

Index

- Agricultural Development Corporation (ADC), 95–96, 122–123, 125–126, 154
aboi (landless men), 73
 AL (Awami League), 289–290
 allotment letters, 127–128
 Al-Shabaab, 237–238
 ancestral land claims
   in Mauche, 160–163
   in Ogilgei, 150–152
   title deeds versus, 227–231
 anti-outsider narrative, 111, 124, 184–186, 232 See also fear of ethnic others
 Arab land owners, 99–101
 Arab-Swahili slave trade, 73
 autochthones in Côte d'Ivoire, 288–289
 Awami League (AL), 289–290

 Bangladesh, 289–290
 Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP), 289
 Belbar, 117–120
 between-group inequality. See group inequality
 BNL (political party in Bangladesh), 289–290
 British colonial rule, land politics during, 72–76
 Burundi, 285–288

 campaign appeals. See electoral violence, mobilization of case selection, 64–69, 141–144 See also paired case comparisons causal mechanism, defined, 35
 caveats on title deeds, 183, 187
 Cheboi, Moses, 223
 CIPEV report (Commission of Inquiry on Post-Election Violence), 204

 civic engagement, 265–267, 269, 277–278, 281
 civil war, as joint violence, 5–6
 class-based inequality, ethnic-based inequality versus, 138–139 climate change, 28
 CNTB (National Land Commission), 287
 Coast region
   electoral violence versus Rift Valley, 213–214
   fear of ethnic others, 267, 273
   group size in logic of violence, 232–233
   history of violence, 216–218
   insider-outsider narrative, 215
   Kenyatta as landlord, 70
   Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
   land distribution versus Rift Valley, 64–65
   land inequality, 215
   land patronage in, 223–227
   land politics versus inland region, 71–72, 98–102, 212–213
   land reform, 79–80, 98–102
   Land Title Ordinance of 1908, 74–76
   logic of violence in, 218–219
   mobilization of electoral violence, 215–216
   new forms of violence, 241
   outsiders in, 233–237
   political trust, 269
   Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
   secessionist movement in, 241
   similarities with Rift Valley, 214–216
   Tana River and Lamu county violence, 237–240

- Ten Mile Strip, 73–74
- title deeds versus ancestral land claims, 227–231
- Colombia, 285, 294–296
- Colonial Development Corporation, 86
- colonial rule, land politics during, 72–76
- Commission of Inquiry on Post-Election Violence (CIPEV report), 204
- Commonwealth Development Corporation, 86
- comparative case study, 60–62
- competition in political campaigns
  - alternative measures, 315
  - electoral violence and, 252, 256–259
- contentious land narratives
  - causal role of, 111
  - in Coast region, 215
  - criteria, 109
  - defined, 37–39, 141
  - electoral violence and, 108, 176–178
  - Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
  - land inequality and, 141, 144–147, 283
  - Likia and Mauche paired case comparison, 121
  - in Mauche, 160–163
  - moderate land inequality and, 47–48
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–129
  - Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
  - significant land inequality and, 48–49
  - variation within, 111–112
  - widespread nature of, 111
- corruption, electoral violence and, 17–18
- Côte d'Ivoire, 288–289
- Crown Lands Ordinance of 1902*, 74
- Crown Lands Ordinance of 1915*, 76
- defense (as reason for violence), 199–204
- Delamere family, 130
- democratization, violence of, 16–17
- demographic variables, 253–254
- direct exposure to violence, 269–271
- divisive land appeals. See electoral violence, mobilization of
- Electoral Commission of Kenya (ECK), 193, 194
- electoral contention, defined, 11
- electoral violence. See also joint violence; local electoral violence
  - after Kibaki election, 173
  - categories of, 12
  - Coast region versus Rift Valley, 213–214
  - in Colombia, 294–296
  - contentious land narratives and, 108, 176–178
  - cost of, 57, 59
  - defined, 9–13
  - degrees of land inequality and, 43–44, 49
  - detailed view, 45
  - direct exposure to, 269–271
  - elite logic of, 55–57
  - ethnicity and, 232–233, 252–253, 259–261
  - existing studies, 34–35
  - in Hell's Gate, 132
  - history in Coast region and Rift Valley, 216–218
  - history in Kenya, 13–15
  - identity politics and, 21–23
  - indirect exposure to, 247–248, 257
  - individual predictors of, 245, 246–257, 316
  - institutionalist accounts, 16–19
  - instrumentalist accounts, 19–21
  - interview questions, 302–303
  - joint production of, 57–59
  - justification of, 52
  - local leadership and, 158–160
  - logics of, 174–175, 209
  - material and ideational accounts, 23–26
  - national-level data, 317–319
  - political competition and, 252, 256–259
  - prevalence of, 9–10
  - reasons for participation, 197
  - role of land in, 27–30, 35
  - summary view, 36
  - timeframe for, 11
- electoral violence, effect of, 245–246, 261–267, 279–281
- analysis, 271–278

