

INDEX

- absolute sovereignty
   French Revolution as response to, 62
   Hobbes on, 42–45
 Adams, John, 63, 99
 African Americans. See also slavery
   in U.S. Constitution, 159–160
American Declaration of Independence
   (Rousseau), 103
 anacyclosocial model, 23, 55
The Anarchical Society (Bull), 14 anarchy, 13–15
   definition and scope and, 13
   international law and, 14
   Paine on, as binary choice with tyranny, 57
   as political philosophy, 14
   Rule of Law and, 14
 ancient Greece. See Greece
 Anti-Federalists, 63
 Aquinas, Thomas. See Thomas Aquinas
 Arendt, Hannah, 10–11, 73–77, 100.
   See also taxonomy
   on divisions of power, 74
   on good governance, 74–75
   on tyranny
     bureaucracy and, 76–77
     constitutionalism and, 77
     imperialism and, 75–76
     totalitarianism and, 75
 aristocracy, 37
   tyranny of, 58
 Aristotle
   on despots, 50
   on subjugation of women, 22–23
   on “Thirty Tyrants,” 20–21
   on tyranny, 50
     on legitimacy of, 88
     types of, 19–21
 Astell, Mary, 48–49, 108–109
   on consent, 108
   on contractarianism, 108
 Athens, Greece. See also Aristotle; Plato; Socrates
   as imperial democracy, 21
   “Thirty Tyrants,” 20–21, 137–138
 Augustine, 31, 39, 122
 Augustus (Emperor), 25–26
 Bandung Conference, 197, 204–205
 Barbarossa, Frederick, 31
 Bartolus of Sassoferrato, 34–36
 Beckett, Thomas, 30
 Benedict (Saint), 28
 beneficence, in taxonomy of tyranny, 98–101
   populism and, 99–100
 benefit, for tyrants, 86–87
 Bill of Rights, in England, 58
 Blake, William, 1, 217
 Bligh, William, 187–204
The Book of Peace (Pizan), 34
The Book of the Body Politic (Pizan), 34
The Book of Three Virtues (Pizan), 34
 Bull, 14
 bureaucracy
   in India, 68–69
   in Ireland, 68–69
   tyranny and, 68–69, 110–112
     Arendt on, 76–77
 bureaucratic tyranny, 68–69
 Burke, Edmund, 59, 187–204
 Caesar, Julius, 25, 88–89
 Cameron, Iain, 173–174

- Can the Subaltern Speak* (Spivak), 191–193
- capitalism, 188–189
- Catholic Church
 Medieval tyrannicide and, 121–123
 scale and, 154–156
 tyranny and, role in, 27–28, 30
 theocratic kingships and, 28–29
- Cicero, 24–25, 154
- classical imperialism, 189
- Classical Period, tyranny in, 10–11, 18–36
 in ancient Greece, 18–23
 Aristotle and, 19–21
 forms of, 19–21
 illegitimacy of, 21
 Plato and, 18–19
 Socrates and, 23
 women and, 22–23
 origins of, 18
 in Republican Rome, 23–27
decemvri rule in, 24–25
 dictatorships, 24–26
 Julian/Claudian line, 25
 women and, 27
 tyrannicide, 120
- Cleisthenes, 21
- colonialism, imperialism and, 186
- consent, 108
- Considerations on Representative Government* (Mill, J. S.), 68–69
- Constitution, for England
 aristocratic tyranny and, 58
 Bill of Rights and, 58
 failures of, 58
 Magna Carta and, 58
 monarchical tyranny and, 58
- Constitution, U.S.
 African Americans in, 159–160
 Federalists and, 61–65
 Native Americans in, 159–160
 slavery in, 63–64
 Three Fifths Compromise and, 63–64
 Tocqueville and, 61–65
 women in, 160–161
- constitutionalism
 early modern, 36–61
 Hobbes and, 40–45
 Locke and, 45–49
 Machiavelli and, 36–40
 Montesquieu, 49–54
 Paine and, 57–61
 Rousseau on, 54–57
 Federalists and, 61–65
 Strauss on, 72–73
 tyranny and, 27, 61–69
 Arendt on, 77
 Strauss on, 72–73
- U.S. Constitution
 Federalists and, 61–65
 slavery and, 63–64
 Tocqueville and, 61–65
- constitutions. See specific constitutions
- contestation, 112–115
- contractarianism, 108
- Council of Europe, 173–174
- counter-hegemony, 12
- counter-terrorism, 168–180
- Cypselus, 21
- Dahl, Robert, 77–80. See also taxonomy
 on democracy
 Madisonian democracy, 78–80
 as polyarchal, 80
 on tyranny
 as deprivation of natural rights, 78
 by majority, 78–79
 on UN Security Council, 79–80
- decemvri* rule, in Republican Rome, 24–25
- Declaration of Independence, in U.S., 61–62, 128
- Declaration of the Rights of Man, 128
- Declaration of the Rights of Women* (Gouges), 128
- decolonization, 206
- democracy
 Dahl on as Madisonian, 78–80
 as polyarchal, 80
 imperial, 21
 Machiavelli on, 37
 Mill, J. S., on, 69
 populism and, 19
 tyranny and, transition to, 51–52

