, 352 case studies, 4–5
see also specific countries
- childcare (external) avoided
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 202
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 312
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 167
 and changing context in Hungary, 144 institutional
 Austria (Richard and Christine),
 231–232
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 31, 36
 by nanny/childminder
 China (Kai and Li), 274
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 101
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 209, 212
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 153
 national policies see under specific countries
 by wider family
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang),
 127
 China (Kai and Li), 274–275
 cultural norms, 273, 283
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David),
 258, 262
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 252
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 298
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 101
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 211
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 284
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 236
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 151
 childcare subsidy, 229 childcare/care giving conflict about see conflict and decision-making, 102 equal sharing of everyday tasks
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 198–200
 Austria (Richard and Christine),
 221–225
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 126–128
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 181–184, 186
 China (Kai and Li), 271–273
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 107–111
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David),
 257–261
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin),
 251–253
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 309–312
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson),
 43, 45–47

- Hungary (Mia and Miki), 134–138
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur),
 297–301
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 96–100
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 29–32, 41
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 55–59,
 62–64
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 331–334
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 209–212
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 281–285
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 81–82,
 85
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 71–74
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 238–241
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 317–320,
 323–325
 USA (Nick and Patty), 171–174
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 163–165,
 167
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 153–155
 fathers' time spent on, 11–12, 348–349 gendered division of, 367–368 in national contexts see under specific countries
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 82–84, 90 Switzerland (Martin and Judith),
 72–73, 75
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 166–167
see also cultural norms; essentialist views; gendered norms help from friends, 232–233 help from wider family see childcare (external) integration with paid work
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 201
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 226–229
 China (Kai and Li), 276–277
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 112
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David),
 261–264
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 253–254
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes),
 312–313
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 139–140
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 100–101
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 35–37
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 62–64
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 331–332,
 337–339
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 211–212
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 287–288
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 69,
 71, 73–74
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 317–318, 323–327
 USA (Nick and Patty), 174–175
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 166–169
 men embracing see men mental work of see management/planning parenting styles see parenting styles rewards of equal sharing, 77, 145, 191, 315–316, 387–391 role of fathers, 349–353 tasks see emotional care; feeding; nighttime care; play/activities; sick care theories see theories of domestic labor
 women relinquishing control of, 38–39, 118, 178, 256–257, 340, 342, 353–354 see also gatekeeping; maternal identity; primary parenting children, rewards of equal sharing for, 389–390
 children's surnames, 291
 China (Kai and Li)
 background, 270
 division of everyday tasks, 270–274
 equality development, 274–275
 family-paid work balance, 276–277
 influences on equality, 277–279
 national context, 272–273
 Choden, Tasha, 121
 cleaners see domestic work (outsourced) cleaning, 33, 59–60, 62, 155, 285 co-workers, responses of, 156, 286, 292, 313–314, 327, 369–370
 Cohen, P. N., 16
 collectivist cultures, 213–214, 216–217, 380 comforting see emotional care communication, 376–377
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 191–192
 China (Kai and Li), 279
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 113–114
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 267
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 52
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 304
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 101–102
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 216–217
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 290–291, 293
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 76
 USA (Nick and Patty), 174, 176
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 154

conflict

- about housework, 358–359
 - Austria (Richard and Christine), 225
 - China (Kai and Li), 274–275
 - Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 260, 262
 - Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 298
 - Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 85–86
 - UK (Katherine and Dale), 323
 - USA (Nick and Patty), 174
 - USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 155–156
- about leisure time, 76
- about parenting
 - Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 130–131
 - Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 262
 - Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 52–53
 - Israel (Netta and Gadi), 32
 - Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 284, 291
 - UK (Katherine and Dale), 323–325
 - USA (Veronica and Sam), 167
- about relationship, 154–155
- and paid work, 59, 263–264
- conformity pressures, 366–371
 - others' responses see others' responses
 - see also* cultural norms; nonconformity influences
- cooking
 - conflict about, 156
 - outsourced, 209, 274
 - preferences/abilities
 - Australia (Mike and Joanne), 200
 - Austria (Richard and Christine), 226
 - Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 129
 - China (Kai and Li), 273–274
 - Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 260
 - Israel (Netta and Gadi), 33
 - Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 60
 - UK (Katherine and Dale), 321
 - by wider family, 260, 321
 - and work cultures, 17
- Croatia (Nera and Ivo)
 - background, 107
 - division of everyday tasks, 107–111
 - equality development, 111–113
 - family–paid work balance, 112, 114–115
 - influences on equality, 113–114, 116–118
 - national context, 108–109