- electoral violence, effect of (cont.)
  - fear of ethnic others, 263–264, 267–268, 271–275, 280
  - inter-ethnic civic engagement, 265–267, 269, 277–278, 281
  - measurement of, 267–271
  - political trust, 264–265, 268–269, 274–276, 280–281
- electoral violence, mobilization of,
  - 49–55, 175–176, 181–193, 246–247, 282
  - in Coast region, 215–216
  - generalization of theory, 284–296
  - in Ghana, 293–294
  - implications for studying, 296–297
  - individual exposure to, 248–251, 255, 279
  - injustice narratives, 182–187
  - insecurity narratives, 187–193
  - interview questions, 303–304
- electoral violence, stages of, 175–176, 209–210
  - local escalation, 199–204
  - methodology, 179–181
  - mobilization of electoral violence, 181–193
  - scale shift, 204–209
  - trigger events, 193–199
- elites. See also landed elites; political elites
  - bargaining power from land narratives, 51–52
  - Coast versus inland region land politics, 71–72
  - electoral violence organization by, 7–8
  - land patronage via settlement schemes, 90–91
  - origin of wealth, 46–47
  - theories of electoral violence, 19–21
- escalation of violence
  - local escalation, 176, 199–204, 283
  - scale shift, 176, 204–209
- Ethiopia, 284
- ethnic citizenship, national citizenship versus, 110
- ethnic outsiders, 13–14 See also fear of ethnic others; insider-outsider narrative
- ethnicity. See also group inequality
  - class-based inequality versus, 138–139
  - electoral violence and, 21–23, 232–233, 252–253, 259–261
  - fear of ethnic others, 263–264, 267–268, 271–275, 280
  - inter-ethnic civic engagement, 265–267, 269, 277–278, 281
  - in Tanzania, 290–292
  - Umoja and Belbar paired case comparison, 117–120
- ethno-linguistic fractionalization index (ELF), 21, 252–253, 259–261
- FARC (Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia), 294
- fear of ethnic others, 263–264, 267–268, 271–275, 280 See also anti-outsider narrative
- focus groups
  - list of, 305–306
  - methodology, 179–181, 298–299
- “free” land, campaign appeals for, 251, 256 See also injustice narratives
- fuata nyayo*, 93–94
- Gbagbo, Laurent, 289
- GEMA Holding Corporation, 91
- generalization of theory, 284–296
  - Bangladesh, 289–290
  - Burundi, 285–288
  - Colombia, 294–296
  - Côte d’Ivoire, 288–289
  - Ghana, 292–294
  - Tanzania, 290–292
- Ghana, 292–294
- Gini coefficient, 42
- “grants from above”, 101
- greed, electoral violence and, 23–26
- grievances
  - electoral violence and, 23–26
  - narratives versus, 38–39
  - shaping by group inequality, 43
- group inequality, 41–42
  - class-based versus ethnic-based, 138–139
  - land equality, 44
  - moderate land inequality, 44–46
  - qualitative measurement, 115–116
  - shaping of grievances, 43