- despotism, despots and Montesquieu on, 50
 in empires, 50
 in Roman Empire, 51
 Paine on, 61
 paternal, 68
 Rousseau on, 28–55
 dictatorships. See also Caesar; Cicero
 in Republican Rome, 24–26
Discourses (Machiavelli), 38–40, 44, 104
 divine law, Thomas Aquinas on, 32
 Domitian, 93
 Doyle, Michael, 12
- Early Modern Era, 30
 economic law. See international economic law
 electoral law, Federalists on, 64
 Elizabeth I (Queen), 30
 empires. See also imperialism
 despotism in, 50
 in taxonomy of tyranny, 103–107
 England Constitution for aristocratic tyranny and, 58
 Bill of Rights and, 58
 failures of, 58
 Magna Carta and, 58
 monarchical tyranny and, 58
 imperialism in, 75–76
 Epicureanism, 31, 87
Eros, 138
Etymologies (Isidore of Seville), 29, 122
 Eunuchs, 60–61
- Fanon, Franz, 131
 fear, in taxonomy of tyranny, 92–93
 of tyrannicide, 93
 Federalist Papers, criticism of, 61
 Federalists
 Anti-Federalists, 63
 constitutionalism and, 61–65
 on electoral law, 64
 scale for, 156–158
 Tocqueville and, 61–65
 on tyranny, 61–65
 tyranny and, response to, 3, 10–11
- feminism
 in Global North, 201
 in Global South, 200–201
 international law and, 200–201
 in Pizan works, 33–34
 as populist, 99
 Fourth Council of Toledo, 29
 France, imperialism in, 75–76
 French Revolution, 54–55
 as response to absolute sovereignty, 62
 French Terror, 56
- gender, in taxonomy of tyranny, 107–110
 queerness and, 107–108
 women and, 109–110
 genocide, of Native Americans, 196
 George III (King), 159
 Giffitts, Hannah, 160–161
 global legal order, 217–222
 imperialism and, 193–203
 scale and, 162–168
 scope of, 183
 Global North, 204–205, 214
 feminism in, 201
 imperialism and, 210, 213–214
 international economic law and, 210, 213–214
 Global South, 10
 feminism in, 200–201
 imperialism and, 208, 210, 213–214
 international economic law and, 208, 210, 213–214
 New International Economic Order
 in, 197
 Non-Aligned Movement in, 197–198
 tyranny in, 85–86
 UN Security Council in, 178
- good governance
 Arendt on, 74–75
 Hobbes on, 41–42
 imperialism and, 208–209
 international economic law and,
 208–209
 Paine on, 60
 tyranny and, 21
 Gouges, Olympe de, 60–61, 128

