AN EMAIL ABOUT A JOB

1 How do you communicate with friends and family who you don’t see every day? Who do you send emails to? Is there anyone you send emails to in English?

2 Read the email from Tori, a student, to a friend. What’s her new job? Why does she like it?

Hi Emily,

How are you? I’m really happy because I’ve got a new job! Of course I still go to college, but from Thursday to Saturday I work in a pizza restaurant from 5.00 to 10.00 pm. I’m a waitress so I wear a uniform – a pink and white shirt and jeans. It’s hard work but it’s fun. I like talking to the customers.

Next year, I want to go to the police college and study to become a police officer. My parents want me to be a teacher but I don’t want to work with children and I hate working inside. I like helping people, so I think it’s the perfect job for me.

What about you? Tell me about your job. What do you want to do in the future? Write soon!

Love, Tori.

3 Read the email again and underline the expressions Tori uses to begin and end her email. Add them to the table.

My journey to work

Marta

I travel to work by train. When I first started, I left home at eight and hurried to get to work by nine. I was never late, but I didn’t enjoy hurrying. So now I make sure I’m out of the house by seven thirty. I go slowly, buy a coffee and chat to people in the coffee shop. On the train I use my phone to send emails, which saves time when I get to the office.

Gia

I usually have to run to the station to catch my train – I should probably plan my mornings better and get up earlier! My train isn’t busy, and it’s nice to be on my own for a while, just to think or read a book. I know lots of people play games or read the news on their phones, but I just check mine quickly when I get to work. And I don’t work on the train – I’m a nurse, so I can’t do that!

Rosa

I like to read about what’s happening around the world, so I use the internet to do that when I’m on the train – usually on my phone. I can’t really work on the train, but I make a list of the things I have to do when I get to work, and I think about what I’m going to do first. The worst kind of day for me is when there are delays on the trains, and I arrive after the time I should. That makes me really angry.