cultural norms

- and collectivism, 380
- and domestic labor in Bhutan, 124–125, 132
- and domestic labor in Brazil, 188
- and gender ideology in Singapore, 208, 210–211, 213–215, 377
- impact of national context and, 16–17, 144
- and masculinity, 18, 104, 157, 188
- and relationships in Indonesia, 105
- and shopping in Indonesia, 100
- Cunha, Vanessa, 331
- Czech Republic (Denisa and David)
 - background, 247, 257
 - division of everyday tasks, 257–260
 - equality development, 260–263
 - family–paid work balance, 263–264
 - influences on equality, 265–267
 - national context, 248–249
- Czech Republic (Magda and Martin)
 - background, 247–248
 - division of everyday tasks, 251–253
 - equality development, 249–251
 - family–paid work balance, 250–251, 253–254
 - influences on equality, 254–257
 - national context, 248–249
- Davis, S. N., 9
- daycare see childcare (external)
- Dechant, Anna, 307
- decision-making, 32, 101–102
 - see also* communication; conflict
- deference, expectation of, 53, 363–364
- demand/response model, 11
- demographics, national contexts see under specific countries
- Dessen, Maria Auxiliadora, 181
- Deutsch, Francine M., 1, 8, 161, 345, 366
- Diefenbach, H., 14
- Diner, Cagla, 236
- doing gender approach, 17–20, 360
 - see also* undoing gender
- domestic labor
 - division of
 - equal sharing see equal sharing
 - in family of origin see family of origin
 - gendered see gendered division of domestic labor
 - in national contexts see under specific countries

- theories gender construction, 17–20
 gender ideology, 12–14
 national context, 14–17
 relative resources, 8–11, 14, 19, 359–360
 time availability, 11–12, 19, 347–348
 undoing gender, 4, 20–21
see also childcare/care giving; housework
- domestic sphere control of see gatekeeping women relinquishing control of, 38–39, 118, 178, 256–257, 340, 342, 353–354 see also maternal identity; primary parenting
- domestic work (outsourced), 358
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184, 186
 China (Kai and Li), 271, 274
 in Honduras, 51
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 298
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 97–98, 101–102
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 90
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 236, 245
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 323
- education (preschool) see childcare (external)
- Elliot, K., 352
- emotional bonds/attachment, 351–352, 362–363
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 224–225
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 131
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 110
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 258–259
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 253
 in family of origin, 255
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 138
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 99
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 32
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 58
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 334
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 240
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 324–325
- emotional care by fathers, 154, 199–200, 351 by mothers, 72–73, 165, 172 shared, 83, 240, 284, 324 see also emotional bonds/attachment
- employers, responses to equal sharing, 265, 313–314, 326, 338, 371
- employment hours see part-time employment; time availability hypothesis
- employment opportunities see career opportunities
- employment policies/rights, 386–387 and employer attitudes, 212, 265, 295, 326, 341, 347, 371 leave for sick care, 138, 174–175, 212, 259, 286
see also parental leave
- employment structure
 Austria (Richard), 229–230
 Brazil (João), 189
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 40
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 331, 338
 Slovenia (Tomaž), 289
 Turkey (Burak), 242–243
 USA (Nick), 176–177
see also part-time employment
- entitlement to equality, 375–376
 Czech Republic (David), 266
 Hungary (Mia), 142
 Portugal (Inês), 342
 USA (Patty), 173, 176, 178
 USA (Xochitl), 158
- equal sharing case examples see specific countries development of see under specific countries in family of origin see family of origin
 features of division of housework, 357–359
 men embracing care giving, 348–353
 men's relations to paid work, 345–348
 women relinquishing domestic control/identity, 353–354
 women's relations to paid work, 354–357
- influences on families of origin, 381–386 government policies, 386–387
 personality and identity, 371–373
 unconventional convictions, 373–381
- responses to see others' responses rewards/impact of, 3, 77, 145, 177, 191, 267–268, 315–316, 387–391
- equality see gender equality
- essentialist views, 14
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184, 190
 Czech Republic (David), 266–267
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 143
 rejection of see anti-essentialism