- significant land inequality, 46–47
  - socialization via land narratives, 50–51
- group size, logic of violence and, 219, 231–233
- Gurr, Tedd, 40
- hakuna cha bure* (“nothing is for free”), 81–84
- Haraka* schemes, 98
- Hell’s Gate
  - anti-outsider narrative, 186–187
  - Naivasha flower farms paired case comparison, 129–132
  - scale shift in violence, 205–206
- history of electoral violence in Coast region and Rift Valley, 216–218
- history of Kenyan land politics
  - British colonial rule, 72–76
  - independence, 80–84
  - land reform in Coast region, 98–102
  - LBCs (Land Buying Companies), 91–93
  - Mau Mau civil war, 76–80
  - settlement schemes, 84–91
  - under Moi, 93–97
- history of landlordism, 70–71
- horizontal inequality, 41
- Houphouët-Boigny, Félix, 288
- household-level survey
  - methodology, 62–63
  - sampling strategy, 313–314
  - tables, 307–313
- Hutchinson, Sharon, 229
- Hutus, 286–287
- ICC (International Criminal Court), 181, 189
- ideational accounts of electoral violence, 23–26
- identity politics
  - electoral violence and, 21–23
  - land and, 29
- independence
  - land politics during, 80–84
  - settlement schemes after, 84–91
- indirect exposure to violence, 247–248, 257
- individual inequality, 40–41
- individual-level violence
  - direct exposure to, 269–271
  - indirect exposure to, 247–248, 257
  - predictors of, 245, 246–257, 316
- individuals, exposure to campaign appeals, 248–251, 255, 279
- inequality
  - degrees of, 43–44
  - group-level, 41–42
  - individual-level, 40–41
  - measurement of, 40–43
  - types of, 42–43
- injustice narratives
  - defined, 39
  - “free” land appeals, 251, 256
  - logic of violence and, 53, 182
  - in Mauche and Likia, 181, 182–187
- inland region. See also Rift Valley
  - land patronage, 70
  - land politics versus Coast region, 71–72, 98–102, 212–213
- insecurity narratives
  - campaign appeals and, 251, 256
  - defined, 40, 181–182
  - logic of violence and, 53, 182
  - in Mauche and Likia, 187–193
- insider-outsider narrative, 38, 54–55
- in Burundi, 287–288
- in Coast region, 215
- in Côte d’Ivoire, 288–289
- in Ghana, 292–294
- logic of violence and, 231–233
- Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 128–129
- institutionalist accounts of electoral violence, 16–19
- instrumentalist accounts of electoral violence, 19–21
- inter-ethnic civic engagement, 265–267, 269, 277–278, 281
- inter-group inequality. See group inequality
- International Criminal Court (ICC), 181, 189
- interviews
  - list of, 304–305
  - methodology, 180, 298–299
  - questions, list of, 299–304
- invader narrative, 110–111
- Iran, 284