- governance. See good governance;
 illegitimate governance;
 legitimate governance; small governance
- Greece, ancient Rule by Law in, 21
 tyranny in, 18–23
 Aristotle and, 19–21
 forms of, 19–21
 illegitimacy of, 21
 Plato and, 18–19
 Socrates and, 23
 women and, 22–23
- Gregory the Great, 35
- Hamilton, Alexander, 62, 103
- Hastings, Warren, 187–204
- hegemony, 11–13
 counter-hegemony, 12
 historical development of, 12 international, definition of, 12
 international law and, 14–15
 as positive, 12
 scholarship recognition of, 12–13
 scope of, 12
- Henry, Patrick, 129
- Henry II (King), 31
- Hiero or Tyrannicus* (Xenophon), 21–22, 39, 69–70
- Hobbes, Thomas, 40–45. See also
 tyrannophobia
 on absolute sovereignty, 42–45
 on good governance structures, 41–42
Leviathan, 40–41, 45, 74–75, 91–92
 Rule by Law in, 94–95
 Strauss' criticism of, 72
 on tyrannophobia, 41, 49, 135
- human rights
 Bill of Rights, in England, 58
 Declaration of the Rights of Man, 128
Declaration of the Rights of Women, 128 tyranny as deprivation of, 78
- IFIs. See International Financial Institutions
- illegitimacy, of tyranny, 88–92
 in ancient Greece, 21
- illegitimate governance, 46–47
- illegitimate slavery, 48
- IMF. See International Monetary Fund
- imperialism, 10
 capitalism and, 188–189
 classical, 189
 colonialism and, 186
 definition of, 185
 democracy under, 21
 English, 75–76
 evolution of, 186–187
 French, 75–76
 global legal order and, 193–203
 international economic law and, 203–215
 decolonization and, 206
 in Global North, 210, 213–214
 in Global South, 208, 210, 213–214
 good governance and, 208–209
 international law and, 194–197
 Machiavelli on, 38
 Marxism and, 188–189
 neo-imperialism and, 206–207
 Orientalism and, 190
 tyranny and, 184–193
 Arendt on, 75–76
 bureaucratic, 68–69
- India, 68–69
- individual liberty, Rousseau on, 56–57
- international economic law, 215–216
 imperialism and, 203–215
 decolonization and, 206
 in Global North, 210, 213–214
 in Global South, 208, 210, 213–214
 good governance and, 208–209
 theoretical approach to, 183–184
- International Financial Institutions (IFIs), 167, 198, 210–213
- international law. See also Third World
 Approaches to International Law
 anarchy and, 14
 feminism and, 200–201
 hegemony and, 14–15
 imperialism and, 194–197
 Kant and, 6–7

- scale for, 152, 180–181
 The Ten and, 7
 tyranny and, 1–2
- International Monetary Fund (IMF), 166–167
- Ireland, 68–69
- Isidore of Seville, 29, 94, 122
- Jefferson, Thomas, 64–65, 95, 112, 188
- John of Salisbury, 30–32, 94, 123–124, 141
 Epicureanism, 31, 87
- Kafka, Franz, 3
- Kant, Immanuel, international law and,
 6–7
- kingships. See theocratic kingships;
specific kings
- Kojève, Alexandre, 69–73. See also
 taxonomy
- law. See also international economic law; international law
 tyranny and, 4–5, 81
- law of nations, 50
- lawless government, 96
- legitimate governance, 46–47
- legitimate slavery, 48
- Leviathan* (Hobbes), 40–41, 45, 74–75, 91–92
 Rule by Law in, 94–95
- Lilla, Mark, 5, 117, 137–140
- Locke, John, 45–49. See also taxonomy
 on legitimate governance, 46–47
 liberalism of, critiques of, 48–49
 on Rule by Law, 47
 on slavery, 48
 on tyrannicide, 126–128
- Machiavelli, Nico, 10–11, 36–40. See also taxonomy
 on aristocracy, 37
 on democracy, 37
Discourses, 38–40, 44, 104
 on governance structures, 36–38
 on imperialism, 38
 on monarchies, 37
The Prince, 34, 38–40, 44, 104, 141
 Strauss' criticism of, 72
 The Ten, 7
- Madison, James, 78–80
- Madisonian democracy, 78–80
- Magna Carta, 58, 128
- majority tyranny, 56–57, 99
 Dahl on, 78–79
- Manegold of Lautenbach, 30, 122
- Marxism, 188–189
- master-slave dichotomy, 71–72
- Medieval Europe, tyranny and, 27–36
 Catholic Church and, role in, 27–28, 30
 theocratic kingships and, 28–29
 in monarchy, 30
 in private sphere, 30
 in religious doctrine, 34–36
 St. Benedict, 28
- Mill, Harriet Taylor, 67
- Mill, John Stuart, 66–69
 on democracy, 69
 on paternal despotism, 68
 on suffrage, 66
- minority tyranny, 6–7
- monarchies
 Machiavelli on, 37
 in Medieval Europe, 30
 tyranny and, 58
- Montesquieu, 10–11, 49–54. See also
 taxonomy
 on despotism, 50
 in empires, 50
 in Roman Empire, 51
 on law of nations, 50
 on public suffrage, 51–52
 on slavery, 53
- NAM. See Non-Aligned Movement
- Native Americans, 104
 genocide of, 196
 Jefferson on, 188
 slavery and, 63–64
 in U.S. Constitution, 159–160
- natural rights, deprivation of, 78
- neo-imperialism, 206–207