- essentialist views (cont.)
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 72–73, 75
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 323–324
 Evertsson, M., 9 expertise see abilities/expertise
- Fahlén, S., 9
 familism, 379–380
 career as secondary see career opportunities
 Czech Republic (Martin), 254
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 141–142
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 208, 216–218
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 161–162, 168, 170
see also men (embracing care giving)
- family of origin absent fathers, 149–151, 158, 177, 200 background of Xochitl and Felipe (USA), 149–151 childcare by see childcare (external) domestic help from see housework as equality role models, 382, 384
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 189–190
 China (Li), 277
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 266
 Czech Republic (Martin), 254–255
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 313
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 50–51, 53
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 303
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 38, 40
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 64–65
 Portugal (Inês), 340, 342
 Singapore (Osman), 215–216
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 328 equality taught in, 383–384
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 200
 Bhutan (Tshewang), 125
 Croatia (Nera), 116
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 142
 Indonesia (Budi), 104–105
 Portugal (Pedro), 339, 342
 Slovenia (Tomaž), 289–290
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 158 impact on parenting, 53, 116–117, 232, 254–255 influence of, 381–386 responses to equal sharing, 47, 156, 245, 265, 292, 370–371 as traditional role models, 382–383, 385
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 125
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 190
 China (Kai), 277–278
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 116
 Czech Republic (Denisa), 267
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 142
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 104–105
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 64–65
 Portugal (Pedro), 339
 Singapore (Siti), 215
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 289–290
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 84
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 245–246
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 169
- fatherhood
 and hegemonic masculinity, 19, 292
see also men (embracing care giving)
- feeding, 324–325, 350
 breastfeeding, 35–36, 95–96, 114, 173–174, 324–325, 350
- feminist ideology, 373–377
 China (Kai and Li), 279
 Honduras (Robinson), 50–52
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 65–67
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 291–292
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 85, 90
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 158
see also entitlement to equality
- financial decisions, 102 financial difficulties/tensions, 49, 238, 241, 262–263
- flexibility see employment structure
- friends help from, 232–233
 responses to equal sharing, 369–370, 372
 China (Kai and Li), 278
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 117
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 47
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 304
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 292–293
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 156
 social networks, 203, 232–234, 278, 372
- full-time employment, 111–112
- Fuwa, M., 13, 16
- gardening, 321
 gatekeeping, 13, 38, 361–362 of equal sharing couples, 66, 166, 292, 305