- Jamaat-e-Islami, 289–290
- joint violence, 2
  - civil war as, 5–6
  - defined, 12
  - production of, 57–59
- Jubilee Alliance, 181
- Jubilee Party, 108
- KADU (Kenya African Democratic Union), 80–81
- Kaggia, Bildad, 82
- Kalenjin. See also Moi, Daniel arap
  - fear of ethnic others, 273
  - incentives for violence, 175
  - injustice narratives, 181, 182–187
  - insecurity narratives, 187–193
  - Jubilee Alliance, 181
  - LBCs (Land Buying Companies) and, 92
  - logic of violence, 182
  - in Nakuru County, title deeds held, 114–115
  - national versus ethnic citizenship, 110
  - Ogiek, 142
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–129
  - population percentage, 65
  - “uprooting the weeds,” 52
- Kalenjin, in Mauche
  - contentious land narratives, 160–163
  - description of, 140
  - insider-outsider narrative, 38
  - land acquisition processes, 163–165
  - land insecurity, 165–166, 168–169
  - local escalation of violence, 199–204
  - paired case comparison, 121, 141–144, 160–168
  - reaction to 2007 election, 1–2, 3
  - reaction to Kibaki election victory, 173
  - trigger events for violence, 193–199
- Kalenjin, in Ogilgei
  - description of, 140
  - land acquisition processes, 152–155
  - land security, 156–158, 168–169
  - local leadership, 158–160
  - paired case comparison, 117, 141–142, 149–160
  - reaction to 2007 election, 2, 3
- Kalenjin Enterprise, 152–154
- KANU. See Kenya African National Union (KANU)
- Kariuki, G.G., 92
- Kaya Bombo*, 217–218
- Kenya
  - history of electoral violence, 13–15
  - national versus ethnic citizenship, 110
  - relationship between land and electoral violence, 29–30
  - themes of land narratives, 38
- Kenya, history of land politics
  - British colonial rule, 72–76
  - independence, 80–84
  - land reform in Coast region, 98–102
  - LBCs (Land Buying Companies), 91–93
  - Mau Mau civil war, 76–80
  - settlement schemes, 84–91
  - under Moi, 93–97
- Kenya African Democratic Union (KADU), 80–81
- Kenya African National Union (KANU)
  - anti-outsider narrative, 232
  - electoral violence in 1990s, 13–15, 217–218
  - during independence, 80–81
  - violence and land politics, 96–97
- Kenya People’s Union (KPU), 82
- Kenyatta, Jomo, 125, 126
- KANU versus KADU, 80–81
  - land acquisition in Mauche, 163
  - land acquisition in Ogilgei, 153, 155
  - Moi transition from, 93–95
  - “nothing is for free,” 81–84
  - settlement schemes, 86, 87–88, 98
  - sons-of-the-soil conflict, 120
  - violence under, 96
- Kenyatta, Uhuru, 15, 70
  - distribution of title deeds, 108
  - Kikuyu-Kalenjin alliance, 162
  - trial of, 181
- Kenyatta International Conference Centre (KICC), 194
- Kerma
  - description of, 142
  - Ogilgei paired case comparison, 117, 141–142, 149–160
- Kibaki, Mwai, 2, 15, 162
  - caveats on title deeds, 183, 187

- electoral violence in Mauche, 173
- Mauche land rights, 143
- Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 127
- patronage politics of, 220
- Ruto speech about, 188–189
- settlement schemes, 86, 88
- sugar plantations, 137
- trigger events for violence, 193, 194–197
- KICC (Kenyatta International Conference Centre), 194
- Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
- Kikuyu. See also Kenyatta, Jomo
  - in Coast region, 98
  - as ethnic outsiders, 14, 38
  - fear of ethnic others, 273
  - history of land patronage, 73
  - incentives for violence, 175
  - during independence, 80–81
  - injustice narratives, 181, 182–187
  - insecurity narratives, 187–193
  - Jubilee Alliance, 181
  - logic of violence, 182
  - Mau Mau civil war and, 76–78
  - Mungiki and, 206–208
  - Naivasha flower farms paired case comparison, 129–132
  - in Nakuru County, title deeds held, 114–115
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–129
  - population percentage, 65
  - settlement schemes, 88–90
  - Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami paired case comparison, 121–125
  - “uprooting the weeds”, 52
- Kikuyu, in Mauche
  - contentious land narratives, 160–163
  - description of, 140
  - land acquisition processes, 163–165
  - land insecurity, 165–166, 168–169
  - local escalation of violence, 199–204
  - paired case comparison, 121, 141–144, 160–168, 179
  - reaction to 2007 election, 1–2, 3
  - reaction to Kibaki election victory, 173
  - trigger events for violence, 193–199
- Kikuyu, in Ogilgei
  - description of, 140
  - land acquisition processes, 152–155
  - land security, 156–158, 168–169
  - local leadership, 158–160
  - paired case comparison, 117, 141–142, 149–160
  - reaction to 2007 election, 2, 3
- Kilifi County
  - electoral violence in, 213–214
  - group size in logic of violence, 232–233
- Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
- land insecurity in, 233
- similarities with Rift Valley, 214–216
- Kimani, Kihika, 91–92, 121, 144, 154
- Koinage, Mbiu, 122
- Komen, Kibowen, 152–154
- Koros, David Kiptanui, 223
- KPU (Kenya People’s Union), 82
- Kwale County
  - electoral violence in, 213–214
  - group size in logic of violence, 364–66,
  - Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
  - similarities with Rift Valley, 214–216
- Kwale International Sugar Company (KISCOL), 137
- Lake Kenyatta Settlement Scheme, 98
- Lamu County, violence in, 237–240
- land
  - identification with, 29
  - as livelihood source, 27–28
  - state building and, 29
  - as territory, 28–29
- land acquisition processes
  - contentious land narratives and, 144–147
  - “free” land, 145–146
  - local leadership and, 148–149
  - in Mauche, 163–165
  - in Ogilgei, 152–155
  - purchasing land, 145
  - relational land security, 147–148
- Land and Agricultural Bank of Kenya, 90
- Land Buying Companies (LBCs)
  - defined, 8, 60
  - land patronage via, 91–93

