

CONTENTS

List of case studies	xvi
About the author	xvii
Acknowledgements	xviii
1 Integrated marketing communications and its synergistic effects	1
Chapter overview	1
Is marketing communications the answer?	1
The challenge: Overcoming communication barriers	2
Noise and clutter	2
Consumer apathy	3
Brand parity	3
Weak creative ideas or strategies	3
What is IMC and why do we need it?	4
What are synergistic effects?	5
Explanations of synergy	6
How do you integrate?	7
The IMC planning process	12
Managerial application: Putting it together	19
Overlapping exposures	19
Sequencing exposures	20
Interlinking creative content	20
Cross-publicising of products and complements	21
Timeliness and support	21
Further thinking: Processing effects	23
A theoretical framework of processing effects	23
Discussion questions	24
Notes	25
2 Uncovering insights	29
Chapter overview	29
What is insight?	30
Insight as a route to unlock growth for the brand	30
Creative development research	32
Polaroid instant camera	32
Bodywash for teenage boys	33
The role of the account planner	33
Sources of consumer insights	34
Methods for uncovering insights	37
Qualitative and quantitative research	37
Observation-based studies	40
Deprivation studies	42
Means-end laddering	42

viii CONTENTS

Levels of accessibility	44
Projective techniques	45
Establishing the validity and reliability of key insights	52
Managerial application: Putting it together	52
Integrating research into the search for insights	52
Further thinking: Acquiring key insights	54
Guided questions to look for key insights	54
IMC activity plan	60
Discussion questions	60
Notes	61
3 Brand positioning	65
Chapter overview	65
Principles of brand positioning	66
Principle 1: Segment first, then position	66
Principle 2: Brand positioning is not the same as brand image	67
Principle 3: Positioning is hard work	68
Principle 4: If possible, reposition the competition in a way that they cannot counter	68
Strategic issues of positioning	69
Profitability of the brand	70
Deliverable brand positioning	70
Long-term strategic direction	71
A virtuous triangle	71
Market space and mental space	72
Tactics for positioning the brand in the mental space	74
Suggestive brand name and logo	75
Packaging, colour and website or brand home page	79
Attributes, consequence (benefit or emotions) and values (A-C-V)	80
Competitor comparison	82
Brand image, brand personality and celebrities	83
User imagery	85
Reputation cues	85
Country of origin, region and cultural icons	87
Price, quality and status cues	89
Occasions, usage and applications	89
The challenges of repositioning	92
Point of difference, point of parity and frame of reference	93
Brand equity	94
Financial perspective	94
Sales growth perspective	95
Price elasticity perspective	95
Revenue premium perspective	96
Consumer perspective	96
Brand strength and brand stature perspective	97

Brand preference	98
Managerial application: Putting it together	99
Further thinking: Uniqueness	100
Assessing brand uniqueness	100
Discussion questions	102
Notes	102
4 Media planning for growth	108
Chapter overview	108
What is advertising supposed to do?	109
The hierarchy of effects model	109
The DAGMAR model	110
The weak versus strong theory of advertising	111
The importance of assessing communications and sales objectives simultaneously	113
Objective-and-task budgeting method	113
The share of voice and share of market budgeting methods	119
Competitive dynamics of SOV-SOM budgeting	121
The relationship between opportunity to see, media weight, average frequency and reach	122
An example of reach and frequency schedules	123
Advertising-to-sales response function	125
The s-shape curve	125
The convex-shape curve	127
Recent exposure and its implications for recency media planning	128
Recency media planning	129
Frequency versus continuous schedules	130
Experimentation, scale effects and post-buy evaluation	131
Media strategy	132
Who is the target audience and what percentage do we want to reach?	132
Which media should we use to reach the target audience?	133
How well can the creative concept be portrayed using these media?	135
Which media will yield the most impact?	135
How should we schedule the exposures?	135
Managerial application: Putting it together	138
Programmatic media buying – cost over quality?	139
Further thinking: Linking consumption and revenue	140
Establish the link between consumption behaviour and revenue	140
Decide on how best to increase sales	141
Increase usage amount and repeat rate after trial	142
Find new uses for the brand	142
Increase the customer base	143
Increase price	143
Discussion questions	143
Notes	144