- by fathers, 154
 rejection of, 118, 143, 204, 256–257, 353
- Gaunt, Ruth A., 1, 8, 19, 29, 345, 366
- Geist, C., 15
- gender construction, 17–20, 360
see also undoing gender
- gender deviance, neutralization of, 9
- gender equality current context, 1 in domestic sphere see equal sharing entitlement to, 375–376
 Czech Republic (David), 266
 Hungary (Mia), 142
 Portugal (Inês), 342
 USA (Patty), 173, 176, 178
 USA (Xochitl), 158
 national contexts of, 14
see also under specific countries
- gender ideology
 and national context, 14
see also nontraditional gender ideology;
 traditional gender ideology
- gender ideology hypothesis, 12–14
- gender inequality, 3 in domestic sphere see gendered division of domestic labor national contexts of see under specific countries
- gender-based abilities see anti-essentialism;
 essentialist views
- gendered division of domestic labor, 2
 in family of origin see family of origin (traditional role models)
 in national contexts see under specific countries
- persistent aspects of, 360–364 expecting gratitude, 124, 322, 363–364 protecting men's egos, 143–144, 244–245, 363 see also gatekeeping; management/planning; primary parenting
- pressures to conform, 366–371
see also cultural norms; others' responses
- resistance to see nonconformity influences
- gendered models, 367–368
- gendered norms, 369–371 cultural influences see cultural norms others' responses see others' responses resisting see nonconformity influences see also traditional gender ideology
- Germany (Hanna and Hannes)
 background, 307
 division of everyday tasks, 309–312
 equality development, 307–309
 family-paid work balance, 312–313
 influences on equality, 313–315
 national context, 308–309
- Gershuny, J., 10
- Gíslason, Ingólfur V., 295
- gotong-royong* (reciprocal assistance), 96
- government policies, 386–387
 benefits/subsidies, 90, 135, 197, 229, 386–387 employment see employment policies/rights; parental leave
 national contexts of, 15–17
see also under specific countries
- grandparents, help from see childcare (external); housework
- gratitude, expectation of, 124, 322, 363–364
- Greenstein, T. N., 9, 12
- Gupta, S., 9–10
- Haas, Linda, 80
- Honduras (Angelica and Robinson)
 background, 43–44
 division of everyday tasks, 43, 45–47
 equality development, 47–48
 family-paid work balance, 48–49
 influences on equality, 49–53
 national context, 44–45
- Hook, J. L., 15–17
- household labor see childcare/care giving;
 domestic labor; housework
- households, national contexts of see under specific countries
- housewifization, 103
- housework
 conflict about see conflict
 equal sharing of everyday tasks, 357–359
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 198–201
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 225–226, 228
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 125–129
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184–186
 China (Kai and Li), 270–274
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 110
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 259–260

- housework (cont.)
- Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 251–253
 - Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 310–311
 - Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 43, 45–47
 - Hungary (Mia and Miki), 134–139
 - Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 298–299
 - Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 96–100
 - Israel (Netta and Gadi), 33
 - Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 59–60, 62
 - Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 334–335, 337
 - Singapore (Siti and Osman), 208–209, 211
 - Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 281–286, 288–289
 - Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 84
 - Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 71–72
 - Turkey (Hande and Burak), 238–240, 243–244
 - UK (Katherine and Dale), 319–322
 - USA (Nick and Patty), 171, 173
 - USA (Veronica and Sam), 164–165, 167
 - USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 155–156
- gendered division in national contexts see under specific countries
- help from wider family, 127, 262, 274–275, 284, 311, 321
- and masculinity, 244–245
- outsourced see domestic work
- relative resources focus on, 10
- tasks see cleaning; cooking; laundry; tidying
- theories see theories of domestic labor
- women relinquishing control, 353 see also gatekeeping
- housework hours
- national contexts see under specific countries
 - and time availability approach, 11–12
- human capital, 10
- Humer, Živa, 281
- Hungary (Mia and Miki)
- background, 134
 - division of everyday tasks, 134–138
 - equality development, 138–140
 - family-paid work balance, 140–141
 - influences on equality, 141–145
 - national context, 135–136, 144
- Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur)
- background, 295
 - division of everyday tasks, 295–301
 - equality development, 302–303
 - family-paid work balance, 301–302
 - influences on equality, 302–305
 - national context, 296–297
- identity, 371–373
see also masculinity; maternal identity; personality
- illness see sick care
- immigrants (Mexican), 148–149
- case example see Southern California (Xochitl and Felipe)
- income
- and anti-materialism, 34, 77, 203, 341–342, 380–381
 - difference in, 86–87, 89, 100, 127, 143–144
 - equal, 175–176, 254, 302, 359
 - relative resources theory, 8–11, 359
 - as secondary to family
 - Australia (Mike and Joanne), 203
 - Brazil (João and Cecília), 188
 - Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 115
 - Israel (Netta and Gadi), 34, 41
 - Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 338, 341–342
 - Switzerland (Judith and Martin), 77
 - UK (Katherine and Dale), 325
 - views of Siti and Osman (Singapore), 212–213, 217–218
 - women's, 354–355, 357, 359
see also breadwinner role
- Indonesia (Budi and Tuti)
- background, 93–96
 - division of everyday tasks, 96–100
 - equality development, 95–96
 - family-paid work balance, 100–101
 - influences on equality, 101–105
 - national context, 94–95
- interviews, 21–22
- Islam, 93, 97
- Israel (Netta and Gadi)
- background, 29
 - division of everyday tasks, 29–33, 41
 - equality development, 34–35
 - family-paid work balance, 33–37
 - influences on equality, 37–41
 - national context, 30–31