- Land Buying Companies (LBCs) (cont.)
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–129
- Land Development and Settlement Board (LDSB), 85
- land equality, 44, 48
  - non-contentious land narratives and, 107
  - qualitative measurement, 115–116
  - Umoja and Belbar paired case comparison, 117–120
- land inequality, 6
  - in Coast region, 215
  - contentious land narratives and, 141, 144–147, 283
  - degrees of, 43–44, 49
  - electoral violence and, 108
  - in Ghana, 292–294
  - in Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
  - at local level, 113–115
  - moderate. See moderate land inequality
  - at national level, 112–113
  - qualitative measurement, 115–116
  - in Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
  - significant, 6, 46–47, 48–49, 283
  - in Tanzania, 290–292
  - Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami paired case comparison, 121–125
- land insecurity
  - in Kilifi County, 233
  - in Mauche, 165–166, 168–169
- land institutions, interview questions, 301–302
- land narratives. See also anti-outsider narrative; contentious land narratives; injustice narratives; insecurity narratives; non-contentious land narratives
  - bargaining power from, 51–52
  - correlation with electoral violence, 176–178
  - defined, 36–37, 141
  - defining and measuring, 109–112
  - discourse provided by, 51
  - in electoral violence theories, 18–19
  - generalization of theory. See generalization of theory
  - group socialization via, 50–51
  - implications for studying, 296–297
  - interview questions, 300–301
  - invader narrative, 110–111
  - justification of violence, 52
  - land security and, 168–169
  - local electoral violence and, 2–3, 6–7
  - local leadership and, 158–160
  - logic of violence and, 52–53, 182, 218–219
  - material and ideational elements, 26
  - mobilization of electoral violence. See electoral violence, mobilization of
  - national versus ethnic citizenship, 110
  - outsiders in Coast region, 233–237
  - paired case comparisons. See paired case comparisons
  - role in electoral violence, 27–30, 35
  - scenarios of, 6
  - title deeds in, 107–108
- land patronage
  - bargaining power from, 51–52
  - claim-making strategies, 227–231
  - in Coast region, 223–227
  - contentious land narratives and, 47–48
  - defined, 47, 221
  - electoral violence and, 17–18
  - in inland region, 70
  - of Kikuyu elders, 76–78
  - LBCs (Land Buying Companies) and, 91–93
  - in Mauche, 163–165
  - mobilization of electoral violence, 54
  - moderate land inequality and, 283–284
  - in Rift Valley, 221–223
  - settlement schemes and, 84–91
  - strength of, 219, 220–231
- land politics. See also land patronage; landlordism
  - during British colonial rule, 72–76
  - Coast versus inland region, 71–72, 98–102
  - during independence, 80–84
  - during Mau Mau civil war, 76–80
  - under Moi, 93–97, 145
- land reform
  - in Coast region, 79–80, 98–102