- New International Economic Order (NIEO)
 in Global South, 197
 rise of, 197
 World Trade Organization and, 204–206
- Non-Aligned Movement (NAM), 197–198
- Oedipus the Tyrant, 24
- On Liberty* (Mill, J. S.), 66
- On Tyranny* (Strauss), 69
- Opium Wars, 205–206
- Orientalism, 190
 tyranny and, 85–86
- Origins of Totalitarianism* (Arendt), 76
- Ottoman Empire, 50
- Paine, Thomas, 57–61, 160–161. See also taxonomy
 on anarchy, as binary choice with tyranny, 57
 on despots, 61
 on English constitution, failures of, 58
 on Eunuchs, 60–61
 on Federalist Papers, criticism of, 61
 on small governance, 60
 on women, 60–61
- paternal despotism, 68
- Periander, 21
- philotyrannical intellectual. See tyrannophilia
- Pius V (Pope), 30
- Pizan, Christine de, 33–34, 98. See also taxonomy
- Plato
 anacyclosocial model and, 23
The Republic, 18–19, 101–102
 totalitarianism and, 18–19
 on tyranny, 18–19
- Plutarch, 25
- polyarchal democracy, 80
- popes, papacy and, tyranny of, 33
- populism, 99–100
 democracy and, 19
 feminism and, 99
- pride, tyranny and, 35–36
- The Prince* (Machiavelli), 34, 38–40, 44, 104, 141
- Proclamation of 1763, 159
- Proudhon, Pierre Joseph, 13
- Ptolemy of Lucca, 28
- public suffrage, 51–52
- queerness, 107–108
- Raynal, Abbé, 59
- rebellion, tyrannicide and, 1
- The Reckless Mind* (Lilla), 137–138
- The Republic* (Plato), 18–19, 101–102
- Republican Rome
 dictatorships in, 24–25
 outlawing of, 26
res publica, 88–89
 tyranny in, 23–27
decemvri rule in, 24–25
 dictatorships, 24–26
 Julian/Claudian line, 25
 women and, 27
- res publica*, 88–89
- The Rise of Totalitarianism* (Arendt), 100
- Roman Empire. See also Republican Rome
 despotism in, 51
- Rome. See Republican Rome
- Rousseau, Jean-Jacques, 54–57, 103. See also taxonomy
 anacyclosocial model and, 55
 on despotism, 28–55
 on French Revolution, 54–55
 on individual liberty, 56–57
 social contract and, 55
- Rule by Law
 in ancient Greece, 21
 in Leviathan, 94–95
 in taxonomy of tyranny, 93–96
- Rule of Law
 anarchy and, 14
 Rule by Law compared to, 21
- scale
 analysis of, 148–149 Catholic Church's use of, 154–156
 construction of, 149–151

- feasibility and, 164–165
 for Federalists, 156–158
 geographical applications of, 147
 as geopolitical concept, 145
 international law and, 152, 180–181
 scope of, 146–153
 in taxonomy of tyranny, 10, 101–103
 tyranny and, 153–168
   global legal order and, 162–168
 UN Security Council and counter-terrorism and, 168–180
   executive functions of, 168–169
   in Global South, 178
   reforms of, 170–171
 Schwarzenberger, George, 194
 Scipio, 90
 Security Council, UN
   Dahl on, 79–80
   scale and
     counter-terrorism and, 168–180
     executive functions of, 168–169
     in Global South, 178
     reforms of, 170–171
   terrorism and, responses to, 10
A Short Discourse on Tyrannical Government (Wycliff), 33 silence, in taxonomy of tyranny, 96–98, 220 slavery
   illegitimate, 48
   legitimate, 48
   master-slave dichotomy, 71–72
   Montesquieu on, 53
   Three Fifths Compromise and, 63–64
   as tyranny, 63–64
 small governance, 60
 social contract, 55
 social tyranny, 67
 Socrates
   timocracy and, 23
   on women as cause of tyranny, 23
 Solon, 21
 sovereignty. See absolute sovereignty
The Spirit of the Laws (Montesquieu), 49–50, 53–54
 Spivak, G., 191–193, 197, 201–202
 Strauss, Leo, 69–73. See also taxonomy on constitutionalism, 72–73
   on Hobbes, criticism of, 72 on Machiavelli, criticism of, 72
 subaltern, 191–193, 198–199
   women as, 199–200
 suffrage. See public suffrage
 Sulla (Emperor), 25, 88–89
 Tarquinius, 24
 taxonomy, of tyranny
   beneficence in, 98–101
   populism and, 99–100
   establishment criteria, 88–93
   illegitimacy of tyranny, 88–92
   fear in, 92–93
     of tyrannicide, 93
   methodological approach to, 8–10
   modes in, 101–112
     for bureaucracy, 110–112
     empire as, 103–107
     gender as, 107–110
     scale, 10, 101–103
     for technocracy, 110–112
   overview of, 115–116
   prevention mechanisms in, 112–115
     constitutionalism as, 112–115 contestation as, 112–115 purpose of, 9–10, 83–84
   ruling styles in, 93–101
     Rule by Law, 93–96
   silence in, 96–98
   for tyrants, 84–87
     benefits for, 86–87
     human tendencies of, 84–86
 technocracy, 110–112
 The Ten, 7
 terrorism. See also counter-terrorism UN Security Council responses to, 10
 theocratic kingships, 28–29
   monarchies and, 30
 theory of representation, 33
 Third World, 195
 Third World Approaches to International Law (TWAAIL), 2, 6, 152, 193, 198–199
 “Thirty Tyrants,” 20–21, 137–138