- Kamo, Y., 13 kindergarten, 223
 see also childcare (external) knowledge see abilities/expertise Knudsen, K., 14
 Knudsen-Martin, Carmen, 206
kodrat (predestined obligations), 103–104
 Kosakowska-Berezecka, N., 18
 Kuhar, Metka, 281
 Kulik, L., 13
 Kusujarti, Siti, 93
- labor force, national contexts of see under specific countries
- laundry
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 225–226
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 252
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 298
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 33
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 60
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 321
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 155–156
 Luke, N., 18
- McGill, B. S., 13
machismo, 51, 374
machistas, 50, 52, 153, 156–157, 374 management/planning, 361
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 111
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 259, 262
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 253
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 46
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 138
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 299
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 33
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 59
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 334–335
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 285
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 83–84
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 73
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 241
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 321
 USA (Nick and Patty), 172
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 164
 Maříková, Hana, 247
 Marinho, Sofia, 331
 Márquez, Alicia, 147
- marriage cultural differences, 94, 122 rewards of equal sharing for, 390–391 see also relationships
- masculinity (caring), 352 masculinity (hegemonic) and breadwinner role, 18, 143–144, 157, 338, 345, 363 and cultural norms, 18, 104, 157, 188
 and fatherhood, 19, 292 and housework, 244–245 and others' responses to sharing, 156, 292, 304, 370
 and paid work, 345
 and protecting egos, 143–144, 244–245, 363 rejected in families of origin, 189–190 see also machismo; machistas
- maternal abilities see anti-essentialism; essentialist views
- maternal identity and cultural norms, 188
 insecurity about, 340 rejecting idealized, 38–39, 85, 103, 112, 276, 353–354
- maternity leave
 Austria (Christine), 228–229
 Croatia (Nera), 112
 Czech Republic (Magda), 250
 Germany (Hanna), 309
 Israel (Netta), 35
 Montenegro (Maja), 62
 national contexts of see under specific countries Slovenia (Petra), 287–288
 see also parental leave
- men embracing care giving, 345–346, 348–353, 388–389
 Austria (Richard), 228, 231, 233–234
 Brazil (João), 183, 191
 China (Kai), 275
 Croatia (Ivo), 112–113, 115
 Czech Republic (David), 261–262, 268
 Czech Republic (Martin), 250, 255–256, 268
 Germany (Hannes), 315–316
 Hungary (Miki), 139, 145
 Indonesia (Budi), 95–96
 Montenegro (Luka), 62
 Portugal (Pedro), 336–337