- “nothing is for free,” 81–84
- Swynnerton Plan, 78–79
- land security
  - interview questions, 300
  - land narratives and, 168–169
  - in Ogilgei, 156–158
  - relational, 147–148
- Land Title Ordinance of 1908*, 74–76
- landed elites, 46–47, 224–225
- landlordism, 108
  - in Coast region, 70, 99–101
  - contentious land narratives and, 48–49
  - defined, 46–47
  - history of terminology, 70–71
  - Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
  - mobilization of electoral violence, 54
  - Naivasha flower farms paired case comparison, 129–132
- LBCs. See Land Buying Companies (LBCs)
- LDSB (Land Development and Settlement Board), 85
- Likia
  - description of, 142–144
  - injustice narratives, 181, 182–187
  - insecurity narratives, 187–193
  - local escalation of violence, 199–204
  - Mauche paired case comparison, 121, 141–144, 160–168, 179
- Likoni, violence in, 217–218
- local electoral violence
  - argument summary, 5–8
  - escalation of, 176, 199–204, 283
  - examining reasons for, 2–5
  - joint production with political elites, 57–59
  - in Kenya 2007 election, map of, 3–5
  - land narratives and, 2–3, 6–7
  - organization of, 7–8
  - trigger events, 197–199
- local leadership
  - in land acquisition process, 148–149
  - land security and, 168–169
  - in Mauche, 166–168
  - in Ogilgei, 158–160
- local-level inequality, 113–115
- logic of violence
  - group size and, 231–233
  - land narratives and, 52–53, 182, 218–219
  - participation in violence and, 174–175, 209
  - political elites and, 55–57
- Luhya, 156–157
- Luo
  - anti-outsider narrative, 186–187
  - Naivasha flower farms paired case comparison, 129–132
- Maasai, 121–125
- majimboism
  - defined, 14
  - in independence land politics, 80–81
  - national citizenship versus, 110
- majoritarian institutions, electoral violence and, 17
- MAS (Million-Acre-Scheme), 85–86
- material accounts of electoral violence, 23–26
- Mathenge, Isaiah, 100, 125, 164
- Mau Forest Complex, 165–166
- Mau Mau civil war, 76–80, 88–90
- Mauche
  - contentious land narratives in, 160–163
  - description of, 140, 142–144
  - injustice narratives, 181, 182–187
  - insecurity narratives, 187–193
  - insider-outsider narrative, 38
  - land acquisition processes in, 163–165
  - land insecurity in, 165–166, 168–169
  - Likia paired case comparison, 121, 141–144, 160–168, 179
  - local escalation of violence, 199–204
  - local leadership in, 166–168
  - national versus ethnic citizenship, 110
  - reaction to 2007 election, 1–2, 3
  - reaction to Kibaki election victory, 173
  - trigger events for violence, 193–199
- methodology, 59–69
  - case selection, 141–144
  - comparative case study, 60–62
  - household-level survey, 62–63
  - interviews and focus groups, 179–181, 298–299

