Introduction

Who is First Trainer 2 for?

This book is suitable for anyone who is preparing to take the Cambridge English: First (FCE) exam. You can use First Trainer 2 in class with your teacher, or on your own at home.

What is First Trainer 2?

First Trainer 2 contains six practice tests for Cambridge English: First, each covering the Reading and Use of English, Writing, Listening and Speaking papers. Guided Tests 1 and 2 consist of both training and practice for the exam, while Tests 3–6 are entirely practice. All six tests are at exam level and are of Cambridge English: First standard.

Test 1 contains information about each part of each paper, plus step-by-step guidance to take you through each kind of Cambridge English: First task type, with examples and tips clearly linked to the questions. In the Reading and Use of English, Writing and Speaking papers, it also presents and practises grammar, vocabulary and functional language directly relevant to particular task types. This is supported by work on correcting common grammar mistakes made by Cambridge English: First candidates in the exam as shown by the Cambridge Learner Corpus. For more information on the Cambridge Learner Corpus see page 6. The Keys tell you which answers are correct and why, and explains why other answers are wrong.

Test 2 also contains training for the exam, in addition to revision from Test 1. Here too there is language input, as well as some step-by-step guidance to task types with further examples, advice and tips. In Writing, there is a full focus on the task types not covered in Test 1.

Tests 3–6 contain a wide range of topics, text types and exam items, enabling you to practise the skills you have developed and the language you have learnt in Tests 1 and 2.

How to use First Trainer 2

Test 1 Training

- For each part of each paper, you should begin by studying Task information, which tells you the facts you need to know, such as what the task type tests and the kinds of questions it uses.
- Throughout Test 1, you will see information marked Tip! These tips give you practical advice on how to tackle each task type.
- In all papers, training exercises help you develop the skills you need, e.g. reading for gist, by working through example items of a particular task type.
- For Parts 1–4 of Reading and Use of English, both parts of Writing and all parts of Speaking, Useful language presents and practises grammatical structures, vocabulary or functional expressions that are often tested by particular task types.
- Many exercises involve focusing on and correcting common language mistakes made by actual Cambridge English: First candidates, as shown by the Cambridge Learner Corpus (www.cambridge.org/corpus).

- In Listening, you are prompted to use the downloadable audio, e.g.  1. If you are working on your own, you will need to be able to access the downloadable audio files.
- In Writing, Test 1 covers Part 1 (essay), as well as the article, review and email tasks in Part 2. You study some examples to help you perfect your skills. The Keys contain answers to the exercises, plus sample answers. You finish each part by writing your own text, bringing in what you have learnt in Useful language.
- In Speaking, you are prompted to use one of the downloadable audio files, e.g.  18, and complete tasks while you listen to examples of each part of the paper. You can practise speaking on your own or with a partner, using what you have learnt in Useful language.
- In all papers, an Action plan gives you clear step-by-step guidance on how to approach each task type.
- You then work through an exam-style task, often doing exercises based on the guidance in the Action plan and then following the exam instructions. As you do so, Advice boxes suggest ways of dealing with particular exam items.
- Answers to all items are in the Keys.

Test 2 Training

- Test 2 contains many of the same features as Test 1, including exercises that focus on exam instructions, texts and tasks, Tip! information, Advice boxes for many exam items, Useful language and Keys.
- There is further work based on mistakes frequently made by Cambridge English: First candidates as shown by the Cambridge Learner Corpus.
- There is also an emphasis on revision, with cross-references for each task type to the relevant Task information and Action plan in Test 1. You should refer back to these before you begin working through each part.
- Test 2 Writing covers Part 1 (essay) plus the report, letter and article tasks in Part 2, along with sample answers for some of the tasks.
- You should try to do the exam tasks under exam conditions where possible.

Tests 3–6 Exam practice

- In Tests 3, 4, 5 and 6, you can apply the skills and language you have learnt in guided Tests 1 and 2.
- You can do these tests and the four papers within them in any order, but you should always try to keep to the time recommended for each paper. For the Listening paper, you must listen to each recording twice only.
- It will be easier to keep to the exam instructions if you can find somewhere quiet to work, and ensure there are no interruptions.
- For the Speaking paper, it is better if you can work with a partner, but if not, you can follow the instructions and do all four parts on your own.
- You can check your answers for yourself, and also study the Listening audioscripts after you have completed the tasks.

The Cambridge English: First examination

Level of the Cambridge English: First examination

Cambridge English: First is at level B2 on the Common European Framework (CEFR). When you reach this level, these are some of the things you should be able to do:

- You can scan written texts for the information you need, and understand detailed instructions or advice.
- You can understand or give a talk on a familiar subject, and keep a conversation going on quite a wide range of subjects.
- You can make notes while someone is talking, and write a letter that includes different kinds of requests.

Grading

- The overall Cambridge English: First grade that you receive is based on the total score you achieve in all four papers.
- The Reading and Use of English paper carries 40% of the possible marks, while each of Writing, Listening and Speaking carry 20% of the possible marks.
- There is no minimum score for each paper, so you don't have to 'pass' all four in order to pass the exam.
- You receive a certificate if you pass the exam with grade A (the highest grade), B or C. Grades D and E are fails.
- Whatever your grade, you will receive a Statement of Results. This includes a graphical profile of how well you did in each paper and shows your relative performance in each one.