- men (cont.)
 Switzerland (Martin), 74–75, 77
 USA (Felipe), 154, 158–159
 USA (Nick), 173–174, 177
 expectation of gratitude/deference, 53, 124, 322, 363–364 influenced by family of origin, 382–384
see also family of origin
 in national labour force see under specific countries protecting egos of, 143–144, 244–245, 363 relations to paid work, 19, 345–348
 Australia (Mike), 201–203
 Austria (Richard), 226, 230
 Bhutan (Tshewang), 127–128
 Brazil (João), 187–188
 China (Kai), 276
 Croatia (Ivo), 115
 Czech Republic (David), 264
 Germany (Hannes), 313
 Hungary (Miki), 140
 Iceland (Arnaldur), 301–302
 Indonesia (Budi), 101
 Portugal (Pedro), 337–338, 341
 Slovenia (Tomaž), 286–287
 Sweden (Mikael), 87–88
 Turkey (Burak), 242
 UK (Dale), 325–326
 USA (Felipe), 152, 157
 USA (Nick), 175, 178
 USA (Sam), 167–170, 178
 rewards of equal sharing for, 77, 145, 177, 191, 315–316, 388–389
see also masculinity mental work see management/planning Mexican immigrants, 148–149 case example see Southern California (Xochitl and Felipe)
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka)
 background, 55
 division of everyday tasks, 55–60
 equality development, 61–64
 family–paid work balance, 60–62
 influences on equality, 64–67
 national context, 56–57
 Moon, S.H., 13
 motherhood
 essentialist views of, 72–73, 75, 143, 184, 190, 266–267
 gendered expectations of, 18–19 and identity see maternal identity views of Christine (Austria), 227 views of Siti (Singapore), 211 Murphy-Graham, Erin, 43 musyawarah (decision-making), 101–102
 national context
 in case examples see under specific countries and domestic labor theories, 14–17
 Nentwich, Julia C., 69
 Neruo, M., 9
 New England (Nick and Patty), 177–179
 background, 161
 division of everyday tasks, 171–173
 equality development, 173–174
 family–paid work balance, 174–176
 influences on equality, 176–177
 national context, 162–163
 New England (Veronica and Sam), 177–179
 background, 161
 division of everyday tasks, 163–165
 equality development, 166–167
 familism of, 161–162, 170
 family–paid work balance, 166–170
 influences on equality, 169–170
 national context, 162–163 night-time care
 by fathers, 351
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 261
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 310
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 99
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 32, 35
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 332
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 211
 nonconformity influences family of origin see family of origin personality and identity, 243, 337, 371–373 policies see government policies unconventional convictions, 373–381
see also anti-essentialism; antimaterialism; familism; feminism;
 nontraditional gender ideology
 nontraditional gender ideology, 12–14, 373–377
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 230–231
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 113
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 267
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson),
 49–52
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 37

- Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 65–67
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 342
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 208,
 210–211, 214–215
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 85, 88–90
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 78
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 243
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 328
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 157–158
 nurseries see childcare (external)
- others' responses (to equal sharing), 369–372
 negative, 369–371
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang), 125
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 117
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David),
 265
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 257
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 314
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 286, 292–293
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 245
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 327–328
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 156
 positive, 369
 Austria (Richard and Christine),
 233–234
 China (Kai and Li), 278
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 117
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes),
 313–314
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson),
 47
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 303–304
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 338
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 326–328
 surprise, Hungary (Mia and Miki), 145
- paid work integration with family see childcare/care giving men's relations to see men national contexts of labour force see under specific countries women's relations to see women see also career opportunities; employment policies/rights; employment structure; income; parental leave
- parental leave, 386–387
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 228–229
 Croatia (Nera), 112
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 260–262, 265
 Czech Republic (Magda and Martin), 250–251
 fathers' use of, 346, 348–349
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 309,
 312–314
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 139–140
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 295, 305
 Israel (Netta), 35
 Montenegro (Maja), 62
 national contexts of see under specific countries others' responses to, 265, 295, 341, 371
 Portugal (Pedro and Inês), 336–337, 341
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 287–288
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 80, 85
- parenthood doing gender and transition to, 18–19 see also childcare/care giving
- parenting guides, 38, 352–353
- parenting styles
 case examples
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 199–200
 Bhutan (Yangchen and Tshewang),
 130–131
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 184
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 111
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 259
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes),
 311–312
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson),
 52–53
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur),
 299–301
 Indonesia (Budi and Tuti), 99
 Israel (Netta and Gadi), 32
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 212
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 284, 291
 Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet), 82–83
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 75
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 240–241
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 324–325
 USA (Nick and Patty), 172–173
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 154, 157