- methodology (cont.)
  - paired case comparisons, list of, 116–117
  - research design and case selection, 64–69
  - socio-economic and demographic variables, 253–254
  - summary of, 8–9
- Mijikenda
  - Arab-Swahili slave trade, 73
  - fear of ethnic others, 273
  - group size in logic of violence, 232–233
  - groups within, 71
  - history of land patronage, 73
  - insider-outsider narrative, 215
  - in Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 133
  - land inequality, 215
  - land reform, 79–80
  - Land Title Ordinance of 1908*, 75–76
  - majimboism, 80–81
  - outsider land narratives, 233–237
  - population percentage, 65, 99, 224
  - in Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 136
- Million-Acre-Scheme (MAS), 85–86
- moderate land inequality, 6, 43–46
  - contentious land narratives and, 47–48, 283
- patronage politics and, 283–284
- qualitative measurement, 116
- Moi, Daniel arap, 81
  - land acquisition in Ogilgei, 154
  - land politics under, 93–97, 145
  - Mauche land rights, 142, 163, 164, 182–183
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–126
  - settlement schemes, 86, 88, 90, 101–102
- motivation. See logic of violence
- Mpeketoni, 237–238
- Mungiki, 206–208
- Mwambao* (Ten Mile Strip), 73–74
- Mwisho wa Lami, 121–125
- Naivasha flower farms paired case comparison, 129–132, 205–206
- Nakuru County. See also Mauche
  - description of, 140
  - electoral constituencies, 142
  - title deeds held, 114–115
- Nakuru County, paired case comparisons
  - Likia and Mauche, 121, 141–144, 160–168, 179
  - Naivasha flower farms, 129–132
  - Ogilgei and Kerma, 117, 141–142, 149–160
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua, 125–129
  - Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami, 121–125
  - Umoja and Belbar, 117–120
- narratives. See also land narratives
  - defined, 36
  - grievances versus, 38–39
  - injustice narratives, 39
  - insecurity narratives, 40
- National Alliance Rainbow Coalition (NARC), 15, 127
- national citizenship, ethnic citizenship versus, 110
- National Land Commission (CNTB), 287
- national-level electoral violence, 317–319
- national-level inequality, 112–113
- Ndadye, Melchior, 286
- Ndorobo. See Ogiek
- neighboring, defined, 107
- Ngala, Ronald, 81
- Ngawataniro Land Buying Company, 91
- Nkurunziza, Pierre, 287
- non-contentious land narratives, 39, 48
  - criteria, 109
  - defined, 141
  - land equality and, 107
  - in Ogilgei, 150–152
  - “nothing is for free,” 81–84
- Ntimama, William Ole, 107, 190, 222–223
- Nyakinyua Co-operative Society (Ltd), 125–129
- Nyerere, Julius, 291
- Odinga, Oginga, 82
- Odinga, Raila, 1, 131, 192, 194, 223
- Ogiek, 142, 164, 167
- Ogilgei
  - description of, 140, 142

- Kerma paired case comparison, 117, 141–142, 149–160
- land acquisition processes in, 152–155
- land security in, 156–158, 168–169
- local leadership in, 158–160
- non-contentious land narratives in, 150–152
- reaction to 2007 election, 2, 3
- Oljorai
  - local trigger events for violence, 197–198
- Nyakinyu paired case comparison, 125–129
- scale shift in violence, 205
- Operation Linda Nchi, 237
- Orange Democratic Movement (ODM) party, 1, 15, 188
- Orma, 237
- outsiders. See also insider-outsider narrative
  - in Coast region, 233–237
  - scale shift in violence, 206
- paired case comparisons
  - Kijipwa Settlement Scheme, 132–135
  - Likia and Mauche, 121, 141–144, 160–168, 179
  - list of, 116–117
  - Naivasha flower farms, 129–132
  - Ogilgei and Kerma, 117, 141–142, 149–160
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua, 125–129
  - Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
  - Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami, 121–125
  - Umoja and Belbar, 117–120
- parastatals, 95–96
- parochial altruism, 265
- participation costs of electoral violence, 25
- Party of National Unity (PNU), 1, 15
- patronage. See land patronage
- Pokomo, 237, 238
- police bias, 202–203
- political competition
  - alternative measures, 315
  - electoral violence and, 252, 256–259
- political elites, 47
  - joint production of violence, 57–59
  - logic of violence and, 55–57
  - mobilization of electoral violence. See electoral violence, mobilization of
  - political trust, 264–265, 268–269, 274–276, 280–281
  - predictors of violence. See individual-level violence, predictors of
  - private violence, defined, 12
  - questions for interviews, list of, 299–304
  - Ramisi Settlement Scheme, 135–138
  - Ramisi Sugar Factory, 136–137
  - relational land security, 147–148
  - research design, 64–69
  - revenge (as reason for violence)
    - local escalation, 199–204
    - scale shift, 204–209
  - Revolutionary Armed Forces of Colombia (FARC), 294
  - Rift Valley
    - electoral violence versus Coast region, 213–214
    - fear of ethnic others, 267, 271–273
    - group size in logic of violence, 232
    - history of violence, 216–218
    - land distribution versus Coast, 64–65
    - land patronage in, 221–223
    - land politics versus Coast region, 212–213
    - political trust, 269
    - similarities with Coast region, 214–216
    - title deeds versus ancestral land claims, 227–231
  - Ruto, William
    - alliance with Uhuru Kenyatta, 162
    - land patronage in Coast region, 223
    - mobilization of electoral violence, 250
    - speech about Kibacki, 188–189
    - title deeds, 191
    - trial of, 181
    - in 2007 election, 1, 194
    - voter suppression, 195
  - Rwandan genocide, 202
  - Sang, Joshua Arap, 249
  - scale shift in violence, 176, 204–209