x CONTENTS

5	Integrating digital and non-digital channels	149
	Chapter overview	149
	Developing a strategy to meld digital and non-digital channels	149
	Principle 1: Drive and excite	150
	Principle 2: Strive for a good idea!	153
	Principle 3: Leverage on partnerships for media innovations	153
	Traditional media	154
	Television	154
	Radio	160
	Cinema	163
	Print	164
	Out-of-home	167
	Non-traditional media	171
	Websites, microsites and mobile websites	171
	Search engine optimisation, paid social and paid search	172
	Banner and display ads	177
	Online classified ads	178
	Online ads and viral campaigns	178
	Blogs and podcasts	178
	Online videos	180
	Email	180
	E-zines or zines	181
	Mobile telephony, applications and location-based advertising	181
	Quick response codes	185
	Advergames	186
	Managerial application: Putting it together	187
	Further thinking: How to use the customer decision journey	188
	Discussion questions	189
	Notes	190
6	Advertising creativity	197
	Chapter overview	197
	Do all ads have to be creative?	197
	Why creativity is important	198
	Theoretical perspectives on creativity	201
	Creativity and its many faces	201
	Remote associate thinking and remote associative matching	202
	Using secondary activations to find a match	206
	Matching elements	207
	What is a creative idea?	209
	Creative integration	209
	The creative brief	212
	Show clearly what is required	213
	Communicate the vision with a sense of excitement	213
	Ideation principles	213

Managerial application: Putting it together	228
Further thinking: Barriers to creativity	229
Creativity barrier at the individual level	229
Creativity barrier at the group level	230
Creativity barrier at the organisational level	232
Discussion questions	233
Notes	233
7 Planning and executing the creative appeal	239
Chapter overview	239
What is the difference between a creative idea and its execution?	240
Executorial tactics	243
Attention	243
Choosing an executorial tactic	258
Celebrity endorsements	259
Theories of celebrity endorsement	259
Pitfalls of celebrity endorsement	261
Benefits of using celebrities	263
Managerial application: Putting it together	265
Choosing a celebrity or presenter	265
Further thinking: Exploring the models	266
Hierarchy of effects model	266
Foote, Cone & Belding model	267
Rossiter–Percy model	268
Cognitive processing model	268
Discussion questions	271
Notes	271
8 Social influence and social media	281
Chapter overview	281
How information flows	282
Social ties and their influence	285
Principle 1: We are socially embedded in a small world	285
Principle 2: The strength of weak ties	286
Principle 3: We influence and are influenced by each other (some more so than others)	286
Social media, its contingent usage and integration	288
Four aspects of social media: connectivity, conversations, content creation and collaboration	290
Connectivity	290
Conversations	291
Content creation	291
Collaboration	291
Social influence	292
Communities versus customers	293

xii CONTENTS

Word-of-mouth and recommendation	296
The problem with Net Promotor Score	300
Buzz marketing	301
Viral marketing	301
Viral preconditions	302
Social commerce	310
Managerial application: Putting it together	311
Further thinking: Losing control of social media	312
Discussion questions	314
Notes	314

