

CONTENTS

Preface	page ix
About the authors	x
Acknowledgements	xi
1 Why isn't negotiation straightforward?	1
What is negotiation?	3
The DNA of negotiation	6
Different ways to reach agreement	10
What do we mean by 'an agreement'?	20
Managing the negotiation process in practice	24
Conclusion	25
Discussion questions	25
Negotiation case study – Getting tickets to see the Blue Jays	27
Negotiation case study – A hostage negotiation: the easy part!	30
2 Negotiators are people, not robots	32
Two parties to a negotiation, and the importance of reciprocity	33
Two parties to a negotiation, and the importance of 'other-directedness'	37
The effect of a negotiator's personality on how they negotiate	38
Does one's gender make a difference when negotiating?	45
What impact do emotions have on negotiation?	48
Difficult negotiators	51
What does negotiating ethically involve?	53
Conclusion	57
Discussion questions	57
Negotiation case study – Getting access: a case of other-directedness at work	60
3 Establishing what can be achieved by negotiating	62
The importance of being prepared	63
Assessing what we are disagreeing over	64
Assessing the power balance	73
Assessing the bargaining mix	78
Conclusion	82
Discussion questions	84
Analysis task – The Health Care Negotiations: want to buy some more health care?	85
4 Strategically managing the negotiation process	90
Getting a negotiation started	91
The differentiation phase	93

The exploration phase	104
The exchange phase	107
Conclusion	111
Discussion questions	113
Negotiation case study – The Tanker Refit Negotiations: resolving a major contract dispute	115
Negotiation case study – The Airline Negotiations: a potential joint venture that did not get off the ground	119
5 Differentiation: managing the exchange of information	123
Building an information agenda	124
The nature of trust in the context of negotiation	128
Cautious rather than open information exchange	133
Conclusion	144
Discussion questions	146
Negotiation case study – The Info Tech Negotiations: hearing what was said	147
6 Exploration: finding a better outcome	150
Don't rush into exploration	152
Creating space for creative negotiating	152
How might we create space in the bargaining mix?	155
How might we create space at the negotiating table for creativity to flourish?	161
Conclusion	170
Discussion questions	171
Negotiation case study – The Marketing Merger Negotiations: making a merger work	172
7 Exchange: getting the other party to agree	176
Putting together a firm offer	178
Putting together a multiple offer	180
Other-directed presentation of offers	180
The choices now facing the negotiators	182
Managing the end-game	184
Managing the end-game competitiveness	195
Conclusion	198
Discussion questions	199
Negotiation case study – The IT Company Sale Negotiations: negotiating down to the wire	200
8 Strategically managing deadlocks	208
Are negotiation deadlocks always a problem?	209
Being a strategic negotiator	220
Conclusion	225
Discussion questions	226
Analysis task – Negotiating the introduction of a university information system	227

9 Overcoming deadlocks through mediation	232
The usefulness of mediation	234
The essence of mediation	235
What do mediators do?	241
Some implications of mediation for a negotiator	250
Conclusion	253
Discussion questions	254
Mediation case study – The Airport Dismissal Case: stepping back from the brink	255
10 Negotiation in practice: negotiators building bridges on behalf of others	261
Why have somebody negotiate on your behalf?	263
The structure of collective negotiations	268
Managing complexity	278
Managing complex negotiations	283
Conclusion	288
Discussion questions	288
11 Negotiation in practice: managing negotiations in the workplace	289
The distinctive characteristics of the workplace context	290
Workplace negotiations in practice	297
Improving workplace negotiations	302
Managing workplace negotiations	306
Conclusion	312
Discussion questions	312
Negotiation case study – Enterprise bargaining in local government	314
Negotiation case study – An example of management–union cooperation	316
12 Negotiation in practice: managing business negotiations	317
Deal prospecting: when does a negotiation start?	319
Deal-making: getting ready to negotiate	322
Deal-making: managing the process	334
Conclusion	343
Discussion questions	345
Negotiation case study – The Telco JV Negotiation: a business negotiation that connected	347
Negotiation case study – The Business Sale Negotiation: being found by the right buyer	351
13 Cross-cultural negotiations: much the same but different	355
Developing a cultural awareness	357
Making some sense of this cultural complexity	374
Managing a cross-cultural negotiation	376
Conclusion	387
Discussion questions	387

14 Conclusion: becoming an effective negotiator	389
How might we recognise a good negotiation?	391
Postscript to the reader	394
References	395
Index	411