- Thomas Aquinas, 32, 122–123. See also
 taxonomy
 avoidance stratagems, against
 tyranny, 32
 on divine law, 32
- Thucydides, 21
- timocracy, 23
- Tocqueville, Alexis de, 10–11
 on Declaration of Independence, 61–62
 Federalists and, response to, 61–65
- totalitarianism, 10–11
 Plato and, 18–19
 tyranny and, Arendt on, 75
- The Trial* (Kafka), 3
- TWAIL. See Third World Approaches to International Law
- tyrannicide, 32, 81, 117–134, 142–144, 219
 avoidance stratagems against, 32
 definition of, 5, 117
 extent of, 132–134
 fear of, 93
 Federalists and, 129
 history of, 118–121
 in Classical Period, 120
 early Modern period, 125–130
 in Republican Rome, 120–121
 in 20th century, 130–132
 legitimacy of, 117–118
 Locke on, 126–128
 Medieval, 121–125
 Catholic Church and, 121–123
 rebellion and, 1
 women and, 132
- tyrannophilia, 137–144
 categories of, 141–142
 definition of, 5, 117
Eros and, 138
- tyrannophobia, 81, 134–137, 142–144
 constitutionalism and, 135–136
 definition of, 5, 117, 134–135
 Hobbes on, 41, 49, 135–137
- tyranny, 3–5. See also Classical Period; specific topics
 bureaucracy and, 68–69, 110–112
 Arendt on, 76–77
 case studies for, 10
 constitutionalism and, 27, 61–69
 Arendt on, 77
 in early modern period, 36–61
 Strauss on, 72–73
 definition of, 3
 democracy and, transition to, 51–52
 as deprivation of natural right, 78
 Federalists' response to, 3, 10–11
 in Global South, 85–86
 good governance and, 21
 governance orders against, 4 historical approach to, 17–18
 human tendencies toward, 84–86
 law and, 4–5
 international, 1–2, 5–7
 as lawless government, 96
 by majority, 56–57, 99
 Dahl on, 78–79
 methodological approach to, 8–11
 taxonomy in, 8–10
 by minority, 6–7
 in modern period, 69–80
 mythology of, 1
 Orientalism and, 85–86
 of papacy, 33
 pride and, 35–36
 as slavery, 63–64
 social, 67
 theoretical approach to, 15–18
 totalitarianism and, Arendt on, 75
 types of, 3–4
 women and, 22–23
 as cause of tyranny, 23
- tyrants, 84–87. See also specific people
 benefits for, 86–87
 women as, 85–86
- UN. See Security Council
- United Nations. See Security Council
- United States (U.S.). See also African Americans; Constitution, U.S.;
 Native Americans
 Declaration of Independence in,
 61–62, 128
- utopianism, 70
- Washington Consensus, 210, 212
- William II (King), 31

- William of Ockham, 3, 10–11, 32–33, 91, 94, 98. See also taxonomy
 theory of representation, 33
 Wollstonecraft, Mary, 60–61, 160–161
 women. See also feminism; gender
 in ancient Greece, 22–23
 Aristotle and, 22–23
Declaration of the Rights of Women, 128
 Paine on, 60–61
 Socrates on, as cause of tyranny, 23
 Spivak on, 191–193
 as subaltern, 199–200
 in taxonomy of tyranny, in gender mode, 109–110
 tyranny and, 22–23
 in U.S. Constitution, 160–161
 World Bank, 166–167
 world government. See global legal order; good governance World Trade Organization (WTO)
 Doha Round, 204
 Global North and, 204–205, 214
 in Global South, 204–205
 New International Economic Order and, 204–206
 WTO. See World Trade Organization
 Wycliff, John, 32–33, 122
 Xenophon, 21–22, 39, 69–70
 Yukichi, Fukuzawa, 215