9 Public relations, corporate reputation, sponsorship, native advertising and content marketing 324

Chapter overview	324
Public relations	325
What is PR?	326
Advantages of PR	326
Disadvantages of PR	327
Managing PR	330
Sources of information for PR editorials	330
The symbiotic relationship between firms and media organisations	330
Making the story newsworthy and quotable	332
Richard Branson's publicity strategy	333
Corporate reputation	336
Corporate image advertising	336
Cause-related marketing and corporate social responsibility	338
Brand purpose advertising	340
Advocacy advertising	341
Sponsorship	341
Crisis communication	344
Refute and deny	345
Apologise and promise not to reoffend	345
Respond quickly and compassionately; offer compensation if necessary	345
Native advertising and content marketing	346
Native advertising	346
Content marketing	348
Managerial application: Putting it together	350
Focus on outcomes	351
Monitor corporate reputation	351
Plan a path and measure its effectiveness	351
Further thinking: Agenda-setting	352
Agenda-setting and salience	352
Agenda-setting, issue salience and politics	354
Discussion questions	354
Notes	355

10 Influence, tactics and integration in personal selling	361
Chapter overview	361
Advantages and disadvantages of personal selling	362
The eight steps of high-involvement selling	363
Step 1: Setting a goal	364
Step 2: Generating leads	364
Step 3: Identifying the most promising leads	365
Step 4: Making the initial contact	366
Step 5: Presentation	366
Step 6: Handling objections	368
Step 7: Closing the sale	368
Step 8: Following up after the sale	369
Presentation and objection-handling	370
Multi-attribute reframing	370
Selling the improved value	374
Selling the vision	375
Are salespeople born or made?	377
Artificial intelligence and selling	379
Compliance-seeking tactics	380
Scarcity	380
Authority	381
Social proof	381
Consistency and commitment	381
Reciprocity	382
Likeability	382
Trust and trustworthiness	387
Managerial application: Putting it together	388
Ethics and a note of caution	389
Further thinking: Attribution styles	389
Explanatory style (or causal attribution)	390
Discussion questions	391
Notes	391
11 Direct response marketing and sales promotion integration	398
Chapter overview	398
Direct response marketing	398
Principles of direct response marketing	399
Methods of delivery	401
Direct response marketing and brand equity	406
Sales promotion	408
Achieving push and pull synergy with trade and consumer promotions	408
Types of trade promotion	409
Types of consumer promotion	411
Negative- and positive-oriented promotions	417
Negative-oriented promotions	417

Positive-oriented promotions	418
When do we use NOPs?	420
Congruency of benefits in promotions	420
Dangers of POPs	421
Managerial application: Putting it together	422
Advertise to build brand equity, then promote	422
Signal that the sales promotion is only temporary	423
Sales promotion should not be predictably cyclical	423
The value of the promotion	423
Match the benefit of the sales promotion with the purchase motivation	423
The promotion should not overshadow the brand	424
Integrate the brand's positioning into the theme of the promotion	424
Further thinking: Price discounting	424
Discussion questions	426
Notes	426
12 Advertising testing, campaign tracking and synergistic effects	431
Chapter overview	431
Concept testing as exploration	432
Preliminary subjective evaluation	433
Quantitative advertising pre-testing	437
Pre-testing broadcast ads	439
Criticisms of ad pre-testing	441
Post-testing and campaign tracking	442
Starch methodology for post-testing print ads	442
Campaign tracking	443
Managerial application: Putting it together	457
Further thinking: Advanced knowledge methodologies	458
Implicit (reaction time) measurements or Implicit Response Testing	459
Psycho-physiological measurements	460
Weakness of the traditional self-report questionnaire	460
Psycho-physiological methods of advertising pre-testing	461
Discussion questions	469
Notes	470
13 Integrative review, IMC implementations and marketing technologies	477
Chapter overview	477
Integrating themes	477
Theme 1: Overcoming communication barriers with direct and indirect means	477
Theme 2: Synergy and stretching the media dollar	480
Theme 3: Creativity	480
Theme 4: Research	481
Theme 5: Brand-building and equity destruction	483

	CONTENTS	xv
IMC implementation	484
Barriers to IMC implementation	484
Marketing technologies and implementation	485
Activation engines	488
Ethics	492
A look to the future	492
Discussion questions	493
Notes	493
Index	496	