- parenting styles (cont.)
 conflict about see conflict
 nontraditional gender ideology, 157
- part-time employment, 346, 355
 Australia (Mike and Joanne), 201–203
 Czech Republic (Martin), 253
 Germany (Hanna and Hannes), 307
 Slovenia (Petra), 286–287
 Swedish policy, 88
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 69
 UK (Katherine and Dale), 323, 326–327, 356
 USA (Veronica), 356
- paternity leave, 288, 346, 348–349, 386–387
see also parental leave
- patriarchy (rejection of), 50–52
see also nontraditional gender ideology
- peers see co-workers; friends
- personality, 83–84, 243, 337, 371–373
- Pfau-Effinger, B., 16
- play/activities, 31, 171, 184, 318
- policies, 386–387 benefits/subsidies, 90, 135, 197, 229, 386–387 employment see employment policies/rights; parental leave
 and national context, 15–17
see also under specific countries
- Portugal (Pedro and Inês)
 background, 331
 division of everyday tasks, 331–335
 equality development, 335–337
 family–paid work balance, 337–339
 influences on equality, 339–342
 national context, 332–333, 341
 preschools see childcare (external)
- preferences/abilities (housework), 33, 45, 72, 260, 273–274, 334
- primary parenting (women sharing), 362–363 difficulties of sharing, 99, 169, 261–262, 325, 362–363
 willingly sharing, 178, 201, 204, 256–257
- Quek, Karen Mui-Teng, 206
- reciprocal assistance (gotong-royong), 96
- relationships, 375–376, 390–391
 Brazil (João and Cecília), 191–192
 Honduras (Angelica and Robinson), 47,
 50
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 141–142
 Iceland (Hildur and Arnaldur), 301
 Montenegro (Maja and Luka), 66
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 208, 210, 217
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 290–291, 293
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 241, 243
 USA (Veronica and Sam), 161
 USA (Xochitl and Felipe), 151, 154–155
see also communication; marriage
- relative resources approach, 8–11, 14, 19, 359–360
- religion in daily lives, 93, 97, 126–127
 national contexts of see under specific countries
- research analysis, 22–23
- research ethics, 23
- research participants, 21
- research protocol, 21–22
- researchers, 21
- resources see income; relative resources approach
- responses see others' responses
- Richards, Madison E., 366
- Roder, Dolma Choden, 121
- role models, 313
see also family of origin
- Rose, Judy, 195
- Rost, Harald, 307
- rukun* (harmonious relationship), 105
- Schälin, Stefanie, 69
- Schulz, Florian, 307
- self-employment, 226, 229
- self-esteem, 152, 157, 371–372, 388–389
- Shen, Yifei, 270
- Shin, J., 13
- sick care, 352
 Austria (Richard and Christine), 224–225
 Croatia (Nera and Ivo), 111
 Czech Republic (Denisa and David), 259
 Hungary (Mia and Miki), 138
 Singapore (Siti and Osman), 212
 Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž), 284, 286
 Switzerland (Martin and Judith), 72
 Turkey (Hande and Burak), 240
 USA (Nick and Patty), 174–175
- Šikić-Mičanović, Lynette, 107
- Singapore (Siti and Osman)
 background, 206–208
 division of everyday tasks, 208–210
 equality development, 210–212
 family–paid work balance, 212–213