- secessionist movement in Coast region, 241
- selective violence, 58–59
- Settlement Fund Trustees (SFT), 86
- settlement schemes
  - after independence, 84–91
  - in British colonial rule, 74
  - in Coast region, 98–102
  - data on, 319
  - defined, 60
  - Kijipwa paired case comparison, 132–135
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 125–129
  - Ramisi paired case comparison, 135–138
- significant land inequality, 6, 46–47, 48–49, 283
- sisal estates, 133
- slavery, 73
- social engagement, 265–267, 269, 277–278, 281
- socio-economic variables, 253–254
- Somalia invasion, 237
- sons-of-the-soil conflict, 39, 120
- squatter settlement schemes, 98–99
  - Kijipwa, 132–135
  - Ramisi, 135–138
- stages of violence
  - list of, 175–176, 209–210
  - local escalation, 199–204
  - methodology, 179–181
  - mobilization of electoral violence, 181–193
  - scale shift, 204–209
  - trigger events, 193–199
- state-sponsored violence, defined, 12
- Straus, Scott, 202
- strength of land patronage, 219, 220–231
  - in Coast region, 223–227
  - in Rift Valley, 221–223
  - title deeds versus ancestral land claims, 227–231
- sub-national groups, defined, 37
- sugar plantations, 135–138
- Sultan of Zanzibar, 73–74, 75
- Sultan Palace, 133
- Swynnerton, J. M., 78–79
- Swynnerton Plan, 78–79
- Tana River County, violence in, 237–240
- Tanzania, 290–292
- Ten Mile Strip, 73–74
- Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami paired case comparison, 121–125
- Tipis, Justus Ole, 121
- title deeds
  - ancestral land claims versus, 227–231
  - campaign appeals for, 250–251, 255–256
  - caveats on, 183, 187
  - fear of ethnic others and, 274
  - in land narratives, 107–108
  - Likia and Mauche paired case comparison, 121, 160–163
  - in Nakuru County, 114–115
  - in Ogilgei, 150–152, 156–158
  - Oljorai and Nyakinyua paired case comparison, 127–128
  - Tipis and Mwisho wa Lami paired case comparison, 121–125
  - Umoja and Belbar paired case comparison, 117–120
- tourism, 225
- trigger events for violence, 176, 193–199
  - defined, 193
  - Kibaki election, 194–197
  - local events, 197–199
- trust, political, 264–265, 268–269, 274–276, 280–281
- Tutsi, 286–287
- Ujamaa policy, 291–292
- Umoja, 117–120
- “uprooting the weeds,” 52
- vertical inequality, 41
- villagization, 291–292
- violence. See also electoral violence
  - appeal to, 248–250, 255, 279
  - under Kenyatta, 96
  - under Moi, 96–97
  - new forms in Coast region, 241
  - in Tana River and Lamu counties, 237–240

Index	357
Vipingo Ridge, 134
Vipingo Settlement Scheme, 98
voter suppression, 55–56, 195–196
witches, 188–189
Wood, Elisabeth, 196
World Bank, 86
Zanzibar, 291	