- influences on equality, 213–217
 national context, 207, 214, 217
- Slovenia (Petra and Tomaž)
 background, 281
 division of everyday tasks, 281–286
 equality development, 287–289
 family–paid work balance, 286–287
 influences on equality, 289–293
 national context, 282–283
- social networks, 203, 232–234, 278, 372
see also friends
- socialization see family of origin
- solo childcare, 349
- soothing see emotional care
- Southern California (Xochitl and Felipe)
 background, 147–151
 division of everyday tasks, 153–156
 equality development, 151
 family–paid work balance, 152–153
 influences on equality, 156–159
 national context, 148–149
- spiritual well-being, 125
- Stanley-Stevens, Leslie, 80
- Stojanović, Milena Račeta, 55
- Sullivan, Oriel, 10, 15, 317
- Sweden (Mikael and Elisabet)
 background, 80
 division of everyday tasks, 80–86
 equality development, 84–85
 family–paid work balance, 86–88
 influences on equality, 88–91
 national context, 81
- Switzerland (Martin and Judith)
 background, 69–70
 division of everyday tasks, 71–74
 equality development, 74–75
 family–paid work balance, 69, 71, 73–74
 influences on equality, 75–78
 national context, 70–71, 75–76
- Takács, Judit, 134
- Tazi-Preve, Mariam Irene, 221
- Tennhoff, Wiebke, 69
- theories of domestic labor gender construction, 17–20
 gender ideology, 12–14
 national context, 14–17
 relative resources, 8–11, 14, 19, 359–360
 time availability, 11–12, 19, 347–348
 undoing gender, 4, 20–21
- tidying, 225
- time devoted to children by fathers, 348–349 see also housework hours; work hours
- time availability hypothesis, 11–12, 19, 347–348
- Torres, Claudio V., 181
- traditional gender ideology, 12–14
 and negative responses see others’ responses
- in Singapore, 208, 210–211, 213–215, 377
see also cultural norms
- traditional markets, 100
- trust, 50
- Tsoref, H., 13
- Turkey (Hande and Burak)
 background, 236–238
 division of everyday tasks, 238–241
 family–paid work balance, 242
 influences on equality, 242–246
 national context, 237–238
- unconventional convictions, 373–381
see also anti-essentialism; anti-materialism; familism; feminism; nontraditional gender ideology
- undoing gender, 4, 20–21
 features of division of housework, 357–359
 men embracing care giving, 348–353
 men’s relations to paid work, 345–348
 women relinquishing domestic control, 353–354
 women’s relations to paid work, 354–357
 rewards of equal sharing, 387–391
see also conformity pressures; nonconformity influences
- United Kingdom (Katherine and Dale)
 background, 317
 division of everyday tasks, 317–322
 equality development, 322–325
 family–paid work balance, 317–318, 325–327
 influences on equality, 327–329
 national context, 318–319
- United States see New England; Southern California
- Wærness, K., 14
- Wall, Karin, 331
- washing see laundry

- welfare benefits/subsidies, 90, 135, 197, 229, 386–387
- welfare regimes, 15–16
- West, C., 17, 20
- Wolfe, C. M., 15
- women
- as breadwinners see breadwinner role
 - gatekeeping by see gatekeeping
 - influenced by family of origin, 384–385
see also family of origin
 - in national labour force see under specific countries
 - relations to paid work, 18–19, 354–357, 359–360, 387
 - Australia (Joanne), 201–202
 - Austria (Christine), 226–227, 229–231
 - Bhutan (Yangchen), 127–128
 - Brazil (Cecília), 186–187
 - China (Li), 276
 - Croatia (Nera), 112, 114–115
 - Czech Republic (Denisa), 261, 263–265
 - Czech Republic (Magda), 254, 256–257
 - Germany (Hanna), 313
 - Hungary (Mia), 140–141, 144
 - Iceland (Hildur), 301
 - Indonesia (Tuti), 101, 103
 - Israel (Netta), 34
 - Montenegro (Maja), 61, 63–64
 - Portugal (Inês), 337–338, 341
 - Singapore (Siti), 212–214
 - Slovenia (Petra), 286–287
 - Sweden (Elisabet), 86–89
 - Switzerland (Judith), 77
 - Turkey (Hande), 242
 - UK (Katherine), 326
 - USA (Patty), 175
 - USA (Veronica), 166–169
see also breadwinner role; career opportunities; employment policies/ rights; employment structure; parental leave
 - relinquishing domestic control, 38–39, 118, 178, 256–257, 340, 342, 353–354
 - rewards of equal sharing for, 177, 267–268, 315–316, 387–388
 - sharing primary parenting, 362–363
 difficulties of sharing, 99, 169, 261–262, 325, 362–363 willingly sharing, 178, 201, 204, 256–257
see also maternal identity; motherhood
 - work cultures, and cooking, 17
 - work hours, 17, 355
see also part-time employment
 - workforce, in national contexts see under specific countries
- Zimmerman, D., 17, 20